Died—Mrs. Hannah Snuffin at the home of her son at Cedar Creek, July 6, 1907, aged 81 years. She was a member of the Church of Christ. The funeral was held at the Union church Tuesday at 2 p. m., conducted by Elder G. W. Mayfield. Interment at Glendale cemetery.

Harry Wilson, a young man living in the west part of town, who evidently was not satisfied with his celebration of the Fourth took a .32-caliber revolver Tuesday morning and loading it with blanks went out to continue the celebration. As a result the forefinger of his left hand was badly lacerated, requiring the aid of a surgeon to get the member back in shape.

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed.

People are often much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic, cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many cases proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. T. Fried.

Nehawka

(From the Register.)

J. I. Looker brought in six geese-berries Monday, the largest of which measured 2 1/2 inches in circumference. Sorry he did not bring a peck.

Ralph Sturm enjoyed the Fourth—at least we suppose he did. He has a thumb and one foot that have gone to the bad as the result of that day—and as he is all boy—we conclude that his Fourth was all right from a boy's standpoint.

Mrs. Charles Davis (nee Bettie Reynolds) who lives in Seattle, Wash., was the guest of Mrs. Isaac Pollard last Monday. She lives neighbor to Mrs. Lottie Shotwell. Mrs. Davis was one of the first teachers in the county and taught the Maple Grove school district No. 19.

There was a sign-tacker in town with murder in his eye. He was walking along the street when Joe Malcolm's pug dog slipped up and bit him on the leg. His poor marksmanship was all that saved the dog's life. To prevent a recurrence of this kind Joe electrocuted the dog.

J. M. Stone made a business trip to the "old-town-on-the-river" Wednesday morning. As he passed the office he stepped in to say that he had just received a note from Lester saying: "It's a boy, weighs 7 1/2 pounds, everybody O K." Here's our mit, Lester, shake! Great country that.

In a conversation we had with Mr. Bullock of the Nehawka Stone Co., Tuesday, he stated that it was almost impossible to keep up with their orders on account of the scarcity of labor. They are paying $2 per day and furnishing good board at their boarding house for $3.50 a week. This quarry employs no immigrant labor and are splendid gentlemen to work for. They are thinking of erecting some residences in order to employ men with families.

Horse Frozen in Hail

The Glenwood Opinion is responsible for the following, which that paper tells for the truth: "An incident of the storm that may seem beyond belief but is testified by many witnesses, is the fact that a horse was washed into one of the canyons in the Waubensie hills and buried in hail. The animal was on its back with feet in the air, and today the hail has melted only enough that the feet show."

DEATH OF HENRY

H. HOLLISTER

Who Suddenly Passed Away Last Night at His Home in Lincoln

Uncle Henry Hollister died at an advanced age at his home in Lincoln last evening. Mr. Hollister was for a number of years a resident of this city and was the Burlington's baggage man at this point when this was a division. He was a very genial and kindly man, well loved by all who knew him, and his many friends will be grieved to learn of his death. Mrs. Phillip Harrison of this city is a daughter of the deceased. In speaking of the death of Mr. Hollister, the Lincoln Journal says: "Henry H. Hollister died suddenly yesterday evening at his home, 727 North Eleventh street. He went to an outhouse and soon afterward he was found dead. Dr. Stewart who had treated him said he had been suffering for two years from organic heart disease and he believed death was caused by heart failure. The body was taken to the undertaking rooms of Castle, Roper & Mathews. He was employed in railroad work for many years, last as a flagman, but he had not worked during the past year. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Alla Harrison of Plattsmouth and one brother, Bradford H. Hollister of Lincoln."

The funeral of the late Henry Hollister was held from the Burlington train No. 2, last evening, and was conducted by Canon Burgess of St. Luke's Episcopal church. The weather was very threatening when the procession started, and as they proceeded it became worse, and as they were conducting the services at the cemetery, about 6 o'clock, the storm broke upon them in all its fury. The closed cabs prevented those attending from receiving the extreme violence of the storm. The pall bearers were, J. W. Johnson, C. C. Despain, John Waterman, Frank Kauble, Walter J. White and M. S. Briggs.

Nearly all old-fashioned cough syrups are constipating, especially those that contain opiates. They don't act just right. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates. It drives the cold out of the system by gently moving the bowels. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Woodmen Make Payment

The W. O. W. through Gus Rhode, clerk of the local Evergreen camp, No. 70, last evening handed Mrs. Ed Grassman a draft for $1000 as payment for the death loss of her husband which occurred just five days before. This settlement is one of very prompt action and speaks well for the order. This takes away the embarrassment which so often results in a case like this, where no ready funds are on hand for immediate use. In a short time the order will erect a monument to commemorate the life of one whose memory they cherish.

Summer coughs and colds yield at once to Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup. Contains honey and tar but no opiates. Children like it. Pleasant to take. Its laxative qualities recommend it to mothers. Hoarseness, coughs, croup, yield quickly. Sold by Gering & Co.

Eyes Troubling Again

David E. Rice, who had such a time with his eyes about a month or so since, and at the time when they showed signs of marked improvement and was pleased with the hope that they would when they had become entirely well, he free from the trouble which had afflicted him. But during the last few days he has had the same trouble recur as was the immediate cause of the operation before. Mr. Rice departed for Omaha this morning to consult the specialist, Dr. Gifford, as to what should be done in the case. This time he feels as though it would not pay to wait until the case was an aggravated one, but take steps in the beginning, that suffering might be avoided.

Settled with Insurance Co.

Uncle Henry Boeck settled with the Insurance company last evening, the amount on the building being $3,842.50 and the amount on the furniture $400, making a total of $4,242.50. The contract of restoring the building has been given to Contractor L. G. Larson for the insurance allowance. Although there will be some changes made when the building is reconstructed, in that the cornice which graced the building will not be restored. This was an obstacle in the fighting of the fire and the walls will be built in a different manner and as the former cornice cost about $200, the dispensing of this will save that much.

Take the Postmaster's Word for It.

F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherryvale, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. T. Fried.

THANKFUL PEOPLE

They Are Found in Every Part of Plattsmouth.

Many citizens of Plattsmouth have good reason to be thankful for burdens lifted from aching backs, which they bore patiently for years. Scores tell about their experience publicly. Here's a case of it:

Mrs. M. S. Burk, living at corner Third and Dyke streets, Plattsmouth, says: "The quick relief from pain in my back, which followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills proved them to possess remarkably curative powers. For years I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint and some of them so severe that I would be confined to my bed. My condition was so bad that I could not even turn over while lying down without grasping hold of something for support. My husband procured Doan's Kidney Pills for me at Gering & Co.'s drug store and their use absolutely relieved me of all pain and inconvenience. I place great value in Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

SNAG BOATS ON MISSOURI RIVER

Will Be at Work for Two Seasons at Least

The following communication is addressed to Postmaster Smith, and we publish the same for the benefit of those interested:

Sioux City, Iowa, July 16, 1907

Postmaster, Plattsmouth, Neb.

DEAR SIR:

The act of March 2, 1907, appropriated a sum of money for snagging purposes on the Missouri river, which will keep the government snagboats in the water for two seasons, working up and down the river between the mouth and Sioux City, Iowa. It will be necessary for them to take on fuel and supplies, such as subsistence stores, etc., at the various towns along the river, and we would like to have the merchants in your town acquainted with this fact, in order that the boats will receive the proper recognition and can buy whatever supplies they want in the usual manner, payment to be made by voucher, and so there will be no delay in taking on stores. We wish dealers to feel absolutely safe in dealing with the master of U. S. snagboats; as they are vested with full authority to purchase whatever is needed. By direction of Captain Edward H. Schulz, U. S. A. Very Respectfully,
GEO. H. MILBURN, chief clerk.

TREGO COUNTY KANSAS

Where They Take Rabbit Scalps in the way of Trade

There are quite a number of Cass county people who own farms down in Trego county, Kansas, where the wheat crop is so immense that farmers are paying $5.00 a day for harvest hands. Trego county is noted also for the immense number of rabbits within its bounds. And while these pests abound in great numbers, it seems the merchants have hit upon the proper plan to assist the farmers in getting rid of as many as possible.

Wakeney is the county seat, and the merchants advertise to pay 5 cents each for rabbit scalps, no matter whether the unfortunate "bunny" is full grown or not. W. J. Williams, who is the proprietor of a grocery store in Wakeney, bought 2,840 scalps during the months of March, April and May this year, John Keraus, another merchant of the same place bought 2,760 scalps, while no merchant in the little town paid for less than 500 scalps.

The farmers and ranchmen bring rabbit scalps to the country stores along with eggs and butter. The grocer accepts and counts them with no more ado than if they were so many eggs.

A few years ago Trego county, in the hope of exterminating the troublesome jack rabbit, decided to pay a bounty of 5 cents for rabbit scalps, the money to be paid whenever the scalps are presented at the county treasurer's office. Soon after men who had never before been seen in Wakeney came to the courthouse with big sacks of scalps. Finally the county commissioners grew suspicious, and it eventually developed that certain residents of neighboring counties were taking advantage of Trego's bounty law and were bringing scalps from as far as fifty miles.

To discourage this practice the county decided to allow payment for scalps not more often than every three months. Three months was a long time to wait. The hunters become impatient at the long delay. It remained for the merchants to solve the difficulty. Accordingly it was announced through the columns of the weekly papers that rabbit scalps would be taken at the grocery stores in exchange for merchandise, provided the owner of the scalps would give his word that they were taken from rabbits killed in Trego county.

The plan proved a success. Instead of the farmers making a weekly trip to the courthouse the merchants reported every three months at the commissioners' office and the bills were allowed.

During the months of March, April and May the total amount of bills allowed by the commissioners for rabbit scalps was $568. In other words, Trego county killed 13,360 rabbits during the three months.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.
