

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. M. A. Dixon and Mrs. D. E. Galligher were two visitors at Omaha this afternoon.

Thomas Troop has accepted a position on the bridge gang for the Burlington road, and went to work this morning with foreman, Oscar Sampson.

Dr. B. F. Brendel and son, T. J. Brendel of Murray, are in the city today, looking after some business matters, and renewing acquaintances.

George Shoeman departed for Lincoln, where he will look after some business, and from there he will go to Ullyses, where he has some matters to look after.

Mrs. Lizzie Kopsichka received the large jardiner and Miss Hazle Hartman received the pretty salad bowl last evening at the Peco Theatre. They are going to give a Saturday matinee at 3:30 and all children under 15 years of age will be admitted for 5 cents. They will also give presents to the children on that day.

Harry Stafford, wife and three children, who have been in the city for the past week, from Kalamazoo, Mich., visiting with friends and relatives, the guests of the Wynns, will depart for home this evening, returning by way of Niles, Mich., where they will visit for a while before going to their home.

From Saturday's Daily.

John Albert of Cedar Creek was a business visitor in the city today.

Hamilton Morris, of near Louisville, accompanied by his family, were business visitors in the city today.

Ralph Sherwood was a visitor at Tekamah, going on the afternoon train, where he will stay over Sunday.

W. F. Gillispie was in the city this afternoon, and reports that his rheumatism is leaving him, for which he rejoices.

John Campbell of Rock Bluffs, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Wm. Jessup from the other side of the river was a Plattsmouth visitor today, where he is looking after some business.

D. A. Johnson, of Ashland, who has been employed on the bridge gang at this point, working on the rip-rap, departed for his home this morning, where he will visit over Sunday.

R. B. Windham returned from Nemaha county last evening where he was on a business trip. He reports that the improvement of crops in that vicinity is phenomenal and that things look extremely fine.

John R. Baird of Elmwood was in the city today and filed with the county clerk, his declaration to become a candidate for the position of commissioner of the Third district, subject the republican primary election.

Phillip Becker and sister, Mrs. Geo. Wallinger, were passengers to Omaha this afternoon, where they went to see Mrs. Becker, who is in the hospital at that place.

Philip Miesinger and daughter, Lena, were passenger to Omaha this afternoon where they will visit during the day.

Our friend, John Durman, of near Murray, was in the county seat today, accompanied by Miss Mitty Tilson, a most charming young lady, and gave the Journal a pleasant call. While here John renewed for a copy of the Old Reliable which he sends to his father at Seven Mile Ford, Va.

W. H. Cox came in this morning from Shenendoah, Iowa, and is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Sol Adamson, west of town. Mrs. Cox had been here for some time past and the two will visit for a week or so before returning home.

John R. Baird, of Elmwood came in this morning via Mo. Pacific, and with W. E. Rosencrans went to Omaha, where they had some business to look after.

From Monday's Daily.

Will Jean, of Mynard, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

L. B. Brown of Kenosha was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Frank E. Schlater appeared before the county clerk today and filed his intention of becoming a candidate for county treasurer subject to the will of democratic voters at the primary election September 3, 1907.

W. C. Niday was in from Union this morning, and appeared before the county clerk and made known his desire to be a candidate for the position of road-overseer, district No. 11, which comprises all of Liberty precinct.

Papers were filed today whereby W. E. Rosencrans becomes a candidate for the nomination for the office he now occupies, that of county clerk. Rosey has made a good officer, and the man who scores ahead of him in the race will have to go some.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of Albert Cunnin, for disturbing the peace and conducting himself in a vicious manner. The complaint was sworn out by Maggie Markley, and the complainant says that the party complained of, together with a number of other boys about his age, have been making things lively in their neighborhood to the extent that it could not be tolerated longer.

Peter Vallery was a passenger to Omaha this morning where he goes to have an operation performed for polipi of the nasal passages, which has been causing him some trouble of late. Dr. Binnall and Gifford will perform the operation.

L. B. Brown departed this afternoon for Sterling, Colorado, where he will visit for some time and look over some lands which are offered for sale.

Nelson Jones, who is farming over near Osceola, Iowa, came in last Saturday and visited over Sunday and today with friends and relatives. In conversation with the scribe of the Journal Mr. Jones said that crops were looking fine over there, and that the farmers had a good prospect for a good harvest this year.

Misses Doris and Genieve Nelson departed for Glenwood this morning, where they are engaged in the institute at that place as attendants.

Eugene Tighe, of Lincoln, came down Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schlater, and other relatives. Eugene holds the position of stenographer in the office of Superintendent Ed. Bignell.

A. B. Taylor departed for Beaver City this morning where he will visit for some time and look after his interests in the west, he having a large body of land adjacent to Beaver City. It is reported that the crops in that portion of the state are very abundant.

