

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Elders A. Kay and Wm. Redde, of the Mormon church, came in from Louisville last evening and are holding a series of street meetings, in which they are seeking to make converts to the Mormon faith.

Levi Rusterholtz, from west of Murray, was a visitor in the county seat this morning, having some business to look after.

A. W. O'Neal, from the other side, was transacting business in the city this morning.

The newly elected county commissioner, Charles Jordan, of Alvo was in the county seat this morning.

D. K. Barr of Greenwood, came in last evening and is looking after some business in the county court today.

H. C. Hansen of South Bend came in this morning and is looking after some business matters in the city today.

Watson Long, from southwest of Mynard, came in this morning and is looking some business matters in the city today.

Ben G. Hoover, from Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he was looking after some business at the court house.

Chas. Crabill is taking a lay off from his duties as mail carrier on rural route No. 2 on account of a boil which he has on one of his arms.

A. D. Welton, Greenwood's efficient and clever banker, was a visitor in the county seat this morning, having some matters to look after in the county court.

J. L. Barton, former county treasurer, but now engaged in the real estate business at Lincoln, came in this morning and is looking after some business in the city.

Mrs. Dr. F. D. Burgess, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, formerly Miss White, came in last evening and is visiting with friends and relatives in the city for a few days, the guest at the home of A. W. White and wife, her parents, and Canon Burgess and wife, the parents of Dr. Burgess.

A. J. Trilley has painted the front of his building which he recently had placed on his barber shop building. The work, which has added so much to the place, was done by Baxter Smith and Herman Tocketter, who have been spending their time mostly in the country, and where they are kept exceedingly busy to such an extent that they have had to pass up many a job in the city. These gentlemen are both excellent workmen, and as a natural consequence are kept very busy.

From Saturday's Daily.

L. M. McVey, from Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning.

S. O. Cole of Mynard was a business visitor in the city this morning.

John Lloyd was a business visitor in the city this morning from Murray.

Wm. Alban was a visitor in the city this morning from south of the city.

Thomas Troop was a business visitor to Murray this morning on the Missouri Pacific.

John Meisinger from near Cullom was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Henry Burns, of Nehawka, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Louis Meisinger from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning.

W. E. Hand, of Greenwood, came in this morning and was looking after business in the county seat today.

Marie Kauffman, of Cedar Creek, came in this morning and is looking after some business matters in the city.

J. H. Burton, of Murray, came in this morning and was looking after some business matters, staying over night.

Henry A. Schneider, J. W. Gamble, W. G. Brooks, Jean Morrissy and Miss Mable Day of Weeping Water, were visitors at Bellevue this afternoon to attend the foot ball game.

John Hora, who with his parents moved to the western portion of the state some few years since, came in this morning and will visit here for some time. He says that the crops were not very good in that section of the country this year as the weather was too dry.

Mrs. Clem Whitehead and daughter, Pearl, came in this morning from Ravenna, where they have been living for some time past. Mr. Whitehead will leave Ravenna with a car of household goods and stock today, destined for this place, from which place they will go to Murray, where they purchased a farm some time since.

From Monday's Daily.

A. C. Carey of near Union was a visitor in the city this morning.

R. Jordan, from near Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning.

J. H. Martin, from near Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Olaf Inhelder, from Cedar Creek, came in this morning and is visiting with relatives and friends in the city today.

Mrs. Casper Thygeson, of Nebraska City, was an over Sunday visitor at the home of her parents, returning home this afternoon.

C. W. Spence, from Louisville, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning, having some matters to attend to at court house.

Miss Bessie Brendel, who is attending school in the city, was an over Sunday visitor in Murray, her home, returning to her studies last evening.

Miss Jessie Foxwell, of Lincoln, came in last evening and will visit with her friends in this city, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. B. S. Ramsey.

In the county court last Saturday Robert L. Propst was appointed administrator of the Hannah E. Cawkins, deceased, estate, Mrs. Propst being a daughter of Mrs. Cawkins.

