CALLED EAST BY SICKNESS

Miss Hanna Black Departs for the Death Bed of Her Sister, Capitola Black.

Last evening Miss Hanna Black received a telegram from her brother-in-law, James Fogerty, the husband of Capitola, her sister, from Roanoke, Virginia, saying that if she wished to see her sister alive to come at once. Miss Hanna had been visiting at Omaha with Mrs. Frank Richardson, and a letter had come here yesterday addressed to her, and was immediately forwarded to her, but she came home on a late train, and thereby missed her. When she arrived home and found the message awaiting her she had Mr. Moore go to Omaha and get the letter for her, which, when she had received it confirmed the reports in the telegram, and giving minute instructions as to how she should come. Miss Hanna will depart on the evening train at 5:12 this evening for her sister's bedside. It is hoped that she may arrive at the end of her destination in safety, and that she may be there in time to see her sister before death. Mrs. Fogerty, nee Miss Capitola Black, grew to womanhood in this city, and is well known by everybody, and to know her was to love her, for she is an estimable type of womanhood, having the kindest of disposition, with a smile and a gentle word for everybody. It is very sad that she is thus stricken, and will be the fourth of a family of five which only a short time since were all together, to answer the call of the Death Messenger. This is a very severe blow to Miss Hanna—the losing of the only remaining member of the family. In this hour of her trouble she has the sympathy of the entire community, who have the greatest love and respect for the two girls. Mr. and Mrs. James Fogerty have lived in Roanoke since their marriage, but a short time since, where Mr. Fogerty is engaged in the Roanoke and Western R. R. shops as boiler maker.

Started Home Saturday

A message from Frank Johnson, from St. Augustine, Florida, this morning, says that he started for home last evening and will reach here in about three days, which will bring him here on Saturday and Sunday. Frank is now employed on the Florida, East Coast railway as engineer, and is running out of St. Augustine.

Death of Father Kelly.

The venerable Father William Kelly, who will be remembered by the old settlers among the Catholics of Cass county as one of the first priests who ministered to them in Nebraska, passed away yesterday at the Castelar St. Convent, Omaha, at the ripe age of 88. St. Philomena's Cathedral property, where the aged priest had made his home for the past thirty or forty years, in obedience to the exigencies of times and circumstances, was recently sold and the resident priests assigned to various other places in the city. The change, no doubt, had a great deal to do with bringing on the end for Father Kelly, who has enjoyed wonderful vigor both of his mental and bodily faculties, in spite of his advanced age. The funeral services will take place tomorrow, (Friday) at 9:30 a. m. in St. Patrick's church, Omaha.

Will Probably Move Here

Mrs. John Brady and daughter, Sally who have been at Melton, Mo., attending the funeral of Mrs. Brady's mother who recently died, came in on the fast mail this afternoon. They were accompanied by Mrs. Brady's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Williams, of Fairfax, Mo., who came to visit with the Bradys and to look at the city, with the intent of making this place their home. Coming as the relatives of the Bradies, whom are excellent citizens, we welcome them to this place and hope they may decide to make this their home.

Will Not Remove

H. M. Craig said to us this morning that his saying that, "We will move to the Spurlock house," meant that he and his family would occupy that for residence and not the Plattsmouth Glove Company. The Glove company will occupy the site which it has for the past. They received their new engine this morning for the factory, and have it installed. It runs nicely, and gives promise of doing good work.

Afflicted with Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. E. Earls, Cynthia, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., and Plattsmouth Drug Co.

THE CASE AT MYNARD

Smallpox Quarentine at that Place Starts Something

The Lincoln News says that "a half a dozen cases of small pox in the country around Plattsmouth have been reported to State Health Inspector Wilson, who expected to leave for that place during the day to investigate the conditions. Mayor Henry Gering, of Plattsmouth called him up over the long distance telephone and expressed anxiety to have steps taken which would prevent the malady from spreading. A bad seige of small pox was experienced there last winter, and the residents are very desirous to avoid contact with the pest again. County Commissioner Fredrich, of Cass county was a caller at the health inspector's office and informed Dr. Wilson that quarantine has been declared on all cases of small pox discovered, but that there is some difficulty in enforcing the restrictions imposed."

The Journal is informed that the cases at Mynard seem of a mild form, and that no new cases are reported, while most of the patients have recovered.

New Engines for the Burlington.

Yesterday there passed through here two monster engines for the Burlington, destined to Lincoln. These are known as the R 5 type, and are designed especially for the pulling and making time of heavy freight work. It is claimed for them that on the ordinary roads and grades, as in this state, they can handle from 80 to 100 loaded cars. These two engines, Nos. 2217 and 2218, were beauties as well as being designed for the best of service. The train which pulled them contained 83 cars, counting the engines as a car each, while equal about five cars, and which would have made the train about 90 cars.

Shipping Alfalfa to Illinois.

Julius Pitz shipped a car of alfalfa hay to a party by the name of McCarthy, of Sacramento, Illinois, yesterday, which brought him a very nice figure. The price of alfalfa at this point is $11.00 per ton, and even the freight added from here to Illinois would make it come very high. This Nebraska of ours is getting to be a great place, when we are able to supply even the much boasted garden spot of the east with forage for their stock.

Reports Northwest Prosperous.

Wm. Keil returned last evening from a trip to North Dakota, and says regarding that country, that it is developing very rapidly and is the making of a first class farming community. With the growing of immense crops of wheat and the selling of it at the prices now obtaining there it cannot help but make times in that country prosperous. Mr. Keil says that yesterday he saw wheat sell for $1.05 per bushel, and rye at almost the same figure, it going at $1.02. With the abundant crops which is produced there, it appears as though if prosperity did not perch upon their banner it would not be worth while to expect it anywhere.

GOLD FOUND IN IOWA

New Eldorado Discovered in Bluffs Within Sight of This City

A special from Glenwood under date of yesterday says: "It is reported here that gold has been found in the hill or bluff range south of Henton's station. The recent find only verifies previous discoveries, as at several times when digging wells or getting material from sand pits and rock quarries minute particles of gold were noticeable. At one time within the past five years, during work on well digging, gold bearing sand was brought to the surface and samples sent to assayers at Omaha and Lincoln, but as the assayers' report showed only $5 to $6 to the ton it was not thought worth while to make an extended search. It is likely that the recent find will create interest and it is within the realm of possibility that the grim, almost barren ridge on the eastern side of the Big Muddy, will rival Alaska in contributing to the world's wealth.

Out of Sight

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke and Co., druggist, 25c.

Are Visiting in the West.

L. B. Johnson and wife, an engineer running out of Jackson, Michigan, their home, came in this morning, and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mrs. William Ballance. They will depart in a few days for the west, stopping here on their way home.

DIED AT ST.

JOSEPH IN OMAHA

The Deceased Married Only One Short Month Ago.

Only one short month ago, Miss Alta B. Monk, of Riverton, Iowa, was wedded to Frank Rasco, of Marysville, Mo., and they came to this place, where Mr. Rasco had secured employment in the Burlington shops. Here, although among strangers, and he employed in the shops as a means of making a livelihood, they lived happily together. During the time the young bride was attacked with appendicitis, and as her condition grew daily worse, a physician was called, who when he saw the gravity of the case, told them there was only one hope and that led through an operation, for relief, but as the case was so far along and so serious, that there was not much to hope for, even in that direction. Last Sunday evening Mrs. Rasco was taken to the St. Joseph Hospital at Omaha, and Monday an operation was had. Her strength was not sufficient to recover. While there was a slight rally, she never fully regained her strength from the operation, and last evening passed away.

In the heyday of young womanhood, in the beginning of their married life, at the time when the full promise of the future, with all its beauty and expectation were before them, to be thus cut off, is indeed a very sad ending of the honeymoon. The sympathy of all are with the young husband in his affliction, and also with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Monk, of Hamburg, Iowa, who were called to the deathbed of their daughter. The remains will be taken to Hamburg tomorrow night, and from thence to the home near Riverton, for the funeral and interment on Saturday, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Looking For a Location

Thomas White and wife, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, who were formerly engaged in the grocery business at that point, came in this morning from Denver, where they have been visiting for some two weeks, and will spend a few days with J. E. Hanna and wife. Mr. White has looked for a location, while in the west, and will also look this city over with the end in view of establishing a store here should the prospects justify him.

Eddie Volk Slowly improving.

M. L. Fredrick and wife, and Grandma Nicholas Volk, who is visiting in the city from Pekin, Illinois, were visitors in Lincoln yesterday and while there called at the hospital where Eddie Volk is being treated for rheumatism and where he has been for some time past. Eddie is the son of Peter Volk, who formerly lived in this county, but who now resides in Oklahoma. The physicians at the hospital say he will be able to get out in the near future, he being able to stand for a short time now, but not able to walk much. The joints in his hands are all drawn out of their proper shape by the disease, and while it is not expected that he will be able to get them in shape again he will recover the use of them to some extent.
