

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. C. Baker of near Murray, Iowa, who has been here for the past week visiting with her son, W. A. Baker of Rock Bluffs, departed for her home this morning.

Lee Kniss of Murray, was in the city last evening visiting friends, a guest at the home of W. T. Smith.

Mrs. J. F. Clugy departed for Union this afternoon, where she will visit relatives and attend the old settlers reunion.

Herchal Petty and A. J. McFarland departed for Union this afternoon, where they will take in the reunion this afternoon.

John J. Hennings and Chas. Hennings were in the city this afternoon on business matters.

From Saturday's Daily.

W. F. Gillespie was a business visitor in the city this afternoon from Mynard.

J. G. Meisinger, from Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the county seat today.

G. G. Misinger was a business visitor in the city this afternoon from near Cedar Creek.

Phillip Meisinger of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

John Hirz was in the city today from near Cullom.

J. R. Vallery from near Eight Mile was a business visitor in the county seat this afternoon.

Chas. Manners and family were passengers to Union this morning where they will see old friends and visit the reunion.

Jacob Batcheler and two daughters from Thurman, Iowa, came in yesterday and are visiting at the home of Phillip Batcheler, his brother. They will all go to Union today to visit the old settlers picnic.

Misses Edna and Edith Kroehler, of Havelock, came in this morning and are visiting friends and relatives in the city for a few days. While here they are the guests at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. George Weidman.

E. L. Rouse came in from Peru last evening and will remain until they move to Peru, which will in all probability be some time next week. Mrs. Rouse, Phillip and Lawrence, will arrive home this evening on No. 1 of the Burlington from Keawna, Illinois, where they have been visiting with relatives for about three weeks. During the coming week they will pack their goods and make arrangements to move to their new home.

From Monday's Daily.

C. W. Manners and wife, who have been visiting with the former's parents, J. W. Manners and wife of near Alvo, returned home last evening.

John P. Kuhney, of Newhaka, was an over Sunday visitor at home, returning to his work this afternoon.

James Stander of Louisville, was a county seat visitor today where he has some business at the court house.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Thomas Troop came in this morning and is looking after some business matters in the city.

Ottis McNurlin from Murray was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Miss Anna and Master Andrew Petersen who have been visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. J. L. Mayfield at Pleasant Dale for the past week returned home last evening.

George Brinklow and family, who have been visiting in the city for some weeks, the guest of Mrs. Brinklow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wynn, departed for their home at Temple, Texas, this morning on the early train.

A. R. Young of Murray was in the city this morning looking after some business matters.

Levi Rusterholtz from west of Murray was in the city today attending to some business matters which he had to look after.

L. B. Brown was a visitor in the city from near Kenosha today.

Lee Applegate was a visitor in the city this morning, from Union.

Phillip Meisinger and daughter, Lena, were passengers to Omaha this afternoon where they will visit friends during the day.

Attorney Wm. Delles Denier, from Elmwood, was in the city today looking after some business which he had at the court house.

Mrs. W. H. Seybert of Cullom, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Miss Carrie Allison, of near Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Wilber Cole of near Mynary, was a business visitor in the city this afternoon.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Charles Filler and wife came in from Woodward, Oklahoma, a few days since and have concluded to make this place their home. Mr. Filler will go to work in the Burlington coach shops in the near future.

LeRoy, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Snyder, who has been very sick with summer complaint at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sullivan, in the city, we are glad to report is somewhat better today.

John Albert, of Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the county seat today, having business at the court house.

Misses Edna and Edith Kroehler, of Havelock, who have been visiting in the city for some days past, the guest of their grandmother, Mrs. George Weidman, departed for home on the fast mail this afternoon.

Charles Bailey came in Monday evening from Montana, and is visiting with his parents in the northwest part of the city.

Our friend Conrad Schlater, was down town this morning for the first time in several days. He has not been feeling as well as usual.

Miss Teresa Tighe of Wabash, came in this afternoon, and will visit with friends in the city for a few days, the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fight.

Mrs. George Prentiss of Havelock, who has been visiting in the city for the past few days a guest of Mrs. Chas. Morrison, departed for her home this afternoon on the fast mail.

