A new concrete walk will now be found along the lumber yard of Edmunds & Brown, which make a decided improvement. Jos. Burton is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes, C. S. Stone, Dr. J. F. Brendel, and Miss Inez Hesser were among the Murray people who attended the Robb-Tyson wedding at Elmwood Wednesday.

Ment Robb was shaking hands with his many Murray friends Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, coming down to attend the wedding of his son Fleming, and took advantage of the opportunity for a short visit with friends at the old home.

The Manners & Loughridge hall is undergoing a decided change this week, and will soon be placed so small shows will find ample accommodation for their companies and patrons. The roof will be raised to its original position, when first erected, which has fallen considerably in the past years. The first show will be given in the hall on Friday of this week. W. W. Hamilton is doing the work.

Robb-Tyson

Amidst the assembled throng of more than one hundred happy and enthusiastic guests, assembled to celebrate the delightful occasion, and listening to the strains of Lohengren's wedding march, as rendered by Miss Margorie Stark, and a delightful song by Miss Nora Neihart, the wedding procession composed, of the bride, Miss Bess Tyson, the groom, Mr. Wellington F. Robb, and followed by Mr. Hugh Robb as best man, and Miss Winifred Watters, a cousin of the bride, as bride's maid, the ones who were to join their lives paused in the center of the parlor. Under the huge horseshoe made of autumn leaves the ceremony was performed by Rev. Cyrus Alton, of the Christian church, grandfather of the bride, making them husband and wife. Following the congratulations and general social conversation, all partook of a luxurious supper.

The happy young couple departed on a late train for their home at Verdon, Neb., where the husband is engaged in the banking business, amidst a shower of rice and good wishes for their future welfare, happiness and prosperity. Those present, besides the friends and neighbors at Elmwood, were: Mr. and Mrs. Mont Robb, the parents of the groom, from Norfolk, Hugh and Grandma Robb, from Murray, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Brendel, of Murray, T. S. Hollenbeck and wife, of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Ewing, of Verdon, the former president of the bank in which Mr. Robb is interested, J. W. Holmes and wife, of Murray, Mrs. W. S. Watters and daughter, Winifred, of Stanford, Neb., Q. K. Parnelle, wife and daughter, Winifred, of Plattsmouth.

The bride formerly Miss Bess Tyson lived in this city for a number of years and is well known by most of our citizens and is an excellent young lady of culture and of charming person and manners, well loved by all who know her. The groom lived many years at Murray, and is a young man of exceptional good qualities, energy, enterprise and a multitude of good traits. The Journal joins with the numerous friends of this young couple in wishing them the abundance of the good things in this life which is their desire to acquire, and the goodness of character which it is their ambition to attain.

Hansell-Standish.

At the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Standish, near Murray, last evening at 7:30, while the piano was giving forth the melodious strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, Miss Nora A. Standish, leaning on the arm of Albert J. Hansell, of Union, marched into the center of the parlor, and joining hands, were united in marriage by the Rev. Roy J. Lucas of the Christian Church of that place. The bride was dressed in simple white Batiste trimmed with point lace, and looked very charming when she answered the questions in the ceremony, while the groom dressed in conventional black, looked the embodiment of strength and manliness, as he accepted the care and promised to make the pathway of the one who was entrusting her life to his keeping, as smooth as it is possible for one to be in this life. The decorations consisted of white chrysanthemums, which formed a bank, where the bridal party paused while the ceremony was performed, the bride carrying a bouquet of white roses. Following the congratulations, which were many and were reinforced by many costly and beautiful presents, came the supper, which was sumptuous and was well appointed in every respect.

The bride grew to womanhood in the neighborhood of Murray, and is well known by all the folks there. She is a most estimable young woman, enjoying the love and respect of all. Mr. Hansell, of Union, the groom, is an exemplary young man with more than ordinary merit, and is well liked by all who know him. The young people will make their home on the old Upton farm, some two and a half miles north of Murray. Those present to enjoy the occasion and to add felicity to the celebration of the joining of these young lives, were Roy J. Lucas and wife, the officiating minister; Messrs. and Mesdames J. W. Lloyd, D. J. Pittman, Ore Davis, H. C. Todd, G. H. Gilmore, and Misses Maude, Florence and Gertrude Rusterholtz, of Murray, Mrs. Mary Cornish, of Omaha; W. L. Hansell and Miss Nellie Hansell, of Farragut, Iowa; J. C. Hansell and wife, of Union; Eugene Frey, of Alameda, Kansas; Will Teaford, of Colbert, Kansas; and John McNurlin and wife, B. S. Ramsey and son, Will C. Ramsey, of Plattsmouth.

The Journal extends congratulations and wishes the young people long life, attended with supreme happiness.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and why they are so good. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dancer, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs. A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities to Dr. P. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Died in Lincoln Yesterday.

Roy Young, son of Frank Young, sr., who has been attending school at Cotner university in Bethany, Neb., a suburb of Lincoln, was stricken with appendicitis, some time since, and becoming so ill that he could not submit to an operation died yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. His parents and sister Elizabeth were with him at the time that he passed away. The remains will be brought home and the funeral will occur tomorrow, the remains being interred at the Young cemetery south of the city.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE NEAR MURRAY.

Residence of John T. Porter and Portion of Household Effects Burned

Yesterday John Porter and family, who live southwest of Murray, were visiting at the home of Blair Porter and family in Union and returned home in the evening. The weather being chilly Mr. Porter started a fire in the heater, and supposedly from a defective flue the building caught fire and burned to the ground. By hard work they succeeded in saving part of the furniture and household goods. The farm is known as the "old Fleming place" and the house, a large one, had stood for many years, and at this time was very dry and inflammable. The value was estimated at $1,200 to $1,400 and with the loss on the other things will make a total probably close to $2,000, only a portion of which was covered by insurance. Mr. Porter is a hard-working, industrious young man and by his energy had accumulated enough to keep the wolf from the door for many years, and the Journal hopes his loss will not be as large as reported.
