Men Make Money

by shrewd, careful investments. An investment combining safe and sure results is best procured in the purchase of cheap land, capable of producing profitable crops, the land in the meantime materially increasing in price. Box Butte county land offers to the immediate purchaser surest and largest returns upon an investment now being offered any place. We have sold 80 quarter sections in the past thirty days. Other people believe this a good investment—we know that you will believe it upon making an examination. Level land well located, with a thoroughly good soil, close in to the liveliest towns in the state, is worth more than $10 to $15 per acre out that is all we are asking. It only takes two days to look it over—do it not! Railroad rates given and fare refunded to purchasers.

LESS F. HALL,

Murray State Bank, Murray, Nebraska—U. S. Land Co.,
203 Neville Bldg., Omaha, Nebraska

Chas. Stone went to Omaha Wednesday on business.

Dr. Gilmour and Roy Boedecker were in Omaha Saturday.

Mrs. J. A. Walker and daughter, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and son, Walker, were shopping in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Ed Wurt, who lives on the old Doc Latta place, brought in two loads of fat hogs for the market Wednesday morning.

D. C. Rhoden has been crippled up this week from stepping on a rusty nail. A rusty nail is a dangerous thing when stuck in one's foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boardman, living on the George Wiles place nine miles northwest of town, are the proud parents of an eight-pound girl, arriving Tuesday.

Henry Long accompanied his wife as far as Omaha, Thursday, where she took the train for Thurston county, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Shrader.

The United Presbyterian church is undergoing some improvements this week in the way of papering. Wm. McLeod, the decorator, is doing the work. As the walls of the church were becoming blackened, this will greatly add to the appearance of the interior of the building.

THE LATE MISS McDONALD

Who Passed Away at Her Home in Murray on Friday, May 17, 1907

A precious jewel from us has gone and passed into that fair and happy home. Again has the Angel of Death visited our neighborhood and taken from a once happy home, a kind and loving daughter and dearly beloved sister and one who will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

The long days and nights of patient suffering, waiting and watching has ended, and the light of the perfect day has dawned upon the radiant spirit of Miss Florence McDonald, who on May 17, passed into the mysterious sleep of the grave. Calmly and peacefully like the closing of a summer's day, the spark of life went out of her tired spirit and flew to the haven of rest.

Florence, daughter of Mrs. Myra McDonald, born Nov. 30, 1884, leaves a mother, one sister, Mrs. Grace Melinger of Ashland, Oregon, and a brother, Oscar of Murdock, and many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. The services were held in the Christian church at Murray. It is said to be the largest gathering ever there. Rev. A. L. Zink of Plattsmouth, spoke words of comfort and consolation to the mourners and in his discourse likened life unto a flower that cometh fourth and is cut down. Paying a beautiful tribute to the life of one who has been called so early to give up all that had been near and dear to her here below.

The dear one wished to recover for the happiness it would bring to others but could not. Otherwise she was glad to go. She had expressed faith in her Saviour and was ready to depart from this shore, from which her father had departed fourteen years ago. She was a constant sufferer for fifteen months from a complication of diseases, and with a patience born of divine grace, she bore her suffering to the last moment with such a spirit of cheerfulness, that she was taught a sweet lesson of uncomplaining, self-forgetfulness to those who were with her often during her illness.

Lovingly and tenderly we laid her to rest by the side of her father in the Horning cemetery and paid our last tribute of respect to one esteemed so highly and around whose memory will cling so many pleasant recollections. Slowly and surely the cloud of sorrow has settled over the home and unspeakable sorrow is burdening the hearts of those who loved her. It is hard to give up those we love. But the ruler of the universe knoweth best and he who has taken her away will be their guiding star.

Alas, that mortal men so little know
As through this vale they tread,
They cannot see life's future charged with woe
Not even one step ahead as on we go strangely led.
Dear tired hearts with ill oppressed,
Fly to the shelter of God's breast:
What can hurt thee or alarm
Within the circle of his arm?
Never mind earth's stormy weather
God and His own are close together.

She was a dear and true friend to all who knew her. None knew her but to love her. Those who knew her best loved her most. She possessed that cheerful disposition of always seeing the brightest side of life even in her last hours spoke these cheerful words to her mother "to think all was for the best and look for the good things in life." To our short sighted wisdom, the death of such a needed one seems a sad mistake. But God's purpose is unknown to us, and all things work together for good to those who love Him. The kind Father hath some need of his beautiful flower, so He called her to a higher sphere to finish her work in the happy realms of the blest. It was not meant for us to completely understand.

