Crop Prospects.
Tell me not in mournful chatter,
Vegetation's up the spout
For there isn't much the matter
With the prospects hereabout.
True the wintry breezes hover
And they make a man feel blue
But I think we will recover
And be just as good as new,
Little snow flakes lightly falling,
Seem to whisper and repeat
That in August we'll be hauling
Bumper swads of winter wheat.
Other chilly springs remind us,
Losses won't be absolute
And the autumn days will find us,
Harvesting a little fruit.
Let us all be blithe and merry
Let's be optimistic, each,
We may reap the festive cherry
Though we lose out on the peach.
For Nebraska's trees are hardy
And I calmly apprehend
That although the buds are tardy,
They will show up in the end.
Though it's chilly as Alaska
Wind and snow to beat the band,
Yet we'll stand up for Nebraska
Just as long as we can stand.
Let us then be looking pleasant
Banishing each groan and sigh,
Though it's chilly just at present,
It will warm up by and by.
Everything will soon be growing,
And these snows will fade away
We'll forget the snows now blowing
When the snow balls bloom in May.

When your Watch Stops

You cannot make it go by shaking it. When the bowels are constipated you can disturb them with cathartics but, like the watch, they will not be able to do their allotted work until they are put into proper condition to do it. One cannot mend a delicate piece of mechanism by violent methods, and no machine made by man is as fine as the human body.

The use of pills, salts, castor-oil and strong cathartic medicines is the violent method. The use of the herb tonic laxative, Lane's Family Medicine is the method adopted by intelligent people. Headache, backache, indigestion, constipation, skin diseases—all are benefited immediately by the use of this medicine. Druggists sell it at 25c. and 50c.

Death of Mrs. Peterson
Death relieved Mrs. Sarah Peterson from her long suffering this morning at 3:30 o'clock. It has been but a few days since the death of her daughter, Mrs. Browne, of Lincoln, who came here to care for her mother. Mrs. Peterson at that time was very low and entirely unconscious, and has lingered in that state until death relieved her. She is survived by a husband and the following children: Mrs. Mamie Christensen, of Lead, S. D.; Mrs. Bessie Smith, and Edward Peterson, of Portland, Oregon; and Miss Lillian Peterson, of Marshfield, Oregon.
The deceased was a native of Sweden, being born in Skoni, February 6, 1842, and was united in marriage with Peter Peterson (her maiden name Pearson) of Gothenburg, Sweden, November 24, 1860, where they lived nine and a-half years. Afterwards removing to Plattsmouth in 1869, where they have since resided.

CIRCUS IN PLATTSMOUTH

Campbell Brothers Big Trains Arrived Early This Morning Over Burlington

A BRILLIANT AND MAGNIFICENT PARADE

The Street Thronged With People Eager to Witness Same.

Campbell Brothers' circus and menagerie arrived early this morning from Nebraska City, where they showed yesterday, and as soon as possible prepared to unload and convey everything to the grounds south of the B. & M. shops.

The day dawned pleasant, and many men and boys were at the depot to see that the show arrived on time, and many were surprised to see that the show had grown to such immense proportions in a very few years, and it now averages up with the best of shows today.

When the street procession took place at the noon hour Main street was lined on both sides with men, women and children, eager to witness the dazzling beauty presented by one of the finest circus parades that ever occurred in Plattsmouth. The horses were in splendid condition, the cages being newly repainted and overhauled, excellent bands and a steam callope, all went to make an excellent parade.

The performances this afternoon were witnessed by a large crowd of people from the surrounding country and nearby hamlets, and all attest to their excellency and also the cleanliness of everything connected with the show.

Campbell Brothers' show is a Nebraska production, and has grown from a small overland wagon show to their present great dimensions. All who believe in "standing up for Nebraska" should show that they mean it by attending the performances tonight.

Despain Labor Commissioner.

The following special from Lincoln would indicate that the state of Nebraska was gradually becoming a charitable institution, and that Gov. Sheldon has given Don Despain a position for a few months in order to provide a living until Norris Brown can secure a place for his tool later:

"Don C. Despain was appointed labor commissioner this afternoon and J. C. Derby of Lincoln, was appointed janitor at the executive mansion. Despain's commission reads from May 1 to December 31, 1907, and his appointment, it is understood, was at the urgent request of Senator Norris Brown, and it was limited to eight months because at that time, it is understood, Senator Brown will be able to find a place for Despain in Washington or somewhere else. For four years Despain has been chief clerk in the office of the labor commissioner, but the recent legislature abolished this office by cutting out the salary for a chief clerk. Senator Brown is under obligations to Despain for assistance in running a press bureau for him previous to the state convention, but the senator just at this time was unable to take care of Despain, and so prevailed upon Gov. Sheldon to do so, and inasmuch as the governor had already handed Senator Brown a package on the Kearney Normal veto, the Despain appointment is supposed to be a sort of consolation."

