

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.
Chas. Henning, of near Cedar Creek, was a business visitor in the city last evening.

S. P. Beaver was a business visitor in the county seat last evening, returning home on a late train.

W. Schneider, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Grandpa Wynn is reported as being somewhat improved this morning, which is good news. We are very glad to know of this turn for the better.

Mrs. J. A. Baird, of Beloit, Kansas, a sister of J. R. Kelly, whom he had not seen for thirty years, came in last evening, and is visiting at the Kelly home for a few days.

Thomas Walling is moving his office today to the rooms formerly occupied by D. O. Dwyer.

Attorney W. C. Ramsey went to Lincoln today to look after important legal business and incidentally to meet a number of his former university associates.

Misses Marian Maxfield, Edith Anderson and Mary Arvidson of Louisville were in the city this morning taking the teachers' examination at the county superintendent's office, as was also Miss Edith Wise of Weeping Water.

Rev. Schminck, of Howells, this state, priest of the Catholic church at that place, was a visitor in the city, a guest of Red Bradley of St. John's church of this place; as were also Rev. Harold and Rev. Piepine, two priests of the diocese of Omaha. All departing this morning for their homes.

W. H. Heil, the fine stock man, was a visitor in the city this morning from near Cedar Creek.

H. E. Newson and W. Tugood, formerly of the bridge crew of the Burlington, were thrown out of employment on account of the laying off of the gang, went to work this morning husking corn for Phillip Hill.

James Stander of Louisville whom we mentioned in another column as being in the city, has recently returned from northeastern Texas where he purchased a 390 acre farm, which he got at a bargain. He expects to send a man down to look after the place, which is located about 175 miles from Houston.

Robert Hill, who has been visiting with friends in the city, departed for his home at Cedar Creek last evening.

Mike Treitch, of near Cullom, was in the city last evening visiting with his uncle, Jacob Treitch, returning home last evening.

From Saturday's Daily.
G. G. Meisinger was a visitor in the city this morning from near Cedar Creek.

Ferdinand Hennings, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Joseph Mock and George Conrad, from near Nehawka, were visitors in the city this morning.

W. H. Puls and wife of Murray and sister, Mrs. Herman Gansmer, were visitors in the city today.

Mrs. A. L. Baker, and Misses Etta Nickels and Truda Long were visiting in the city today from Murray.

Peter Perry of Eight Mile Grove was a visitor in the city this morning.

John Meisinger and family, from near Cullom, were visitors in the city this morning.

F. M. Young, from near Murray, was looking after some business matters in the city this morning.

Master Roy and Miss Lillian Thompson departed last evening for the home of Phillip Treitsch, jr., where they will spend Sunday.

Miss Jessie Gilmour, who is teaching at Cedar Creek, came in this morning and is visiting with her parents, south of the city, over Sunday.

W. H. Mock and wife, from Monmouth, Ill., came in this morning on the Burlington, and took the Missouri Pacific for Nehawka, where they will visit with relatives for some time, the guests of Chas. Cunningham and family.

A "hello" girl who could not wake up to get the office on time, bought an alarm clock. When it went off the first morning she rolled over and said in her usual sweet voice, though asleep, "Lines busy call again."

Wm Spangler and wife, of Weeping Water, came in last evening and visited with Mrs. Spanglers parents, Mrs. Elizabeth Wiles, southwest of the city and went to Omaha this morning, where they will visit for the day.

From Monday's Daily.
J. M. Meisinger from near Cullom was in the city today on business.

Herman Kleitsch, the Weeping Water miller, was a visitor in Plattsmouth this afternoon.

Commissioner F. E. Marshall came in this morning. The board is in session this afternoon.

The merchant prince of Nehawka, Frank Sheldon, was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Perry Marsh, of Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this morning, having business at the county clerk's office.

Wyatt Hutchinson of near Rock Bluffs was a business visitor in the city today having business at the court house.

L. M. McVey and family from west of Murray were in Plattsmouth this morning looking after business matters.

J. D. Shrader and George Berger, of Murray, were business visitors in Omaha and Council Bluffs this morning.

T. J. Rhoden was a visitor in the county seat this morning from near Murray, looking after some business matters.

J. R. C. Gregory, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, was in the city this morning looking after some business at the county attorney's office.

C. L. Albin, of Union, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters with the board of county commissioners.

T. O'Day, of the Nehawka Register, came in this morning and is looking after some business matters; also visiting with his old friends in the city.

L. B. Brown of near Kanosha, who was reported as being seriously sick, is now somewhat improved, with prospects of a rapid recovery.