We only know that thou hast gone
And that the same returnless tide
Which bore thee from us,
Still glides on and on.
And we who mourn thee with it glide—
Beyond the shadow and beyond the gloom
Where sorrows never come:
Beyond the dismal darkness of the tomb
Where flowers sweet in fadeless beauty bloom she is at home.

Card of Thanks.
We take this method of expressing our most heartfelt thanks to those kind friends and neighbors who rendered such valuable assistance during the illness, death and funeral of our dear daughter and sister, Miss Florence McDonald. Their kindness will never be forgotten by us.
MRS. MYRA McDONALD,
OSCAR McDONALD AND FAMILY,
MRS. GRACE MILLIGAN AND FAMILY.

Mr. Wm. Puls Sr., shipped a car load of cattle to the So. Omaha market Monday.

Uncle Sam Latta has a new compressed air water tank in his cellar. Water is pumped in from the well and is forced out of the tank by the compression of the air. This is an easy means of forcing water over the house and to any point desired.

A Checking Account Aids Your Memory

It is necessary to remember every small bill you pay, when you keep a checking account. Your checks are a record of your business.

Each check has written on its face—the date and amount of the bill paid, the party to whom it was paid. In addition, each check is a receipt for the obligation cancelled.

Don't try to remember the bills you cancel. Pay by check—file your checks for reference. It's the surer method.

Louie Puls, sheled and hauled off his grain Tuesday.

Miss Mae Vallery is sewing for Mrs. Gilmour this week.

Gug Burton painted the old post-office building this week.

Asa McCollough was a passenger to Plattsmouth the last of the week.

Charles E. Hall, vice president of the U. S. Land Co. of Omaha, was in town Saturday.

Miss Margie Walker spent Saturday evening in Omaha with relatives, returning Sunday afternoon.

J. A. Walker was in South Omaha last Friday where he bought a car load of stock cattle for his pasture.

Mr. Allen Wilson a genial member of the Jones Grain company, of Nebraska City, spent Tuesday evening and night here.

Uncle Sam Latta is treating his building to a new coat of paint. It is wonderful how a little paint freshens up the old building.

Alfred Dean, who has been in the Immanuel hospital for the past ten days, where he went with trouble of his jaw, is at home again and on the way to recovery.

Miss Alice Oliver went down to Peru to attend the graduating exercises and was accompanied home by her sister, Elizabeth, who has been attending school at that place.

PLATTSMOUTH'S HONORED DEAD

Phillip Hild and Chas. Engelkemier were passengers to Omaha Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Snider and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Oldham.

Miss Margie Walker went to Omaha Saturday to see Maude Adams at the Boyd.

Mrs. J. Newell came down from Plattsmouth Sunday for a short visit with the Walker family.

The Royal Neighbors gave a public installation at the Woodman hall Saturday evening. Mrs. Stonclpher, a state organizer, was present.

John and Lee Faris left the first of the week for Alliance, Box Butte county, Neb., to look at a few quarters of land for sale by Less F. Hall.

Tapley Taught, an old timer of Cass county, but now in real estate business in Lincoln, is spending the week with grippe and general neuralgia, was able to be in Murray Friday.

C. H. Boedecker shipped two cars of fine stock as ever went out of our stock yards, to South Omaha this week. Any person seeing this bunch of stock, could very readily see that Mr. Boedecker was not only a good feeder, but an excellent judge of stock, as well.

The frost Sunday night did some damage to gardens.

Rev. George W. Morrison of Oregon will preach next Sabbath, June 2nd at Murray.

We're going again next week to Box Butte county, Neb., where we can buy good black soil in a healthy climate, where the land is level, plenty of rainfall, "where a man is a man, if he is willing to toil, and the humblest gatherers of the fruits of the soil. Want to go with us? If you do see Less F. Hall.

William Puls from west of Murray was on the market at South Omaha yesterday with some of the finest of cattle, the production of Cass county, and which cannot be beaten anywhere in the country. Mr. Puls struck a very good market and was well pleased with the results of the shipment. On returning Mr. Puls stopped over night in the county seat, and departed for his home this morning.
