ARREST OF HORACE DUNN

For Assault Upon Prof. Hodapp at the Missouri Pacific Depot Last Saturday Night

A FINE OF FIFTY DOLLARS ASSESSED

Mayor Suspends the Payment of $45.00 of Amount for Eight Months or During Good Behavior

Growing out of the disturbance which occurred at the Missouri Pacific depot on last Saturday night, when Prof. Hodapp, principal of the Union schools was handled so roughly as mentioned in these columns before, a warrant was issued for the arrest of Horace Dunn. Upon being apprehended, Mr. Dunn plead guilty to the charge of fighting, disturbing the peace and conducting himself in a vicious manner.

He implicates a young man named Funk as well, but as yet no warrant has been issued for his arrest. Mr. Dunn says that while he was to blame, that he had some provocation, saying he with a young lady from Union, were sitting on the edge of the platform talking when the Prof. Hodapp came from the depot and said for the young lady to come into the waiting room, also saying that no decent girl would set out that way and talk with an entire stranger. This angered Mr. Dunn and he admits using the professor quite roughly. He says he had known the young lady in question. Chief of Police Fitzgerald filed the complaint, and Mr. Dunn was assessed a fine of $50, and costs which was $3, making $53 in all.

Mayor Gering suspended $45 dollars of the fine for eight months upon good behavior of Dunn and stood good for the payment of the balance and the costs until the next pay day of the Burlington which is nearly thirty days hence.

Two Plattsmouth Ladies Elected.

At the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church of the diocese of Nebraska in Omaha Tuesday, elected the following officers: Among the number it will be seen that Plattsmouth was favored in the election of Mrs. T. P. Livingston as third vice-president, and Miss Barbara Gering was elected treasurer. Mrs. W. H. Sloan, South Omaha, president; Miss Jean Morton, Nebraska City, first vice-president; Mrs. A. E. Marsh, Blair, second vice-president; Mrs. Livingston, third vice-president; Mrs. Abbot, Lincoln, fourth vice-president; Miss Lillian Gault, Omaha, secretary; Miss Barbara Gering, Plattsmouth, treasurer.

Passed Up the River Today.

The steamboat Omaha that has had such a hard time getting up the river, and has been delayed all along the line, passed this place at about 11 o'clock this morning.

It came up as far as Rocky Point earlier in the day and was down there for some time, and a later period proceeded on its way up the river. It is destined for Omaha where it will be used as an excursion boat for pleasure parties. It was pushing ahead of it a small house boat. Many people were out to see the boat pass.

It Pays to Advertise.

Yesterday T. W. Vallery was in need of a man to help him in the lightning rod business. He had asked and looked hither and yon for some one, could not find his man, and he had solicited a representative of the Journal repeatedly, but as we could not be in two places at once we had to turn down the proposition. A little want local did the work. The printer's ink had not dried upon the paper until his wants were supplied, and he had secured an excellent man in Carl Graves. Briefly it pays to advertise, and the Journal is the organ that does the work most effectively.

Habits and Character.

You can easily determine the character of a man from his habits. A negligent man is always inconstant in all his undertakings, while a punctual man is trustworthy; a man of the "exaggerated ergo" type is selfish, a man suffering from a bad digestion is sour-tempered and repulsive. It is impossible for some to quit their bad habits but those whose temper depends on their digestion, cannot be excused for their negligence to attend to themselves. It is well known that Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine has the most beneficial effect on all digestive organs and that it is the most pleasant remedy to take. It acts directly on the stomach, making it strong and capable to accept and handle food without the slightest difficulty. The digestion will go on smoothly and regularly and the sufferer will soon feel healthy and vigorous, cheerful and of the best habits. Use this remedy in all afflictions of the digestive organs. Made of pure wine and herbs. All drugstores. Jos. Triner, 799 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man is an unhappy slave. Burdock Blood Bitters builds up sound health—keeps you well.

Elmwood Knights of Pythias.

The Pythian Sunbeam, one of the organs of that order in speaking of the good time enjoyed by members of the Elmwood lodge and visiting brothers says: "Crescent Lodge No. 91 had a good time in the lodge at Elmwood, but this was more than the average. There was quite a delegation from Plattsmouth of members who reside there, and among them was the irrepressible 'Rosey,' now the county clerk of Cass county. Brother Rosenkrans used to live at Elmwood, and his friends and neighbors and especially his brother knights give him a warm welcome whenever he gets home for a day. They had a candidate for the Knight's rank and the work was creditably done. The members of that lodge certainly do good work in conferring the ranks. Quite a delegation of the brothers from Aivo lodge were visitors and enjoyed the occasion. Brother Frank J. Kelley of Lincoln was present and gave an exemplification of the unwritten work. Good speeches were made by the members and visitors, after which a lunch was served, followed by a real smoker. The members of Crescent Lodge are sure enough entertainers, whom it is a pleasure to meet."

