Louisville

From the Courier.

Wm. Lenhoff came down from Lincoln for a week's recreation out on the farm.

Mrs. Henry Ossenkop returned from Elgin, Neb., Tuesday evening where she has been visiting her mother who has been quite sick.

C. O. Lewis, of Mobile, Alabama, Mrs. George and Allie Lewis, of Ashland and Mrs. J. R. Funk, of Murdock visited the fore part of the week with John Waldron and family.

On last Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Freter entertained at their home on Walnut street in honor of their two nieces, Miss Geane and Miss Emma Cutts, of Columbus, Ohio.

Another million dollar rain Wednesday morning, and it didn't come a bit too soon for the corn crop. But then it always rains just at the right time in Nebraska to insure a bumper corn crop.

O, joy! O, joy! We are to have a new bridge across Mill creek to replace the old tumble down affair on Second street. The material has arrived and Com. Martin Friedrich tells us the work is to be pushed as fast as possible. The work will be done by the Nebraska Construction Co.

During the storm early Monday morning, lightning struck a large cottonwood tree in Wm. Colghorn's yard. Wm. was out in the yard looking after things and received a severe shock, he recovered from his fright in a short time, and was none the worse from his experience, except being very nervous.

Lost and Found.

Lost, between 9:30 p. m., yesterday and noon today, a bilious attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by the finding at F. C. Fricke & Co. drugstore a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, the guaranteed cure for biliousness malaria and jaundice, 25c

Union

From the Leader.

Joseph Marshall and wife of Plattsmouth made a visit last Sunday in this village with the latter's parents, Joseph Young and family.

Misses May and Reta Scotten, of Plattsmouth, and Pansy Pickett, of Union, spent the day last Sunday at the O'Donnell home east of this village.

C. R. Frans and family are again residents of Union, having moved back from South Dakota, where he has been working for the past several months.

Miss Jessie Hanna, of Oskaloosa, Ia., and Miss Emma Eikenberry, of Plattsmouth, visited last week with Mrs. Wm. Eikenberry, returning to their homes Sunday evening.

There is joy in the home of W. M. Sikes and wife, on account of the recent addition to their family circle, a handsome new daughter born Friday morning, August 23.

Jas. W. Holmes, one of Murray's enterprising merchants, and A. L. Baker, the corpulent postmaster, were looking after some business matters in this village Monday afternoon.

D. W. Foster and wife departed Tuesday for Columbus, Ohio, to spend two weeks with relatives and old acquaintances. Miss Minnie Shoemaker went with them to enjoy the two weeks outing.

Dave Smith and wife and son, Homer of Hartington, Ind., have been visiting the family of John Hostetter, northeast of town, the past two weeks. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mr. Hostetter. We are informed that Homer will remain in this vicinity several months.

Nehawka

(From the Register.)

Amsdel Sheldon from near Avoca is in Vermont on a visit to Levi A. Pettigrew of Ludlow, so we see by the Vermont Tribune of August 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barthold, of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. H. S. Barthold and daughter, Muriel, of Plattsmouth are visiting at the home of Mrs. Simon Hansen.

Isaac Pollard started for the Hot Springs of Arkansas yesterday morning where he intends to take baths in order to recruit up. He looked up the address of John Dale and they will probably keep each other from getting lonesome.

Governor and Mrs. Sheldon spent part of Saturday and Sunday at the old homestead last week. We want to be in fashion so we will tell that while here he mowed the weeds around the yard and after he had the job half done he mislaid the cythe and refused to discover it again.

Zack W. Shrader went to Nebraska City Wednesday to see the Duff Grain Co. relative to purchasing a carload of corn to ship to his ranch in Furnas county. The dry weather out there scorched the corn crop, and as he has 600 head of hogs, he was compelled to come east for corn to fatten them.

While working in the quarry the other day Peter Jensen had the misfortune to have his shin bone badly hurt by a flying wedge that was being driven in the crevices of a rock to break it loose. In giving it a hard blow it flew out striking him on the shin inflicting a bad wound resembling a gun shot.