L. A. Tyson and wife came in from Elmwood this morning, and are visiting in the city with friends.

Daniel Burke, of Manley, was a business visitor in the city today.

Attorney Clarence Tefft came in from Weeping Water this morning on legal business, returning home this afternoon.

H. G. VanHorn & Co., the talking machine firm in the Riley Hotel block, are putting in an electric sign, and are surely getting in shape to do business and do it right.

Bridget O'Leary, of Manley, was appointed administrator of the estate of her late husband, John O'Leary, of that place, by Judge Travis today.

Mrs. Thomas Walling and children departed on the Schuyler train for South Bend this afternoon where they will visit for a few days with Mrs. Walling's sister, Mrs. Dennis McHugh.

Albert Churchill, of Hurstville, Neb., who has been visiting here and at Murray for the past few days, departed for his home last evening.

Mrs. H. T. Batton was a passenger to Newman Grove this afternoon where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Jensen, of that place.

Mrs. Albert Wetencamp and children who have been visiting at Ashland, the guests of Mrs. Wetencamp's sister Mrs. A. A. Schultz, returned home this morning.

F. A. Baker, of Murray, Iowa, who has been visiting at the home of his son W. A. Baker, near Rock Bluffs for the past week, departed for his home this morning.

Master Delno Denson, who lives at Council Bluffs, and who has been visiting in the city for some days with the family of his uncle, F. E. Denson, departed for his home this morning.

County Clerk, W. E. Rosencrans departed this afternoon for a trip over the county, to distribute the primary ballots, election laws and supplies for the primary election which is to be held September 3.

A. W. McGowan came in this morning from Toledo, Iowa, where he is farming. He looks brown as a berry and strong, and says that the crops are in fine shape in his section of the country, they having had plenty of rain there. He says, he thinks they are faring better as to the prospects for a crop of corn than here.

John Billings was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where he had some business to look after.

C. P. Richardson, who is on the sick list with typhoid fever, is reported as being a little better this morning.

Dr. Bacon, of Pacific Junction, was a business visitor in the city last evening where he had matters to look after.

Miss Mary Bird departed for Havelock this afternoon, where she will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Louise Janda.

L. W. Lorenz was a passenger to Omaha and So. Omaha this afternoon, where he has some business matters to attend to.

Mrs. A. Hunter and daughter, Jennie, of La Platte, came over this morning and visited during the forenoon, returning on the first mail.

J. E. Douglass and A. L. Tidd were visitors at the fraternal picnic at Weeping Water today, having gone last evening in order to be in time.

Earl Wescott had business to look after in Omaha today.

Miss Claire Dovey was a visitor in Omaha this morning.

Carl Fricke had business to look after in Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. A. L. Baker, of Murray was a county seat visitor today.

George E. Sayles was a visitor in the city today, having business to look after.

Frank L. Cummins was an over night visitor at the metropolis, returning this morning.

Mrs. E. A. Wurl was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where she will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Andres.

E. E. Richards, of Broken Bow, came in this morning and is looking after some business matters in the city, relative to the schools of Nebraska.

Our genial friend Joseph Malcolm, from Nehawka, representing the Nehawka Milling Company, was a brief business visitor in the city last night.

James Haltclaw, of White Cloud, Kansas, has concluded to make this place his home and has moved his household effects here, and is now a citizen.

C. C. Parmele and wife went to Omaha this afternoon to meet their children, Hallie and Pollock, who are returning from an extended visit to Minneapolis.

Mrs. Merta Porter, of Havelock, who has been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. L. Porter for the past week, departed for her home this afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Herman, Misses Julia and Clara Herman and Gretchen Donnelly were visitors at Omaha this morning, going via Mo. Pacific, where they will spend the day.

Mrs. J. S. Stukesbury, of Omaha, who has been visiting at the home of her friend, Mrs. R. R. Livingston for the past month, departed for her home this afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Salsbury and little boy and W. J. Streight and family constituted a fishing party that went out this morning and will endeavor to catch a few of the finny tribe.

Miss Alice and Murriel Barthold departed for Denver this afternoon, where they will visit for about a week with friends and relatives and will also see the places of interest.

H. A. Schneider, wife and children, accompanied by Miss Jean Morris, departed last evening for Weeping Water where they will attend the fraternal picnic which is being held there today.