WEDDING BELLS RING OUT

John Ewing United in Marriage With Miss Amanda Speck at the Home of the Bride's Mother

GO TO IOWA TO HAVE THE KNOT TIED

Miss May Agnes Kuhney and Mr. C. W. Haney Married in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on Tuesday

Cupid gets busy again and captures another Plattsmouth girl. This time it is Miss Amanda Speck and the lucky groom is Mr. John Ewing, formerly of Plattsmouth but now of Maryville, Missouri. The nuptial knot was tied by Judge H. D. Travis, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ida Speck, on West Locust street last evening at 9 o'clock. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the family being present.

The bride is well known here, having been reared in Plattsmouth, and is a young lady who has won the good will of all who know her, while the groom, who is quite well known in this city, is a young man possessing many excellent traits of character, and made many friends in the city, where he worked at the barber business for about a year, where he became acquainted with the young lady whom he carries off as his future helpmeet through life.

The happy couple will depart this evening for their future home in Maryville, Missouri, where Mr. Ewing is in the enjoyment of an excellent business, being an employe in one of the finest tonorial establishments in the state of Missouri.

The Journal joins the many friends of both bride and groom, in the wish that their pathway through life may be strewn with the choicest of flowers and that they may never see the day they will have cause to regret the event of Tuesday evening.

Married in Council Bluffs.

A marriage license was issued yesterday in Council Bluffs, Iowa, to "C. W. Haney, aged 29, of Omaha and May Agnes Kuhney, aged 19, of Plattsmouth." The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kuhney of this city, and for the past fifteen months or more has been in the employ of the Plattsmouth Telephone company as "hello girl" at the central office. The groom has for some time been employed as an assistant at the Burlington storehouse as a sub to the chief of the department.

Miss Kuhney was reared to womanhood in Plattsmouth, is an industrious young lady and has numerous friends in the city who wish her all the happiness this old world can possibly afford. The groom has a number of friends who also extend their best wishes for his future prosperity and happiness. The Journal also extends its best wishes to both bride and groom and may the bright wings of love ever hover over them.

Married in Omaha.

V. T. Kuncel of the new bakery, went to Omaha this afternoon where he was united in marriage to Miss Margarette Paasch of Fremont, at 3 o'clock p. m., by County Judge Leslie. The bride and groom will arrive in Plattsmouth this evening, where their future home will be made.

Mr. Kuncel came to Plattsmouth several weeks since from Fremont and purchased the new bakery, is doing a nice business, and has made many friends by his gentlemanly deportment. The Journal extends congratulations to the groom and a cordial welcome to the bride to our city.

Wedding at Manley.

The wedding of Mr. Julian Leo Bickert and Miss Susan Mary Stander of Manley, occurred at the St. Patrick's Catholic church in Manley this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stander, who reside south of Louisville, and is well and favorably known. The groom is a young farmer of sterling habits and who, by his industry and many other good qualities, has won a host of friends.

The Journal, with the many other friends, wish the happy couple all the good things that they may find along life's journey, and that they may have as few of the disagreeable kind as they can get along with.

Receives Severe Burns.

E. H. Booth of the Burlington paint shop is nursing a very sore hand as the result of a severe burn. Mrs. Booth had placed some newspapers behind the stove to protect the walls, and some old papers were being burned in the stove which blazed up, setting fire to those upon the wall and in his efforts to extinguish the fire Mr. Booth received burns upon his hands that will prevent him from working for some time, besides making some very sore hands.

Nebraska Crop Conditions.

G. A. Loveland, section director at Lincoln, issued the following Tuesday: "The first half of the last week was dry, cold and partly cloudy, with light wind. The last days of the week were clear, dry and very warm, with high, southerly wind."

"The mean daily temperature for the week was about ten degrees higher than in any preceding week this year since the first of April, but it was still four degrees below the normal for the second week in May. The first days of the week were cold and frosts occurred quite generally in the central and northern counties. Saturday and Sunday were warm and maximum temperatures between 85 and 90 occurred at many places."

"The precipitation of the week was very light. A few scattered showers occurred Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. In most of the state the total weekly rainfall was less than one-tenth of an inch, and in a large part none fell, or only a sprinkle, with an amount so small to measure. The total rainfall from April 1 to date is generally decidedly less than one-quarter of the normal amount."

In Poor Health.

