

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

J. H. Tarpenning of South Bend, was a business visitor in Plattsmouth today.

C. E. Lohnes of Louisville, was in Plattsmouth today looking after some business matters.

J. G. Richey went to Lincoln this afternoon to spend Saturday and Sunday with his family.

Frank Heitzman, who has been making his home at the Perkins house for the past winter, is confined to his bed with a slight attack of pneumonia.

In Justice Archer's court this morning a continuance was granted in the case of W. F. Gillispie vs the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co., until the 10th of June.

Miss Nora Barwick was a passenger for Omaha this afternoon. She was accompanied by her little niece, who was returning to her home in that city.

Mrs. H. D. Travis departed yesterday afternoon for West Point, Neb., where she will spend a few days visiting with her daughter, Miss Helen, one of the teachers in the public schools of that city.

Mrs. H. M. Soennichsen and daughter, Miss Christina, and Mrs. Jesse Root were among the passengers for the metropolis this morning. Mrs. Soennichsen will spend a portion of the day with her sister, Mrs. John Wichman, at the Immanuel hospital.

Col. Fred Kroehler came in from Weeping Water this morning where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Herman Kleisch and family. He says he will remain in Plattsmouth several days looking after some business matters before returning to his home in Havelock.

Albert Fickler, came in last evening from South Omaha where he had a car of stock on the market. Bert is living near Stanton, in Stanton county, and took this opportunity to visit home folks. The Journal is pleased to learn that he is prospering. He will return home tomorrow.

Newt Ryckman, who has been in Plattsmouth for the past week, looking after the carpenter work on the residence of Perry Uterback, returned to his home in Council Bluffs this afternoon. Which Mr. Ryckman did not do all the work on the changes made by Mr. Uterback he contracted for, but has made a decidedly different looking residence for the better.

From Saturday's Daily.

H. C. Long, of near Murray, was in Plattsmouth today.

Johnnie Burns of Louisville, was a Plattsmouth visitor today.

Mrs. Sam Barker from near Louisville, was in the city today.

Leslie Hall of Murray was in Plattsmouth a few hours yesterday evening.

D. K. Barr of Greenwood came in today to attend to business in county court.

R. O. Hutchens, of Weeping Water, assessor for Avoca precinct, made his returns to the county assessor today.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engelkeimer of Mt. Pleasant precinct were in Plattsmouth today, and while here he called at the Journal office and renewed the subscription of J. A. Ragoos, at Garber, Oklahoma.

J. M. Teegarden went down to his home in Weeping Water last evening, and in company with Mrs. Teegarden, will depart from Omaha tomorrow for Boston, where he goes as a delegate to the National Grand lodge meeting of the Royal Arcanum.

Mrs. Twiss came down from Louisville this morning to have some work done on her teeth at the dental parlors of Dr. W. E. Elster, returning home this afternoon, accompanied by Miss Lucille Bates, who will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Daisy, over Sunday.

Henry Horn and daughter Miss Helen went to Omaha this morning, where they will meet Mrs. J. J. Horn, of Creighton, who will return home with them for a few days visit with friends and relatives. Mr. Horn will be here in a short time for a short visit and return home with Mrs. Horn.

Says the Nebraska City News: "Col. H. C. McMaken arrived in Cass county fifty years ago May 22, and he proposes to celebrate the anniversary by inviting all residents of that county who have been there fifty years or more to come and spend the day with him. It promises to be a fine gathering of pioneers."

From Monday's Daily.

Henry Hitz was a business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

John Lohnes and son C. E. Lohnes, of Louisville, were business visitors in Plattsmouth today.

Ellis Goolsby of South Omaha, came down Saturday evening for a Sunday visit with Plattsmouth friends.

D. O. Dwyer went to Alva, Okla., this afternoon where he has some business matters to look after.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noxon departed this morning for Juniata, Nebr., where they will spend a few days visiting among friends.

Miss Clara Bookmeyer, of Glenwood, where she is employed in the institution was here to spend Sunday with relatives and friends.

Col. Kroehler returned to his home in Havelock this afternoon, after a few days visit with friends and relatives at the old home.

Mrs. Maude Burley came down from Omaha Saturday evening for a short visit with her mother. She returned to Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Maxon, who has been in Plattsmouth for the past few weeks will depart this week for her old home in Florida, and from there to her present home in Panama.

