

EX-Governor of Wyoming Endorses Pe-ru-na.

As a Catarrh Remedy. As An Excellent Tonic.

"I have such confidence in prominent personal friends who have used and endorsed Peruna that I feel justified in assuming that it is a valuable remedy for catarrh and an excellent general tonic."

John W. Hoyt.

Washington, D. C.

The Magnificent State Capitol Building of Wyoming.

Responsible People.
PEOPLE occupying positions of high responsibility and trust are always very busy people. They have little or no time to devote to side issues. It is therefore very rare that such people are willing to write testimonials for anything. Then again there is a natural diffidence in giving public endorsement to any commercial enterprise on the part of people who are much before the public.

Rare Endorsements.
It is thus that it is very rare that public officials, like governors, congressmen, consuls, senators, etc., give public endorsement to a proprietary medicine.

It is therefore a great triumph that Peruna has the unqualified endorsement of so many men in official position. Scores of public officials of national reputation have enthusiastically declared in favor of Peruna in public print over and over again.

A Startling Fact.
There is no way to account for such a startling fact as this except that Peruna has extraordinary unusual merit. After all, people high and low, are constituted very much alike.

Natural Enthusiasm.
When a person has been really helped in getting rid of some chronic malady, after other things have failed, it is quite natural for enthusiasm to lead people to make a statement of the fact. For great services, gratitude is natural. This is the only way that it can possibly be explained why it is that so many persons prominent in public, diplomatic and social life give testimony for Peruna.

Actual Benefit.
Peruna promptly relieves. This is the explanation. Catarrh is a disease difficult to relieve. A great many of the doctors fail to relieve it.

Gratitude Results.
A few bottles of Peruna cure a chronic malady of many years standing and it is almost impossible to repress the natural feelings of gratitude which spring up.

Catarrh of Head and Throat.
Mr. Joseph Reiss, 324 N. 14th street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I had catarrh of the head and throat, but through the use of five bottles of Peruna and two bottles of Manalin I was cured. I think that Peruna is the best tonic that I have ever used and I would advise all catarrhal sufferers to use Peruna."

Catarrhal Fever.
Mrs. W. K. Good, Broadway, Va., writes: "When I was fifteen years old I had catarrhal fever and for nine years I have had catarrh of the head. Through neglect it went to my throat and nose. After consulting you I used Peruna for four months as directed, and I am entirely well and have my natural health. I cannot praise Peruna too highly. It will do all that it is recommended to do."

Pe-ru-na Relieves Catarrh.
Mr. L. Clifford Figg, Jr., 2929 B. Marshall St., Richmond Va., writes: "As soon as I get a cold I send for a bottle of Peruna, and it soon drives it out of my system."

Despaired of Being Cured.
"For several years I was not entirely well, and despaired of ever being cured, as I had used numerous remedies that my friends advised. I doctored for two years without any improvement. A Last Resort. "As a last resort I tried Peruna, and am pleased to say that in a short time I was completely cured. I have not been troubled for over a year. I am pleased to endorse Peruna as it saved me a world of suffering."

McCall, Defendant: You will take notice that on the 14th day of June, 1907, Julia McCall, plaintiff, herein, filed her petition in the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, against said defendant, the object and prayer of which is to secure a decree of divorce from said defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty and non-support, and that she be restored to her maiden name. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 26th day of July, 1907.
JULIA MCCALL, Plaintiff.

Legal Notice
Notice is hereby given that at the hour of 10 o'clock, A. M., on the 5th day of July, A. D., 1907, in the office of the county judge in the court house in the city of Plattsmouth, in Cass county, Nebraska, a hearing will be had on the application of Nancy E. Welch to appoint Wm. R. Davis as administrator of the estate of Harvey M. Rounsaville, deceased. That at said time evidence will be heard on said application and if not contested said application will be allowed and the said Wm. R. Davis appointed as such administrator and letters of administration issued to him on said estate.
Filed June 15th, 1907.
HARVEY D. TRAVIS, County Judge.
Jesse L. Root, Attorney.

Final Settlement
STATE OF NEBRASKA, ss. In the matter of the estate of Mary Minnie Farmer, deceased. All persons interested in said estate are hereby notified that a hearing will be had in final settlement in said estate on the 6th day of July, A. D., 1907, at 11 o'clock, A. In County Court.
As we go to press J. H. Teasdale & Co., of St. Louis, are suing S. C. Keckler for damage of the non-fulfillment of a contract to ship corn. The trial is to a jury consisting of J. H. Thrasher, H. A. Schneider, Silas Greenslate, Claus Speck and John Kuhney.