Misses Esther and Clara Peterson, of Oakland, California, who have been visiting at the home of their uncle, Andrew Peistrup, for the past few days, departed for their home this morning.

Clem Whitehead came in yesterday evening from Ravenna, and proceeded on to Murray, where he sometime since purchased a farm. His wife and little daughter came in Saturday morning in advance of him.

Mrs. H. D. Travis is suffering from a severe attack of the grip, and is so that she cannot get out of the house, but while severe she anticipates no prolonged or serious results from it. It is hoped she will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kuhney have a very sick little child with the whooping cough, which is their youngest child, Ida, the last one to have the disease, the balance of the children having had the disease and have recovered.

T. J. Isner, the contractor, who has been working on a residence at Murray for Earl Jenkins, came up last Saturday and visited with his family over Sunday, returning to his work on the late train last evening on the Missouri Pacific.

Miss Blanch Murray, who sometime since went to Des Moines to work in a wholesale millinery house, came in this morning from Conrad, Iowa, where she has been working during the fall as a trimmer in the leading millinery establishment of that place.

Mrs. John A. Donelan, of Weeping Water, came in yesterday morning and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. White, for a few days. The family will make their future home in Lincoln, where Mr. Donelan is assistant cashier in one of the banks.

Editor Clinton Brown, of the Eagle Beacon, was a visitor in the city this morning and made this office a pleasant call. We were pleased to meet our young friend and consider him a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman such as it is a pleasure to meet. He was visiting over Sunday at Mynard with a friend, and took the morning train on the M. P. for home.

From Tuesday's Daily

Will Jean was a visitor in Omaha this morning.

Judge H. D. Travis was looking after some legal business in the metropolis this afternoon.

George P. Barton, the barber at Union, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Sheriff Quinton was a passenger to Greenwood this afternoon, where he was looking after some business matters.

Miss Mable Day, who has been visiting for some time past, a guest at the home of H. A. Schneider, departed for her home in Weeping Water this afternoon.

Geo. LaRue (not our George of Union) a professor of optometry from Hamburg, Iowa, came in this afternoon and was transacting with T. C. Terbune, the barber.

Mrs. Dennis VanBuren, of Marquette, Neb., who has been visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. G. M. Wiley, near Murray for some time, returned home this afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Walling and two sons, Robert and Thomas, departed this morning for Omaha, where they will attend the wedding of Miss Agnes Kennedy, of Omaha, and Wm. Schroder, of Oakland, this state.

W. R. Carey, son of A. C. Carey, of near Union, who has been visiting and working in Chicago for the past two months, returned home this morning, coming on the early morning train of the Burlington, and departing for Union on the Missouri Pacific.

Mrs. J. P. Foxwell, of Des Moines, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Ramsey for the past few days, departed this morning over the Missouri Pacific for Chadron, this state, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Slattery, for about two weeks.

From Wednesday's daily

Sam Smith was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon on business.

Prof. S. Asch from near Murray was a visitor in the city this morning.

Perry Marsh was a business visitor in the city this morning from Rock Bluffs.

Henry Hirtz, from west of the city, was looking after some business in town this morning.

J. W. Magney of Nehawka, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Hans Schroeder, of Cedar Creek came in this morning and is looking after some business in the city.

W. G. Moore of Silver City, Ia., came in this morning and is visiting with his son, Reno, and family of this city.

H. G. VanHorn and wife were passengers to Omaha this morning where they are looking after some business today.

John Tighe was a business visitor in the city this morning from Manley, looking after some business at the court house.

Mrs. C. A. Harvey, who has been visiting in Havelock for the past week with relatives, returned home this morning on the Burlington.

Mrs. W. C. Bartlett, of Elmwood, who has been visiting in the city at the home of County Clerk Rosencrans for the past few days, returned home this afternoon.