Mrs. Rosa Hennings and daughter, Mrs. Albert Schafer, were among the passengers for Omaha this morning. Mrs. Schafer came in from home last evening for a short visit with her mother.

George Leis and brother, C. J., of Murdock brought in Mrs. Rosetta Wirth of that village who was arraigned before the insanity board, adjudged insane and ordered sent to the asylum at Lincoln.

Mrs. Louisa Cooper departed this afternoon for a few months visit with friends and relatives in Cripple Creek, Colorado. She will return about the middle of July, and then go to Philadelphia to make her home with her son, Lem.

D. E. Seiver, who came in from Hamilton county, Saturday to see his son-in-law, Joseph Thompson, who is still confined to his home with pneumonia, returned home this morning. Mr. Thompson is now on the road to mend, and the many friends and relatives have hope for his rapid recovery.

From Tuesday's Daily

Geo. N. LaRue of Union, was here on business today.

G. F. McNamee of Union was here on business today.

A. S. Will was a passenger for the metropolis this morning.

W. F. Gillispie of Mynard was a business visitor in South Omaha this morning.

Jos. Burton of Murray was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth today.

Abe Rupley came up from Union yesterday for a few days recreation, and to visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Everett of near Union, drove up this morning for a short visit with Plattsmouth friends. They will return home tomorrow.

A. S. Will has moved his family to Plattsmouth, and is temporarily located in the old residence property on the lots where he will soon erect his new home.

J. D. Lewis of near Murray, was a business visitor in Plattsmouth today and while here paid the Journal a short call, renewing his subscription to the Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheeler went to Omaha last evening where Mrs. Wheeler will consult a specialist in regard to a throat and lung affection that she has been troubled with for some time.

Miss Mildred Cook, who has been in Glenwood, Iowa, for the past two months, employed at the institution, came home this morning suffering with, or rather recovering from an attack of measles.

Mrs. Robert Shanahan and Mrs. C. H. Reed came up from Nebraska City last evening to attend the funeral of their father, Joseph Winscott, who died yesterday morning at the advanced age of 77 years.

From Wednesday's daily

T. W. Vallery, the only simon pure lighting rod man, was in the city this morning, looking for business in his line.

August Stull who has been at Avoca for some time past, where he built a house for a Mr. Westlake, returned home last night.

Herman Holchub, who has been laid up for some time with rheumatism, is around again though still suffering badly.

Michael Meisinger from near Cedar Creek was transacting business and shaking hands with his many friends in the city today.

Phillip Cook and family from Stanton, Neb., are in the city attending the funeral of Joseph Winscott. Mrs. Cook being a daughter of the deceased.

Wm. Shea who has been taking an enforced lay-off on account of a mashed finger expects to be able to return to his duties in the Burlington blacksmith shop by the end of the week.

Chas. Peacock, from near Cullom, was in the city today and says that most of the farmers in his neighborhood have completed, or are nearly through, with their corn planting, he having completed his last evening. He has 85 acres in corn this year.

Mr. Chas. E. Crabill will take charge of the rural route No. 2, being the one which Geo. Sayles, jr., has carried heretofore. In the examination which was held for the vacancy, Mr. Crabill secured the highest, his percent being 97, while others taking the examination received 97 and 96, which shows that all the applicants were well qualified.

Frank Gobleman, notice of whose marriage recently appeared in this paper, who has been located at Sterling, Col., as manager of the Postal Telegraph company, has been promoted to Newton, Kan., where he will have charge of the company's office, having under him three men. We are well pleased to know of the good fortune of Mr. Gobleman, who well deserves this advancement.

Jacob Falter reports his uncle, Jacob Falter, of Plainview, who lived at this place for some fifteen years and left about twenty years ago, was compelled to submit to an operation for the removal of a cancer from his right arm Tuesday. The operation was performed at St. Joseph's hospital at Omaha and was eminently successful, and the patient is resting very well at present with prospects of his entire recovery, a fact which many friends will be glad to learn.

Philip Thierolf made a brief business trip to Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. H. F. Dearing is visiting Omaha this afternoon going on the fast mail.

Gust Gustafson went to Omaha this afternoon on the fast mail and will attend the Commercial college for a while.

John Junqueste, the Burlington agent at Pacific Junction, made a brief business visit in our city this afternoon.

