

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Miss Pattie Metzger was an over night visitor in the city last evening, returning to her home at Cedar Creek, this morning.

George Kerr and C. A. Welsh departed for Geneva this afternoon, where they will work for the Burlington.

J. R. Vallery was a business visitor in the county seat this afternoon, from near Mynard.

Wyatt Hutchinson of near Rock Bluff, accompanied by his daughter, Ora, and Miss Katie Haines, were visitors in Omaha this morning.

J. A. Walker of Murray, the veteran democrat was in the city this morning looking after some business matters.

Geo. A. B. Hicks of Cedar Creek was a county seat visitor this morning where he will look after some business matters.

A. B. Holmes from Union, was in the city today looking after some business matters.

J. G. Meisinger, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. J. H. Wallinger, were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they had some business matters to look after.

Will Seaton came in this morning from Union, Neb., where he has been visiting at the home of his cousin, W. B. Banning, for the past few days, and took the train for Burlington, Iowa, his home.

Alex Graves of Murray, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Henry G. Long was a business visitor in the city this morning from Murray.

W. H. Newell and son, Robert, were visitors at Cedar Creek this morning, where they will try and catch some fish.

Will Vallery and wife were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they have some business matters to look after.

Roy Lead and James Colders were visitors in the city yesterday from Elmwood, seeing the sights and visiting with their friend, Clayton Rosencrans.

B. F. Moore and son, Bryan, of Nehawka were in the city last evening in attendance to the medal contest where young Bryan was one of the speakers.

From Saturday's Daily.

F. W. Klopping, of Murray, was a business visitor in the city today.

A. C. Carey of near Union is attending to business in the city today.

Wm. Nichol of below Murray, was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

John Lewis and wife of near Nehawka, came in this morning and are thinking of moving here.

Mark White and wife of below Rock Bluffs came in this morning and are transacting business in the city.

J. W. Boedeker of Nehawka, will depart for Arapahoe Monday morning where he will take a position in the bank there.

Miss Mary Foster, of Union, democratic candidate for county superintendent of schools, was in the city today, and was a pleasant caller at the Journal office.

L. C. W. Murray of Murray, was in town today with a load of apples, today and tells us he got a bug in his eye about six weeks since which has put it out of commission for some time.

Glen Vallery will depart for Denver and other Colorado points, tomorrow (Sunday) evening and will be gone about ten days, and while away he will visit all the noted places in Colorado.

John Wiles, of Omaha, who was in the city yesterday and attended the second annual reunion of the Wiles family, at the home of Thomas Wiles, his brother west of town, departed for home this morning.

J. R. Vallery was in the city yesterday, and while here left an order for a fine set of harness which is to be made by Frank Wheeler, and is for the use of his trotting horses which will be entered for exhibition and for prizes at the Nehawka Fair which occurs during the latter portion of the month.

W. H. Seybert came in this morning from Cedar Creek and departed for Omaha where he will have his eye examined and tested. Yesterday while at work at the elevator at Collom, he was driving a nail which he struck a glance, causing it to fly, striking him in the eye lacerating it very severely, and causing him a good deal of pain.

From Tuesday's Daily

L. C. W. Murry, of near Murry, was in the city yesterday, attending the celebration of labor day.

Joy Kear of Elmwood, came in Saturday to visit with Bruce Rosencrans and be his guest for a few days.

Miss Frances Mitchell, of Elmwood, came in last evening and is visiting with her many friends in the city.

Archie Holmes, of Murray, was a visitor in the city yesterday and attended the Labor Day celebration.

George Horn was an over night visitor in the city, returning to his home at Cedar Creek this morning.

Mike Rys was a visitor at home over Sunday and yesterday, returning to his work at Cedar Creek this morning.

Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans returned home last Sunday evening from a three weeks' visit at Denver and Ft. Collins, Colo.

J. H. Hassenflow, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city yesterday and made this office a pleasant call.

