

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Ed. Graves, of Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Andy Sutton was a visitor in the city this morning from Rock Bluffs.

George Horn, of Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the city today.

Peter Meisinger, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Dr. B. F. Brendel of Murray was a business visitor in the city today.

Jacob Meisinger of near Cullom was a business visitor in the city this afternoon.

Ferdinand Henning, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning.

H. T. Richards, of Wabash, was in the city this morning looking after some business matters.

R. A. Young, from Nehawka, was a business visitor in the city this morning having some business matters to look after at the court house.

E. R. Todd returned this morning from Wahoo, where he has been the guest at the home of his son Dr. T. J. Todd of that place.

D. W. Foster, who came up from Union yesterday, was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he has some business to look after.

L. C. W. Murray was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where he goes for treatment for his eye which he got something in some time since.

George Kroehler departed for Davenport, Iowa, this morning on the early Burlington train, where he will visit his son, John Kroehler, who is located at that place.

M. S. Davis, west of Murray, is building a new barn and an extensive granery on his farm, making better facilities for handling his crops. James Leek and D. M. Stanley are doing the work.

Fred Engelkemeier, who has been at Plainville for some time past, visiting with friends and relatives, a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, Julius Kitchoff, returned home this morning.

C. E. Metzger, democratic candidate for clerk of the district court, was a Louisville visitor Monday. Mr. Metzger will make a thorough canvass of the county before the November election and try to convince the voters that he is entitled to their support. Chris is one of the best young men in the county and his qualifications will not be questioned.—Louisville Courier.

John Hennings of near Eight Mile Grove was a business visitor in the city today.

Mrs. Margaret Schaeffer, who has been visiting at Plainville, returned home last evening after an extended visit with friends and relatives.

From Saturday's Daily.

John Earl, of Murdock, was a business visitor in the city last evening, returning home this morning.

Isaac Tennent, from Louisville, was a business visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, having business at the court house.

Lloyd Gopen from near Murray was a business visitor in the city today, having some affairs to look after at the court house.

J. M. Ward, of Wabash, was a business visitor in the city this morning, coming to look after some business at the court house.

W. C. Carrier of Union was looking after some business in the county seat this afternoon, and renewing acquaintances in the city as well.

J. M. Woodard of Elmwood, the manager of the Independent telephone company at that point, is in the city for a couple of days, looking after some business matters.

John Buck and wife, of west of the city, departed this afternoon for New Castle, Wyo., where they will visit for about two months with their son, Lewis Buck and family.

John Ossenop and son, Fred, came in this morning from Louisville, and are visiting at the home of Frank E. Schlater and looking after business in the county seat.

D. W. Foster of Union was a business visitor in the city this afternoon, where he is consulting about the house which he has under contemplation of building on his farm in the south part of the county.

G. M. Porter, wife and Mrs. Stephen Buzzell, were passengers to Glenwood this morning, where the ladies will visit with their friend, Mrs. Elmer Yonkers, while George will look after the interests of the Omaha Bee.

The H. G. Van Horn Phonograph Company, has recently been dissolved and has been succeeded by the Plattsmouth branch of the Nebraska Cycle Company, with S. D. Gibson as proprietor and manager. They are placing on sale today October Edison records, and tomorrow will have on sale October Victor records.

From Monday's Daily.

Earl Jenkins of Murray was a business visitor in the city this morning.

W. F. Tracy, of Union was a visitor in the city today, having business at the court house.

Jacob Meisinger was a visitor in the metropolis, having some business matters to look after today.

Harry Reed, of Weeping Water, came in this morning and is looking after business at the court house.

T. S. Allen, chairman of the democratic state central committee, was a visitor in the city this morning, between trains.

Mrs. Geo. W. Kinser will depart tomorrow morning for Bristow, Okla., where she will visit for some three or four months, with her sister, Mrs. Lulu A. Wittens.

John Kuhney came up yesterday from Nehawka to visit with his family and two sisters, Mrs. C. E. Shiffer, of Nodaway, Iowa and Mrs. Lulu M. Woods, of Seward, this state, who are in the city to visit with him and other relatives.

W. S. Leyda and family, who have been in the city for the past few days visiting with the families of his brother John M. Leyda and County Clerk, W. E. Rosencrans, departed last evening on the late train for their home at Falls City.

John Albert, of Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

L. D. Switzer of Weeping Water was a visitor in the city, called here by the meeting of the county commissioners.

John Meisinger, of Cedar Creek, came in this morning and will visit in the city for the day, and see his daughter, Miss Mary Meisinger, depart for Pekin, Ill., where she will visit for some time.

Miss Rosa Mumm, one of the teachers in the Alvo school, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks, returning to her school yesterday evening. While here she called at this office and ordered the Journal sent to J. H. Weichel, at whose home Miss Mumm is boarding for the winter.

Phillip Stoehr, came in this morning with his daughter, Miss Maggie, who will depart this afternoon for Pekin, Ill., in company with John Fornoff and Phillip Fornoff and wife who have been visiting here for some two weeks from Illinois, and are now returning home. Mrs. John Gauer of Cedar Creek, will also accompany them for a visit at the oldhome at Pekin.

W. H. Newell departed this morning for Wymore, where he will look after the business of the company at that place.

Mrs. Margaret Gallagher who has been looking after some business in the city departed this morning on the early train for Omaha.

R. J. Rummerfield and J. P. Falter departed this morning for Phelps, Mo., where they are looking after some business matters.

Joseph Brasch of Chicago, who has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Waintroub, departed last evening for his home.

Miss Georgia Mulica, of Creston, Ia., who has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. D. Dalton, departed this morning for her home.

Julius Pepperberg was a passenger to Pacific Junction and other Iowa points this morning, where he is looking after some business relative to his cigar trade.

Mrs. Peter Keil and daughter, from Cedar Creek, who were visiting the Ak-Sar-Ben were compelled to remain in the city last evening, returning home this morning.

M. Fanger and wife, who were visitors at Omaha yesterday at the home of Mrs. Fanger's mother, Mrs. Dora Schall, and also attending the carnival, returned home this morning.

Mrs. S. W. Hitt, of Table Rock, who has been visiting in the city for some time, a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Isner, departed for her home this morning on the early train.

E. S. Bogart, of Glenwood, missed his train last evening and instead of getting to Plattsmouth he got on the train coming to Plattsmouth and had to spend the night here, going home this morning.

Earl Clark, who has been in the west for some time, returned home last evening and in conversation with a reporter of this paper said that he was immensely pleased with the country out there.

From Wednesday's daily

W. H. Marks of Union, was a business visitor in the city today.

A. L. Becker, of Union, was a visitor in the city last evening, having business at the county seat.

A. S. Will departed this afternoon for Akron, Colo., where he goes to look after the remainder of his cattle.

John A. Davis, of near Nehawka, departed this morning for Bolckow, Mo., where he goes to visit his mother.

The commissioners have ordered a cement walk built around the court house, and have advertised for bids for its construction.

Dr. T. J. Todd, wife and little son, came in this morning from Wahoo, and will visit with friends and relatives in the city for a few days.

Thomas Troop was a passenger to Cedar Creek this morning, where he is engaged in working with the bridge gang of the Burlington.

Dr. E. D. Cummins was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he is looking after some hospital work which he has in charge there.

Mrs. John Meisinger jr., who was taken to the St. Joseph Hospital at Omaha, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis is reported as getting along nicely.

I. S. White and wife were visitors in the city from Rock Bluffs. Mr. White and wife are thinking of coming to town to live and are looking for a suitable place for a home.

Robt D. Moffitt, who formerly lived in this city, working at the store of Zuckweiler & Lutz, but who has been living at Red Oak for some time past, came in last evening and will again enter the employment of the above mentioned firm, and will again become a resident of our city.

August Lake and Louis Brasch, of Heebner, who have been visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. G. G. Hoffman for some time past, in company with the Hoffman family are visiting the Ak-Sar-Ben today.

