state to create corporations, or its right to regulate as it will foreign corporations doing business within its limits, make it necessary for all manufacturing and trading corporations engaged in interstate commerce to take out a federal license before it shall be permitted to control as much as 25 per cent of the product in which it deals, the license to protect the public from watered stock and to prohibit the control by such corporation of more than 50 per cent of the total amount of any produce consumed in the United States.

We insist upon the recognition of the distinction between the natural man and the artificial person, called a corporation, and we favor the enactment of such law as may be necessary to compel foreign corporations to submit their legal disputes to the courts of the states in which they do business, and thus place themselves upon the same footing as domestic corporations.

We favor an immediate revision of the tariff by the reduction of import duty. Articles entering into competition with articles controlled by trusts should be placed upon the free list; material reductions should be made in the tariff upon the necessities of life, and reductions should be made in such other schedules as may be necessary to restore the tariff to a reform basis.

We favor an income tax as a part of our revenue system, and we urge the submission of a constitutional amendment specifically authorizing congress to levy and collect a tax upon individual and corporate incomes, to the end that wealth may bear its proportionate share of the burdens of the federal government. We favor a national inheritance tax to reach the swollen fortunes already in existence, but we believe that it is better to permanently prevent swollen fortunes by abolishing the privileges and favoritism upon which they are based.

We assert the right of congress to exercise complete control over interstate commerce, and we assert the right of each state to exercise just as complete control over commerce within its borders. We demand such an enlargement of the powers of national and state railway commissions as may be necessary to give full protection to persons and places from discrimination and extortion. We believe that both the nation and the various states, should, first, ascertain the present value of the railroads, measured by the cost of reproduction; second, prohibit the issue of any more watered stock or fictitious capitalization; third, prohibit the railroads from engaging in any business which brings them into competition with their shippers; and fourth, reduce transportation rates until they reach a point where they will yield only a reasonable return of the present value of the roads,—such reasonable return being defined as a return sufficient to keep the stock of the road at par when such roads are honestly capitalized. To supplement the reductions made by the various states in passenger rates, we favor an act of congress, requiring the railroads to sell interstate tickets at a rate not exceeding the sum of the local rate.

We favor the establishment of state and national boards of arbitration which shall have authority to investigate either upon their own initiative or at the request of either party, any industrial dispute between corporate employers and their employees, the findings of such boards not to be binding upon either party but to serve as a guide to public opinion and as a means of conciliation between labor and capital.

We favor the eight hour day.

We are opposed to government by injunction, the system under which the writ of injunction is used to deny to laboring men the protection of trial by jury. We favor full protection, by both national and state governments within their respective spheres, of all foreigners residing in the United States under treaty, but we are opposed to the admission of Asiatic emigrants who cannot be amalgamated with our population, or whose presence among us would raise a race issue and involve us in diplomatic controversies with oriental powers.

We welcome Oklahoma to the sisterhood of states and heartily congratulate her upon the auspicious beginning of her great career.

We favor separate statehood for Arizona and New Mexico and demand for the people of Porto Rico the full enjoyment of the rights and privileges of a territorial form of government.

We sympathize with the efforts put forth for the reclamation of the arid lands of the west, and urge the largest possible use of irrigation in the development of the country.

We favor the speedy completion of the Panama canal.

We favor a generous pension policy, both as a matter of justice to the surviving veterans and their dependants and because it relieves the country of the necessity of maintaining a large standing army.

We condemn the experiment in imperialism as an inexcusable blunder which has involved us in an enormous expense, brought us weakness instead of strength, and laid our nation open to the charge of abandoning the fundamental doctrine of self-government. We favor an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose to recognize the independence of the Philippines as soon as a stable government can be established, such independence to be guaranteed by us, as we guarantee the independence of Cuba, until the neutralization of the islands can be secured by treaty with other powers. In recognizing the independence of the Philippines our government should retain such land as may be necessary for coaling stations and naval bases.

