

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH
AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

T. Evans Parmele was a passenger to Omaha this morning.

Miss Minnie McKay spent Decoration Day at Omaha and returned this morning.

Horace Dunn was an overnight visitor in the city of Glenwood, returning this morning on the early train.

C. A. Rawls returned Wednesday evening from Burwell where he has been looking after some business relative to his ranch.

L. K. Chalfant of Murray, was in the city on business today and made this office a pleasant call, renewing his subscription to the Old Reliable.

S. C. Patterson and family of Arapahoe, were in the city visiting relatives and friends and attending the Decoration Day ceremonies over yesterday.

Chas. Perry of near Murray, was a passenger to Lincoln this morning, where he will join Mrs. Perry who is visiting in the capitol city at the present, and will renew acquaintances with relatives and friends until over Sunday.

Commissioner M. L. Fredrich and County Clerk W. E. Rosencrans, were in Red Oak, Iowa yesterday, on county business. Going in the morning and returning in the afternoon.

Ex-Senator S. L. Thomas, who has been visiting with relatives and friends in and near Plattsmouth for some time past, departed for his home near Akron, Colorado, this morning.

Jacob Koffman, accompanied by his wife and son, departed for Omaha this afternoon where they will visit for a few days, then go to Lincoln for a short stop with friends. After which they will proceed to Los Angeles, California, with a view of staying permanently, should they like the country.

Wm. Keel of Cullom was a visitor in the city Decoration Day.

Byron Reed from Murray was in the city today, looking after some business matters.

For Sale—A first class team of draft horses, weighing about 1,300 each. Enquire of W. H. Lair.

Andrew Seybert of Cullom was a business visitor in the county seat this morning returning home this afternoon.

Andy Morrow of Grocia, this state, came in Wednesday night for a short visit with relatives and friends. Andy Snyder, who is living at that place, is running the ranch for Mr. Morrow during his absence.

Roy Howard, a prosperous farmer from near Mynard, was in the city today looking after some business matters, made this office a pleasant call, and made us happy by renewing his subscription for the household necessities. Thanks Roy, call again.

From Saturday's Daily.

Joseph Mauk of Nehawka, was a business visitor in the city today.

John Lloyd from near Nehawka was in the city today transacting business with our merchants.

Jacob Parr, living south of town, was a business visitor in the metropolis today.

John Campbell, of near Kenosha, was a business visitor in the county seat today.

Mrs. E. Chriswiser, who has been visiting in Glenwood for a few days, returned home last evening.

F. M. Young Jr., from near Murray, was in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Ray Christwiser and wife from near Nehawka was in the city visiting with friends and transacting business.

Mark White and wife of Rock Bluffs are in the city visiting relatives and attending to some business matters.

Park Chriswiser, of near Weeping Water, was in the city on business yesterday, returned home via Louisville.

C. F. Harris from Union was in the city today transacting business with our citizens and attending to some business matters at the court house.

Otto Sprick, a prominent young farmer, living three miles east of Louisville, was in the city today and called on the Journal for the purpose of renewing for the Old Reliable.

The "irrepressible" Charly Gaebler and Bill Wendt were down from Louisville today circulating among their Plattsmouth friends. Of course, they paid their respects to the Journal.

Misses Minnie and Marie Barnhart of Peru, nieces of Mrs. J. C. York, came in today from Louisville where Miss Minnie was engaged in teaching the past winter, for a short visit with their aunt and family. They are enroute for their home.

James Newell, who is now living at Alliance, came in last evening and will visit for a few days with relatives and friends. Mrs. Newell has been here some time visiting with her parents, A. W. Atwood and wife. James is looking after some business matters in Omaha today.

"Doc" Campbell, one of the proprietors of the Campbell Bros. circus died at Council Bluffs and his remains were taken to Fairbury for interment. This is the second one of the brothers who has been ill since the circus started out. One of them is now in a sanitarium at Lincoln being treated for nervous prostration.

The Journal regrets to learn that Dr. Jester and family have removed from Eagle to Bethany, Neb. Dr. Jester is a most excellent citizen, a splendid physician, and was in the enjoyment of an excellent practice. His only excuse for this move was that he could do better and that Bethany afforded a better opportunity to educate his children. He has a host of friends in Cass county who regret his removal.

From Monday's Daily.

James Nidey of Union is in the city looking after some business affairs.

Michael Meisinger, of near Cullom, was a business visitor at the county seat today.

G. G. Meisinger, of near Cullom was a business visitor to Omaha this afternoon.

J. W. Lowther, of near Murray, was in Plattsmouth looking after some business matters.

Dr. J. M. Carr of Springfield, formerly of Louisville, was a business visitor in the city today.

