MRS. M.M. MARSHALL

Catarrh of Digestive Organs and Bowels.

MRS. MARY M. MARSHALL, Tippecanoe, Mo., writes:
"I suffered three years with catarrh of the digestive organs and bowels. I was unable to find relief, until as a last resort I was induced to try Peruna."
"I began the use of Peruna when I was confined to the bed and can say that I experienced benefit from the first dose."
"I have taken five bottles in all and believe that I am cured of my trouble."
"I am enjoying as good health as an old lady of my age could expect. My age is 77."
"I will always feel grateful to you for your grand medicine and kind advice and trust that many others may be as greatly benefited as I have been."

MISS ANNA CARSTEN

Miss Anna Carsten, Clayton, Ill., writes:
"Your medicine, Peruna, did me so much good. I believe I should have been dead by this time if I had not used it."
"I am feeling so well now and have no trouble with my stomach. I have not taken any medicine for four or five months."
"If I am ever troubled with anything of the kind again, I shall take nothing but Peruna. I can cheerfully recommend it to my friends."

A Severe Cough.

Mrs. Emma Martin, Odessa, Mo., writes:
"I cannot thank you enough for curing me. For two years I doctored my cough which cost me many dollars, but still I seemed to get worse. My cough was so bad I could not sleep."
"Finally I purchased a bottle of Peruna. I took it according to directions, and in a short while I felt better, and after I had taken a second bottle I felt entirely well."
"After the use of six bottles I feel that I am cured, and therefore recommend this grand medicine to all who suffer with a cough as I did."

A Household Remedy.

Mrs. Cella Eibling, R.R. No. 3, Payne, Ohio, writes:
"I have better health now than I have had for years, and am fleshier than I have ever been. I am so thankful to you for what you have done for me."
"I cannot praise Peruna enough. I keep it in the house. You have my sincere thanks for your advice."
"My husband is taking Peruna, now. He had such a cough he thought he had consumption, but he is getting better."
"He has taken it only one week and it has done him good."

MISS EVA SCHELLE

Miss Eva Schelle, 127 N. Quincy St., Topeka, Kas., writes:
"I unhesitatingly recommend Peruna as a splendid specific for catarrhal affections. I was a sufferer with this trouble off and on for a number of years and each fresh cold added to the difficulty."
"Finally I began taking Peruna for a cold and was glad to note that it was ridding me of the catarrh also."
"I continued to use it faithfully and the result was a complete cure in a very few months."

MRS. CHRISTINA CLOW

Mrs. Christina Clow, 411 E. Platte Ave., Colorado Springs, Col., writes:
"I have taken Peruna off and on for six years and have found it very beneficial in a great many ways."
"I took it for a cough and a cold, also for catarrh of the head, and it cured me. I took it for a tonic and it gave me strength. I have every reason to speak well of your medicine."

FAITH THAT CANNOT BE SHAKEN.

Despite everything that sensational magazines may say, the women of the United States continue to have faith in Peruna.
These women know a great deal more about Peruna than the editors who have, for selfish purposes, written against it. These women have tried Peruna in their families. They have taken it themselves. They know it will help them.
They have suffered from various ailments, and Peruna has come to their relief, even when the doctors failed to cure them.
Such women cannot be convinced by any editorial spasm that their favorite household remedy is a humbug. Peruna goes right on in its conquest over disease. Its fame is spreading all over the earth.
Especially among American women is Peruna a beloved household remedy. It is entirely useless for anyone to try to dissuade them from the results of their own experience.
Peruna is a remedy for the mucous membranes. It therefore has a beneficial effect upon the internal organs of the body that are lined by mucous membranes.
For various chronic climatic diseases Peruna is a reliable remedy.
The testimonials concerning Peruna are given in the language of the people. We do not change or add to anything they may say concerning it.
The evidence is overwhelming that Peruna is a safe, reliable, invaluable remedy for the household.
Headache and Backache.
Mrs. Franziska Gaengel, Dominion 1, Old Bridgeport Mines, C. B., Canada, writes:
"I thank you for the benefit which I derived from Peruna. There may be many who are suffering from the same disease that I had, for which they have not yet been able to find the correct remedy."
"For the benefit of such persons I wish to say that I suffered with headache and backache and had a severe cough. I was in bed several weeks and could not do my work. I tried many remedies in vain."
"Then I consulted Dr. Hartman, who advised me to take Peruna and gave me further instructions, which I carefully observed."
"I felt better after taking the first bottle. I have taken several bottles now and am feeling so well that I can do all my work."
"I will never be without Peruna again, and recommend it to all."