Maurice Melrose and Hugh Burrows killed two rattlesnakes in the hay field the other day while putting up hay for Vilas Sheldon. One had fourteen rattles and was over an inch in diameter. The other it was not possible to tell the age as the rattles were whipped off in killing it. This is the first rattler we have heard of in this place for number of years.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I am taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Plattsmouth Drug Co.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

Mrs. J. C. White is gradually improving, being able to sit up.

L. F. Langhorst left Tuesday for St. Louis, where he will spend a week purchasing goods.

Miss Fern Greenslate, of Plattsmouth, visited relatives and friends here over Sunday.

L. F. Langhorst has purchased the Clay Conner residence property in West

Elmwood. Herman Penterman expects to move therein the first of September.

Mrs. Fred Kear was at the Munger hospital several days this week, receiving treatment for a severe case of blood poisoning, caused by stepping on a rusty nail.

Freda Mueller suffered a severe attack of appendicitis Friday, and was very sick for four days. We are glad to report that she is all right again.

Fred Kear was operated on for appendicitis at the Munger hospital Friday, by Dr. Everett, of Lincoln, and Dr. Munger. Fred came through the operation nicely, and will soon be able to get out again.

Geo. Wilson brought his little four-year-old daughter in to Dr. Neely Saturday, the little one having inhaled a kernel of corn into its lung. They took the little girl to Lincoln to consult a specialist, who thought she might expect the kernel in a few days without the necessity of an operation.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Plattsmouth Homes

Hard to do housework with an aching back, brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause—that backache pains come from sick kidneys 't would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Plattsmouth people endorse this:

Mrs. J. Sharp, living at corner of Third and Dyke streets, Plattsmouth, says: "For a long time I had trouble with my back and kidneys. The pain across my loins was of a drawing kind and it fairly seemed as if it would pull me over at times. I felt it all through the loins and hips. I doctored and tried various kinds of medicines, but nothing did me any good until about a year ago when I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Gering & Co.'s drug store. They helped me from the very start and in a short time brought positive and complete relief from all pain and distressing symptoms."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

In Charge of Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Swarts arrived in the city Sunday evening from Beemer, Neb., where Mr. Swarts has been engaged in the drug business with his brother. Monday morning he took charge of the Coates block drug store, where he will remain for the present. Mr. Swarts was reared near Silver City, Iowa, where his father, W. C. Swarts, is a prominent farmer and stockman, and is an experienced pharmacist in all its branches. Mr. and Mrs. Swarts are most excellent people and will be quite an acquisition to society circles in Plattsmouth. The Journal extends a most cordial greeting to them with the hope that they become permanent citizens of our town.

They Had a Pleasant Voyage

Fredolph Nord and Victor Anderson took the sixteen-foot motor boat belonging to the Nord boys who live along the Platte river, and started for Lake Manawa last Saturday evening. They got as far as Hinton station and camped for the night. Starting again on Sunday morning they arrived at the lake about eleven o'clock. They used the boat on the lake and left it there in charge of the managers of the resort. They will return with it after some weeks but expect to make the trip in a very few hours as they will not have the strong current of the Missouri to combat.

Has Hand Badly Poisoned

W. T. Russell while out on the road for the Burlington, helping place a car on the track which had been derailed, got into some poison ivy and had one of his hands so badly poisoned that he is compelled to lay off from his work in the shops.

GANDERBONE'S SEPTEMBER FORECAST

Some Predictions That Will Surely Come True.

The old school bell is soon to ring, the poets to rise and sing, the frost will soon displace the dew, and the wind jamb through the peek-a-boo. Untutored youth with tears of brine, returneth sadly to the mine, and the new schoolma'am prepares to whack, the bad boys where the pants are slack.

The football player lets his hair fall into autumn unrepair, And the more athletic college cobs The students with the largest mops.