J. J. Andres, constable at Greenwood, came in this morning, having in charge Geo. Birks, who had been convicted at that village for being drunk and disorderly and who was consigned to the county bastille for ten days.

Mrs. C. E. Shiffer, of Nodaway, Iowa, who has been in the city visiting with the families of her brothers, John, Harry and Louis Kuhney, for some days past, departed last evening for her home in Iowa. Harry Kuhney accompanied her and will visit there for a few days.

W. H. Newell departed this morning for Wymore, where he will look after the business of the company at that place.

Mrs. Margaret Gallagher who has been looking after some business in the city departed this morning on the early train for Omaha.

R. J. Rummerfield and J. P. Falter departed this morning for Phelps, Mo., where they are looking after some business matters.

Joseph Brasch of Chicago, who has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Waintroub, departed last evening for his home.

Miss Georgia Mulica, of Creston, Ia., who has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. D. Dalton, departed this morning for her home.

Julius Pepperberg was a passenger to Pacific Junction and other Iowa points this morning, where he is looking after some business relative to his cigar trade.

Mrs. Peter Keil and daughter, from Cedar Creek, who were visiting the Ak-Sar-Ben were compelled to remain in the city last evening, returning home this morning.

M. Fanger and wife, who were visitors at Omaha yesterday at the home of Mrs. Fanger's mother, Mrs. Dora Schall, and also attending the carnival, returned home this morning.

Mrs. S. W. Hitt, of Table Rock, who has been visiting in the city for some time, a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Isner, departed for her home this morning on the early train.

E. S. Bogart, of Glenwood, missed his train last evening and instead of getting to Plattsmouth he got on the train coming to Plattsmouth and had to spend the night here, going home this morning.

Earl Clark, who has been in the west for some time, returned home last evening and in conversation with a reporter of this paper said that he was immensely pleased with the country out there.

Notice

The annual meeting of the Cass County Farmers protective Association will be held in Louisville on Saturday Oct. 5th, at 1:20 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and transacting such business as may come before the meeting.

J. G. MEISINGER, SECRETARY

For Sale

Fos Sale—A few thoroughbred Poland China hogs, weighing about 156 to 180 pounds. Pedigrees can be furnished if desired. Call at my farm east of Murray or address D. A. Young, Plattsmouth, R. F. D. No. 1.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

E. G. DOVEY & SON

WHICH? BRYAN, ROOSEVELT OR TAFT?

One of these three gentlemen is sure to occupy the presidential chair next term. Oliver Dovey says Taft will be the man. The chances are he don't know anything about it, but the point is this, that if either of them should come into our store to make a purchase, they would pay the same price as anybody else. We do pride ourselves of the fact that we make no difference in people. One is treated with the same courtesy and pay the same price as another.

Wilow Suting

These are some of the latest in Cotton Dress Goods. A very large plaid in light and dark. 27 inches wide. Sold at, per yard 20c

Flannelettes!

Our Flannelettes for this fall are now in. We have a fine selection. We have not raised the price on these goods as we bought them before the raise was made. As usual 10c

BLANKETS!

10-4 Cotton Blankets in gray and tan, blue and red border, 68, 75 and 85c. 11-4 Cotton blankets, variation border, $1.00, $1.50 and $1.75. 12-4 extra large gray and tan colored borders, $1.50, $2.25, $2.40 and $2.50. A fine line of wool blankets, white, tan and gray, from

$4.50 to $8.00

Boys' and Girl's

H O S E

For School

We carry the best line of school hose in the west. THE BOSTON TERRIER In all sizes from 5 to 10. Our price 15c

POSTAL CARD CONTEST ENDED!

Miss Mildred Cummins, winner, writes Dovey's Store on a postal card 665 times.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Buried This Afternoon

Miss Pearl South, who has been working at the Institute at Glenwood, for some time past, and who was stricken with typhoid fever, while there some weeks since, and who died yesterday, was brought to this city this afternoon. The funeral was held from the Christian church, the Rev. A. L. Zink delivering the address and the interment was made at Oak Hill cemetery. Miss pearl made her home in this city for some time past with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. J. South, and had been engaged in the work at the Institute for some months.

