

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

James A. Darrow of near Union was a business visitor in the county seat today.

Geo. Stohlman of Manley came in via the M. P. this morning, returning on the Schuyler this afternoon.

C. H. Lewis and wife of near Nehawka, are in the city today looking after business matters and visiting friends.

Wm. Troop from Nehawka, is in the city today transacting business with our merchants and renewing acquaintances.

Mrs. Buna Kitzell of Murdock, who has been in the city attending the pioneers' reunion and visiting with the family of her brother, C. E. Cook, departed for her home last evening via South Bend.

The horses belonging to W. H. Warner, which were so badly cut with barbed wire, were attended by Thomas Fry, who reports them as getting along nicely with good prospects of entire recovery.

Ellis Goolsby, who has been living in Omaha for some time past, has returned to Plattsmouth and now occupies Frank Civies' house over near the Burlington shops. Ellis will do team work of all kind for which he is well equipped.

Andrew McMaken, who has been visiting in the city for a few days, left for Omaha this morning where he will visit with his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Leighton, over Sunday, after which he will return to his home at Atchison, Kansas.

L. W. Patterson of Narka, Kansas, who was called here to attend the funeral of his grand daughter, Miss Florence McDonald, departed for home this morning. Mr. Patterson was also in attendance at the pioneers' reunion.

Mrs. L. G. Todd and daughter, Jessie, departed last evening on the M. P. train for their home near Union after visiting with the family of Geo. W. Thomas for a few days. Mr. Thomas is a grandson of Mrs. Todd. They all enjoyed the visit very much.

Albert Fickler was on the South Omaha market again yesterday with two car load of cattle, and run down to remain over night with Plattsmouth friends. Bert's home is in Stanton county, but being reared in Old Cass, he still cherishes a warm feeling for the old home.

Norman Dickson, a brother of Frank Dickson, came in last evening from Elmwood, where he was attending the funeral of his brother-in-law, Edward Sloppey. Mr. Dickson visited over night with the family of F. M. Rice and departed for his home at Maxwell, Iowa, on the morning train.

Henry Tartsch who has been at Omaha for a few days, receiving some medical treatment, came in on the evening train yesterday and was an over night visitor at the home of his parents; also with Wm. Ballance and family, the parents of Mrs. Tartsch. Henry left this morning for Omaha where he will look after some business matters today when he will return to his home at McCook.

Through an error in preparing the copy for the printer, the names of Conrad Schlater and wife were omitted from the list of names of those at the semi-centennial meeting of pioneers. Mr. Schlater and wife came here in 1859, and were among the most prominent of the workers of the country, and their names were unintentionally omitted from the list of the old settlers reunion.

Chas. Creamer and wife from south of Rock Bluffs looking after business matters today. Mr. Creamer has been laid up for some three months with an affection of one of his feet in which the vein is ruptured. Mr. Creamer took treatment from some Omaha doctors, who gave the affection an unspellable name. Chas. has been able to be up and around now for about a month but it is with difficulty he walks upon his feet even now.

From Saturday's Daily.

James Hatched of Murray, was a business visitor in the city today.

West Barnett of Rock Bluffs, is in the city today transacting business.

Mrs. A. T. Hunger of Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Adam Hild from west of town, was in the city today transacting business with our people.

Adam Kaffenberger, a prosperous farmer living west of town, was a business visitor in the county seat today.

B. B. Danaher of near Murray was in the city today. He reports his mother as suffering very severely from rheumatism.

Permit to commit matrimony was issued to Patrick J. McGrath and Mas. Addie Lauer yesterday, both aged forty-two years.

C. A. Schildmeyer, a prosperous and substantial farmer from the neighborhood of South Bend, was a Plattsmouth visitor today renewing acquaintances and transacting business at the county seat.

P. S. Hall of Rock Bluffs was a business visitor in town today. He reports things in his city as running along in the even tenor of their way and no especial excitement except that caused by a case of small pox.

