

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.
Martin Steppet was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

Miss Jennie Critchfield, of Weeping Water, came in yesterday morning and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. G. M. Porter, for a few days. They are visiting in Omaha today, having gone there on the early morning train.

Joseph Tubbs of Mynard was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

A. C. Carey and wife came in this morning from near Union and went to Omaha for the day.

A. B. Fornoff of Cullom came in this morning and is looking after some business matters in the county seat today.

Mrs. John McNurlin, her sister, Mrs. Sarah Page, and Mrs. Jennie Beverage of West Virginia, who have been visiting at Cullom, returned home today.

A. O. Wilson, of Lincoln, a blind man representing the blind people's workshop, located at College View, was in the city this morning soliciting for the shop, and secured a good amount on his subscription list. He departed this afternoon on the fast mail for Omaha.

W. H. Yonkers, of Union, who has been visiting with his brother, Elmer Yonkers, at Glenwood, for the past few days, returned this afternoon by the way of this city, and was accompanied by his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Giltfelter, of Warsaw, Coshocton county, Ohio, who will visit at Union for a few days before returning to their home in the east.

Wilber Cole, one of the substantial farmers from near Mynard, was looking after some business matters in the city this afternoon.

J. H. Vallery, from west of Mynard, was a visitor in the city today.

Fred Nolting, from west of the city, was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Henry Meisinger, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Ed Becker, from east of the city, was a visitor in the county seat this afternoon.

Moritz Oberle, who has been visiting in the neighborhood of Cedar Creek for some time past, returned this morning.

From Saturday's Daily.

John Hennings was a business visitor at the court house this morning.

Herman Beck, from near Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Zack Shrader, from near Nehawka, was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Lloyd Gapen and wife from near Murray were visitors in the city last evening.

Wm. Schneider of Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Peter Meisinger from near Cedar Creek was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Miss Lena Meisinger, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city today.

C. H. Hennings from near Cedar Creek was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

John Albert was a visitor in the city this morning from Cedar Creek, having business at the court house.

C. H. Vallery, of west of Mynard, was in the city this afternoon looking after some business matters.

Miss Evelyn Taylor and Mesdames Nick Todd and W. M. Thomas were visitors in Omaha this afternoon.

Ed. Schuloff came over from Glenwood last evening on the late Burlington train and will spend Sunday at home.

Nicholas Halmes was a passenger to Greenwood today, where he will visit over Sunday with his son, J. W. Halmes.

John Tighe and family of Manley, came in this morning and will visit with relatives and friends in the city during the day.

S. L. Furlong, from near Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the county seat this morning, having some business to look after.

Mrs. W. H. Seybert and children came in this morning from Cullom, and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McNurlin.

T. J. Rhoden, John Gregory and son, Lester, were passengers to Council Bluffs this morning, where they go to purchase an engine for power for a corn sheller.

Feel languid, weak, run-down? Headache? stomach "off"?—just a plain case of lazy liver. Burdock Blood Bitters tones the liver and stomach, promotes digestion, purifies the blood.

Levi Rusterholz and wife from west of Murray were visitors in the county seat this morning. Mr. Rusterholz is carrying his eye tied up as a result of one of his animals kicking a fork handle which struck him over the eye.

From Monday's Daily.

T. W. Vallery, from west of Mynard, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Henry Hempel of Lincoln was in the city today looking after some business matters.

Wm. Porter and Wm. Gillispie, the two grain men of Mynard, were in the city today on business.

Wm. Keil of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city today.

Ralph Mullis came down last Saturday, visited over Sunday with his parents and returned to his work last evening.

Mrs. F. M. Young and son, Alba, were visitors in Omaha this morning, where they have some business matters to look after.

Glen Rawls departed this afternoon for Omaha, where he goes to accept a position with the firm of Paxton & Galligher, wholesale grocers.

Mrs. Andrew McKinney is reported as improving somewhat. She is still very sick, but much better than she has been for the past week or two.

Chancellor Phillips, who is engaged with a bank in Lincoln, was a visitor over Sunday with his folks in the city, returning to his work again this morning.

Henry M. Long and wife returned last Friday from an extended visit at Ft. Scott, Kansas, where they were the guests of a brother of Mr. Long, Mr. Chas. Long, and a sister, Mrs. J. D. Kelsey.

John M. Black, an uncle of Walter Black, is lying very sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Herring. Mr. Black is 87 years old and his condition is very feeble.

Mrs. H. M. Long, residing south of Murray, departed this morning for Holbrook, this state, where she is called on account of the sickness of her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Shrader's infant child.

Byron Clark was a visitor in the city over Sunday, returning to Lincoln this morning, where he has some important cases coming up for disposition for the Burlington. During the last week he had a case in which a suit for $45,000 damages was being contested.

Thomas Walling is going so move his abstract offices from the Anheuser-Busch building to the Todd building, and will occupy the offices recently vacated by D. O. Dwyer. They are being newly repainted and otherwise fixed up, before the change is to be made. The work is being done by M. W. Thomas.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Miss Teresa Hempel was a visitor in Omaha this morning.

Prof. Asch, from near Murray, was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Perry Marsh, of Rock Bluffs, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

C. W. Spence, of Louisville, was a visitor in the county seat this afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Kauble was a visitor in Omaha today.

A. W. White was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

C. E. Wescott was a business visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Miss Anna Staplin was a visitor with friends in Omaha today.

A. S. Will and wife are looking after business in the metropolis today.

John Crowe, who has been working in the city for the past few days, returned to Omaha this morning.