Catarrh of the Stomach.
Mrs. Mary Allen, Route 6, Franklin, Tenn., writes:
"I am glad to be able to tell you that I am well of catarrh of the stomach, and am sincerely thankful to you for your advice."
"If it had not been for Peruna I would never have been well. I had three physicians. One of them told my husband that he could not cure me."
"I had been sick about nine months when a friend asked me to try Peruna to gratify her; so I commenced taking it. I can eat and walk and work."
"Everybody says I look as well as I ever did. Oh, you don't know how thankful I do feel to you! I have got several other people to take Peruna. I praise it to everybody."

HANDSOMELY ENTERTAINED

The Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Leyda the Scene of a Happy Gathering Last Evening.

THE EVENT WAS A MOST ENJOYABLE ONE

Notwithstanding the Unique Manner in Which the Visitors Made Their Appearance

Had some unsuspecting individual strayed into the vicinity of the residence of John M. Leyda last night, they might have been disturbed by the weird and ghostly apparitions which were to be seen flitting about the place. John himself, threatened to get out an injunction until he found that the spirits were not amenable to the laws of this world; he then surrendered gracefully. The occasion was the bi-monthly social gathering of the Presbyterian ladies auxiliary. They came in all sorts of costumes, representing every character imaginable, from the base ball star to the Irish washerwoman, and from eight to ten o'clock they continued to come.
After the pleasure of guessing the characters impersonated by various ones in attendance, the party engaged in an old fashioned spelling match, in which Mrs. J. H. Salsbury proved her superiority as a speller. Music and most appetizing refreshments followed in order, and the company dispersed, having spent a most delightful evening.

Mr. Leyda's home in one of beauty and displays what can be accomplished by a little persistence and taste. Those who knew it as the Bennett property would never recognize it under that name now. Some pieces of his own cabinet making were objects of interest to those who have taste in that direction. May the home be opened often.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found it at Last.

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—ELDER JOHN T. ONGLEY, Rootville, Pa. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. T. Fried.

Hearings in County Court.

A hearing on the petition to probate the will of Mrs. Martha Holmes, deceased, was had, and the instrument admitted to probate. The final hearing on the claim of Alice White against the estate of Roba White was had this afternoon.

In regard to the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamilton of Weeping Water, a hearing was had in order to determine what should be done with them. The witnesses examined were Mrs. John Hutcheson, Mrs. Frank Cappin, Dr. Butler, Mrs. Shanklin and H. D. Reed, all of Weeping Water. After hearing the evidence the court turned the eldest child, Alexander, over to Sheriff Quinton, who was instructed to place him in the state institution for the feeble minded, while the other three, Ethel, Amanda and Anna, were placed in charge of Supt. Quivey of the Nebraska Children's Home, who took them to Omaha this afternoon. The children have not been properly cared for, the father driving the mother from home and not providing the children with clothing or food.

Married in Council Bluffs.

The Journal notes in the Council Bluffs department of the Omaha World Herald, that a marriage license was issued yesterday to Rufus W. Wheeler and Lena L. Becker, both of Weeping Water, aged respectively 21 and 22. The bride was divorced from her former husband, Joseph Peden, at a recent term of the district court of Cass county on the charge of desertion.

In The Supreme Court.

In the matter of Seeley vs. Ritchey, the motion for rehearing was overruled.

In the matter of the First National Bank of Plattsmouth vs. Gibson, the motion to advance was sustained, and cause set for hearing June 18, 1907.

Be Right and Do Right.

The eternal principle of truth lies in living right and doing right. It may require effort at times to live right, but just as surely as that "truth crushed to earth shall rise again," just so surely will the eternal principle of right finally prevail. Time and again wrong has temporarily triumphed, but finally second sober thought asserted itself and right finally prevailed. Even the laws of our land have at times been set at naught by designing or ignorant officials, but appeals to higher tribunals have resulted in asserting their authority. And higher tribunals do not always mean those established by legislative enactments. The people themselves constitute the highest tribunal in the land. Their will is the supreme law, because all granted authority ultimately comes from them. Where authority comes from other sources than the common people, autocracy must prevail. We make these observations because we have been criticised on account of an article that appeared in this paper last week wherein the application of the parole law in this country was criticised. Observation and experience in the affairs of men has given us ideas of right and wrong that make us positive in our convictions. Criticism, however, well directed, can not and will not efface from memory the principle of right and wrong as applied to the welfare of the community. Nor will excuses and subterfuges hide from view the pretense of those in whose hands is placed the public welfare.

Discharged from Hospital.

District Clerk Robertson received a letter today from J. T. Hay, superintendent of the asylum for the insane at Lincoln, notifying him that Bertha Ohlberking of Center precinct, an inmate of that institution who was paroled on Oct. 13, 1906, has been discharged from the custody of the hospital.

