

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Henry Creamer, of near Murray, was in town today.

Mrs. Andy Seybert of Cullom was a Plattsmouth visitor today.

Peter Meisinger, wife and daughter of Cedar Creek were in the city today. County Assessor Teegarden went to Weeping Water this morning to spend Sunday at home.

Postmaster A. L. Baker of Murray was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth today.

J. M. Meisinger and wife and daughter, Miss Ida, were passengers for Omaha this morning to spend the day.

John Lohnes and son, C. E. Lohnes, of Louisville were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth today.

Commissioner Friedrich and Sheriff Quinton went down to Nehawka today to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sheldon.

By their attorney, Byron Clark, the heirs of the Peter Gruber estate file their petition for settlement in the county judge's office today.

The Women's Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. T. P. Livingston at two o'clock in place of three as previously announced.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stander and daughter, who have been visiting at the home of her son George, west of Plattsmouth, returned to their home in Louisville today.

Wendell Hill and wife from near Cedar Creek, one of the boss Red Polled cattle men of Cass county, was looking after some business matters in the county seat today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomason, from near Mynard, came in this morning to take the train for Omaha. They were not aware of the changes in the late time card, and arrived too late for No. 19.

Mrs. Roe Hinton, of near Mynard, was in Plattsmouth today and while here called at the Journal office and renewed for her paper, also for the copy she sends to her son at St. Joe, Missouri.

W. F. Gillespie, of Mynard, was in the city last evening. Billy says he was compelled to shut down the elevator on account of the large quantity of grain on hand ready for shipment, and is unable to get it out.

Mrs. I. S. White departed this afternoon for Surprise, Neb., where she was called by a message this morning announcing the sudden death of Mr. White's brother's wife. The message gave no particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Eggleston, of Murdock filed papers with the county judge today for the adoption of an infant child from the Omaha home. The little one's name is Lillian Soulliere, and while it has been in Mr. and Mrs. Eggleston's care for the past year, but the proper adoption papers were never issued. A hearing will be had on next Monday.

Mrs. Sam Smith, from near Rock Bluffs, took her departure this afternoon for South Dakota, where she will join her husband and travel with him through the west the coming summer or the greater part thereof. Mr. Smith represents a wholesale jewelry house, and has a large territory to cover.

E. K. Parmele went to Omaha this afternoon where he will consult Dr. Davis, in regard to the trouble that has caused Mr. Parmele's sickness during the past few months. The old gentleman has been falling for the past few months, and has been a sufferer with some kind of bladder trouble. He has hopes of regaining his health without an operation. He was accompanied by C. C. Parmele and Dr. Livingston.

J. R. Sanders, who has been working at carpentering the past six weeks at Walt Hill, Thurston county, Nebraska, returned home for a few days on account of the shortage of material. The town was started last May, and now it has 500 inhabitants. Houses going up as fast as the material can be shipped in to erect them.

Mrs. H. D. Travis is in receipt of a letter from her daughter, Miss Helen, who has for the past four weeks been teaching in the public school at West Point, Neb., in which Miss Helen states that she has been elected assistant principal of the High school at an increase of salary for the coming term. This will be very welcome news to Miss Helen's many home friends who will be glad to learn of her rapid advancement in school work.

From Saturday's Daily.

Louie Puls, of near Murray, was here today.

Mrs. James Allison, of near Murray, was a Plattsmouth visitor today.

Frank Smith went down to Union this morning to visit his mother over Sunday.

J. M. Barkhurst, of Union, was in Plattsmouth to look after some business matters.

W. W. Hamilton, of Murray, was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth today.

W. C. Carraher and Tom Barnum, of Union, were in Plattsmouth today looking after some legal matters.

Wm. Puls and John Kreager, both friends of the Journal, were in the city today and paid their respects to the Journal.

Mrs. Chauncey Doty, of Pacific Junction, was in Plattsmouth today, and while here called and renewed for her copy of the Journal.

Prof. C. F. Taylor, Paul Current of Omaha and Misses Christene and Rosa Schaffer of Nehawka, were guests of County Superintendent Gambie and wife today.

Harry Graves will return to his home in Union tonight. The Journal regrets to part with Harry, as he is an excellent compositor, ready and willing to do his work, and he has the best wishes of the entire force for his future.

Mrs. A. F. Seybert, who went to Omaha yesterday to visit her sister, Miss Keil, who is in the hospital in that city, returned last evening and reports her sister improving greatly, and that she will soon be able to return home.

From Monday's Daily.

O. W. Zaar came in from South Bend to look after some business matters today.

Frank Anderson, of Pacific Junction, was looking after some business matters here today.