Four Wrecks in a Day

Yesterday the Mo. Pacific ran a passenger coach off the track near Weeping Water, and in sending a derrick car to pick up the damaged coach, had a bridge break through with them causing another wreck. These two accidents caused the night trains to go by the way of Louisville. It is reported that they had two more minor wrecks yesterday on this division. Wrecks are getting very popular on this road.

Gaebel's Big Sale.

With sixty-five head of Duroc Jersey and Poland China Pigs to select from, every one of them bred to perfection, Charles Gaebel will surely have company at his house, October 9, the date of his fifteenth annual sale. The Courier has just turned out four hundred catalogues for Mr. Gaebel giving the breeding of these offerings and if you are interested in improving the breeding of your hogs it will be to your interest to drop Mr. Gaebel a card asking for a catalogue. Remember the dates Wednesday, October 9. Sale begins at 1 o'clock sharp.—Louisville Courier.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take

The new laxative. Does not gripe or nauseate. Cures stomach and liver troubles and chronic constipation by restoring the natural action of the stomach, liver and bowels. Refuse substitutes. Price 50c.

FOR SALE BY F. G. FRICKE.

Miss Anna Wickman, who has been visiting at the home of her Uncle John Wickman for some two or three months departed for home at Raymond, Minn., this afternoon on the fast mail. Her uncle accompanied her as far as Omaha.

Herman Clugy, wife and daughter Blanch, came in last evening from Omaha, where they have been attending the carnival, and will visit at the home of Mr. Clugy's brother J. F. Clugy for a few days before returning to their home at Clarinda, Iowa.

F. F. Brittain and wife, of Silver Creek, the latter a sister of Mrs. Ward Clark, came in yesterday and will visit for a few days with the Clark family. They with Mr. and Mrs. Clark and children were visitors at Omaha this afternoon, where they were paying respects to Ak-Sar-Ben the XIII.

J. H. Reznor, of Galesburg, Ill., who is employed as a brakeman, on the Burlington out of that city, and who has been visiting in this place for the past few days with his brother, Fred Reznor, who is employed in the local Burlington shops, departed this morning for his home in Illinois.

Mrs. William Wells, who has been making her home at South Bend, for some time past, came in this morning and will visit for a short time with friends here, and will in a few days depart for Emerson, Iowa, where she will make her home with her son, W. E. Wells who is engaged at that point in the newspaper business, publishing the Emerson Chronicle.

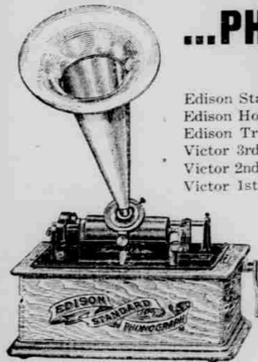

Frank Hemmingway and wife, of Moneta, Iowa, the latter a sister of Mrs. C. Asemussen, came in last evening and will visit with her relatives and friends in the city, the guest of her sister for some two weeks.

Harry Kuhney who went to Nodaway, Iowa the other day with his sister, Mrs. C. E. Shiffer, with the intention of visiting for some time, found the mud, as Harry said—feet deep, so one could not get around and he returned and thought he would defer his visit until such a time as he could be able to get around and see some one.

...PHONOGRAPHS... and RECORDS

Edison Standard.....	$29 20
Edison Home.....	39 20
Edison Triumph.....	50 00
Victor 3rd.....	47 20
Victor 2nd.....	37 20
Victor 1st.....	26 20

Edison Records 35 cent each, per dozen.....	$4 20
Victor Records, 10 inch, straight.....	60
12 inch.....	1 00
8 inch Victor Records 35c, per dozen.....	4 20

Agents for the White Sewing Machine

Van Horn & Co.,

(Successors to Phil. Sauter.)

Removed to North 6th Street

Sold on Easy Payments.

"HIS MASTER'S VOICE"