John Albert was a passenger to South Omaha this morning where he has a car of hogs on the market which he shipped from Cedar Creek last evening.

Miss Blanche Sawyer, who has been visiting in Murray with her aunt, Mrs. E. Kennedy, for the past few days, departed for her home in South Bend, this afternoon.

An extra east on the Burlington, being drawn by engine 1918, got its tank off the track at Cedar Creek last night, and it required the services of the wrecking crew all night to place it on again.

Mrs. D. E. Severs of Marquette came in last evening and is visiting at the home of her nephew, Joseph Thompson and wife, for a few days, after which she will go to Louisville, where she will visit with her father, Thomas Shryock, for some time before returning to her home in the west.

From Tuesday's Daily
L. D. Switzer, of Weeping Water, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

J. F. Hostetter of near Murray was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Carl Neuman, who came in yesterday from Salt Lake City, went to Omaha this morning.

C. D. Quinton, who had been looking after some business in Omaha, returned home yesterday.

Carl Neuman, who is making his home at Denver, came in yesterday morning and will visit with relatives for a time.

Antone Libershal, who has been working in Denver for some time, at the cigar business, came in last evening for a few days visit.

Miss Minnie Lish, of South Bend, who has been visiting in the city, departed this afternoon for Omaha, looking after some business matters before returning to her home.

Ward Clark, who has for some years worked for Harry Kuhney and resigned his position there some time since, has accepted a position as barber in A. J. Trilly's shop, beginning work this morning.

Dr. A. W. Walker of Union, and Dr. G. H. Gilmore, of Murray, were Plattsmouth visitors today. Dr. Walker gave the Journal a social visit, while Dr. Gilmore failed to show his phiz in a stone's throw of the office.

The Rakes estate was sold at the south door of the court house this afternoon and bought by Edwin Jeary, the consideration being $600. The property is in Elmwood. Another piece was sold at the same place, which is in Weeping Water, and was bought in by C. E. Tefft for his client, Mrs. Juliette Ward.

C. E. Deitz, who has been in the city for some time working with the derrick at the car shops, since J. B. Higley was injured some time ago, returned home yesterday, as the latter has reported for work and began this morning at the duties of his former position.

The funeral of little Margery Long, grandchild of G. W. Osborn and wife, who died in Omaha last Friday evening, was held yesterday evening from the home of her parents, Robert Long and wife. The grandfather returned home last evening, the grandmother staying with her daughter for the present.

Deputy Game Warden R. W. Hyers, came in from Lincoln Saturday evening, and visited with friends over Sunday, returning to his work this morning. Mr. Hyers says at Brady Island, the other day, he passed a ship anchor which had been dug from the sands there, having apparently been there for a long time probably having been lost by some transportation company years ago.

From Wednesday's daily
A. B. Forno of Cullom was a visitor in the city this morning.

Joseph Tubbs of near Mynard was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

W. H. Stokes of near Mynard was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

W. A. Oliver from near Murray was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

M. L. Williams, of Louisville, was a business visitor in the city this morning, returning home this afternoon.

Chas. Henning, of Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he is looking after business for the day.

Mrs. T. S. Becker and sister, Miss Gladys Sullivan, were visitors in Omaha and South Omaha, going this morning on the early train.

Herman Kleitsch, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today, looking after business matters in connection with the Weeping Water mills.

Monte Streight came in this morning on No. 19, and visited with his parents and little son until the fast mail, when he departed for Omaha to take out his run in the express service on No. 2 of the Burlington to Chicago.

W. B. Banning, of Union, was a business visitor this afternoon at the court house.

George Smith and wife from Rock Bluffs, were visitors in the county seat this afternoon.

The county commissioners began checking up the books of the county officers this morning.

August Gorder received a car load of the famous Webber wagons today, a large number of which he sells annually.

Bert Johnson of Kansas City has accepted a position with J. F. Clugy, and began husking corn for him this afternoon.

W. E. Rosencrans departed today for Elmwood and other points in the western part of the county, on business for the county.

Mrs. J. W. Lowthers, living near Mynard, is very sick, having affection of the spine, which partially produced paralysis.

Wm. Hutchinson and brother, Ernest, from Rock Bluffs were visitors in the county seat this morning, looking after some business matters.

Mrs. W. H. Seybert, of Cullom, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters and visiting with relatives.

Wm. Marks from near Union came up last evening to Mynard, where he will visit with his sister, Mrs. J. W. Lowthers, who is seriously sick.

A. E. Todd has added to his already fine stock of milk cattle, which is known for the richness of milk which they produce, a fine Jersey bull, purchased from a herd of cattle at Beatrice.