Desiring the prevention of war, wherever possible, we believe that our nation should announce its determination not to use our navy for the collection of private debts, and its willingness to enter into agreements with other nations, providing for the investigation by an impartial international tribunal, before any declaration of war or commencement of hostilities, of every dispute which defies diplomatic settlement.

Undoubtedly the railroad commission which was created by an amendment to the constitution has no power to fix rates, therefore we demand that the governor shall call an extra session of the legislature and that that body shall establish maximum rates upon grain, live stock, fruit vegetables, building material, fuel and such kindred product, as enter into the necessities of life. Also a stringent anti-pass law, a reciprocal demurrage law, and a law directing the governor of this state to appoint a competent commission of at least five, no more than two of whom shall be of one political party, who shall after due investigation report upon the physical values and the market values of all common materials doing business within the state for the guidance of the legislature and the taxing powers.

DAN CUPID CUTS MORE CAPERS

Mr. John Carmack and Miss Mary Kunsman Married Last Evening.

In the presence of a very merry crowd of very earnest friends of both parties, at the beautiful home of the father of the bride, Carl Kunsman last evening, standing under a large bell, constructed from Smilax, using the beautiful ring ceremony, and using the impressive ceremony of the Episcopal Church, Canon H. B. Burgess joined the lives of two of our young people, Mr. John Carmack and Miss Mary Kunsman in holy matrimony. In the ceremony as used, Carl Kunsman, the father of the bride, gave her away, and the groom, Mr. Carmack, passed the ring to the clergyman, who in turn passed the same to the bride, who receiving her ring, in return passed hers to the groom. Then followed the beautiful and impressive ceremony, followed by the benediction, asked by Canon Burgess, congratulations following. Miss Minnie Guthman acted in the capacity of bride's maid and Earnest Wurl as groomsman.

All sat down to a delightful feast, at which all did ample justice, and a very happy time was had. The newly married pair departed for Omaha on the late Burlington train, where they were the guests of Mr. Carmack's sister, Mrs. Hooper. This morning they departed for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, passing through here, where they will visit for some time at the old home of Mr. Carmack and with his mother's folks. From there they will go to Chicago, where they will visit for some time, returning via Des Moines, and arriving at home in about two weeks. They will make their home at the old home of Mr. Carmack's parents, on Third and Oak streets, and will be at home to their friends after November 1st.

Robbers

"Face the robber and never give him a chance to attack you unawares," is the advice of the editor of a Medical Journal, in his leading article. Every disease is a robber, always ready to attack our body, but a careful observer easily notices his approach and faces him. He will notice some sort of uneasiness, weakness, tiredness, loss of appetite, dull headache; he is not feeling well. Then it is time to use at once Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, which will promptly check the advance of the sickness. Every dose helps. This remedy will quickly restore the functions of the digestive organs and will soon give the body new strength and energy. In maladies of the stomach and of the bowels, from whatever cause, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the only remedy you can depend on. At drugstores, Jos. Triner, 799 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the national pure food and drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Mrs. E. P. Bayless, of Watson, Mo., who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brady, for some time, departed for home this morning via the Burlington. Mrs. Brady, her mother, accompanied her as far as Pacific Junction.

Photograph Company Will Move

The Olson Photograph Company, which has acquired an enormous business since it embarked in the post card making, and have long ago outgrown their present quarters, and have been negotiating for larger and more room, where they are now located, but have failed to be able to get it. So they have had to look elsewhere finding what they desired at the old Waterman building, over the billiard hall, where they will move about the first of October.

The Beri-Beri Cases at Alvo

Commissioner Marshall was over to Alvo last week, to investigate the cases of beri-beri that seems to have gained a footing in a Japanese camp of railway workers adjoining Alvo. He said that there were eight cases, that they were now housed in the cars, and that they would be provided with suitable food. Doctors Jones of Murdock and Munger of Elmwood, were in attendance. It is thought they will get along all right, and proper sanitary precautions will be taken. The disease affects the heart, and nerves and muscles of the lower limbs. When they tried to climb steps they had not the power to raise. It is a common complaint in Japan, and is said to have been brought here by a laborer who just came over.—Weeping Water Herald.