John Kaffenberger and J. P. Tritsch, residing west of Plattsmouth, were among the passengers for Council Bluffs this morning.

Jacob Fleishman and Jim Berry of Elmwood are in Plattsmouth today, coming over to take out their second naturalization papers.

George Spangler and wife returned to their home in Lincoln this morning after a Sunday visit with Mr. Spangler's parents west of town.

Joe Johnson received a letter from his son, Jay, who resides in St. Joseph, announcing that his youngest child had just undergone a successful operation for appendicitis, and was recovering nicely.

Rev. Houlgate received a call this morning from the Seybert home west of town, to see Uncle Jacob Seybert, who has been sick for some time, which indicates that the old gentleman is in a pretty serious condition.

F. A. Neuman, of South Bend, was in Plattsmouth today and took out his final naturalization papers. Mr. Neuman, it seems has resided in this country long enough to be released from this task, as he has resided here for the past twenty-five years, and merely neglected this matter.

Reno Moore closed a deal last Saturday whereby he purchased a dwelling property in South Park. The property is located on lot 3, in Clark's addition to the city, and was purchased of the Plattsmouth Loan and Building association.

Chas. Guthman and H. R. Neitzel returned from their North Dakota trip Saturday evening. Both gentlemen are well pleased with that part of the country, but did not invest in any of the soil. Mr. Neitzel, wife and two children departed this afternoon for their home in Murdock.

James E. Wood of Nehawka left Sunday night at 10:18 for Portland, Oregon, where he will visit for a month with his brother, Oscar. He will stop on his way at Denver, Colorado, to visit his parents. He will eventually go to Alberta, Canada and take up some land.

Prof. C. H. Taylor, principal of the Springfield schools, was in the city Saturday, and made the Journal a brief visit. We found Mr. Taylor to be a most genial gentleman and we were pleased to meet him. His home is near Union, this county, and he is favorably spoken of as the republican candidate for district clerk.

Kodol For Indigestion.
Relieves sour stomach, palpitation of the heart. Digests what you eat!

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

From Tuesday's Daily

C. E. Lohnes of Louisville was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth today.

O. A. Davis, the Murray hardware man, was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth today.

Robert Jameson, assessor of Weeping Water precinct, was in Plattsmouth today on official business.

W. M. Stottler, of near Union, was in Plattsmouth today and gave the Journal a brief call, and while here renewed his subscription for another year.

In county court today a decree of adoption was entered in the case of Lillian Soulliere, who was adopted from the home in Omaha by O. H. Eggleston, of Murdock.

George Stohlman and sister, Miss Amelia, were in the city today settling up the estate of their brother Henry, deceased, and Miss Amelia becomes owner of the 80-acre farm left by the deceased brother.

Miss Marjorie Agnew departed this afternoon for Lincoln, accompanied by Miss Baker, and tomorrow they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Parmele and all start on their westward journey for California.

J. Stendyke went to Omaha this afternoon where he expects to undergo an operation for the cataract that has formed on his eye. The old gentleman has made several trips to the city of late for this purpose, but the injured member has never been in proper condition for an operation. He hopes that it may be removed today.

Fred Ossenkop of Louisville, was in Plattsmouth today.

W. S. Soper is looking after business matters in the metropolis today.

Chas. Spence and Wm. Ossenkop of Louisville, were county seat visitors today.

John Cambell and C. Kleiser, of near South Bend, were Plattsmouth visitors today.

Mrs. C. E. Carroll and Miss. Daisey Buck went to Plattsmouth today to attend the circus.

J. C. Knob and John Wunderlich, of near Nehawka, were business visitors in Plattsmouth today.

A. M. Holmes of Murray, came last evening to spend a few days with Plattsmouth relatives.

Matthew Gering returned from Beatrice yesterday evening, where he had been on legal business.

Wm. Slater has moved his family from the Boeck building on Sixth and Main streets, to the rooms over the Holy store.

John Durman came in from Cedar Creek this morning to attend the circus. John is working this season for J. H. Norris.

Mrs. Chas. F. Kraft who has been visiting the past five weeks with friends in Fairheld and Creston, Ia., returned home yesterday.

Henry Tartsch and wife of McCook, who are visiting Plattsmouth relatives and friends, were among the passengers for Omaha this morning.

Everything in spring wearing apparel at Fanger's department store. We are prepared to show you the newest and best line in the history of our store.

The semi-monthly dancing club of this city gave a May dance last evening at Coates hall. Several invited couples were present and a social time was enjoyed by all.

G. H. Abel of Havelock, came in last evening for a few days' visit with Plattsmouth friends. Glen is working in the B. & M. shops at Havelock, and this is his first layoff for some time.