J. H. Johnson, of Weeping Water, who has been visiting in Glenwood Ia., for the past few days, returned this afternoon on the fast mail, and took the Missouri Pacific train for home.

George E. Sayles is reported as being sick, but not so that he is kept to his bed. George has not been well for some time, and we admire the pluck which he is putting forth to keep going.

Mr. Hoye, of the firm of Bridges & Hoye, Omaha contractors for the building of the wing on the Masonic Home, was a business visitor in the city this morning, returning to Omaha on the fast mail this afternoon.

Joe Cook from near Murray, the irrepresable Joe, was in the city this morning, looking after business matters. While in the city this morning he told us that the doctor said "he was much better than he had been but would never be the same (?) "

Biliousness and Constipation
For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feelings at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

The Postmaster of Gasconade, Mo., Daniel A. Bugh, says of the DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, "I am doing so well, and improving so fast in health, that I cannot say too much for your Kidney & Bladder Pills. I feel like a new man." DeWitt's Kidney & Bladder Pills are sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores—thoroughly cleanses—and is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Forest Mills Hand-Trimmed Underwear

A Few Pointers on Our Underwear

You will never know its merits unless you are properly posted. The buttons and button-holes are perfect. The first will not come off nor will the latter tear. So great is our variety of styles, weights and sizes that even the most fastidious can find just the right thing for any season of the year. Forest Mills Underwear insures comfort and will not irritate the most delicate skin.

Prices Talk; Quality Clinches!

The infant goods are cut wide and full in their respective sizes; the buttons are placed close together so that the little shirt will not gap or gather at the arm pits. Forest Mills Underwear is made under sanitary conditions which can only exist under the most approved modern methods.

Forest Mills

Underwear is trimmed by hand with silk crochet by women knowing women's needs, and are made from the finest of yarns and are absolutely free from imperfections.

Washing Spoils Most Underwear!

But Forest Mills stands the test. They give better satisfaction than other makes, because each garment is cut on an exact system of measurements of perfectly formed women. The sizes never vary. Mothers! Don't risk the health and comfort of your children! Forest Mills Underwear is the kind that it is safe to buy. Each garment a masterpiece. A garment for young and old, short and tall, stout and thin. A size to fit every woman, a price to fit every purse. Quality proves the price. Don't be penny wise and pound foolish.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Charles McGowen Dies at Iowa City.

W. D. Jones last evening received a message from his sister, Mrs. Mary McGowen, of Gibson, this state, telling of the death of her eldest son, Chas. McGowen, at Iowa City, Ia., and stating that she would pass through Omaha this morning at 11 o'clock on her way to Iowa, and asking that Mr. Jones meet her there. Chas. McGowen is the eldest brother of A. W. McGowen, who was for a number of years located in this city in the livery business and was a civil engineer connected with the Great Western Railway. Mr. Jones rather thought that his sister would want him to go with her to Iowa, but owing to his poor condition of health, he states that he would not be able to do so. He departed on the early morning train for Omaha, where he will meet his sister and hear the cause of his death and the circumstances connected with the same and when the funeral will occur.

A. L. Anderson was a business visitor in Red Oak this morning, where he has matters of importance to see to.

A Hard Debt To Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggist, 50c per bottle. Trial bottle free.

Returns to Sanitarium

This afternoon Peter Halmos went to Lincoln with his son, George, who has been in the Everett sanitarium for some time and on one occasion could not stand. Young George improved so that he came home and was able to walk very nicely, even now he can manage to get around without the use of crutches or canes. He returns to the sanitarium in order that he may become entirely cured of his malady.

MILLINERY

MRS. JULIA C. DWYER

OPPOSITE P. O., PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.

For e—Five thoroughbred Poland China male hogs. Extra fine stock C. E. Cook, Plattsmouth.

YOUR DOLLAR

IS NOW WORTH $1.05 AT M. FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Be judicious as to where you spend your dollar. Your dollar represents 100 per cent labor done for the world—you are entitled to 100 per cent the best the world can give back in exchange. "Your money's worth for every dollar or every dollar back"—in some instances your dollar will do double duty. For example:—During the present week we are going to offer you $1.05 in all departments of our store for every dollar in cashier's checks, or as many have termed it "wild cat money," that you will bring to our store. Now, if you want a New Coat, New Suit, $10.00 in cashier's checks are good for $10.50 at the Old Reliable Department Store. Our late sale prices still prevail, and many bargains will be found here. This means $21.00 in Merchandise for $20.00 in Cashier's Checks!

M. FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE,

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA