THE "BUSINESS END"

OF A STOVE IS THE FIREPOT
THE "ART GARLAND" FIREPOT "DOES THE BUSINESS."

IT'S THE easiest thing in the world to make a firepot WRONG—so easy that you'll find most all of them wrong—wrong construction—wrong principle. For 70 years there has been no improvement on the actual "BUSINESS END" of a stove until this two-piece revolving firepot was placed in

"GARLANDS"

LOOK AT IT!

NOTICE IT'S MADE IN TWO PIECES---

That's to allow the air to pass into the fire instead of all coming in at the bottom.

HOT FIRE WHERE YOU WANT IT---

At the outside edge instead of the middle, where you get little radiation from it.

THE LOWER PIECE REVOLVES---

Just put the crank on, give it a turn, and the firepot is as clean as a whistle.

NO POKING—NO FUSSING—NO MUSS—NO DUST—
WILL SAVE YOU A TON OF COAL EVERY YEAR YOU USE IT.

home for the present. We are glad to welcome him back to the old home and hope he will remain forever.
LOOK: HERE IS A SNAP: A second hand piano for sale cheap. In good condition. For further information call on or write CHAS. S. STONE, Murray, Neb.
Geo. Berger was in South Omaha Tuesday with a car load of hogs. He also says he was in the Orepolis B. M. wreck Monday evening, but jumped from the way car and escaped uninjured.
J. R. Vallery, Jeff Brendel, John Vallery, Ad Kiser, and Ben Land all departed overland Monday for Valparaiso Neb., near where J. R. Vallery owns a large ranch, and will return the latter part of the week with 100 head of feeding cattle to be placed on the Vallery farm.
We understand that J. D. Shrader has purchased the Ottis McNurlin building on lower Main street, and will in the near future establish a barber shop therein, and that the building will be partitioned so as a portion of it can be used as a millinery store by Mrs. Shrader.
Clem Whitehead, of Ravanna, Nebr., has been in Murray for the past few days visiting with his friends in this section. It will be remembered that Clem left this part of the world last Christmas, going to California, Mo., near where he owned a farm, and expected to make his home there, but his wife's health proved very bad in the climate, and he lost no time returning to Nebraska. He says there is no place like Cass county, and he expects to buy a farm near Murray, and make this his future home.
Mrs. Dr. B. E. Brendel and Mrs. A. L. Baker were Union visitors Tuesday.
Grand Master Workman Walling, of the A. O. U. W., was in Murray last Saturday evening, and gave a very interesting talk to the members of the order here. A number of Plattsmouth members were in attendance, and an excellent time was had.
Ab. Slagel and son, and Miss Margie Taylor, of Plainville, arrived in Murray last Sunday, on a few days visit with friends and relatives at the old home. Margie Taylor will remain the balance of the winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hendricks, and attend the Murray schools.
Ed. Parriott, of Peru, the boss A. C. U. W. deputy, was in Murray a few days this week in the interest of this grand order, which is already very strong in this locality, but both the lodge here and the deputy are very desirous of increasing their membership and they are going to do it.
Ralph White and Clayton Rosencrans were Murray visitors Tuesday evening from Plattsmouth, Ralph came down to attend a meeting of the A. O. U. W. but we cannot figure out what Clayton was doing here, unless he was lecturing for his father, and still he wasn't with a legal voter after he got here.
The A. O. U. W. lodge will meet in regular session next Saturday evening at their hall and all members are requested to be present, as there will be business of importance to transact. A new membership campaign is being installed between Plattsmouth and Murray, and some excellent work will be expected in the near future. Let all members be present.
Mrs. Lucy Sporer entertained a number of lady friends at her home Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Andy Morrow, of Burwell. Covers were laid for Mrs. B. F. Brandel, Mrs. Charles Carroll, of Murray, Mrs. Wm. Morrow, of Rock Bluffs and Mrs. Andy Morrow, of Burwell. The dining room was appropriately decorated in green and red. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.
Miss Marie Berger departed Monday for Herman, Neb., to be present at the marriage of her cousin, Miss Nellie Johnson to Oscar Gilbertson, which occurred Wednesday evening at five o'clock. Miss Johnson is quite well known in Murray and has many friends here who extend their best wishes to the happy couple. Mr. Gilbertson is in business in Blair, where they will make their future home.
The Plattsmouth Telephone station at this place changed hands last Saturday, Jeff Brendel resigning, and the vacancy being filled very promptly by Guy Burton and wife, and while Guy looks after the lines over this section, Mrs. Burton will be found at the switch board to attend to the wants of the many patrons on all lines centering here. The Journal predicts that the new management will be entirely satisfactory in every particular, as the whole attention of Mr. and Mrs. Burton will be given to the new work.
T. J. Rhoden, from near Murray, was a business visitor in Council Bluffs this morning.

A VERY PRETTY HOME WEDDING Celebrated in the Lively Little City of Nehawka

No social event in Nehawka for years has attracted such attention and created such interest as the wedding of Miss Leona A. Pollard and Mr. Daniel McCleery of Lawrence, Neb., which took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Levi C. Pollard, Wednesday, October 9th, at 2 o'clock.
The spacious home was beautifully decorated, the large bay window in end of parlor was made into a canopy bower of autumn tints; the background was a mass of the glorious shades of red that only nature herself can make, shading up into yellow and above was a mass of green foliage, which extended out several feet above, under which the bridal party stood. At each side of the bower stood a tall jardener filled with large white dahlias. Over the rest of the room here and there was a touch of autumn foliage.
Miss Esther Sheldon of Avoca, presided at the piano, after singing "I Love You Truly," by Emma Edwards Johnson of Plattsmouth, the strains of Lohengren's wedding march filled the rooms, Rev. J. H. Salsbury of Plattsmouth first entered the room followed by maid of honor, Isadore Hall, with grace itself, gowned in white chiffon organdie and valenciennes lace over yellow silk, then the bridesmaid, Miss Guess Humphrey, of Lincoln, always charming in white chiffon tissue and lace over yellow satin, each carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations, then the groom and his brother, Tom McCleery, as best man, and then came the bride, graceful and looking beautiful in her simple but elegant empire gown, entrain of white silk crepe-de-chene over white silk, wearing a long silk tulle veil, carrying a bouquet of bride's roses and leaning in the arm of her brother, Julian J. Pollard, taking her place beside the groom and facing the minister, Rev. Salsbury, who in a very impressive manner spoke the words that made them man and wife, using the beautiful ring ceremony. After the ceremony the many relatives and friends who were present to wish them joy and happiness were served a two-course buffet luncheon in the dining room by Mrs. Raymond Pollard, Mrs. B. Wolph, Mrs. Ernest Pollard, Mrs. Frank Sheldon, Mrs. Henry Pollard, and Miss Gertrude McCleery, of Pauline assisted by Evelyn Wolph, Mable Pollard, Nellie Norris, Josephine Pollard and Florence Sheldon Todd, these five young ladies being former pupils of the bride. The room was decorated in yellow and white, the color scheme of the wedding throughout, even carried out in the menu. Large ropes of smilax was festooned from each corner of room to chandelier in center and from this was suspended wide white ribbon fastened to each corner of table in a massive "lovers knot bow." The lunch cloth was a design of Mexican drawn work over yellow silk, center of table adorned with white carnations in cut glass. Where the bridal party stood was festooned in yellow flowers, and every where was yellow and white dahlias and asters. The color scheme of living room being carried out extensively in dark red and dotted plants of ferns and begonias. The back parlor in pink dahlias and asters. Miss Leona needs no comments by a local paper having been born and reared here and loved by all in the community and is a member of one of the pioneer families of Nebraska. She is always at her best in educational and literary work of all kinds, having been a close student, and since her graduation at the state university class of '02, has spent much time during summer months traveling both east and west fitting herself more fully to take up the responsibilities of school work which she has been at her best as principal of the Nehawka school for three years. Mr. McCleery, the groom, is a young man of sterling worth and great capabilities, being a graduate of the pharmaceutical department of the Northwestern university of Chicago, Ill.
At 4:30 the bride appeared in a beautiful suit of blue cloth wearin' a hat of same shade, trimmed in large delf blue wings and folds of silk. Mr. and Mrs. McCleery left over the Missouri Pacific for the Rocky mountains, where they expect to spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their many friends after December 1st at Lawrence, Neb., where the groom is engaged in the drug business.

Legal Notice

In the matter of the estate of Order to Show of Patrick Shields, deceased. Cause
This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Thomas Walling, guardian of Francis B. Shields, John P. Shields, and William J. Shields, who are heirs at law of the estate of Patrick Shields, deceased, praying for a license to sell the undivided three-fourths (3/4) of lots ten (10), eleven (11) and twelve (12), in block sixty (60) in the city of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, subject to the homestead and dower use and interest of Catherine Spader, mother of said children, in and to said lots, for the reason that it is for the best interest of said minors that such property should be sold. It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the office of the clerk of the district court at the court house at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 6th day of November, 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause why a license should not be granted to said guardian to sell the above described real estate of said deceased.
Dated this 7th day of October, 1907.
(Signed) PAUL JESSEN, Judge of the District Court.
D. O. Dwyer, Attorney for estate.