John M. Kiser, who years ago lived near old Eight Mile Grove, but who has been living in southern Missouri for a few years past, came in yesterday for a short visit. Mr. Kiser is accompanied by his oldest son, and expect to visit for a while here and also visit at Denver, Colo., and Davenport, Ia., for most of the summer. Mr. Kiser's health has been considerably impaired while residing in Missouri and he expects to regain his wanted health.

Reported Assault on Young Lady.

It is reported that one of the Greeks who is employed here by the Burlington attempted an assault upon a young lady living on Wintersteen hill, and was repulsed only after she had broken his grasp and seizing a half brick delivered a blow upon the offender's head that rebuked him sufficiently so that she had an opportunity to escape. When upon reporting the matter to some persons passing they chased the assailant but were not able to overtake him. Such offenses as this should be dealt with summarily as a caution to others.

The Anti-Pass Test Case.

In commenting upon the anti-pass test case in this county brought against A. N. Sullivan, who holds an annual pass over the Missouri Pacific as an attorney for that corporation, the Kearney Hub says: "The case to test the anti-pass law in the district court of Cass county was heard before Judge Jessen Friday and taken under advisement. The defendant, A. N. Sullivan, attorney for the Missouri Pacific, was supplied with an annual pass the first of the year by the company. The defense set up is that the pass was a retainer and payment in full for his services for the entire year, and is pretty far fetched don't you think? If he had been paid in full in cash or in mileage books representing the charge for his services for the year, then the defense might stick, but a pass is a pass, and we do not believe that Judge Jessen can very well decide for the passholder in this instance. Both the text and the intention of the anti-pass law are clear enough, both as to who may be passholders and as to making public the names of all holders of passes." There was no question as to Judge Jessen's judgment in the matter, as County Attorney Rawls who brought the case, acquiesced in the same.

Out of Town Friends.

Among those who attended the funeral of Miss Bessie Ballance Tuesday were the following out-of-town friends: Mr. and Mrs. Ran Bailor, of Thurman, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ballance and family and U. J. Powell, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brendell of Murray; John Bignell, Mr. and Mrs. Tuthill, Mrs. Noyes, J. N. Clements, Miss Mamie Eickhoff, Mrs. George Smith, Misses Charlotte and Agnes Gleason, George Dermer, Jesse Martin and George Gleason, of Havelock. Numerous other out-of-town friends of the family present, whose names we were unable to get. The deceased having resided for several years in Havelock, by her well-known excellent traits of character, she was very popular among all classes.

Improves His Office.

Uncle Henry McMakin has been having some very extensive changes made in his office, which has been heretofore very much crowded. When E. M. Clark moved from the room just west of the old office occupied by McMakin & Son, they took both rooms, throwing them together making larger and better offices, also affording an opportunity for securing room for Uncle Henry's rapidly increasing museum of curiosities of which he has a very fine collection. The office now show resplendent with new paint, and a new carpet has added to its fine appearance. They have just cause to be pleased with the apartments as they are now.

Funeral of Joseph Wincott.

Yesterday afternoon at the residence of George Wincott, occurred the funeral of J. W. Wincott, who has made his home with his son for a number of years past. Mr. Wincott has been confined to his bed for nearly a year and has required a great deal of care. The burial was at the Eikenbary cemetery south of town. The choir from the Christian church consisting of E. M. Godwin, E. L. Rouse, Ruby Reynolds, Miss Edith Buzzei and Jesse Perry, sang the songs, the last of which was "Shall We Gather at the River," and was rendered in a very beautiful and touching manner.

J. W. Wincott was born January 14, 1830, in Owen county, Kentucky and was married to Miss L. A. Jackson, March 23, 1854; to this union was born ten children, Mrs. Anna Ebling, Atchinson, Kansas; Mrs. Sarah Cook, Stanton, Nebraska; Mrs. Sophia Shannahan, Nebraska City, Nebraska; Mrs. Livia Roberts, deceased; George Wincott, Plattsmouth, Nebraska; Charles Wincott, Omaha, Nebraska; Mrs. Josephine Reid, Nebraska City, Nebraska; Asa Wincott, Omaha, Nebraska; Lavusa and John Wincott, both deceased.

The good wife preceded her husband by six years to the better land. He leaves seven children and forty-two grand children and twenty-six great grand children.

He and his wife moved to Nebraska in June of 1866. They united with the Baptist church June, 1877, under the ministry of Rev. T. J. Arnold and he lived a conscientious christian life until his death and went home to his reward and to join a loved companion.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of returning our heartfelt thanks to those kind neighbors and friends who rendered such valuable aid during the illness of our daughter and sister Bessie. And also to our Havelock friends who attended the funeral and attested their esteem for our dear, departed daughter and sister with such a profusion of flowers.
