No Bounty on Wolves.

In reply to a communication addressed to the state auditor in regard to the payment of bounty on wolves, County Clerk Rosencrans received the following, which no doubt will save many inquiries regarding the matter: LINCOLN, April 1, 1907. DEAR SIR: Relative to payment of bounty on wolves, we desire to advise you that this department will be unable to draw warrants against this fund, as there is no appropriation provided for their payment. This applies to claims already vouchered and that may be vouchered during the next two years. It would save this department and yourself many inquiries if you would publish these facts in your county papers as a news item. Yours Very Truly, E. M. SEARL, JR., State Auditor.