Brother J. A. Clements of the Leader-Echo of Elmwood, is in the city renewing acquaintances and shaking hands with friends, not a few failed to recognize him as he has just arose victorious from a four weeks' bout with typhoid fever. Bro. Clements has our sympathy, as we have had that old fellow slip up behind us in the dark a couple of times.

C. H. Sarr of Manley, was in the city today transacting business at the court house.

Miss Fitch, the elocutionist who has a class here, came down from Omaha this morning.

Henry Likewise of Cedar Creek is in the city, called home by the death of his brother, Albert.

You can buy light weight pearl cloth at H. L. Asemissen & Sons for 3c per square foot.

Wm. Noxon who has been in Omaha for a few days past on business returned home last evening.

Olof Inhelder of Cedar Creek, is in the city today, called hither by the death of his nephew, Albert Likewise.

The apportionment of the school funds, just compiled by the state superintendent, Cass county has 7,033 scholars, and is entitled to $8,653.79.

Guy Patterson of Rock Bluffs, who has been working at Omaha for some time past came down on the evening Missouri Pacific train yesterday and will visit with home folks over Sunday.

Ax Childers, the fisherman who has been living just beyond the elevator at Oreapolis, has moved his house to the land owned by Ed Fitzgerald, north of the pumping station of the Water company, and will make that his headquarters for his fishing during the coming season.

J. F. Robenson and A. E. Anderson, accompanied by Mr. Anderson's brother, E. H. Anderson of Caldwell, Kan., who has been visiting in this city, went to Omaha today where they will see the sights of the metropolis. E. F. Anderson, after visiting with relatives and friends here and at Omaha for a few days, will proceed to Portland, Oregon, where he will remain for the summer.

J. J. Horn, who is now a resident of Knox county, with postoffice address at Creighton, was in the city today and caller at the Journal headquarters for the purpose of renewing for the Old Reliable. Mr. and Mrs. Horn were former residents of Cass county, and have been visiting old home folks for a week or ten days. They will return to their home in Knox county Monday morning.

From Monday's Daily.

Leo Ludale of Murray was a county seat visitor today.

Chas. Chriswiser of near Nehawka was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Peter Eveland of Murdock was in the city today attending to some business matters at the court house.

John T. Porter and wife of Murray, were visiting friends and transacting business in the county seat today.

Wm. Schwab, wife and family from near Rock Bluffs were passengers to Omaha, where they will visit during the day.

Theodore and William Starkjohn were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they are looking after business matters.

Peter Smith and wife accompanied by their little son Joyce, were transacting business in the city today and seeing sights.

Henry M. Long, one of our most progressive farmers from below Murray, was in the city this morning looking after some business.

Herman Pankonin of Louisville, was a county seat visitor today. He is looking after some business affairs and renewing acquaintances.

O. V. Virgin, of near Murray is in the city today on business. Mr. Virgin reports that ice froze at his place in the watering trough.

Mrs. W. H. Becker was a passenger for Avoca on the Missouri Pacific this morning where she will visit with the family of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Miller of that place.

Abe Culbertson, was stricken with paralysis, a few days ago and is now lying in a very precarious condition at the home of Robert Johnson in the west part of town.

Wade Porter and Arthur Copenhaver, two of Murray's sterling young men, were in the city this morning looking after business matters and visiting friends.

Kelly Rhoden a prosperous young farmer from near Murray came up this morning and took the early train for Omaha where he is seeing the sights and transacting business today.

R. B. Beckner and wife, and Frank Albin and wife, all from near Union, came up to the county seat this morning and took the early train for Omaha where they will visit during the day.

H. R. Neitzel of Murdock, accompanied by his wife and family came in this morning and are visiting with Mrs. Neitzel's folks, F. R. Guthman and family. Mr. Neitzel and family will return home this evening.

Jacob Horn and family, who have been visiting with friends and relatives in the city and west of town for the past week or ten days, departed this morning via the early Missouri Pacific train for their home in Plainview, Pierce county. They speak well of the country up there and think it almost equal to Cass county though this as a farming district is hard to beat.

From Tuesday's Daily

Mrs. H. S. Sharpe was a visitor at Omaha yesterday.

James Walker of Murray was a business visitor in the city today.

Dr. J. W. Brendel was a business visitor in the city last evening.

W. K. Conner of Bartlett, Iowa, is visiting with friends and relatives in the city.

Mrs. Louise Kline of Omaha is visiting in this city with her mother, Mrs. Benj Hempel.

C. S. Stone was a visitor in the city last evening, where he was looking after some business matters.

Walrod Nord came down from Omaha last evening on a flying visit, looking after some business matters.

Mike Rys, was a passenger to Cedar Creek on the early train this morning where he is looking after some business.

Chas S. Haverstock of Omaha will sing at the concert Thursday night. Mr. Haverstock is a baritone of rare talent. Be sure and hear him.

John A. Henning, one of the most prosperous farmers living near Cedar Creek, was in the city yesterday looking after some business matters.

Olof Inhelder, who was in the city over Sunday attending the funeral of Albert Likewise, departed for his home at Louisville yesterday afternoon.

Through freight trains Nos. 76 and 77 between Chicago and Denver, which have been laying up at Pacific Junction, will have this place as the end of the division from now on.

Wm. C. Hennings of Cedar Creek, was in the city on business yesterday and made this office a pleasant call, and while here became reader of the household necessity—the weekly Journal.

Charlie Kerr still remains very sick, with no perceptible change in his condition. His many friends would be pleased to know of any improvement, but the conditions do not justify any such hope.

Mrs. August Hess purchased Monday the property of Tom Sanders on Wintersteen Hill, and will occupy the same about June 8. Mr. Sanders will go to the state of Washington to make his future home.

Mike Maury was a passenger for the west this morning, going to Ogallala, where he has a ranch, having bought it recently, and now goes to see it. He will also go to Big Springs, where he has some interests.

George W. Snyder, of west of Myard, was a passenger to South Omaha this morning, where he goes to look after some stock interests. He will also transact some business in Council Bluffs before he returns.

Gottlieb Sprick of Stanton, formerly of near Louisville, with his wife have been visiting with relatives and friends in this county, will return home tomorrow. During their visit, two of the children were baptised.

Miss Grace Barr, Omaha's leaning soprano, will aid at the choral union concert on Thursday night. This institution is evidently determined not to do things by halves and therefore deserves the unanimous support of the public.

Mr. Powell, the genial agent of the Missouri Pacific is painting and otherwise improving his residence, in the west part of the city. This is the property formerly owned by William Neville. John M. Vondran is doing the work.

T. J. Rhoden and wife were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they are looking after some business matters. Mr. Rhoden and wife drove up from near Murray last evening and remained over night, going to the metropolis this morning.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Constantly at It? YES!

And so we are, for if we didn't keep at work advertising our goods, telling you what new goods are being used, the styles, colors and in fact everything an economical buyer ought to know, you would think us a back number. For these reasons, together with our ambition, we are still at it, helping to push the wheels of industry. We sell goods over the counter, by mail and 'phones 153 and 70.

Our Ladies' Shoe Department is up-to-date. Come and see some of the many new styles in the famous Queen Quality shoe.

Our Shirtwaist Stock is Complete and are Perfect in Style Quality and Fit

$1.00 to $5.00

WASH GOODS

To give you an idea as to what are some of the leading patterns we would ask you to stop a few minutes and look at our east window.

Table Linens

Almost any design imaginable in bleached, half-bleached and unbleached from 45 to 72 inches wide. Some with napkins that match.

SUMMES UNDERWEAR

You can safely buy summer underwear now; the warm weather is here to stay for a while. Union suits and two-piece garments at all prices.