A little Kodol taken occasionally, especially after eating, will relieve your stomach, belching heartburn. J. B. Jones, Newport, Tenn., writes: "I am sure three one dollar bottles of your Kodol positively cured me of dyspepsia, and I can recommend it as that was three years ago and I haven't been bothered since with it." Kodol is guaranteed to give relief. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Narrow Escape for the Boys.

There was an oil tank on one of the Missouri Pacific cars, down the track by the foot bridge last Thursday evening. E. K. Norton had emptied the gas out and it seems about two inches covered the bottom. Two of Tom Shanklin's boys were playing on the tank, and seeing the gas in the bottom, threw a match in to see if it would burn. It did. The explosion was plenty loud enough to be heard all over town. The boy had his head over the opening at the top and was burned on the head and hands, his cap and coat burned up, and he was thrown off the car. The flames came out and could be seen several feet in the air. The tank was not blown off the car, but the boy will always have more respect for gasoline. —Weeping Water Herald.

PARIS MAY DAY FIERCE

Russ Citizen of the United States Thinks Himself in Russia Again.

TAKES SHOTS AT THE TROOPS

Wounds Two Cuirassiers and Falls Quickly Into the Law's Grip.

Labor Mobs Broken Up by Cavalry Charges—Socialists Parade at New York—Notes of the Day's Doings.

Paris, May 2.—The expectation that May day would pass off without violence was not realized. The day began in calm, but toward evening the working center in the vicinity of the trades unions headquarters became the scene of serious disturbances, in which many persons were more or less injured. The stringent precautions taken by the authorities, and the stern determination to repress disorders, however, brought tranquility before midnight. The sum total of the day's operations was over one thousand arrests; twenty persons, including policemen and citizens, badly injured, and a great number of persons suffering from contusions or from being trampled.

Characteristic of His Kind.

One of the gravest incidents recorded, was during the afternoon, when Jacob Law, a Russian, who is naturalized citizen of the United States, from the top of an omnibus passing the Place de La Republique cold-bloodedly fired five shots by which two cuirassiers were wounded. The crowd attempted to lynch Law, who was dragged down from the omnibus. He was rescued by the police after he had been severely mauled, and was taken to a police station to await trial. During the evening reports were circulated that Law had died as a result of the beating the mob gave him, but these were erroneous. He suffered no vital injury.

Woman Wounds a Patrolman.

Several other incidents occurred, during which fire arms were used. After a meeting at the Labor Exchange five thousand men proceeded to the headquarters of the Labor Federation, hooting the police meanwhile. Charges were made by the police, and a woman fired, the bullet striking a member of the bicycle patrol. The squad of police drew their sabres and revolvers and a lively melee followed, lasting half an hour. The police pressed the crowd from the Canal Jeannepes to the banks of St. Martin's canal, during which 200 arrests were made and many persons were hurt.

Charge on a Disorderly Crowd.

Later in the evening in the Place de La Republique the police, while arresting rioters, were surrounded by a threatening crowd which attempted to rescue those taken into custody. Sabres were used freely, but finding their position perilous, the police fired in the air. A further detachment came on the scene at double quick, and with drawn sabres charged and dispersed the crowd. Many persons were injured and many placed under arrest.

GOTHAM SOCIALISTS PARADE

Red Flags and the "Marseillaise"—Other May Day Notes.

New York, May 2.—With the "Marseillaise" as their marching hymn more than 6,000 socialist and labor unionists paraded through the Brownsville and East New York sections of Brooklyn to show their sympathy for Moyet, Haywood and Pettibone, the labor leaders under indictment charged with the murder of ex-Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho. Every man wore a picture button of the accused men and the red flag was in evidence all along the line. A similar parade was made in Manhattan, the marchers, who wore red badges, finally assembling at Union square, where several addresses were made. The red flag was in evidence here also and before the speaking the bands played the "Marseillaise." The speakers attacked the national administration.

As for strikes there were few at this city, the most serious labor trouble here being the demand of the mates on steamship lines for higher wages. At other places in the country the following strikes are reported: Peterson, N. J., carpenters, numbering 1,000; Fair Haven, Vt., 500 slate workers; San Francisco, 3,000 iron trades men out; Milwaukee, carpenters, and painters, numbering 125; St. Paul, S) plasterers; Youngstown, O., 300 carpenters.

In foreign cities: Little, Brest, Toulon, Lorient, Lens and Bordeaux, France, several thousand of many trades went out and there was violence at Lille; Halle, Germany, motor men struck—other places in that country the day was observed quietly; Rome, public meetings forbidden, and troops everywhere to enforce the prohibition; Gorly, who was to have spoken, failing to appear, in spite of all of which workmen broke through the police cordons into the Balaclava gardens and listened to fiery speeches by socialist deputies; Warsaw, Poland, complete tie-up by general strike, and everything paralyzed; Baku, Russia, general strike; Montreal, threatened strike averted by a compromise; Toronto, lathers, cab drivers, gliders, picture frame workers and marble cutters on strike; Ottawa, Ont., masons, stonecutters, etc., on strike.