Chas. H. Hennings of Louisville, came in this morning and transacted business in the city during the morning and was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon returning home via the Missouri Pacific.

Mr. B. Billings and son, John, of White Cloud, Kansas, came in a few days ago and will make Plattsmouth their future home. They have not as yet succeeded in getting a house to live in.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Enberg, of Sheridan, Wyo., who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Enberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Anderson for the past few days, departed for their home this morning.

Be in Plattsmouth next Monday if you would enjoy a good time. Plenty of amusements, along with good speaking and plenty of music. Two good bands present all day and at night. Be sure and bring the whole family.

Robert Brisse returned home last evening from a two weeks outing, and is again at work at his former position at the Burlington freight house. While the Brisse family were away they visited at Havelock, Neb., Minneola, Glenwood and Waubonsie, Iowa.

W. B. Elster and wife were passengers to Omaha this afternoon where they go to accompany Mrs. O. Watters, a sister of the Dr., and son, Zura, who have been visiting with the family of the Dr. for some time, who are departing for their home at Coldwater, Mich.

F. W. Foxworthy, representing the Western Newspaper Union, of Omaha, was in the city today, and gave the Journal a pleasant call. Will is an old printer himself, and likes to hover around a print shop awhile when on the road on business. We are always glad to see him.

Since the flood, John Hall has concluded it is the wisest plan to have things fixed so as to be on the safe side. He therefore, has built a retaining wall around the rear door of his store and carried it up five feet above the floor level, that in the future he may be safe in case of high water again.

John Elliott, living north of the city, this morning started for Hamburg, Ia., where they are holding an old settlers' reunion today, and getting here too late for the train that makes connection at the Junction with the one going south, and had to walk to Pacific Junction in order to get to Hamburg today.

W. A. McGowan who came in yesterday, visited with his many friends in the city during the day, departed for Kansas City this morning, where he will look after some business before returning to his home at Toledo, Iowa. While here Mr. McGowan called and renewed faith in the great local paper of Cass county—the Journal.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

SOME OF YOU

Who read this are going to buy a new carpet this fall, and to you and others that are interested in carpets, we will say this.

Our new carpets are beginning to arrive and we are getting them in shape as fast as we can. We have a good stock to select from and the quality is the very best that money can buy. We buy direct from the mills for cash, thus securing the lowest possible price. It is a great pleasure to us to show carpets, knowing that we are in a position to show you a greater variety of patterns than any carpet house in this vicinity. It does not make any difference what you want to cover your floor with, we have it. So let us figure with you. Call up the carpet man. Independent No. 70, Bell 153. He will be right there to give you the desired information. Tell him to come and take the measure of your room and you will be sure of a nice fit.

Sanitary Carpets
Mattings
Ingrain 2-ply Carpets
Ingrain 3-ply Carpets
Moquett Carpets
Smith's Axminster Carpets
Wilton Velvet Carpets
Brussels Carpets

Floor Oil Cloths
Linoleums, in 6 and 12 feet wide
Inlaid Linoleum
Rugs 9x12 in Brussels
Moquetts and Velvets.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Richard Conrad of Union, was a visitor in the city today.

A magnificent assortment of new style hats for Fall wear at Florence Anderson's.

Peter Meisinger from near Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the county seat today.

George Freer and wife came in on the Burlington this morning and are visiting in the city today.

Baby won't suffer five minutes with croup if you apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil at once. It acts like magic.

Mrs. John West was down west of Murray yesterday, where she was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Otto Puls.

The Kraft store room in the Rockwood block is being repainted and papered and fixed up in fine shape. M. M. Beal is doing the work.

Douglas Shinn, who had been working in the city for the last few days advertising for a yeast house, departed for Louisville last evening.

Mrs. Joseph Tighe, of Havelock, who has been visiting in the city for some time past, a guest at the home of her brother, Frank E. Schlater, departed for her home this afternoon.

Miss Anna Dobrusky, of Ithaca, who has been operating the typesetting machine at the News, resigned her position this morning and departed for her home this afternoon on the Schuyler train.

Homer Sanders who is visiting at home for the past few days, was an Omaha visitor this afternoon, he will return here this evening, and remain the balance of the week, when he will return to his home in Lincoln.