Funeral at Manley.
John O'Leary, of Manley, who died Sunday of heart disease, was buried Monday morning, the funeral being held from the St. Patrick's catholic church, Father Hennessey officiating. Mr. O'Leary was a man of exemplary qualities and a man in any position which he might be placed. The interment was made in College Hill cemetery, by the side of his parents and brother James, who had preceded him to the other shore some years since. There remains to mourn his loss, a wife and three children, besides two sisters, Misses Maggie and Mary O'Leary. In can be said of Mr. O'Leary that he did not have a known enemy, and in the language of one of his many faithful friends, who has said "there never was a better man lived." His age is about 64 years.

Victory for Brantner.
Ed Brantner, who was nearly killed several years ago, at Pacific Junction, while in the discharge of his duties as night switchman, of which circumstance the readers of the Journal are well informed, was notified Sunday by the clerk of the supreme court of Iowa, that that court had sustained the decision of the lower court. The district court at Glenwood, where the case was tried by jury, gave a judgment for $8,000. The railroad company took an appeal, with the above result. This case would have been settled long ago had it not been for the persistence of certain ones to beat the unfortunate man out of his claim. He should have had it long ago, and his friends rejoice to know that he has by a continual effort for several years been allowed by the highest court of Iowa, $8,000. In the condition which this accident left him he should at least have been given $10,000. The Journal congratulates Ed.

Young Man Banly Injured
In reference to the accident which happened to Noah Tyler, near Hamburg, Iowa, on the Fourth of July, mention of which was made in Saturday's Journal, the Hamburg Reporter says: "Though there was no blowout in the way of a celebration in this neighborhood the Fourth could not pass without its usual tragedy. While Mr. Tyler of Plattsmouth, was visiting at the home of Frank Mogan a few miles northwest of town, several young people were engaged in celebrating by shooting at a mark. One of the guns would not go off as they wanted and the one who was trying to fix it stood behind Mr. Tyler with the gun pointing toward him when it discharged of its own accord and the contents entered Mr. Tyler's back and came out at the abdomen above the waist band. It is reported that Mr. Tyler and a daughter of Frank Mogan were to have been married on the evening of the Fourth of July. As we go to press we have not learned of the young man's condition but it is said the chances of recovery are very much against him."

David B. Ebersole is evincing the true Americanism in digging out of the wreck, the material for the construction of a smaller temporary blacksmith shop that he can do work in until he shall have gotten the old shop rebuilt. It is the unconquerable spirit of progress and get there that has made this country of ours, which is the envy of every nation on the globe. Hit it hard Dave; you have the right view of the matter.

In District Court
There were filed in the district court this morning papers in a case wherein Sarah Matilda Peterson, sues John Bauer and others, for salary which she claims for a period when she was stopping at the home of John A. Bauer, and at which time she claimed she was made to believe herself adopted by the said John A. Bauer. This case was dismissed at a late term of court and has been remanded for a new hearing. Mrs. Minnie H. Crites, wife of Judge Crites, wishes to join the city on the collection of taxes, as a special levy against her property on Marble street for a sidewalk laid by the city, in which she denies any notification of such levy, and seeks to avoid the payment of said taxes. Papers remanding the case of the First National Bank vs. Lehnhoff estate, in which there was sought a judgment to satisfy a claim growing out of the bankruptcy of the former canning factory, and which the defendant asks for a new trial.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH OF JULY

The day dawned beautiful and bright but long before Old Sol came peeping up over the eastern horizon, it was to discover that Young America was out in full force to begin a day's enjoyment. And every conceivable firing apparatus was brought in requisition. The continual firing of cracker, both large and small was kept up from early dawn until 12 o'clock at night. Most of our people remained at home, it would seem, preferring to spend the day under their own vine and fig-tree, rather than risk the heat of the big city. The early morning Burlington train was very light going out, but very few, out of the ordinary boarding the same. A few more, however, went to Omaha in the afternoon.