Poultry Wanted

Highest cash paid for poultry, delivered at Mynard any day in the week. Tel. 3 O. W. F. RICHARDSON.

Millinery Opening

Owing to the lateness of our millinery opening we have decided to hold but one day for the opening of the millinery season at our store. While in the east I made many new selections in the millinery line, in fact at our store you will find all the new creations direct from the style centers of New York, where our big line of goods was purchased and rushed through by express in order to accommodate our many customers as early as possible. We can truthfully say that we believe we have the largest most stylish and up-to-the-minute line of millinery ever on display in Cass county.

Five thousand dollars worth of the popular Woolltex garments will also be placed on display at the opening day of our millinery sale. See the display in our department store west window. A new world of style and beauty. Make it a point to call and see us Saturday. Yours for many new and startling bargains in our line. M. FANGER, The Department store man.

Ready to Excavate

Those who expect to help in the excavating at the Christain church will please be on hand in the morning, when the excavating will begin. The ladies will serve dinner for those who work. We want all those who wish to contribute work for the purpose of helping to get the furnace in to come tomorrow as we wish to get this and the excavating done and the furnace in before it gets cold.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

An Excellent Platform of Principles Adopted.

The first state conventions in Nebraska under the direct primary system were held in Lincoln Tuesday by the various parties to adopt platforms and perfect party organizations. The democratic convention had delegates present from over half the counties in the state. The great commoner, William J. Bryan, was present and addressed the convention, which was the signal for much enthusiasm. The platform is an interesting document, and says what it means, and means what it says. Tom Allen was re-elected chairman of the state committee, and in the selection of the new committee, W. D. Wheeler was re-elected from Cass county. Following is the platform in full:

The Platform.

We, the democratic party of Nebraska, in delegate convention assembled, express our continued confidence in, and admiration for, Honorable William Jennings Bryan; and reassert our fidelity to the principles which he has so ably advocated, and which at this time are so generally accepted by a large majority of the people of the United States.

We rejoice at the increasing signs of a moral awakening in the United States. The various investigations have traced graft and political corruption to the representatives of predatory wealth and laid bare the unscrupulous methods by which they have debauched elections and preyed upon a defenseless public through the subservient officials whom they have raised to place and power. The conscience of the nation is now awakened and must not sleep until the government is freed from the grip of those who have made it a business asset of the favor-seeking corporations; it must become again "a movement of the people, by the people and for the people" and be administered in all its departments according to the Jeffersonian maxim, "equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

We heartily approve of the laws prohibiting the pass and the rebate, and insist upon further legislation, state and national, making it unlawful for any corporation to contribute to campaign funds, and providing for publication, before the election, of all individual contributions above a reasonable minimum.

Believing with Jefferson, in "the support of the state governments in all their rights and the most competent administrations for our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-republican tendencies," and in "the preservation of the general government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad," we are opposed to the centralization implied in the suggestion now frequently made, that the powers of the general government should be extended by judicial construction. While we favor the exercise by the general government of all its constitutional authority for the prevention of monopoly and for the regulation of interstate commerce, we insist that federal remedies shall be added to, and not substituted for state remedies.

We favor the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and regard this reform as the gateway to all other national reforms.

A private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable. We, therefore, favor the vigorous enforcement of the criminal law against trusts and trust magnates, and demand the enactment of such additional legislation as may be necessary to make it impossible for a private monopoly to exist in the United States. Among the additional remedies we specify three, first—a law compelling corporations engaged in interstate commerce to sell to all purchasers in all in all parts of the country on the same terms, after making due allowance for cost of carriage; second—a law preventing the duplication of directors among competing corporations; and third—a license system which will, without abridging the right of each