S. O. Cole, of near Mynard, was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

Chas. Chassot and wife, of Pocasset, Indian Territory, came in Saturday evening to attend the funeral of Mrs. Chassot's father, Peter J. Hansen, which occurred Sunday.

C. E. Metzger, of Cedar Creek a candidate for the position of clerk of the district court on the democratic ticket, was a visitor in the city yesterday, returning home this morning.

Mrs. Thomas Walling and children, who have been visiting with the family of Mrs. Walling's sister, Mrs. Dennis McHugh, returned home yesterday morning, accompanied by Mrs. McHugh.

John Hennings, who, with his family, visited the Labor day celebration yesterday, stayed over night and witnessed the fire works, departing for Cedar Creek this morning where he has to look after the building of the Peoples' elevator.

Joseph Tubbs was a passenger to Lincoln this morning, where he is visiting the state fair which is in session. Chas. A. Miller from Percival, Iowa, who has been in the city since last Friday evening visiting friends and relatives, also was a visitor to the fair today.

G. M. Mark, wife and daughter, Muriel, of near Nehawka, were in Plattsmouth Monday, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. W. J. Partridge. While here Mr. Mark called and renewed his subscription to the weekly Journal. He was accompanied by our staunch friend, J. W. Lowther, from near Mynard.

A. J. Box, democratic candidate for sheriff, was in the city Labor Day interviewing those whom he knew and becoming acquainted with those he did not know. Mr. Box resides in Weeping Water precinct, and made quite a favorable impression among those whom he met. He is a farmer and one of the best men in Cass county.

From Wednesday's daily.

John Erickson, from Alvo, was in the city this morning, bringing in the returns from Greenwood precinct.

John Ruby from Eight Mile Grove, was a county seat visitor this morning, having business at the court house.

Louis Fredrick was in from Eight Mile Grove precinct today with the returns of yesterday's primary election.

Uncle Herman Conrad came in this morning from Murdock, where he has been making his home for some time past.

Our genial friend, John Spence, of Louisville, was in the city last evening.

Alfred Nickles was a passenger to the capitol this morning to visit at the fair for the day.

J. C. Hansen came in this morning from Union with the election returns from Liberty precinct.

Horace E. Rand, of Cedar Creek, was an over night visitor in the city, returning home this morning.

John Lohnes was a county seat visitor this morning, bringing the returns from Louisville precinct.

Cash Wiles and family were passengers to Lincoln this morning, where they will visit the fair today.

Charles Sans of Rock Bluffs, was a passenger to Lincoln this morning where he will attend the state fair.

Thomas Fulton, from Nehawka, was in the city this morning looking after some business matters at the court house.

Lyman James of Greenwood was a business visitor in the city today, coming to bring in the returns from Salt Creek precinct.

Lloyd Gapen, was in from Murray, this morning, bringing with him the results of the primary election in west Rock Bluffs precinct.

Arthur Baker, postmaster, and C. S. Stone, the genial cashier of the Murray State bank, were callers at these headquarters yesterday.

Mrs. B. W. Livingston and Miss Jessie Gilmour were passengers to Lincoln this afternoon, where they will visit with friends and attend the state fair for a few days.

H. Kuwitzky and family, of Nebraska City, who have been visiting in the city, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peters, departed for their home last evening via the Missouri Pacific.

H. C. VanHorn & Co. have just placed a large order of records for October, which are to fill orders already received. VanHorn & Co. are doing a very fine business and deserve the patronage of the music-loving public.

W. B. Essick was in this morning from Manley, and brought with him the returns of the primary election. Mr. Essick says that Miss Mary Foster is well spoken of among the republicans for superintendent and that her election is as much as conceded by many of them.

Chas. E. Chassot and wife who came up from Pocasset, Indian Territory, arrived here too late to attend the funeral of Mrs. Chassot's father, the late Peter J. Hansen. Mr. Chassot called on the Journal this morning, and blames the telegraph company for not receiving the news in time to get here.