R. W. Hyers who has been making his home at Bassett, where he has a homestead, came down to Havelock where he visited at the home of his son, the postmaster, for a week. He rolled into the old town on the river Saturday night, and visited with his friends over Sunday, departing for Lincoln today where he will take up the duties of the position to which Gov. Sheldon has appointed him on the first of August.

Mrs. J. H. Wallinger and Mrs. F. Wolff of Cedar Creek, were passengers for Omaha yesterday to visit the former's husband at the hospital, who is improving very slowly.

Mrs. J. C. Smith of Murray, mother of W. T. Smith, accompanied by Miss Pearl Kness, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. Smith, departed last evening for their home.

From Tuesday's Daily

F. M. Young from near Murray, was in the city today on business.

Wm. DellesDernier, of Elmwood, came in last evening and is looking after business at the court house.

Geo. Becker was a visitor at Murdock for a few days, a guest of J. J. Gustin, returning home last evening.

Perry Marsh was a passenger to South Omaha this morning, where he has some business at the stock yards.

Miss Zetta Brown and Mrs. C. S. Johnson drove down to Murray this morning, where they will visit during the day.

Sheriff Quinton conveyed Alex Hamilton from Weeping Water to the home of the feeble minded at Beatrice this morning.

John P. Kuhney, who has leased a barber shop at Nehawka, and is conducting it there, was in the city last evening on business, returning to his work on a later train.

John Marquette of the Burlington storehouse at Lincoln, accompanied by his wife, are visiting at the home of Sam Smith in Rock Bluffs, Mrs. Smith being a sister of the former.

Sam Smith and wife returned from their visit to Newton, Iowa, Monday, and this morning Mr. Smith departed to take up his work again on the road for the Midland Manufacturing company.

J. M. Stone and Roy Boedeker, of Nehawka, were in the city last evening, looking after some business matters, and while in the city, made this office a very pleasant call. Come again gentlemen.

Chas. Bestor, who is employed with August Gorder, has been on the sick list for a week or so, caused by the extremely hot weather, is so far improved as to be able to be down town again, but not feeling well enough to go to work yet.

Phillip Becker was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where he will visit his wife at the hospital. Mrs. Becker is reported as improving nicely now, and will, with a continuation of the improvement be so as to be removed to her home soon.

From Wednesday's daily

Fred Patterson, of Rock Bluffs, was a business visitor in the city today.

James Terberry was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Joseph Tubbs of west of Mynard was a Plattsmouth visitor this morning, having business with our merchants.

Col. M. A. Bates is out in the country visiting the friends of the Journal and seeing the country. It is meet that once in a while he gets out to see the people that are supplied by his pen with the latest of news in all matters.

Will T. Adams was in the city this morning and filed with the county clerk his intention of becoming a candidate for the position of treasurer of Cass county, subject to the primary election to be held September 3.

George P. Barton, the Union tonsorialist, was a county seat visitor today and had business at the office of the county sheriff.

Mrs. Hans Severs and mother were visitors at the metropolis this morning.

Albert Hainey and wife, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Hainey, came over from Glenwood this afternoon and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Chriswiser. Mr. Haney is a brother of Mrs. Chriswiser and Miss Myrtle a niece. They will remain in the city for a few days.

J. W. Thomas says he has a device at his farm near the Burlington's bridge which is a "dandy" in that three hundred crates of blackberries picked and shipped by it in less than forty minutes. They were picked and shipped by water to some point down the river on the night of the 6th of July. The transaction was done in such a hurry that he does not look for any returns.

Uncle John Marsh, from near Rock Bluffs, was a Plattsmouth visitor this morning, where he had business with our merchants.

Wm. E. Dull from below Murray was in the city today where he had business regarding the securing of a petition which has been pending.

Adam Kaffenberger was in the city today and in conversation he said he was now hauling wheat every day to Plattsmouth to Heisel's mill.

J. F. Shiro was a business visitor at Omaha today.

Henry Creamer from near Murray, had business in the city today.

Ed Egenberger returned from Omaha this morning on the early train.

W. D. Crawford of Lincoln, was a business visitor here last evening.

FRESH GOODS AT FLOOD PRICES
3c Challies for 4c, at
COATES DRY GOODS CO.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls returned last evening on the late train from Creston, Iowa, where they were attending the wedding of Mr. Rawl's niece Miss Myrtle Rawles.

J. F. Polk, a brother of C. S. Polk, and a mail clerk running on the Burlington, came in from Lincoln this morning, and is looking after some business in the city and renewing his acquaintances.

Lee Minner, a barber from White Cloud Kan. came in last evening and has engaged with A. J. Trillity, and will work with him. He will move his family here as soon as he can secure a house in which to live.