Geo. M. Porter and wife, who have been in Lincoln during the past week, where Mrs. Porter has been visiting relatives and George was looking after business for the Omaha Bee, returned last evening.

Charles Herold and wife, of Pekin, Ill., came in this morning from Omaha, and will visit in the city with relatives and friends, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lutz. Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Herold are sisters.

Levi Fields, of Rock Springs, Wyoming, came in last evening and is looking for work at his trade, that of house carpenter. Should he be successful he wishes to move his family here and make this his home.

D. W. Foster, of Union, was looking after some business matters in the county seat this morning.

Chas. H. Hennings, of Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

C. E. Tefft, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he had business to look after in the county court.

Mrs. Joseph Sans, from near Rock Bluffs, was a passenger to Bartlett, Iowa, this morning, where she will visit with relatives.

Carl Kunsman was a passenger to Omaha and South Omaha this afternoon, where he is looking after some business matters.

Miss Mary E. Foster, superintendent elect, came in this morning from Union and visited with friends and looked after some business matters.

Joseph Peters moved into his new house Tuesday, and Robert Troop moved into his place which had been occupied by Mr. Peters' for the past two years.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores—thoroughly cleanses—and is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Julius Pepperberg drove down to the ferry this morning with the intention of going to Pacific Junction, but as the ice in the river was running he "couldn't make the rifle."

The Perkins House is having the office repapered and freshened up with a few touches of paint, which is adding much to the appearance. Melville Malvern Beal is doing the work.

Earl Kuhney, who has been visiting in the city for the past two weeks with his parents and other friends, departed this afternoon for his home in Alliance, where he is engaged as fireman for the Burlington.

Michael Grassman, a brother of our townsman, Jacob Grassman, from Des Moines, who has been visiting with his brother and other relatives in the city for some days past, departed for Omaha this afternoon, where he will visit for a while before going to his home in Iowa.

Henry C. Long was a visitor in the city this morning from Murray, and informed us that he is feeding the first batch of sheep which has been for market in his neighborhood. His feeding for this time is two car loads. Henry has been lame for some time on account of a nail which he ran in his foot, and while much better it is somewhat sore yet.

The Postmaster of Gasconade, Mo., Daniel A. Bugh, says of the DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, "I am doing so well, and improving so fast in health, that I cannot say too much for your Kidney & Bladder Pills. I feel like a new man." DeWitt's Kidney & Bladder Pills are sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

FURS -- LOOK IN OUR WEST WINDOW!

and get an idea of what we show in the fur line. Not only the Largest Assortment but we represent one of the best houses in the country. Quality, workmanship and style are three important things in fur and we know when you buy from us you will be pleased with your purchase. Look over this list, then come and look at the goods.

Furs

Black Coney Derby	$2.48
Black Coney Ford	1.89
French Chinchilla	2.75
French Ermin	5.00
Genuine Beaver	10.00

Furs

Fox Loretta	$4.98
Fox Loretta	7.50
Isabella Marten Hiawatha	5.50
French Mink	8.50
Genuine Fox	18.00
Genuine Marten 90 in. hang	10.00

We have many others, but space will not permit us to enumerate them all. We invite you to come in at any time, as our Fur Department is now ready for your inspection.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

The Wind-Up OF A Mighty Sale!

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will wind-up our Mammoth Fall Sale, which has been the Greatest Value-Giving Achievement of the year. These last four days will witness the giving of values even greater than the past few days as phenomenal and astounding as they were.

PAY DAY SALE!

A sale gotten up especially for the shop men and laboring people in general, presenting Marvelous Bargains in Clothing, Overcoats, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings. Also, surprising offerings for the women in Coats, Skirts, Furs and Millinery. All thoughts of cost thrown to the winds. It is unload NOW, not later, and the people get the benefit. Follow the crowds Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 13, 14, 15 and 16 to

M. FANGER,

Department Store, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.