Gust. Schliske made complaint this afternoon that his wife was not of sound mind and had been violent and he deemed it unsafe for her to be at liberty and he thought the lives of his children were in danger. Upon a warrant being issued she was brought in by the sheriff and is now having an examination before the insanity board as we go to press.

Henry Goos was a business visitor at the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur H. Smith was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon.

James Hunter, of LaPlatte, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Herman Pankonin, of Louisville, was a business visitor in the county seat today.

George Ray and L. H. Chalfant were county seat visitors today from below Murray.

Miss Virginia Hansen, of Arapahoe, is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Weybright.

Roy McKinney returned this morning from a trip to Lincoln where he was a visitor at the state fair.

Mrs. Emma Ault was a passenger to Glenwood, Iowa, where she will visit for a few days with friends.

Mrs. J. G. Richey was a passenger to Lincoln this morning where she will visit with friends for a few days.

Geo. M. Porter was a passenger to Red Oak, Iowa, where he will look after the interest of the Omaha Bee.

Robert Wolforth departed this morning for Worland, Wyoming, where he will work for the Burlington on a bridge gang.

Mrs. Dr. T. J. Todd came in this morning from Wahoo and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mauzy.

Guy McMaken and wife departed for Pleasantdale where they will visit for a few days with the family of the latter's sister, Mrs. J. L. Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. George Loucinsky were passengers to Lincoln this morning, where they will visit with George's sister, Mrs. E. E. Roenser.

Geo. A. Spangler and wife of Lincoln, were in the city last evening in attendance at the wedding of Ed. Spangler and Miss Nellie Jean, returning home this morning.

Mrs. Dora Peters, of Omaha, and Roy Harland, of Denver, came in this morning and will visit with relatives and friends a short time, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Gibson.

Miss Francis Mitchell of Omaha, who has been visiting in the city for the past few days, departed this morning for a two weeks' visit at Quincy, Illinois, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wurl.

"I have been somewhat costive, but Doan's Regulents gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—George B. Crause, 306 Walnut Ave., Altoona, Pa.

J. W. Bookmeyer and wife departed for Omaha this afternoon where Mr. Bookmeyer has some business to look after. Mrs. Bookmeyer will go to Plainview for a visit with friends for a few days.

Jeff Lewis and two sons, Ed. and Louis, accompanied by Rex Young, from Murray, made up a party who will see all there is to see at the state fair today, and what they miss will hardly be worth the looking after.

J. E. McCarthy and family from Enfield, Illinois, came in yesterday and are visiting at the home of Lafe Nelson for a short time. Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. McCarthy are sisters. They are in attendance at the state fair today.

Mrs. E. B. Thrall and Mrs. M. S. Briggs were visitors at the capitol city today, where Mrs. Thrall will visit with friends and Mrs. Briggs will arrange a boarding place for her daughter, Crete, who will go to Lincoln shortly to attend the State university.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shrader and children came in last night from their home near Stonesville, South Dakota. They went down to Murray this morning where they will leave the children with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shrader, while they make a trip to Kansas City. On their return they will visit their old home friends before returning to Dakota.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

SOME OF YOU

Who read this are going to buy a new carpet this fall, and to you and others that are interested in carpets, we will say this

Our new carpets are beginning to arrive and we are getting them in shape as fast as we can. We have a good stock to select from and the quality is the very best that money can buy. We buy direct from the mills for cash, thus securing the lowest possible price. It is a great pleasure to us to show carpets, knowing that we are in a position to show you a greater variety of patterns than any carpet house in this vicinity. It does not make any difference what you want to cover your floor with, we have it. So let us figure with you. Call up the carpet man. Independent No. 70, Bell 153. He will be right there to give you the desired information. Tell him to come and take the measure of your room and you will be sure of a nice fit.

Sanitary Carpets
Mattings
Ingrain 2-ply Carpets
Ingrain 3-ply Carpets
Moquett Carpets
Smith's Axminster Carpets
Wilton Velvet Carpets
Brussels Carpets

Floor Oil Cloths
Linoleums, in 6 and 12-foot wide
Inlaid Linoleum
Rugs 9x12 in Brussels
Moquetts and Velvets.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Gid Archer was a business visitor at Omaha this morning.