Miss Laura Schall, who has been in the city assisting in the sale of the Wurl stock of goods which was handled by M. Fanger, her brother-in-law, departed for her home in Omaha this afternoon.

Miss Lotta Jancke, of Omaha, who has been visiting with her friends in the city, a guest of Paula Goos for some days, departed for her home this afternoon, Miss Paula Goos accompanied her for a visit in Omaha.

G. P. Meisinger and two daughters, Misses Mamie and Ida, and G. G. Meisinger came in this morning and departed for Omaha this afternoon on the fast mail, where they will visit Mr. J. H. Wallinger who is in the St. Josephs Hospital, having been taken there some time since for treatment for appendicitis.

Master Fasha Gorton came in the other day from Dunbar, where he is employed as a clerk in a confectionary store, and is visiting with his grand parents, Mr. D. F. Taylor and wife, and other relatives and friends. He says his father, Frank Gorton, is in the livery business and doing well and the three other boys, Masters Byron, Berton and John, are working in the barn with their father. Fasha will remain about a week.

Miss Alice Dovey and sister, Miss Margaret, of Plattsmouth, departed Tuesday for England. They will leave New York on August 3 aboard the steamer Minneapolis for Liverpool, whence they will go to London, where Miss Alice will continue her vocal studies under Madam Cellini. They will remain in the old country for an indefinite length of time, but will probably return home in the fall. -Fremont Tribune.

FRESH GOODS AT FLOOD PRICES
12c Chambray for 7c cents, at
COATES DRY GOODS CO.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Fifty-Five Pair

SHOES

After our sale we find that we have on hand 55 pair of Ladies', Misses and Children's Oxfords, some of them worth up to $3.00. We will place these on sale Saturday, and if you get here in time you will get a pair of them for : : : : : 48c

Our White Oxfords

What is left of them you can buy at the following prices:

- Ladies' White Canvass Oxfords 87c
- Misses' White Canvass Oxfords 79c
- Children's White Canvass Oxfords..... 65c

This is your chance to buy footwear. Come Saturday and get the bargain of the season.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Charles Kraft came over from Glenwood this afternoon on the fast mail.

A. W. White was a passenger to Council Bluffs this afternoon on business.

Abe Ruple came up last evening from Union and will visit for a few days at home.

J. F. Clugy living northwest of town, is reported as being very sick with cholera morbus.

Miles Standish, wife and children are in the city today where they have some business to look after.

Mrs. A. L. Busler was a passenger to Lincoln on the fast mail, where she will visit for a few days.

Henry M. Long was a business visitor in the county seat today where he had some business matters to look after.

Roy Yonkers, who has been in the employ of J. F. Clugy for the past month, departed for his home at Union yesterday.

T. H. Pollock and T. E. Parmele had some matters coming up relative to the telephone business which called them to Omaha today.

Miss Fern Greenslate departed on the fast mail for Lincoln, where will visit for a time, after which she will go to York, where she will visit before returning home.

Mrs. Morris O'Rourke of McCook, who has been visiting in the city for some time the guest of Mrs. Thomas Walling, departed for her home this afternoon.

A Good School

The Gund Brewing Co., LaCrosse, Wis., pays Toland Graduates $30,000 per annum.
The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Co. pays Toland Graduates more than $30,000 per annum.
The Swift Packing Co., South St. Paul, pays Toland Graduates more than $12,000 per annum.
Hundreds of other firms pay Toland Graduates from $3,000 to $10,000 per annum.

WHY DO THESE FIRMS GIVE TOLAND GRADUATES THE PREFERENCE?

Why do Toland Graduates Succeed where others fail?
Send for our beautiful, free catalogue, and you will know.

Address TOLAND'S BUSINESS UNIVERSITY,
NEBRASKA CITY, NEBRASKA.
DO IT NOW.

THE Illinois Refrigerator

Best on the Market

On sale at greatly reduced prices. If you have been thinking of buying a Refrigerator then you should remember that now is the time to buy:

- Large Size, regular $23.00 now $18 25
- Medium " " 20.00 " 16 50
- Small " " 11.00 " 8 75

Rocking Chairs at Reduced Prices. 25 PER CENT DISCOUNT on all Mahogany Rockers.

I also have 3 Pianos which are extra good values at my reduced prices:

- $300.00 Hamilton Piano at $225 00
- 276.00 " " 200 00
- 200.00 Singer " 140 00

Lace Curtains at $1.00 per pair and up; lace curtains somewhat damaged by the flood at 75c per pair, good quality curtains. Carpets, Rugs, Matting and Linoleums—extra good qualities.

I have the New Domestic Sewing Machine. It is certainly a first-class machine; come in and examine it to your satisfaction. I handle the Stevens and Foster Matresses at prices to suit the purchaser, with as good a guarantee as any one can give.

MICHAEL HILD.