Funeral of Grand Master Workman.

A special from Shelton, Neb., the home of the late Grand Master O. J. Van Dyke, under date of April 17, gives the following in reference to arrival of the remains at his late home and the funeral:

"The body of O. J. Van Dyke, grand master workman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, was brought here on a train this afternoon from Omaha, escorted by a degree team from the Omaha lodges and also the state grand officers. The train was met by a large delegation of the two Workmen lodges of this place and the body taken to the family residence, where it will remain until tomorrow morning, when at 9 o'clock a brief service will be held at the home, after which the body will be taken to Grand Island and buried under the auspices of the order."

"The family has a son and daughter now buried there. The large number of beautiful floral pieces, among them one from the business men of the town, attest in part the high esteem in which Mr. Van Dyke was held, and the entire community deeply sympathize with the widow and daughters in their sad bereavement."

A Calf With Three Nostrils.

The Leader-Echo of Elmwood is responsible for the following: "C. F. Hite of near Alvo, called at the Leader-Echo office today and told us something that might be of interest to our readers. Thoroughbred stock in this country is supposed to be born free from deformities, but Mr. Hite has a week-old calf that would properly be called a monstrosity, having three nostrils and breathes freely out of the odd one which is located between the natural two. The calf is a three-quarter blood Red Poll."

THOUGHTFUL THINKS

Here's freedom to him that would read.
Here's freedom to him that would write.
There's none ever feared the truth should be heard
But they whom the truth would indict.
—Robert Burns.

"Give me liberty, or give me death," has been changed by the great commoner, W. J. Bryan, to "Give me liberty and life." That's the talk.

Young Teddy Roosevelt is said to abhor the limelight to which his every act is subjected. He is different in that respect from his distinguished father.

It is rather an anticlimax that the mysteries and romances of the Kentucky feuds should have been laid bare by just one ordinary man named John Smith.

With ugly charges in court and its present ownership resting in the Lincoln Journal, the record of the Nebraska Independent sounds like that of a lovely "reform" organ, doesn't it? —Lincoln Star.

The lady typewriter who did 2,445 words in thirty minutes is a star expert, but she must be as ugly as the devil. No pretty stenographer could ever find time to do that much in half an hour.

Some people are so sordid and selfish that no appeal for aid ever touches them. Evidently when they pass away they expect to be fenced off in a little corner lot by themselves, whether it be above or below.

Senator Stone says he will not assert the president told an untruth, but he does declare that Mr. Harriman's letter was "very convincing." The Missouri statesman is following Mr. Roosevelt's injunction to "walk softly."

The governor vetoed the bill providing a penalty for neglecting to cut weeds. That was the proper thing to do. Under the child labor law some farmer might have offended against the law by setting a boy under 16 to cutting weeds. Weeds and loafers are the future crop of Nebraska.

Rural Delivery Pointers.

You will be doing your mail carrier a great favor if you always stamp your mail before putting same in box, or use government stamped envelopes and always put return upon left hand corner. This will guarantee delivery or return of letter.

If you should not happen to have stamps or stamped envelopes wrap the amount up in a paper, remembering that in cold weather if the money is put in the box loose, the carrier has to take off his gloves or mittens to get hold of the pennies.

Always put stamp upon the upper right hand corner. If you should spoil a government stamped envelope your carrier or postmaster will redeem it with stamps or postal cards.

When addressing a letter to one who is not a regular patron of a rural route or postoffice you should mark on the envelope in whose care the letter or package should go.

In addressing your letters do not write above the middle of the envelope, as the address may be partly blurred by being struck with the post-marking stamp.

In regard to boxes help your carrier by having a good one in a good easy place to drive up to, and always have your mail ready.

If you have visitors who are expecting mail, you should give the carrier their names.

Any mail matter deposited in box is subjected to ordinary postage rates. Packages should be well wrapped and securely tied, and all valuable letters and packages should be registered which costs 8 cents in addition to regular postage. This insures safe delivery and return receipts.

The mail boxes are protected by the government; any one tampering with them not interested should be reported at once to your carrier or postmaster.

Launch Skiff on River.

A row boat was launched upon the waters of the "Old Muddy" yesterday afternoon by Grovernor Travis, Frank Smith and Raymond Travis. The craft was christened Shamrock 1, and leaked so rapidly that the crew were compelled to head in for land, where an exciting time was had when one of them unloaded, causing the vessel to take water and upset. Two of the young men were precipitated into about a foot of water, and after their fortunate escape the boat was moored to the bank to soak for a few days.