John Marsh came in from Rock Bluffs today, and brought in a load of fine watermelons, the finest we have seen, some weighing up to forty pounds. Uncle John says that they were raised on the highest ground in Cass county.

Master Earl Blunt, who had been at Hartford City, Ind., for the last four months visiting at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Williams, returned home last evening and will attend the school here the coming year. While away Earl says he had a fine time.

Mrs. S. K. Dailey, of Lincoln, second vice-president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, came in this morning and will attend the Cass County Women's Christian Temperance Union, which is in session in the city today. While in the city Mrs. Dailey will be the guest of her friend, Mrs. C. E. Wescott at "Sunnyside."

Mrs. J. L. Root and Mrs. J. W. Newell were passengers to Omaha this morning.

L. A. Tyson of Elmwood, who was in the city yesterday and staying over night, returned home this morning.

Mrs. John Edmonds, who has been at Schuyler visiting for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith returned home this morning.

A. J. Beeson departed for Weeping Water last evening via the Schuyler train, where he will attend the fraternal picnic to be held there today.

Mrs. William Moore, who was here visiting her sons, Reno and Tom, and the family of the former, returned to her home in Silver City, Iowa, yesterday.

Mrs. H. L. Frank departed this morning for Hamburg, Iowa, where she will visit with friends and attend an old settlers' picnic which is to be held there today.

D. J. Lair and family departed for Hamburg, Iowa, this morning, where they will visit with friends for a few days and attend the old settlers' reunion at that place.

R. W. White was a passenger to Glenwood this morning, where he goes to umpire a baseball game or two. Glenwood is having a baseball tournament and a big time.

Mrs. O. A. Knapp, of Wymore, who has been visiting friends and relatives in the city for about a week, a guest at the home of Fred Oldenhausen, departed for her home last evening.

Mrs. Merritt Kerr, and little son, Merritt, came in from South Bend this morning, and will visit with Grandma Kerr for a few days, before departing for their home in Kansas City.

Back From the South.

Andy Smith and M. E. Coleman, who were down in Oklahoma and Indian Territory for some days past, returned last evening. In conversation with Mr. Coleman he says the country is looking fine down there but the weather is very dry and has been for some time, and he thinks the crops are being hurt some at present. They are needing rain there now pretty badly.

Manicuring and Hair Dressing.

Mrs. Cassie Saunders, of Omaha, will be in Plattsmouth at the Hotel Riley on Tuesday of each week, where she will be pleased to meet all ladies desiring manicuring and hair dressing. She makes a specialty of scalp treatment and massage.

For County Judge.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of County Judge, subject to the will of the republican voters of Cass county expressed at the primary to be held under the new law, September 3d, next. J. E. DOUGLASS.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for County Judge, subject to the will of the republican electors at the primary to be held September 3, 1907. A. L. TIDD.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of County Judge, subject to the will of the republican electors of Cass county at the primary to be held September 3, 1907. WILLIAM DELLES DENIER.

For County Clerk.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of County Clerk, subject to the will of the democratic electors as expressed at the primary election to be held September 3, 1907. W. E. ROSENCRANS.

For Clerk of the District Court.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of Clerk of the District Court, subject to the will of the democratic electors as expressed at the primary election to be held September 3, 1907. C. E. METZGER.

For Commission Third District.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of Commission Third District, subject to the will of the democratic electors as expressed at the primary election to be held September 3, 1907. C. R. JORDAN.

For Sheriff.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of sheriff, subject to the will of the Democratic voters expressed at the primary election, to be held September 3, 1907. A. J. BOX.

For County Assessor.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of County Assessor, subject to the will of the democratic electors as expressed at the primary election to be held September 3, 1907. H. M. SOENNICHSSEN.

For Treasurer.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Cass county, subject to the will of the democratic voters of the county as expressed at the primary to be held on September 3, 1907. FRANK E. SCHLATER.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Cass county, subject to the will of the republican voters of said county to be expressed at the primary election on September 3, 1907. WILL T. ADAMS.

For County Superintendent.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Schools, subject to the will of the republican voters of Cass county as expressed at the primary election to be held September 3, 1907. JOHN E. ORP, Avoca, Neb.