The day was exceedingly warm, and ice cream and red lemonade were preferred articles. In the forenoon a small crowd attended the ball game. All business houses were closed at 12 o'clock, and the attendance at the second game in the afternoon was larger, and variously estimated at from 500 to 600. The Omaha team being victors in both contests. There were very few drunks, and what there were seemed to be very quiet. The people generally seemed to be on their good behavior, and as the smoke of the day's doings clears away we are proud to say that there were no disturbances and no accidents, which has never been the case on the great national day since our advent to Plattsmouth.

There were several private parties in the evening to enjoy a display of fireworks, among which were gatherings at the homes of County Attorney Rawls, W. J. Streights and the Gering home. There were numerous others but we failed to get the names of other parties. The people of our city seems to have enjoyed the day, generally speaking. We like to note this evidence of the fact that the American people are still patriotic and realize to the fullest that George Washington was bigger than all the limelight made-to-order celebrities on earth, particularly those who are ready to sound the death knell of the Great Independence Day celebrations, over-ride the constitution, and build up a centralized government. When that time arrives, if it ever does, the common people will rise in their might and call a halt in no uncertain tones.

At Louisville
Reports from Louisville are to the effect that a large crowd attended the celebration at that place, and everybody enjoyed the day in the beautiful park, of which that village boasts. An excellent program was rendered. The day was propitious for such an event and nothing occurred to mar the pleasures of the large crowd, unless it was from the intense heat. The music, both vocal and instrumental was excellent, the Plattsmouth City Band furnishing the instrumental part of it, and we know it was good. It is said that this celebration was one of the grandest affairs that ever came off in Louisville, and that great credit is due the management for making such a glowing success. The day's doings closed with fireworks and dance in the park at night.

At Cedar Creek
Cedar Creek is a much smaller village than Louisville, but nevertheless this fact, they had a big time up there yesterday, if all reports be true. Arrangements were previously made for a big time, and they had it. All present realized that it was a day all their own, and they alone are to blame if they did. There was dancing both day and night under the management of Geo. E. Sales, a veteran at furnishing such amusements.

At Elmwood
Elmwood was the scene of a big celebration. Yesterday was the closing day of the soldiers' reunion, and there was quite a large crowd present. Several noted personages were present among whom were Governor Sheldon and Congressman Pollard. This reunion was a success throughout, and the closing hours will long be remembered by the veterans in attendance.

FIRE-CRACKERS
Fizz! Bang! Boom! Boom!
All over, boys. Did you have a good time? The small boy was right "in it." We are glad it is over with—ain't you?
A good day for ice cream and lemonade.
The day after—then comes the headache.
Quite a number went out to Elmwood for a days outing.
Quartis Parmele had his hack beautifully decorated with bunting.
The crowd on the streets last night had the appearance of a big celebration in town.
The noise was loud and long, but we rather enjoyed the maneuvers of the small boy.
There was abundance of fireworks to supply the demand and they "went off" like hot cakes. Four young couples came up from the vicinity of Rock Bluffs in the evening in buggies with the wheels of the vehicles decorated. The most patriotic appearing were two young ladies who paraded up and down the street dressed out and out in red, white and blue.

Much amusement was created in the evening by an old gentleman, who, perhaps, had never before seed a dynamite cane, going up one side of Main street and down the other shooting it off. The people yelled at his maneuvering, and the leader they yelled the better he enjoyed it.

Looks Like River Traffic
The James B. McPherson, a government dredger of considerable dimensions and being well equipped for the work in hand, tied up at Rocky Point last evening, on their way up the river, doing work as they go. The river is being cleared for the purpose of affording a better channel for river traffic, which it is expected will be of considerable moment as soon as the boats get running regular, which is expected will soon be put on.

Small Boy Drowned
A special from Elmwood, under date of July 5th, says: "The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bassett, residing seven miles south of Elmwood, drowned in a tank of water Saturday evening. The little one went out with his mother to shut up the chickens. Playing about he wandered to the watering tank, where he fell in headfirst, and was found dead by his parents a few minutes after the accident happened. Funeral services were held from the home at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon."

Drowned in Missouri River
A. J. Anderson, pile driver foreman for the Burlington railroad, lost his life while at work near Gibson, four miles south of Omaha, at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. Anderson was working on the drive and in some manner lost his footing and fell into the river. He was drowned. His body had not been recovered at a late hour today.

Mr. Anderson had been working for the Burlington for a number of years and made his headquarters at Lincoln. So far as known he had no relatives excepting a mother in Sweden. Mr. Anderson was pretty well known in Plattsmouth, having been a frequent visitor to this city. He was a very social gentleman, and had a way of making friends with all whom he associated. He was about 35 years of age and unmarried.

