A Big Damage Suit.

Matthew Gering departed yesterday evening for Beatrice, Neb., where he appears as attorney for the plaintiff, in the case of Mrs. Jennie Burns vs. The Paddock Hotel Co. of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Burns were theatrical people and were stopping at the above hotel and during the night Mr. Burns arose and pad out the rear of the hotel, which he thought was a door but proved to be a window, and was killed. Mrs. Burns demands damages on the grounds that there should have been lights in this portion of the building. The case will be hotly contested and will occupy the court's attention the balance of the present week.

Left for Boise City, Idaho.

Noel B. Rawls, who has served in the capacity of local reporter for the Journal for the past fifteen months, departed this afternoon for Boise City, Idaho, where he goes to accept a similar position on the Daily State Capital, of which Milton D. Polk, formerly editor of the News of this city, is managing editor. Mr. Rawls is a young man of energy and his qualifications are such as to fit him for the position he goes to accept. His associations with the Journal force have been of that nature as to endear him to all, and it is more like parting with a relative than anything else. Noel possesses the faculty of making friends wherever he goes, and while the Journal regrets to part with him, his condition, we feel will be greatly benefited by the change. The best wishes of the Journal force, from devil to editor, attend him in his new home.

A Good Law.

One of the best laws passed by the recent legislature and approved by the governor, is that introduced by Representative C. E. Noyes of this county. The law provides for the use of a road drag on public highways. The road overseer of each road district is authorized to have work done on the public highways by use of the road drag to be approved by said overseer. The overseer shall cause all public roads to be improved giving precedence where necessary to main traveled roads between towns and cities. When necessary in his judgment such officer may upon one day's notice, written or verbal, call out any able bodied man under fifty years of age or teams owned by any person in the district as he may direct, not exceeding two days at any one time, good wages to be paid such men and teams. Any person failing without good cause such as sickness or physical incapacity to obey such notice, shall forfeit the sum of $10. Ten per cent of the road funds shall be set aside for use in keeping in repair and dragging all highways along which United States rural free delivery mail routes have been established. Any road overseer who shall deliver to any person his receipt giving credit for work done when such person to whom such receipt is issued, does not actually work, such overseer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $50 for every such receipt issued. Approved April 6.

Celebrate Thirtieth Anniversary.

It was a very jolly crowd of neighbors and friends that gathered at the home of John Gauer, near Cedar Creek, on Saturday evening, April 29, it being the 30th anniversary of Mr. Gauer. The surprise to John was complete in every respect, and as soon as he understood the meaning of so many coming in he went right in with the guests to have a good time. After enjoying the many pleasantries of the occasion and partaking of refreshments, the guests departed for their homes feeling "that it was good to be there," and wishing Mr. Gauer the return of many more such happy birthdays.

Those who were present to enjoy the occasion were the following: C. A. Gauer and family, Philip Schaeffer and family, Anton Meisinger sr. and family, George Lutz and family, Adam Meisinger and family, Ollie, Emil and Louie Meisinger, Louie, Willie, Henry and Adam Heil, Frank and Peter Sitzman, Henry Fornoff, Jeff Salsberg, Fred Schmaterer, Philip Theiroff, Mattie and Mary Meisinger, Pearl Moore, Mary Sitzman, Elsie Inhelder, Anna Heil, Ella Bender, Anna, Emma and Lucy Gauer.

Must Wait Six Months.

Judge Sutton of Omaha has hit upon an effective plan to prevent divorcees of a few days from defeating the will of the Nebraska law. The law forbids remarriage within six months, but those that are divorcees have found it convenient to slip over to Council Bluffs and have the knot tied where no such restriction exists. Judge Sutton now refuses to sign a decree granted in his court until after the expiration of six months, making it impossible for immediate remarriage without committing bigamy.

PINK AND WHITE WEDDING

This Time Cupid Captures one of Plattsmouth's Most Charming Young Ladies

THE HAPPY COUPLE ARE WELL MATED

The Ceremony Occurred at St. Luke's Church Last Evening in the Presence of Numerous Friends

"Bless their united love and faith. Thus keep them one in Three; Temptations never let take place To make them disagree."

One of the most beautiful weddings that ever occurred in Plattsmouth was the marriage of Mr. John Casper Thygeson of Nebraska City, and Miss Minnie White, at St. Luke's Episcopal church, last evening, Canon Burgess, rector, pronouncing the beautiful words that united the two happy hearts.