G. R. Olson and R. M. Thrasher departed for Omaha this morning where they are looking after business matters.

L. M. McVey, of Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

C. C. Wescott departed this morning for Auburn, where he goes to attend the Nemaha county Sunday school convention.

John Carnes, of Louisville, who has been visiting in the city for the past few days, departed for his home this morning.

Mrs. Joseph E. Wiles and sister, Miss Elizabeth Spangler, were visitors in Omaha this morning, going on an early morning train.

B. J. Reynolds and wife were passengers to Omaha this morning where they will visit and look after some business matters.

W. H. Newell returned last evening from his trip to St. Joseph, Missouri, where he has been on business for the past few days.

I. W. Tooh of Alvo, who came in yesterday with the election returns, remaining over night and returned home by way of Omaha today.

Mrs. C. L. Buckley of Omaha, came in this morning and is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rotter, in the south part of the city.

George Volk was in from near Cedar Creek this morning.

Lloyd Gapen from below Mynard was a visitor in the city today.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Chas. Hennings, jr., of Louisville was in the county seat today.

S. L. Furlong, of Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore, of Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning.

George N. LaRue was a visitor in the county seat today from Union.

Henry Hein from near Louisville was a visitor in the city this morning.

Will Seybert and family were visitors in the city this morning from Cedar Creek.

H. E. Greeson, of Greenwood, was a brief business visitor in the city this morning.

I. N. Hunter, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the county seat this morning.

W. F. Jenkins, of Manley, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

John Albert, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning.

George Horn, from Cedar Creek, was a visitor to the city this morning.

John Williams, from Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

C. E. Cherry was a visitor in the city this morning, where he was looking after some business matters.

George Horn, from Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Frank Richy was a passenger to Lincoln this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

L. H. Oldham was a visitor in the city this morning from Murray, having business to look after at the court house.

M. L. Williams, from Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

C. A. Mathis, of Greenwood, was a business visitor in the city this morning, returning this afternoon on the fast mail.

L. J. Mayfield of the Louisville Courier, and son, Earl, drove down this afternoon to see Quincy Adams Sawyer tonight.

Mrs. Matt Spader, of Omaha, was a business visitor in the city this morning, returning home on the Missouri Pacific this afternoon.

J. F. Wolf and family and Mrs. Mary Dugan were passengers to their home at Cedar Creek this morning, after having visited in the city for a few days.

Bert Van Horn, who has been so sick with the typhoid fever for so long, is so far recovered as to be able to come to town. He came in this morning on the Burlington from Cedar Creek, and is visiting in the city. While he gets around pretty well he is still very weak, although gaining nicely.

C. E. Pool, of Wabash, had some business matters to attend to in the city this morning.

L. M. Meilenz, cashier of the Bank of Eagle and H. L. Greeson, of Elmwood, brought in the returns from their precincts today, and while here gave the Journal a very pleasant call. Our young friend Meilenz is one of the most efficient cashiers in the state, and has been in his present position five years.

Mrs. Henry Kauble was a visitor in the county seat this afternoon.

J. E. Worley, who came down from Lincoln yesterday on business, returned home this afternoon.

John Burns of Louisville was a visitor in the city this morning looking after some business matters.

Lee Fickler, from south of the city, was looking after business matters in the county seat this morning.

Mike Rys came in from Cedar Creek last evening and is looking after business matters in the city today.

Will Jean, from Mynard, was a visitor in the city this morning, having business to attend to in the county seat.

L. M. McVey, of Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

C. C. Wescott departed this morning for Auburn, where he goes to attend the Nemaha county Sunday school convention.

John Carnes, of Louisville, who has been visiting in the city for the past few days, departed for his home this morning.

Mrs. Joseph E. Wiles and sister, Miss Elizabeth Spangler, were visitors in Omaha this morning, going on an early morning train.

B. J. Reynolds and wife were passengers to Omaha this morning where they will visit and look after some business matters.

W. H. Newell returned last evening from his trip to St. Joseph, Missouri, where he has been on business for the past few days.

G. R. Olson and R. M. Thrasher departed for Omaha this morning where they are looking after business matters.

Peter Utterbach and wife were looking after business matters and visiting in the big town up the river this afternoon.

E. E. Eaton and T. E. Parmely were passengers to Louisville this morning where they are looking after business matters.

A. S. Will and wife are looking after business matters in the metropolis today.

Last evening when Robert Troop and wife came in, being late, they left their grips and a cage containing a parrot at the home of their friends, the Briggses.

This morning while feeding the bird it severely bit Mrs. Briggs' thumb, making a very painful wound.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church held a very profitable and enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. Low Alex in South Park yesterday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance, and after taking up the business of the meeting social conversation held sway. A delicious repast was served and in departing all declared Mrs. Alex a most genial hostess.

Henry Hirtz, from west of the city, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Earl C. Wescott was called to Omaha this afternoon, where he has some business to look after.

Leland Zink who has been on the sick list for the past few days, is reported as being much better this morning.

Miss Mayme Coffey was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where she will visit with friends for a few days.

Walter Cummings departed last evening for Chicago, where he will look after some business matters for the next few days.

Moses Hiatt, who has been on the sick list for some time past, is again so he can be out and about town, but still not feeling very stout.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huffer, of Hayes, who have been in the city attending the Beeson-Huffer wedding, returned home this afternoon.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

FURS -- LOOK IN OUR WEST WINDOW!

and get an idea of what we show in the fur line. Not only the Largest Assortment but we represent one of the best houses in the country. Quality, workmanship and style are three important things in fur and we know when you buy from us you will be pleased with your purchase. Look over this list, then come and look at the goods.

Furs

Black Coney Derby	$2.48
Black Coney Ford	1.89
French Chinchilla	2.75
French Ermin	5.00
Genuine Beaver	10.00

<h2