C. F. Reihart of Cullom is a Plattsmouth visitor today. He is looking after some business affairs.

Wm. Taylor of Rock Bluffs was mingling with our citizens, and looking after business matters today.

C. St. John of Nehawka was in the city today transacting business with the county officials at the court house.

Mrs. Mark White of Rock Bluff was a passenger to Omaha yesterday where she will visit with friends for a few days.

George P. Barton, the popular barber at Union, is visiting in the city today, and transacting business with our merchants.

Herman Smith and wife of Nehawka who have been visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr and Mrs J. S. Hall returned home yesterday.

F. A. Baker and wife visited in this city yesterday with the family of County Clerk Rosencrans, returning home on the afternoon Missouri Pacific train.

Tuesday evening at Coates' hall the Social Workers will entertain their friends. Marion Dodd will sing several selections. 10c admission, ice cream and cake will be served.

Homer Sanders, who has been working at Gretna at his trade as a barber came in last evening for a few days visit with his parents. He will return to his work this evening.

Colonel Lee Mayfield of the Louisville Courier was in the county seat today looking after some business matters at the court house. And of course let the light of his genial countenance beam in upon the Journal force.

C. L. Graves, editor of the Union Ledger, was in the city on business today. While playing ball yesterday he tore the nail off the middle finger of the right hand, which is very painful.

County Assessor, J. M. Teegarden, and Commissioners Marshall and Schwitzer, came in from Weeping Water this morning; and are at work like beavers at their various duties in the court house.

Mrs. Allen Beeson and daughter, Gertrude, leave tonight for Alliance, to be present at the wedding of Frank Beeson's oldest son, Thomas. The wedding will occur Wednesday, June 5, and Mrs. Beeson and daughter will be absent about two weeks.

From Tuesday's Daily

John McNurlin of Cullom was a business visitor in the city today.

Glen Rhoden, from near Murray, was in the city today transacting business with our merchants.

Hermann Kleitch, the Weeping Water miller, was in the city last evening, on business regarding the output of his mill.

Earl Jenkins, of Murray, was a visitor in the city, looking after some business affairs last evening.

Mrs. Henry Kaufman and little son, accompanied by Mrs. Dora Kaufman, were visitors in Omaha today.

Mrs. Lulu Orton and her sister,

Miss Joyce Davis, accompanied by Mrs. John Corbett, were visiting in the city today from near Nehawka.

Chester DelesDenier who lost one of his fingers at Omaha last Friday, and has been visiting in the city with friends, departed for his home at Elmwood yesterday afternoon.

Joshua Shafer, who had been visiting in Glenwood for the past week, returned last evening. He attended the decoration services there, and was there five days and attended three funerals.

W. R. Davis, the irrepressible, from Nehawka was in the city today and made this office a pleasant call and while here made the printer happy by a renewal of his subscription to the weekly visitor.

Misses Minnie and Marie Barnhart who have been visiting with the family of their uncle, J. C. York, for the past few days, departed for Louisville, where they will visit for a few days, and they go to Peru their home.

W. B. Virgin, one of our prosperous farmers from near Murray, was in the city today and made this office a pleasant call, and while here ordered the household necessity—the Weekly Journal—sent to Miss Mattie Will, of Indianapolis, Ind.

G. W. Garrison, of Union, was in town today renewing acquaintances, and looking after some business matters. Mr. Garrison came to this town in 1859 and has seen all the vicissitudes of the country since. He says that there is no country like this.

Fred Ohlenhausen who has been employed on the works at the Lyman sand pit near Oreapolis, has been having some grief with a hand that he had poisoned some days since. He is so far recovered that he was able to return to his work this morning.

Less Hall of Murray, and Chas. Hall of Omaha, were in the city today transacting business in the interest of the Box Butte Land company, which is being handled by the United States Land company, of which the Hall Brothers are representatives.

Chas. Johnson and James Watts of Watson, Mo. are taking in the sights in this city and Omaha today. Stopping off here to visit with the Yorks, Bradys and other people who once lived in Watson, and going on to the metropolis in the afternoon.

Dr. McArthur, formerly of this place, now located at Hanna, Wyo., accompanied by his wife came in this morning from Omaha and visited friends here during the day and departed for Louisville, where they will visit for a while, ere they return to their home in Wyoming.

Judge H. D. Travis departed for Lincoln last night where he has some legal matters to look after at the Capitol City, which will require his presence for a few days. Mr. Travis will then go to Utica and other points in Kansas, where has some land. The reports of the ravage of the green bug in the sunny land of Kansas has caused the judge a good deal of uneasiness since he became a land owner, and it is supposed that after this trip he will rest easier.

At the home of W. R. Davis, near Nehawka, on last Sunday was a family reunion, where the children of Mrs. R. R. Davis, the mother of the late Stephen Davis, who is over 87 years old. Mrs. Davis came to Nebraska in 1865, with her husband, has made her home in the county ever since, raising a family of six boys and two girls. Those present were W. R. Davis and wife, W. A. Davis and wife of Weeping Water, J. H. Davis and son, Rodney Davis, also of Weeping Water.

From Wednesday's daily

Charlie Patterson came in this morning from Arapahoe, and will remain until over Sunday.

Henry Sanders, from Eight Mile Grove, is in the city today looking after some business affairs.

Miss Florence Fassbender came in last evening and will visit with the Shields family and other friends.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and Miss Ida Boedeker of Murray were in the city today buying goods of our merchants.

County Clerk Rosencrans, was a passenger to Lincoln, where he goes on business for the county this afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Smith of Murray who has been visiting with her sister Mrs. C. A. Rawls, departed for home last evening.

Louis Vallery, from near Cullom, took the fast mail for Omaha this afternoon, where he will see the sights and look after some business today.

Jacob Lohnes, from Old Eight Mile Grove, one of our most substantial farmers, was in the city today transacting business with our merchants.

Mrs. Asa Snider and son, Leroy, of Nebraska City, came up this evening for an extended visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sullivan and other relatives.

Wendell Heil of Cedar Creek, who has been in a hospital at Lincoln for some six weeks, receiving medical treatment, is so far improved that he was able to come home today.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Constantly at It?

YES!

And so we are, for if we didn't keep at work advertising our goods, telling you what new goods are being used, the styles, colors and in fact everything an economical buyer ought to know, you would think us a back number. For these reasons, together with our ambition, we are still at it, helping to push the wheels of industry. We sell goods over the counter, by mail and 'phones 153 and 70.

Our Ladies' Shoe Department is up-to-date. Come and see some of the many new styles in the famous Queen Quality shoe.

Our Shirtwaist Stock is Complete and are Perfect in Style Quality and Fit
$1.00 to $5.00

WASH GOODS

To give you an idea as to what are some of the leading patterns we would ask you to stop a few minutes and look at our east window.

Table Linens

Almost any design imaginable in bleached, half-bleached and unbleached from 45 to 72 inches wide. Some with napkins that match.

SUMMER UNDERWEAR

You can safely buy summer underwear now; the warm weather is here to stay for a while. Union suits and two-piece garments at all prices.

House Dresses

Fine Percale Wrappers in blue, black, red and gray. Good colors. MADE RIGHT FIT RIGHT SELL RIGHT

Drapery

Silkoline in plain colors and fancies. Curtain Lucises. Serinn and many beautiful designs in drapery.

Carpet Warp

We sell the Buffalo warp; the best warp made. Use it once and you will always use it.

Special Lot of Black Taffeta Ribbon

No. 40.....	18c	No. 100.....	25c
No. 60.....	20c	No. 120.....	30c
No. 80.....	22c	No. 150.....	35c

Our Hosiery Dept.

If you like fine hose, then come to our store. We can sell you anything in that line manufactured.

Our Hosiery Dept.

Fine black seamless hose from 15c a pair up. Lisle thread in white and black and colors. Lace hose in white and black.

Mrs. Fred Ebinger and daughter, Louise, and baby Willie, came in on the Mo. Pacific train this afternoon from plainview, for a visit with friends and relatives. Mrs. H. E. Weidman met them in Omaha, coming from here with them.

Frank Smith and Mrs. C. Christensen are in Omaha today looking after some business matters relatives to the settling of the estates of Mrs. Smith's and Mrs. Christensen's parents Peter Peterson and wife.

The friends of Thomas Sanders and family met at the depot to see them away, and while they disliked to see them go, they wished them all the success possible, and sang the old German songs as the train pulled out last night, carrying them to their new home in the state of Washington.

Mrs. E. S. Burke, of Deadwood, who has been visiting with the family of her nephew, Frank Shopp, departed for Lincoln for a few days, when she will proceed to Denver. James Burke a son of Mrs. Burke, who has been in the employ of the Burlington road at Deadwood, in the freight office, has been transferred to the Denver office and will live there in the future.

J. H. Feris, wife and little daughter of Murray were visitors in the city today.

J. R. Vallery of Eight Mile Grove was a business visitor in the city today.

Geo. P. Meisinger of Cedar Creek was a business visitor in the county seat today.

Perry Marsh is delivering corn at the Duff Elevator today, which he sold for 45 cents some time since.

Thomas McCullough, of near Rock Bluffs, was in the city today looking after some business matters and made this office a very pleasant call. We are glad to see such men as Uncle Tom come and see us. Call again.

Mrs. Will Coolidge departed this morning for Rosalie, where Mr. Coolidge expects to engage in the grocery business as soon as he can get a room to begin business in. The Townsite company are building a three-store room block, and Will is to have one of the rooms when completed, and to hasten the same. Mr. Coolidge is striking as many licks as possible to that end.

A. B. Fornoff of Cullom, was a business visitor in the county seat today.

Charles S. Stone, the clever cashier of the Murray State Bank, accompanied by W. H. McDaniels one of Murray's merchants, were business visitors in the county seat last evening from that thriving little city.

Miss Daisy Twiss of Louisville is visiting with friends in the city today.

Wm. Seybert of Cullom was a business visitor in the county seat today, returning home on the evening train.

C. E. Metzger of Cedar Creek is in the city today on business, and will visit some friends while here, and one in particular.

George H. Woods, cashier of the Bank of Commerce at Louisville, came in this morning and is looking after some business matters.

Lewis Watts of Watson, Mo., who has been visiting with friends in this city for some days past, departed for his home this morning.

Mrs. Florence Kephart, who has been visiting south of town with the family of her son, Wm. Kephart, departed for her home at Bartlett, Iowa, this morning.

Mrs. George Horn came in this morning from Cedar Creek, and will be present at the commencement exercises, which take place at the Parmele theatre tonight.

A. S. Will has begun the excavation for his new residence which he is going to build on Chicago avenue. The building will be constructed of cement blocks, and will be the first one of the kind to be built in the city.

Frank Schlater is having a concrete walk built around his property on North Fifth street, and will remove the fences, and grade and terrace the lots at the lot line and have his house painted and otherwise improve the home, which, when done, will add greatly to its beauty and convenience.

Mrs. J. M. Leek, who has been sick for some time past with rheumatism, is somewhat improved and it is hoped that she will soon be so she can be removed to the Sanitarium at College View, where she expects to go for treatment as soon as she has sufficiently recovered to make the trip, which it thought will be by the beginning of the coming week.

C. R. Binney and wife, of Los Angeles, Calif. the latter a daughter of Mr. E. F. Powell and wife, who have been visiting with Mr. Powell for some days departed this morning for Bloomfield, where they will visit with Mr. Binney's relatives. Mr. Binney is a dentist, having just completed a course in dentistry at Los Angeles. After visiting with his folks, who he has not seen for some time, he will look for a location to engage in his chosen profession.

B. W. Bates and J. S. Rough, of Nehawka, were in the city today transacting business with our people.

L. J. Hall one of Liberty's prosperous farmers, from near Union, is in the city today transacting business at the court house.

Wm. Wegner, and son Albert, of Louisville, were in the city today attending to some business matters, and seeing the sights.

F. J. Lillie and Peter Campbell of near Murray were in the city today looking after some business matters and made this office a pleasant call.

Mrs. Matilda Fleming, of Weeping Water, and Mr. C. E. Heebner's daughter, Lilla of Nehawka are visiting with Mrs. James Fleming in Nebraska City.

Thomas E. Fulton, the blacksmith and wagon maker of Nehawka, was in Omaha Wednesday on business and returned via this city, where he had some business matters to look after later in the evening he drove home.

Bernard Wuri departed for Louisville on the Schuyler train yesterday afternoon, where he will furnish the smokers of that stirring little city with some of the best cigars made in America. From there he will go to Weeping Water, Elmwood and other points where the people know what good cigars are.

The workmen on the house which is being built for W. T. Cole have the foundation already constructed and soon commence the erection of the building, which, when done will be a modern dwelling, and will not only be a beautiful home, but will add to the appearance of that portion of the city.

William Stockham and C. E. Heebner, two enterprising farmers of near Nehawka, were in the city today and were callers at these headquarters. While here, Mr. Stockham renewed for the Journal for himself and also for his brother Harve, at Redfern, Neb. Mr. Heebner not only renewed for the Old Reliable for himself, but also for a copy for his sister, Mrs. Matilda Fleming of Weeping Water.

J. H. Tams, who works in the Burlington shops, yesterday received a message from his sister Mrs. Anna Frahm, of Boyer, Iowa, telling him of the death of his brother, Claus Tams, who lived at Ogden, Iowa, and was in the grain business there. Mr. Tams departed for Ogden on an early train this morning to be present at the funeral, which occurs at one o'clock this afternoon.