The moon will be full on the 21st, and the password for the month will be "Soak Standard Oil." Everybody will run a little harder for president. Mr. Bryan's smoke will continue an interesting spectacle. Mr. Roosevelt will drop a wasp into the hip pocket of Mr. Taft, and that laggard will move up a couple of places in the race. Mr. Fairbanks will continue to pass the grandstand every seven seconds sucking buttermilk with a nipple, out of his pneumatic shirt front. The war with Japan will sleep fretfully, and Uncle Sam will sit by the cradle crooning soft lullabies and giving paregoric with a funnel.

The coming county fair is billed, The big prize hog is corned and swilled The pumpkin that will lift the prize Is watched with proud and hopeful eyes.

And the family mare to win the pot Is training for the county trot.

The autumnal equinox will come on time on the 24th, and Mr. Harriman will absorb all water that falls to use in floating stocks for development of our great natural resources. The Standard Oil Company will place a twenty-year 4 per cent mortgage upon the earth and will pay the $29,400,000 fine imposed by Judge Landis. Senator Beveridge will end his honeymoon abroad and return to the affairs of the Republic, which will restore that feeling of security.

The summer girl—romantic thing!—will homeward come upon the wing, and show her neighbors for a week where some man bit her on the cheek. The freckles on her arms (and legs?) resemble those on turkey eggs, and the neighborhood will bet ten per the men were only joshing her.

The lucky wives of millionaires Will put up jam and pickle pears. But the most of us denied these boons, Will pass the winter full of prunes.

Some red-hot sealing-wax, alack, will fly down Nancy's tender back, exploring where the flesh is bare, and three shrill screams will pierce the air. The men a-washing at the pump, will hasten thither on the jump, but Nancy, 'mid the fruit upturned, will not divulge where she is burned.

President Roosevelt fresh from Oyster Bay, will issue on the 20th a proclamation officially opening the oyster season. Turnips and football players will run to tops. White duck trousers will begin to migrate. A comet will make one night stands to the northeast sky. The weather and politicians will become very agreeable. Nature, which has been in the nude for the outdoor summer painting season, will put on a thin gossamer, and the Corn Huskers' Union will promulgate a new wage scale by which they will get the corn and the farmer the husks.

The boys on Saturday are loose. To stain their hands with walnut juice, The cider swollen apples drip, The pig squeals for a morning nip, And the billy goat, by Autumn cheered Lets cool winds frolic with his beared.

Summer excursions tourists will come home in a chair car with their skull grass full of carbon mites, the aisle full of braided legs, and the saw-tooth chair back embossing the name of the railroad on their spines. The Big Dipper will appear in the heavens upside down, which will encourage Prohibition to resume his war paint and extend the booze drouth. John Barleycorn will return to his guns with a Booker Washington tint under both eyes and his pants torn, and the Kentucky Colonel will toss in his mint bed while Carrie Nation rides a night mare through the windows of his boudoir.

The cotten fields with ball and stem Are beckoning to dusky men, And soon from cotton seed we'll boil The pure, imported olive oil.

The Greeks began their year in September. Our Labor Day is their New Year's Day. They do this because their families spent the summer at the sea shore at considerable expense, while the men played poker at home at even more expense. This left the Greeks badly in the hole, and the only way they could get out was to have the new year begin September 2nd drinking and smoking at that time. This enabled them to save in September what we save in January, and was a much better plan than ours.

Cheer up, cheer up the summer's o'er, the piping quail is up at 4, September sweet is on the job, and the green corn-ripen on the cob.

October crisp will soon be here With softly-falling leaf and sere, With frosty morn' and hunter's moon And pumpkin pie, not yet but soon.

Appointed Deputy Exalted Ruler

John K. Tenor, the Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Patriotic Order of Elks, has just appointed H. A. Schneider as the District Deputy for the state of Nebraska. This is an office of considerable moment in the order, and was contested for by two other citizens, and came to Mr. Schneider as a victory which he can well be proud of attaining.