Park Chriswiser and two sons came to Plattsmouth this morning to attend the Campbell Bros. circus—that is the boys came up for the circus—Park did not attend.

Mrs. John McNurlin returned home this morning from Cedar Creek, where she has been for the past five weeks, at the bedside of her father, Jacob Seybert, who died at his home yesterday.

Miss Caroline Sherman, who has been for the past few days assisting in the millinery rush at Fanger's department store, returned to Omaha this morning, where she is employed in the Fanger store in that city.

Miss Mary Weckbach, who has been visiting Plattsmouth relatives and friends for the past two weeks, went to Omaha this morning, and from there to her home in Lincoln. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by her cousin, Miss Teresa Hempel.

Elias Kildow departed this afternoon for Fremont where he goes to assist in placing the machinery in operation for the new Lyman Sand Co. pit at that point. The machinery is removed from the old Cedar Creek pit, where the supply of sand seems to have exhausted on the land that they possess.

On the coming Saturday the P. H. S. baseball team will play the fast Malvern, Iowa, high school team. These two teams have won a game apiece last year. The local team is far superior to last year's team. They are greatly encouraged over the result

Special Hourly Sales

At E. G. Dovey's Monday, April 21 7 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

What is a Special Sale?

It is an opportunity given the people to purchase goods at reduced prices, which the merchant has tried to secure for his customers, thus giving them the benefit of his time and labor.

So we have put forth our best efforts and spared neither time nor labor in order to get the best at the least possible price.

Our buyers have searched the markets in the East, West, North and South, resulting in finding some splendid values for spring, and some of these will be on sale on the above date.

The goods advertised will be sold at their regular price as soon as time is up.

From 9 to 10 a. m.	From 10 to 11 a. m.	From 11 to 12 a. m.	From 1 to 2 p. m.
Percales 36 in. wide at... 9c Brockton Madress 27 in. wide in 36 different patterns during this sale at 10c per yard.	Ladies Fine Black Cotton Hose, cheap at 13c 25c, now... No more than two pair to any one customer.	Shirtings Shirtings which will cost you 12c this summer, at this sale per yard... 9c	Matting Matting, latest out, 15 different designs just arrived from Japan, going this sale... 27c
From 2 to 3 p. m.	From 3 to 4 p. m.	From 4 to 5:30 p. m.	From 5:30 to 6:30 p. m.
Table Linens unbleached 72 in. wide 45c Bleached 59 in. wide, Flue de Lis, design per yard... 29c Bleached 72 in. wide, fine value... 99c	Muslin Muslin bleached and unbleached 36 inches wide. Indian Head unbleached. Landsale bleached worth 12½c. No more than 10 yds. to a person, per yard... 9c	Great Embroidery sale in Hamburg and Swiss in any width in 4 lots. Lot 1 per yd. 4½c Lot 2 per yd. 7c Lot 3 per yd. 10c Lot 4 very fine in various designs, worth 35 to 40c this sale... 25c	Huck towels 18x34 fine value, red border... 8½c 20x36 hem stitched, 30c value 25c 20x38, blue border... 15c 20x38, extra quality... 20c No more after 6:30

MONDAY, APRIL 21. E. G. DOVEY & SON MONDAY, APRIL 21.

CUT OUT THIS AD

When presented by the lady of the house
Good for ¼ Pint Sample of

We have only a limited number of these samples and they are subject to the following limitation:

1. Only one sample to a household.
2. Will not be delivered to children under any circumstances.
3. You will have to hurry.

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

GERING & CO
Prescription Druggists

V. L. Strickland went to Bellevue this afternoon where he attends a declamatory contest tonight, in which he acts as one of the judges.
Hurried meals, lack of exercise are the main causes of dyspepsia. A Rings Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal digestion, improve the appetite.
Gering & Co.

SPRING SKIRT SALE

Here are a Few Numbers:
1735 fine mercerized sateen, fourteen in. bias flounce, two 3 in. bias ruffles, shirred, centre four rows of strapping above each ruffle... $1.00
1740 fine mercerized sateen, 16 in. bias flounce, 3½ yard bottom, 4 in. bias ruffle set up on flounce, four stitched strapping bands and four air tucks above. The best skirt possible for the money... $1.25
1763 fine mercerized sateen 14 in. bias flounces with three 3 in. bias ruffles trimmed with embroidered edge and one row of air tucking on each. Ruffles strapped on... $1.50

A Fine Line of Heatherblooms with the Heatherbloom stamp on each skirt ranging in price from... $2.50 to $3.00

Corner Sixth and Main St. E. A. WURL Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES