NO TEACHERS'

PROFESSION

Themselves to School Boards

The following article is from the pen of Ossian H. Long, and appears in the the nail right squarely on the head:

"There is in the United States no organization. There is too much dilettante teaching, too much dilettante principaling, too much dilettante superintending. Good intentions there are in plenty, but these are of no more the good intentions of a physician toit to the weeping parents to know that the physician loved their child, and would have saved him if he could, but that he did not know how! They would sooner have pardoned a lesser amount of sympathy, if there had been a better-trained judgment. In matters concerning education the people are not surehanded expertness and bungling dilettanteism, though they are learning slowly and by costly experience, that there is such a difference. Many communities have already discovered that the superintendent, at least, should be a trained specialist. However, there are still to be found too many of the "hurry boys!" type of superintendent, except in the art of endearing themselves to School Boards; principal and teachers, but expert in nothing else, They address every man most cordially as "Brother" or "Son," and the women For constipation there is nothing quite as "Sisters" or "My" Girls." Bad Burn Quickly Healed.

"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so,' says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter of this city who attend the funeral in had a bad burn on the knee. I applied Ashland Tuesday. to Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of the burn almost instantly. It is for sale by F. G. Fricke and A. T. Fried.

Died In Lincoln

Adam Bricker, an old resident of this whose chief purpose is to serve the land for many years, died at the home of his daughter in Lincoln Sunday mornand according to the most approved ex- ing, and was burried in the Ashland perience. The expert is more and more cemetery Tuesday. The deceased was 67 years of age, and of late years he has undergone two operations, the last of which he could not stand and to which is contributed his death. He was well known in the western part of the county. The deceased was a brother-in-law of Joseph Roberts, cashier of State Bank