Promptly at half-past eight the bridal party entered the church in the following order, headed by the following bridesmaids and groomsmen:

Miss Jeanette Morgan and Henry Goss, the lady attired in a gown of white Swiss and lace; hat of white chiffon, white plumes and pink roses, and carrying pink carnations.

Miss Florence White and Mr. Allan B. Wilson, of Nebraska City, Miss White wearing a white Swiss gown and lace; white chiffon hat, pink roses and plumes, carrying pink carnations.

Miss Bertha White, of Omaha, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Thomas Roddy, of Nebraska City, the lady donned in embroidered Swiss and lace, made princess, wearing white chiffon hat with plumes and roses, carrying carnations.

Miss Mamie Thygeson, sister of the groom, and Mr. Henry Gering, Miss Thygeson wearing a gown of white silk chiffon and point lace, and hat of white chiffon with plumes and orchids.

Then came Miss Antonia Kessler, of Lincoln, maid of honor, gown in exquisite white embroidered organza over pink silk, wearing a hat of Battenburg, crown of pink roses and ribbon.

The party was followed by the ring-bearer, little Miss Margaret Dunelan, of Weeping Water, a niece of the bride, attired in a white embroidered Swiss dress, point lace bertha and chiffon, pink stockings and slippers, bearing the ring on a calla lily.

Next in order came the bride, leaning on her father's arm, beautifully gowned in sheer French lawn, with Valenciennes lace draped with carnations, erwon of pearls, carrying bridal roses.

The bridal party proceeded to the altar, where they were met by the groom and best man, Mr. Ralph White, brother of the bride. Both gentlemen were attired in full dress.

Miss Kittle Cummins, who presided at the organ, played Lohengren's wedding march in her own sweet manner. Miss Cummins wore a dress of white silk, hat of white lace and plumes.

After the ceremony at the church, a quiet reception of near friends was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the happy couple departed on No. 13 for Omaha, and from there east, where they will visit the principal points of interest, including the Jamestown exposition.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. White of Plattsmouth, where she was reared to womanhood, and is loved for her many fine traits of character. In fact "no one knew her but to love her," is fully verified in her every day walks of life. She is a most charming young lady, and the groom is very fortunate in securing such a prize.

The groom is a young man whose character is above reproach, and is highly esteemed by all who know him. For several years he was a resident of this city, being a clerk in F. G. Fricke's drug store. He is now engaged in the drug business at Nebraska City, where his friends is legion, and where Mr. and Mrs. Thygeson will be at home to their friends after June 12.

The Journal joins the many friends of the bride and groom in wishing them a long life of usefulness and may prosperity ever attend them.

Slightly in Error.

Ed Petersen of Havelock, who has been in Plattsmouth for the past few days owing to the serious illness of his mother, called at the Journal office yesterday evening, after the publication of the paper, in response to the article headed "Why He Was Not Here," referring to his nephew, Geo. Brown. Mr. Petersen wished us to state that a portion of the article was an error where it stated that "Mr. Brown was not here to accompany his mother's remains to Lincoln." Mr. Petersen says Mr. Brown was here and not only accompanied the remains to their late home in Lincoln, but also to the old home in Indiana, where his mother was laid to rest. The article was in no way detrimental to Mr. Brown as it appeared in the Lincoln paper, and was no more than what any other young man would do under the circumstances. The Journal cheerfully corrects the error as stated above.

TO CUT OFFICIAL PIE SOON

Attorney Rawls Declined the Position of Private Secretary to Gov. Sheldon

There is one good trait in Governor Sheldon, possessed by but few in official position, and that is he does not forget his friends in his home county when it comes to dishing out political pie. In speaking of those who are liable to fare well at the state lunch counter, the Lincoln News says:

It is becoming pretty generally known what Gov. Sheldon has in view regarding some of the appointments at his disposal, although no announcements have yet come from the executive office. Regarding the post of private secretary to the governor it may be stated on good authority that A. B. Allen, the present incumbent, will continue to fill it indefinitely. Some observant people thought when Secretary Allen moved his family back to Tecumseh, it was a sign that he would soon retire, but Gov. Sheldon has not shown any intention to make a change and has not even considered naming a successor to Mr. Allen it is said. At the outset of his term, he did offer the position of private secretary in turn to W. H. Hayward of Nebraska City and County Attorney C. A. Rawls of Plattsmouth, but both men declined and since then the governor has not bothered himself to find a new private secretary. The rumor that he was about to pick a Lincoln man for the place seems to be without good foundation.