A marriage license was issued today to Lester M. Hobach, aged 29, of Avoca, and Miss Lena Williams, aged 20, of Weeping Water.

Mrs. A. B. Hass, wife of the efficient and gentlemanly operator at Creoplis, visited in the city today, returning home this afternoon.

J. C. Eikenbary, who has been visiting with friends here for the past few days, returned to her home in Lincoln today on the Schuyler train.

Judge A. J. Beeson is getting to be quite a chicken fancier these days. Having just had a hen hatch twenty-one chickens and all doing well.

Wm. Haberman, the janitor at the Coates block, is now engaged with a piece of landscape gardening at the Coates home. Herman Herold is looking after the work at the hall during his absence.

Notice of petition for the appointment of administrator of the estate of the late Henry Watson, deceased, was filed in the office of the county judge today, publication of which appears in the weekly Journal.

The Platte river ferry will be repaired and put in proper shape and ready for service in a short time. Frank Swanson will have charge of it and will be at the place to properly care for all business that shall be offered.

The Red Sox have made arrangements for a game with the Townsend Gun Club of Omaha for Saturday afternoon on the local grounds. This promises to be a hotly contested game, as the Omaha team has a reputation to maintain.

Perry Marsh of near Rock Bluffs, is building a fine large barn which is nearing completion, it being 36x36 feet and 16 feet to the peak, capable of holding fifty tons of hay and shelter some twenty head of stock with abundant granary and feeding space.

Dr. A. P. Barnes was called to the country this morning to do a bit of surgical work for a person who lives upon the place of Henry Creamer. He also had a patient from Murray this morning, upon which he had to perform some surgical operations.

H. C. McMaken has just received word from his grand daughter, Mrs. Inez Baylor, who lives in Omaha and whose husband is a traveling man, that they will break up housekeeping and come to Plattsmouth to live. Mr. Baylor is away from home most of the time, it will be more convenient for the folks to be near relatives, than as now, among strangers.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with the best results. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. T. Fried.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

WAIT NO LONGER!

THE warm weather is here. You have been looking for it for some time, and at last it has come. So we will talk to you about Wash Goods this week, and we want to impress upon your mind that we are in a position to show you a full and complete line. We were very fortunate in securing these goods when we did, for if we had waited until now to buy our Wash Goods, we would have had absolutely nothing to show you. Furthermore, we couldn't buy them if we wanted to, because the mills are still trying to fill orders as far back as a year ago. So you see the merchant and the customer. We are compelled to buy our goods one year ahead of time in order to supply our customers at home. So here we are with all the many beautiful patterns ready for your inspection, and we have the salespeople—willing and only too glad to show you anything, at any time you want to look at it.

A Few 9x12 Rugs Left for $5.69	Watch for Our Remnant Sale of Linoleums, Mattings and Carpets, Next Week	A Few 9x12 Rugs Left for $5.69
---------------------------------------	--	---------------------------------------

In Our Wash Goods Department You Will Find these Selections

Ginghams Percales Dotted Swisses Embroidered Swisses
Dimities Holly Batistes Fancy Checked Wash Silks
Clarible Batisties, Drape de Linde, Harlequin Zephyrs Pois de Soie, Embroidered Silk Gauze, and many others too numerous to mention

Our Lace and Embroidery Stock

Is one of the most complete stocks you will find anywhere—we care not where you go. Prices within reach of everyone. Come and look over the goods, take a chair and make yourself comfortable, and we will do the rest.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Plattsmouth, -- -- Nebraska

Mrs. Columbus Neff was visiting in Omaha today.

G. M. Porter is transacting business in Omaha today.

Father Bandzone of York departed for home this morning.

Mrs. John Ruehland was an Omaha passenger this morning.

Matt Gering was an Omaha visitor on the early morning train.

Mrs. Geo. Sherman is visiting in Omaha with friends for a few days.

Walter J. White was an Omaha visitor going on the early morning train.

Mrs. A. L. Baker, wife of Murray's general postmaster, was an over night visitor in the city.

Waldmar Beek, the violinist, says he will have another dance for the public in the near future.

James Higley and John Benfer were off for the grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. at Omaha this morning.

Chas. Vroman who has been on the sick list is so far improved as to be able to return to work in a few days.

Frank Holly of Omaha, a brother of Wm. Holly the clothier, was down last night for a short visit with his brother.

