THOUGHTFUL THINKS

Here's freedom to him that would read, Here's freedom to him that would write, There's none ever feared the truth should be heard, But they whom the truth would injure. —Robert Burns.

Yes, "Back to the Constitution," should be the rallying cry of every democrat in the land.

Poor old Frisco! First an earthquake, then graft, then strikes and riots. Verily, the way of the transgressor is hard.

Five years is the latest guess as the time to complete the Panama Canal. Shows how industriously those army men are digging.

An auditor of Harry K. Thaw's accounts has proved that he has plenty of money left. There will be no lack of legal counsel at the next trial.

The lady bug is being introduced in Kansas for the purpose of destroying the green bugs. Lady bugs have long had a killing effect upon green bugs.

That was a wise man who asked that a preacher be present when he was to be operated upon for appendicitis. He said he wanted to be opened with prayer.

If you want to know why Governor Sheldon appointed Don Despain, just ask him. He says that he does not want to tell the public, but that he will impart the information to his friends on the quiet.

Though spring planting is a little backward, Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, is authorized for the hope that nothing to cut short the yields has yet happened to the crops of the West and Southwest.

We are afraid there are a few girls—also boys—in this vicinity who will not sympathize with the suffering of the New York heiress who has found it necessary to apply to the courts to compel her guardian to increase her annual allowance from $20,000 to $45,000 in order that she might live properly.

The people who plant their potatoes by the moon also agree that when the peach trees bloom in the light of the moon the fruit is immune from injury by frost. It may be so, and the trees this year did bloom in the light of the moon, but ten this has been an unusual season in other respects, and there is no telling what may happen.

RIHA GIVEN BIG SEND-OFF

Plattsmouth Turner Greatly in Evidence at the Great Ovation Tendered Nebraska's Representative at Prague

According to the Omaha Bee, a rousing send-off was given Frank J. Riha Sunday at Ted Jed Sokol hall in that city. From the program of exercises it appears that the representatives from Plattsmouth were greatly in evidence on this occasion. Mr. Riha will leave soon as the sole representative of the western turners in the international contests which will be held at Prague, Bohemia. Turners will go from all over the world to this tournament and the western members have great hopes in Mr. Riha carrying off some of the prizes.

Turners from Omaha, South Omaha and Plattsmouth joined Sunday afternoon and evening in making the occasion of his departure a most memorable one. Mayor Dahlgren sped the athlete on his way with one of his characteristic speeches and gave him an official introduction to the tournament with the seal of the city of Omaha affixed.

The program was long and most interesting and was well received by the large gathering which had turned out to assist in the festivities. The program consisted of dumb bell exercises by the turner girls and vocal numbers by the turners' auxiliaries; a club drill by the Plattsmouth women turners and a flag drill by the South Omaha women turners; a parallel bar drill by the South Omaha turners and a parallel bar drill by the Plattsmouth turners; side horse drill by the Omaha turners and horizontal bar drill by the South Side German turners; a dumb bell drill by the Omaha turners and a wand drill by the Omaha juvenile turners; a parallel bar drill by the Plattsmouth turners; vaulting table drill by the Omaha turners and parallel bar drills by the South Omaha and Omaha turners.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Plattsmouth.

Results tell the tale, all doubt is removed, the testimony of a Plattsmouth citizen can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? Mrs. Henry Ofe, living at corner of Holdrege and Third streets, Plattsmouth says: "We have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills. Their merits were first shown to us about two years ago. I took them for headache which had troubled me off and on for a long time and obtained prompt and thorough relief. Whenever I feel run down or fear a return of the annoyance, I appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills and a few doses have never failed to banish all symptoms and strengthen me every way. My husband has also used and appreciates Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as I do. This remedy can always be found in our house for we never mean to be without it. I procure this remedy at Gering & Co.'s drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Relief From Rheumatic Pain.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Roland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so that I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by F. G. Fricke & A. T. Fried.

WINE OF CARDUI

IF YOU TOUCH your tongue to ALUM

and look in the glass—you will see the effect—You can't help puckering—it makes you pucker to think of tasting it.

By the use of so called cheap Baking Powders you take this puckering, injurious Alum right into your system—you injure digestion, and ruin your stomach.

AVOID ALUM

Say plainly—

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Royal is made from pure, refined Grape Cream of Tartar—Costs more than Alum but you have the profit of quality, the profit of good health.