Burrett Bush of Omaha, is still nominally the head of the state labor and statistical bureau, but his resignation has been placed in the governor's hands. It will undoubtedly be accepted and everybody expects that Don C. Despain, who has been serving as chief clerk of that department, will be given Bush's job, the legislature having been unkind enough to abolish his own by taking away the salary. State house wisecracks say that Despain's appointment will date to the first of next year. In the meantime, Senator Norris Brown may help him to a place in the federal service.

Fisher Adjudged Insane.

The board of insanity last evening examined Frank Fisher, who has been confined under surveillance at the Perkins house for about two weeks, in regard to his sanity and adjudged him a subject for treatment at the asylum for insane in Lincoln. The patient was taken to Lincoln this morning by Sheriff Quinton.

Fisher is the man who was struck by a train while he was walking on the tracks near Oreadpolis. After being confined at the Perkins house to recover from the injuries received, he became troublesome, crawling down stairs and endeavoring to get away, while still badly crippled up as a result of the collision with a Burlington freight. He was placed under vigilance but during a night last week, managed to get a window open and was in the act of throwing himself to the ground, when Johnnie Fitzpatrick grappled with him until assistance arrived.

Several months after the street fair held in this city last July, he brought suit against the police to recover $5000 damages for being arrested and incarcerated in the county bastille for fifteen hours. The action was subsequently settled and dismissed and the man apparently forgotten until he tried to blockade a freight.

The Man From Missouri.

Through the courtesy of the Nebraska City News, we are the recipient of the latest advertising literature of the Nebraska Business University. President Toland is not only a liberal advertiser, but he is also past master of the art of preparing convincing advertisements. The Man from Missouri is the clearest case of "show me" ever offered by a school. It is good reading from "kiver to kiver" and like all advertising issued by the Toland schools is free from the bragging, unreasonable claims and promises for which most business college literature is noted. It will pay any one to send for it and can be secured free of cost from the Nebraska Business University, Nebraska City, Neb.

From Father to Son.

It seems to us that the usual practice at present is that the young man reared in comfort, wants to spend as much or more than his father, without trying to earn any money. He wants to begin life where his father left off forgetting that the father gathered his wealth by labor and thrift and that he was sustained by robust health. Dissipation in youth is the best one. Those who had no opportunity to build up their body and those whose digestive organs often refuse to work, should use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It will within a reasonable time give perfect strength to them and will keep them in condition to take the risk and responsibilities of our modern life. Use it in all cases where your appetite or your bodily strength is diminishing, where your complexion is pale, your mind tired. At drugstores, Jos. Triner, 799 South Ashland Ave., Chicago, Illinois, U. S. Serial No. 346. Guaranteed under the Foods and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

FATHER WAS VERY ANGRY

The Father of Miss Myrtle Lammert in Plattsmouth Looking For Her

ALSO THE SHERIFF OF CUSTER COUNTY

Father Claims the Girl Was Not of Age and he Wishes Philpot Punished

It will be remembered by the Journal readers that George Philpot and Miss Myrtle Lammert, both of Custer county, Nebraska, appeared at the county judge's office last Saturday and demanded a marriage license, young Philpot giving his age as 21, and the girl 18. The girl looked entirely too young for the age given, and when questioned in regard to the same she made affidavit to that effect, and the license was granted, and the knot was tied by Judge Archer, and they went on their way rejoicing. They have not since been heard of, but the girl's angry father was not so easily satisfied, and in company with the sheriff of Custer county appeared in Plattsmouth yesterday in search of the runaway pair, with a warrant for Philpot's arrest on a charge of kidnapping, and was somewhat disappointed to find that the young couple had disappeared.

Young Philpot had been in Plattsmouth several days prior to the marriage, and claimed to be working in the B. & M. shops, and Miss Lammert made her first appearance here on last Thursday, and applied for a position at the Plattsmouth Hotel, where she worked from Thursday to Saturday, and both parties took their departure the following evening.

The young couple were accompanied by one George Taylor, who also lives in Custer county, who was immediately arrested on the same charge when he returned home and was only released, according to the sheriff's story, upon a bond of $2000.00.

Mr. Lammert says his daughter was but seventeen years of age, and he seems bent on finding the newly made husband and will exert every possible means of sending the young man to the penitentiary. Perhaps he will change his mind when he returns home—it certainly would be the better judgment.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that daily action of the bowels is absolutely essential to recovery. Keep your liver active and your bowels regular by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.