Chas. Reid and family of Nebraska City came up yesterday, called by the death of Mrs. Reid's father, J. W. Winscott.

A letter from Noel Rawls, former reporter on this paper, to his father, says he is well pleased with his situation at Boise.

Wm. Kroehler of Havelock visited over night with friends in this city and returned to his work at his home this morning.

An effort will be made by the representatives from here to secure the next encampment of the Grand Army for Plattsmouth.

Sam Patterson of Arapahoe, came in this morning on a hurried business trip and will return, leaving on the late night train.

James Klopp is laying off with a sore hand, caused by a wound from a stick penetrating his finger while working in the shops.

John Farrier and wife, grandparents of Mrs. John Likewise, from Lincoln, are visiting for a few days with the family of Mrs. Likewise and other friends in the city.

Walfrid Nord, who is working for the Northwestern railway at Omaha, visiting since last Saturday at home, will return to his duties on the fast mail this afternoon.

Carl Humphrey, representing Swift & Co., stopped over night at home, and hustled out this morning on his way rejoicing on business for the firm.

Berge Miles departed this morning for Spring Ranch, in the western part of the state, where he will visit for some time with his sister and family, Mrs. McComb.

J. H. Thrasher and wife, Mrs. Jas. Hickson, Miss Gertrude Steener and John Renner departed for Fremont this morning to help make the encampment of the Grand Army a success.

Vernon Smith who formerly held a position in the lumber yard of the company, but now with Paxton & Gallagher, wholesale grocers at Omaha was an over night visitor returning to his duties this morning.

Owen Hoellen of South Omaha who has been visiting with the family of E. L. Rouse, left this morning for a short visit with Anderson Rouse in the country, after which he will visit with his grandmother at Murray before returning home.

Henry F. Deoring, who was formerly employed at this place as a carpenter in the freight repair shops, is now working in the same department at Alliance. Mrs. Deoring shipped their household goods and will depart to join her husband at that place Saturday evening.

J. H. Bacon, representing T. Carbine & Co., real estate dealers of Kansas City, was in Plattsmouth today on business and in company with Judge Travis made the Journal a pleasant call. Besides being a most clever gentleman, in politics a man after our own heart, being a rock-ribbed democrat of the Bryan order.

Passenger train No. 4, east bound on the Burlington, struck and instantly killed a workman named Wiley, a member of a grading crew working for the company between Havelock and Waverly. The train was running very fast and upon striking Mr. Wiley, threw him into the air a great distance. When struck he was instantly killed. The man killed was about fifty years of age and lived at Nebraska City.

Mrs. Chas. H. Williams of Kansas City, Missouri, a grand daughter of Mrs. Kate Oliver, is visiting here for a couple days, after which she will visit for some time with relatives at Omaha before returning to her home at Kansas City.

Prof. W. G. Brooks of Peru, principal elect of the High school of this city for the coming year, came in this morning and is visiting the school and becoming acquainted with the teachers and scholars, that he may be in better position to take up his work with the beginning of next term.

George Sharpe, of the boiler shop, sustained a very severe contusion of the little finger of his right hand this morning, in which three finger nails were severed. Dr. Stewart Livingston dressed the member. Mr. Sharpe will take an enforced layoff for some time.

Louis Keissling and family were passengers to Omaha this afternoon where they go to attend the funeral of Miss Bertha Middlemeyer, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. George Middlemeyer, who was a resident of this place for a number of years, moving to Omaha a short time since.

The Social Workers of the Methodist church, will meet with Misses Etha Crabill and Zelma Tuey at the at the Crabill home next Tuesday afternoon from three to five o'clock. The object of the meeting being the giving of a farewell reception in honor of Mrs. C. S. Polk, who will depart for her future home at Boise City, Idaho. Mrs. Polk will visit at Louisville on Monday next, returning for the reception on Tuesday. On Wednesday she will go to Lincoln where she will visit for a while before proceeding to her future home in Idaho.

BEE'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR

The Original Laxative Cough Syrup containing Honey and Tar. An improvement over all Cough, Lung and Bronchial Remedies. Pleasant to the taste and good alike for young and old. All cough syrups containing opiates constipate the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels and contains no opiates. Prepared by PINE-ULE MEDICINE COMPANY, CHICAGO, U. S. A.

Sold at GERING, Drug Store