John W. Spence of Louisville, who is certainly a whole-souled fellow, was in the city today looking after some business interests and made this office a pleasant call, which was like a ray of sunshine. Come again, Johnnie.

J. W. Ruffner, a brother of P. E. Ruffner of this city, was in town yesterday transacting business for the firm which he is representing—the Stone Hill Wine company. Mr. Ruffner lived in this city for a long time, but has made his home in Omaha for a number of years.

Joe Seplock, about a year ago, had the misfortune to get a small particle of steel in his left eye which has troubled him more or less since. Yesterday he went to Omaha and had Dr. Bichall take the offending bit of steel out and his eye is on the way to recovery.

A. Matous and daughter, Georgia, departed last night for Chicago, where Miss Georgia will visit relatives and friends for some two weeks, and her father will also visit in Chicago a part of the time, and from there make a trip to Milwaukee before returning.

County Supt. Gamble has a very unique collection of work done in the country schools, which he has arranged at his office at the court house, and which is a collection of work done by scholars, that should be an inspiration to any teacher and all who are interested in the work and work done by pupils. In one or two instances the work was of such a character that one is surprised that it was done by a pupil and not an artist.

From Saturday's Daily.
Henry and George Theirolf of Cedar Creek, are in the city today on business.

Peter Campbell, from Keosha, is in the city today looking after some business.

County Commissioner Switzer departed for his home last evening on the late train.
