PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

W. F. Gillispie of Mynard was in town today.

John Turner was an Omaha passenger on the fast mail this afternoon.

Ray Frans and Earl Upton, of Union, were in Plattsmouth last evening to attend the circus.

J. L. Looker of Nehawka, was looking after some business matters in the county seat today.

Harry Graves of the Union Ledger, was here today on business. Of course he called to see the Journal boys.

A. L. Becker, a prominent farmer of near Union, was up yesterday afternoon, and called and renewed for the Old Reliable.

John Sneed came down from Havelock yesterday evening for a short visit with Plattsmouth friends and relatives near Mynard.

J. G. Wunderlich, of near Nehawka, and by the way, one of the Journal's staunch supporters, was in the city yesterday and while here called and renewed for the Old Reliable.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosencrans, of Louisville, returned home yesterday evening after a few days visit with Mrs. Rosencrans' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Farrer in this city.

J. F. Behrs, son of our old friend, Henry Behrs, of near Nehawka, was in Plattsmouth yesterday to attend the circus and in the evening called and renewed his father's subscription to the Old Reliable for another year.

Ed. Parriott, of Peru, came in last evening for a short visit with his many Plattsmouth friends. He was enroute to Murray where he will visit a few days with friends and attend the meeting of the A. O. U. W. lodge, in which order he is deputy workman.

From Saturday's Daily.

J. B. Vallery of near Mynard, was in Plattsmouth today.

J. B. Meisinger of near Cedar Creek, was in Plattsmouth today looking after some business matters.

J. G. Schoeman, James Terryberry and Carl West, all from near Louisville, were county seat visitors today.

Oscar Zaar was down from South Bend today filling some papers in the recorder's office, and gave the Journal a call.

Misses Anna Parkanening and Minnie Born went to Omaha this morning where they will visit with friends for several days.

Chris Christensen of Lead, S. D., arrived in the city last evening to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Peterson.

H. E. Coleman, assessor from near Louisville, was in Plattsmouth today. Mr. Coleman has finished his task and was making the proper returns.

Miss Josephine Johnson, who came down from Lincoln yesterday for a short visit with her grandparents, Joseph Johnson and wife, returned home this afternoon.

Mrs. E. K. Parmele went to Omaha this morning to spend the day with her husband at the Immanuel hospital. Mr. Parmele, who was operated upon a few days ago, continues to improve.

Miss Olga Keil, daughter of our old friend, Peter Keil of Cedar Creek, returned from the hospital at Omaha Thursday. We are informed that the lady is recovering nicely and will soon be her former self.

James Terryberry, one of the most prosperous and well-to-do farmers of Eight Mile Grove, called this morning and renewed for the Old Reliable another year. Mr. Terryberry says that notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, considerable corn has been planted.

W. H. and A. F. Seybert of Cullom, accompanied by their uncle A. C. Seybert of Dunbar, Neb., were in the city today. The latter is a brother of Jacob Seybert, deceased, and was called here on account of the illness and death of his brother. He is accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Albert Damron, who has been visiting home folks for the past few days, returned to her home in Lincoln this afternoon, and enroute will visit over Sunday in Omaha. She was accompanied by her younger sister, Miss Myrtle Poisl.

From Monday's Daily.

Geo. Horn of Cedar Creek was in Plattsmouth today.

F. M. Young, sr., of Murray was a county seat visitor today.

Harry Presbry and Miss Mamie Coffey of Omaha were visiting with Plattsmouth friends today.

Jerry McHugh of South Bend was here for a Sunday visit with his sisters, Miss Katie, and Mrs. Thomas Walling.

Mrs. Bertha Carey, who for the past eight months has been making her home in Washington, has returned to Plattsmouth to make her home.

T. J. Isser and Alf Edgerton, who have been working at Goodie Todd's farm down near Union, came home Saturday to spend Sunday, returning yesterday afternoon.

Adam Hild and wife and Louis Puls and wife were visiting in Plattsmouth Saturday evening and Sunday. They were guests at the homes of M. Hild, Martin Fredrich and Jacob Tritsch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stoll of Nehawka, were in Plattsmouth today and Mr. Stoll enrolled his name for the Journal for one year. Mr. Stoll does not get to Plattsmouth very often only about tax time, and this was the main mission of his county seat visit today.

W. J. Ranard and wife from near Weeping Water, were Plattsmouth visitors today and while here paid the Journal office a brief visit. Mr. and Mrs. Ranard reside on the Walker section and as far as they are from the county seat, come here for trading purposes about once a week.

Frans Ballance went over to Glenwood this morning to accept a position in the Iowa Institute for the Feeble Minded in the mechanical department. We understand he has a good position, and if it is anything in the mechanical department Frans can "deliver the good."

E. M. Clark came up from Auburn this morning to spend a few days with his family, who will not move to that city before the present term of school expires. Mr. Clark says he is well pleased with Auburn, and they are having a good patronage. It will be remembered that he and Mr. Heilig opened up a barber shop there a few weeks ago.

Eugene Purdy of Omaha, was a Sunday visitor in Plattsmouth. Mr. Purdy is a dealer in live stock and has resided in the Nebraska metropolis for twenty years and this was his first visit to Plattsmouth. He was reared in the same vicinity with Mrs. James Sage and Mrs. O. M. Streight, and they attended the same school for many years.

Frank Otto and daughter, Edna, came in yesterday afternoon from Denver where he is now located and is in the employ of the B. & M. He will be remembered as a former citizen having formerly owned a farm northwest of town and worked for the above company many years until the death of his wife. He then went to Denver, recently he met with an accident which disabled him and so he started east and will visit with the Johathan Hatt family until this evening when they will start for Chicago, and from which place they will go to Milwaukee, Wis., where they will visit before returning to their Denver home.

From Tuesday's Daily

Coates' Dry Goods Co.'s

"Challenge Sale"

Will Continue to May 15th

On account of the unseasonable weather during the time set for our "Challenge Sale" we have decided to continue the same until May 15 in order to give those who have been kept away by the cold weather an opportunity to take advantage of this splendid chance for economical buying. To keep interest in the sale alive, we have added a lot of new Challenge Bargains. We invite you to call and see them; you will not be disappointed if you do, but will be disappointed if you delay too long.

READ WHAT AN OMAHA PAPER HAD TO SAY ABOUT THIS SALE OF OURS

"Plattsmouth merchants are live ones and are making a splendid fight to prevent the 2-cent passenger rate influencing the people of community doing their buying in the large cities. In the issue of the Evening Journal of April 3d, the Coates' Dry Goods Co. take two pages of the paper to tell the people of the bargains that they have for all who care to save money. The advertisement is printed in green, and typographically equals the advertisements of the great department stores in the larger cities, but the attractive feature is that prices are quoted that are convincing that the company sells goods of quality lower than the stores of the big cities. There are dozens of bargains, and the Plattsmouth citizen who would pass up this store and go his buying in some other town, surely needs to learn a few things in economy. Were merchants in other Nebraska towns so enterprising, there would be less complaint as to the trade given to outside stores. Omaha Trade Exhibit. There is a lot of good advice in the above which Plattsmouth people would be wise in taking.

We list below a few of our "Challenge Sale" Bargains. Space will not permit full description, so we name articles and quote prices. Low prices do not mean poor quality at this store. Always the same goods for less money, and better goods for the same money.