Miss Mable Tressler was a visitor in Lincoln this morning.

A. W. Meisinger was a visitor at the State fair this morning.

Walter J. White was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

Rev. J. F. Langhorst was a passenger to Pacific Junction this morning, returning on the fast mail.

Robert McGregor is viewing the fat stock and the fast horses and the big pumpkins at the state fair today.

Miss Emma Sharp was a passenger to Lincoln this morning, where she will visit the state fair during the day.

For Sale—Horse, harness and buggy, cheap, if taken at once. Inquire of John Gilson, Fifth and Lincoln Avenue.

Will Jean was a business visitor in Omaha this morning, having also some matters to look after at Council Bluffs.

Adam Wolf is in Omaha today doing some repairing on the heating apparatus in the general offices of the Burlington.

Mrs. J. C. Maguire of Malvern, Iowa, who has been visiting with her friend, Mrs. H. J. Schlutz, of this city, departed for home this morning.

James Janda, wife and children were passengers to Havelock this morning, where they will visit for a while. They will also attend the State fair.

Lost—A gold watch fob made up of three chains and upon the bangle are engraved the initials "T. A. M." Finder please leave at Journal office.

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment cures the most obstinate cases. Why suffer. All druggists sell it.

Can't look well, feel well or eat well with impure blood feeding your body. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and you will have long life.

Mrs. Joseph Fitzgerald was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where she goes to visit her sister and to take her nephew home, who has been visiting at the Fitzgerald home for the past few days.

Jesse Vallery, L. G. Meisinger, Fred Baumgard, Fred Hoffke, P. H. Meisinger and Grant Hackenberg made up a jolly party who visited at the State fair this morning. The young men go to see what the state is producing outside of Cass county. They will know that Cass county cannot be beat, but they would like to know what the rest of the state is doing.

Wanted—A good dining room girl at once, at the Plattsmouth Hotel.

Arthur Sullivan and wife, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Thomas Sullivan, were visitors at the state fair today.

C. H. Shopp, wife and little boy, were visitors in Omaha this morning, where they will look after some business and visit during the day.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever desired. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

Mrs. James Chalfant, accompanied by Floyd Chalfant and wife, were passengers to Omaha this morning, where Floyd will consult with Dr. Gifford in regard to an affection of his nose which has been troubling him for some time.

John Sutton returned from his visit to his brother at Walt Hill, a new town on the Sioux City and Fremont branch of the Great Northern, and says that the town although only a year and a half old is progressing rapidly and they have some prospects of getting the county seat.

T. S. Allen, chairman of the state democratic central committee was a visitor in the city today. While in the city he made this office a very pleasant call, and says things look well for the success of the democratic party, the hosts of freedom, and their scoring on election day, depends upon the proper organization of the forces and the keeping of members of the party working.

Woolman Camp No. 332

The clerk will be absent for about ten days. Geo. Lushinsky will accept payment from any of the Neighbors.

W. A. WHITE.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

FOR BACKACHE—WEAK KIDNEYS TRY DEWITT'S KIDNEY AND BLADDER PILLS—Save and Safe Prepared by E. C. DEWITT & CO., Chicago.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have had tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little at times, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. BEACH, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's salve is for sale by F. G. Fricke and A. T. Huld.

DOMINOCARDS—The new household game that combines and excels both Cards and Dominoes. Canvasers wanted to induce in every community. Sample game and particulars, postpaid, 50 cents. DOMINOCARDS CO., 1807 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis Mo.

Lame Back

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Plattsmouth Drug Co.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS and COLDS. Price 50c & $1.00 Free Trial.

Surest and Quickest Cure for all THROAT and LUNG TROUBLES, or MONEY BACK.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take
The new laxative. Does not gripe or nauseate. Cures stomach and liver troubles and chronic constipation by restoring the natural action of the stomach, liver and bowels. Refuse substitutes. Price 50c.