Nebraska Girls at Chicago
In speaking of the representatives from Nebraska to the national convention of the Kappa Alpha Theta at Chicago last week, the Lincoln Journal says: "The Nebraska chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta had the largest representation at the national convention in Chicago last week from any of the chapters. Twenty girls went from the state, among the number being the following: Georgia Field, Margaret Wheeler, Edith Robbins, Laura Woodford, Juliette Atwood and Sallie Agnew, Lincoln; Edna Brach and Agnes Langerin, Hastings; Mildred Post, York; Hazel Dovey, Plattsmouth; Mary Bedwell, Mary Morgan, Faith Hoel, Omaha; Zola Dellecker and Ella Wirt, Council Bluffs. The party started for Chicago last Monday. The convention closed Friday night with a banquet and dance. A number of the girls will go further east before returning. Miss Field will spend the remainder of the summer in Vermont."

Last Saturday's Storm.
An Elmwood special gives the following account of Saturday night's storm in that vicinity: "A terrible wind, rain and hail storm visited this portion of Cass county Saturday night. Commencing about two miles west of Elmwood, a strip seven miles wide, and extending from Waverly to Unadilla, is hailed out. Near Alvo, seven miles northwest of here, corn, oats and wheat are beat into the ground. Oats and wheat will not pay to cut. Corn west of here will make a half crop or more if we have a late fall and no more hail. The rain was one of the heaviest ever witnessed here. The wind was very severe, blowing down a great many trees. George Babbitt, a farmer living six miles west of Elmwood, lost thirty-five head of spring shoats by drowning."

TRAINS ARE TOO SLOW Intimation That Burlington May Make Some Changes

A special from Omaha, under date of July 5, says: "In spite of the agreement recently made by the railroads to reduce the speed between Chicago and Denver after which the new schedules were accordingly put into effect, it appears probable that the roads will shortly go back to individual time cards. The time between the two cities is now thirty-two hours, the reduction in speed going into effect June 9. "The new cards caused a big howl from Denver, and also from Lincoln. Omaha was greatly benefited by the change. Accordingly, becoming weary with the continuous stream of complaints and fully believing that the faster time is just as safe as the slower, the officials of several roads are thinking of accession from the agreement.

"A passenger official on one of the biggest Chicago-Omaha-Denver roads said Tuesday: "This step may be taken at any time but no facts can be given out as yet. You may certainly say that such a move is seriously contemplated." "Burlington passenger officials met in Lincoln Monday and figured several slight changes in the time cards. General Passenger Agent Wakely was there. "It is also rumored that the Burlington will reinstate the Iowa trains, which it recently withdrew. Mr. Wakely says that he has heard nothing of this however."

More Than Made Good.
A few weeks ago a call was made to Modern Woodmen for contributions for the aid of an unfortunate member who had lost both hands through an accident. The local lodge sent a liberal donation to the unfortunate neighbor and last week the local clerk received the check back with a letter stating that previous to its receipt that the unfortunate member had been deluged with money, more than $3,800 having been received and that no more funds were needed. Surely this thing called fraternity, the caring for the distressed in time of need is of divine origin.

Long Live the King.
Is the popular cry throughout Europe countries; while in America the cry of the present day is "Long Live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder, Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co. druggist. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Base Ball Troubles.
The base ball games at Union on Sunday seem to bring their attendant sorrows. One game last fall ended in a fight which caused one of the dozens of this village to take a trip to Plattsmouth and "talk it over" with Judge Archer. The first one this summer caused a great amount of uneasiness, because a preacher took the names of the players, and they were fearful that criminal prosecution would be instituted. The one played last Sunday drew sorrow, from the Omaha boys and cost them coin, jewelry and defeat. A big crowd witnessed what Hug Burrows called a poor game. The Union boys played poor ball and the Omaha fellows worse. After the game was over and the Omaha fellows went to a room they had rented and wherein they had locked their clothing they found themselves minus, as they said, one gold watch and sums aggregating $12. Our informant said that the manager gave the proprietor until Saturday to produce the articles or something would happen.

Verily, the way of the transgressor is hard—and it ought to be. We never hear of any one having trouble with the games played on Saturday.—Nehawka Register.
