Where pressure water is used this malleable iron extension water front, which has more heating surface than any other, supplies abundance of hot water to all parts of the house. It takes the place of reservoir.

We heartily invite our friends to call any day during the above mentioned week and we will demonstrate the superior qualities of the

New Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Ranges

The MAJESTIC MALLEABLE and steel range as formerly turned out by the Majestic people has been considered throughout the country as par excellence, and far ahead of any other range made. But with the NEW CHARCOAL IRON BODY in place of steel, making it double its value, and the fact that it is the only range in existence made of Malleable and Charcoal Iron, you can readily see that if quality is considered, the Majestic leads by a big margin. WE WANT YOU TO CALL at our store during next week, and let us explain this new feature:—CHARCOAL IRON BODIES: let us explain why it is the best material for range bodies, and incidentally why it is not used on other ranges. We want you to call if you intend to buy or not, as the information gained will serve you in the future.

Eye in Bad Condition.

Geo. M. Porter and wife are in Omaha today, where Mrs. Porter is having an operation performed on her right eye. She has been troubled for some time past with it, and was in Omaha some two weeks ago, and has since been kept in a darkened room for fear of injury to the sight. For a time Mrs. Porter could not see with that eye, but is able to see some now, and that after the operation which is to be made will recover the sight as formerly.

Looking for Fine Cattle.

Robert Richards of Overton, Neb., was in the city over night awaiting for a train home. He had been at the home of Mr. Countryman, near Nehawka, looking at his fine cattle, of which Mr. Countryman and sons are breeders. They handle a very fine strain of Herefords, and it was one of these that Mr. Richards was wanting. No purchase made as he had not made up his mind as to whether he would take the cattle offered by our Cass county breeders or look farther.

S. H. Shoemaker was business visitor in the metropolis today.

Seriously Injured.

Switchman Jacob Denson, who has been engaged in Council Bluffs for some time past, was the victim of a very painful accident day before yesterday, sustaining a very severe rupture. While at work switching, he was on top of a box car, and when the cars which were being thrown together, struck, Mr. Denson was thrown or fell from the car and at this time received his injury. He will be laid up for some time.

Ladies, now is the time to secure your hats before my milliner leaves Plattsmouth. M. FANGER.

A Little Child Dies.

May, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Godwin, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Loomis, the mother of Mrs. Godwin, in Omaha. Little May had had the measles, and it was thought that she had entirely recovered. She with her parents, went to Omaha to visit with Grandma Loomis, and in some manner contracted a cold, which gave her a relapse. Mrs. Godwin, her mother, has been a constant watcher at her bedside during her sickness and her father has been with her a good deal of the time as well, trying to work in the intervals, when it was thought that the little one was improving.

Yesterday when May grew rapidly worse, her father was called to her bedside by telephone. He hastened to his little daughter, and everything that medical science could do was done, but to no effect.

With the fading light of the afternoon the soul of the little one took flight for that better world, where sorrow, suffering and parting of friends are never known.

The funeral will be held from the home of E. M. Godwin tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. E. Houlgate officiating.

The sympathies of a host of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Godwin are with the parents of this little one in this their hour of sad bereavement.

Horse Disappears.

James Gilmour of Ulysses, shipped his father, Wm. Gilmour of this place, a horse, which came in last night, and which some one else took. Mr. Gilmour came in town to receive it today but it is no where to be found. As we go to press they have not found it, but are still looking for the animal.

Study the Flowers.

The botany class of the high school went out yesterday and looked at the flowers and the growing vegetation, gathered specimens, and had a general good time. They were accompanied by all the high school teachers with the exception of Miss Gass. After studying the flowers in their native state, and gathering all the facts in regard to the growth and construction of the various kinds of flowers and plants, they all wended their way to the bridge. Here in the pleasant cool of the evening they gathered together their well-filled baskets and spread a cloth and enjoyed a delicious supper, after which they returned home all saying that the day had been well spent.

Refutes the Slander.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB., May 29, 1907—Editor Journal:—An article in the Union Ledger of this county, of May 17, relative to the misconduct of some young men at the M. P. depot toward Prof. Hodapp, has been called to my attention—that part of the article to which I desire to enter an unqualified denial so far as it refers to me—is as follows:

"Such conduct is no credit to the city of Plattsmouth, much less to the night operator at the depot, who appeared to be in league with the toughs and took no steps to quell the disturbance."

A statement of the facts will show the injustice done me. I have been the night operator since last December and the article must refer to me. I opened the ticket window fifteen minutes before train time on the night of the occurrence referred to and discovered that a window was open. A lady was sitting in front of the window. From the temperature of this night I believed some person had opened it to annoy persons lawfully in the depot, so I immediately shut the window down and went outside of the depot to ascertain who opened it. I saw a gang outside in the dark but could recognize none of them. I warned them not to repeat their misconduct in opening the window.

I then went in the ticket office and when the train arrived I brought the baggage to the car and did not see any of the disturbance referred to in the article of the Ledger.

I have no acquaintance with the parties making the disturbance and am no more to blame for it than the writer of the article in the Union Ledger, whoever he may be.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD HALE.