House Dresses

Fine Percale Wrappers in blue, black, red and gray. Good colors. MADE RIGHT FIT RIGHT SELL RIGHT

Drapery

Silkoline in plain colors and fancies. Curtain Lucises. Serinn and many beautiful designs in drapery.

Carpet Warp

We sell the Buffalo warp; the best warp made. Use it once and you will always use it.

Special Lot of Black Taffeta Ribbon

No. 40..... 18c No. 100..... 25c
No. 60..... 20c No. 120..... 30c
No. 80..... 22c No. 150..... 35c

Our Hosiery Dept.

If you like fine hose, then come to our store. We can sell you anything in that line manufactured.

Our Hosiery Dept.

Fine black seamless hose from 15c a pair up. Lisle thread in white and black and colors. Lace hose in white and black.

From Wednesday's daily.

Philip Hild was an over night visitor in the city, having been at Omaha on business.

Henry Sanders of Cedar Creek, a prominent farmer, was in the city on business Tuesday.

Miss Ona Young, one of Murray's most accomplished young ladies, was a visitor in the city today.

Geo. Perry from Eight Mile Grove, was in the city today transacting business with our merchants.

Henry Meisinger of near Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the city yesterday returning home last evening.

Lincoln Denson, who was in attendance at the funeral of his brother-in-law, Simon Hansen, returned home last evening.

John Albert is in the city today from near Cedar Creek, coming on the early morning train. He is looking after some business matters.

John Groop of Louisville, was in the city Tuesday and made this office a very pleasant call and to renew his faith in the Old Reliable. Call again John.

George Reihart, a prosperous farmer from near Louisville, was in the city Tuesday looking after some business matters and renewing old acquaintances.

The funeral of Simon Hansen was held from the home of J. G. Hansen, the dead man's father, yesterday afternoon. The burial was made in the cemetery on his father's Nehawka farm.

Henry J. Schultz departed today for Alliance and other parts of the northwest where he goes in the interest of the Burlington. His duties being in line of the freight car repair department.

Charles Engelkemeier, one of our prosperous farmers from west of Murray was an over night visitor in the city, being at Omaha on business yesterday, and stopping here on his return last evening.

A. T. Hinshaw of Alvo, was in the city today on his return from Bancroft where he has been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Richardson. Mr. Hinshaw stopped over here to see some of his old friends and will go on home this afternoon.

Norva Norval, known as "Pug Denson" was an overnight visitor in the city. He was in attendance at the funeral of Simon Hansen, near Nehawka, a relative. Norva is engaged with the gang of graders, who are doing some work for the Burlington near South Bend.

GREAT --: REDUCTION

ON MILLINERY

All Ladies' Misses and Children's

Trimmed Hats will be sold at greatly reduced prices for the next

TWO WEEKS

...FLORENCE ANDERSON...

WILDFIELD STAMP 4107

This celebrated stallion will make the season of 1907 at my farm 6 miles southwest of Myard, and serve a limited number of mares at $10 to insure a mare with foal, money due when the fact is known.

Description and Pedigree:

Wildfield Stamp is a large boney horse, bay in color, with stripe in face and weighs seventeen hundred pounds. Wildfield stamp (4107) is a thoroughbred Clydesdale, and foaled May 9, 1905, and is registered in the Clydesdale Stud Book of Canada. Sired by Westfield Stamp (1819) (9467); dam, Flora of Ringwood (3622) (12506); she sired by The Royal Standard (2230); second dam, Maggie of Ringwood (716); she by Lord Salisbury (246); third dam, Bell of Ringwood (670); sired by Victor 2d (158); fourth dam, Fan; sired by Robbie Burns (164); fifth dam by Loudoun Tam (127).

All parties interested in the breeding of fine horses are requested to call at my farm and see this celebrated animal.

A. S. WILL, Proprietor