THE ELKS MEMORIAL

At Parmele Theatre, Sunday, December 1, 1907.

DEPARTED MEMBERS.

J. M. Patterson Percy W. Agnew Otto C. Bookmeyer Frank J. Morgan Samuel M. Chapman C. E. Coffey

With the Parmele theatre crowded to its fullest extent with our citizens who wished by their presence to honor the of this order in the city been called to companied by Miss Kittie Cummins. ceremonies last evening which should benediction by Rev. J. H. Salsbury. show honor on those departed.

Wescott, during which the lodge entered and taking their places. The ceremonies were opened by the Exalted Sunday evening, following, we publish Ruler, R. W. Clement, and the roll call the address delivered by Attorney D. O. of the dead, by the secretary, T. L. Dwyer, of this city on that occasion: Murphy, which showed high in the rear Perhaps no organization in existence grave. I know how the hearts of those of the stage in letters of light, well is accustomed to revere and perpetuate to whom our departed brothers were typifying the immortality of the de- the memory of its departed more than nearest and dearest, cry out in bitter parted brothers, whose names showed the Benevolent and Protective Order of anguish for "the touch of a vanished in glowing symbols, showing the way Elks, which annually on these occasions hand and the sound of a voice that is to that Other World, to which those gives public expression of its ritualistic still." departed have preceded us, were the names as called by the secretary.

order was here honoring those who had must all cross over to them. of years, only to receive no reply, and to them with "hoops of steel." of thus honoring the dead.

every member of the lodge be guided by death into the world. the life of the Master.

ing well rendered.

in beginning his address, said, "I am severest penalty known to human law is stone of an old friend, were: sure I cannot say anything that will add the sacrifice and forfeiture of life. to the beautiful program, the sublime | And yet we are all under sentence of | Keil and family, Philip Treitch and wife, this brotherhood is working. Good pro- and disappears. fective works for the benefit of a Celestial City shall open widest and general.-Louisville Courier. brother is much better and is exempli- offer freest entrance to its eternal glorfied in the little poem, written upon the lies to those who in life on this earth inspiration given by the seeing of a strove hardest to aid the weak, to shel- Geo. Lohnes, wife and C. E. Lohnes de- of choice candies to the little girls.skeleton, which was accidently exhumed, ter the defenseless; to lighten the bur- parted last evening for the old home of Elmwood Leader-Echo. lying in the moonlight, which says:

Behold this ruin, 'tis a skull, Once etherial spirit full; This narrow cell was life's retreat.

This space was thought's mysterious seat.

What beauteous pictures filled this spot.

What dreams of pleasure long forgot.

Nor grief, nor pain, nor hope, nor fear.

Have left one trace or record here.

Beneath this monidering canopy,
Once shown the bright and busy eye.
But start not at its dismal void.
If social love that eye employed:
If with no lawless fire it gleamed.
But with the dew of kindness becamed:
That eye shall be forever bright.
When stars and sons have lost their light.

In this silent cavern bong

he ready swift, and tuneful tomane. The ready swift, and thierite.

If bold in virtue's cause it spoke.
Yet gentle concord never broke;
If falsehoods honey it disdained.
And when it could not praise, was chained.
That timeful tongue will plead for thee.
When death unveils Eternity.

ay, did these fingures delve the mine Or with the envied rubles shine; To how the rock or wear the gem.
Can nothing now avail to them?
But if the page of truth they sought.
And comfort to the mourner brought.
These bands a richer mead shall claim.
Than all that wait on wealth or fame.

Avails it whether bare or shod.
These feet the paths of duty trod:
If from the bowers of ease they sped.
And sought affilebion's bumble bed.
If grandeur's guilty bribe they spuried And home to virtue's cot returned. hose feet with Angel's wings shall vie And trend the Palace of the sky.

Then followed a contralto solo by Benevolent and Protective Order of clear voice, claiming the full attention Elks, who have since the organization of the entire audience. She was ac- Hath trod in glory: All were dumb; but

After the prelude played by E. H. | By request of many of those who at-teachings.

Don C. York sang in a way that tary of those of this order whom the loss of its members whom these cereshowed that he felt that he was speak- Grim Reaper has claimed as his own, monies are held tonight. We are, howing to those who had lost dear ones, There was no audible response. Their ever, conscious of the fact that while "Be Comforted, Ye That Mourn," and voices are forever stilled in death. The on this earth they were each and all of was listened to during a deep silence. river of life and the river of death flows them ever faithful, honest and upright D. O. Dwyer followed in an eulogy of between us and them and all know that to each and every obligation of this the dead, in which he said that the they will never cross over to us, but we order and to their fellow-man. They preceded them to the other shore, were | Four of them departed this life at its | the poet who said: but exemplifying that friendship and noonday, in the strength of man, while So live, that when thy summons comes that brotherhood which had preceded the other two passed to their rewards to join The innumerable caravan, which moves the Christian era thousands of years, close to the setting sun of life's journey. The innumerable caravan, which moves the Christian era thousands of years, close to the setting sun of life's journey. To that mysterious realm, where each and was as immutable as the very They were all manly, honorable, upearth itself. In illustration of the ever right, good citizens who enjoyed the His chamber in the silent halls of death, present query. "Shall we meet again?" | confidence and respect of this commu- Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at he gave an answer, the reply of one on nity. They were men of pluck, intel- Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained his death bed, when asked by a loved lect, honesty, justice and incorruptible one, the same question, he replied, faith and truth, and possessed in a high By an unfaltering trust, approach the "This question have I asked of the eternal hills, that have stood in grand- manhood; the moral courage which eur since the formation of the world, I feared not to assume a responsibility: About him, and lays down to pleasant have queried of those bright stars a singleness of purpose which could which pierce the azure field of blue, never be deflected from the paths of whose light has guided the mariner rectitude; an indomitable will and absosince the seas were navigable and whose lute integrity; while the kind and genial light has been a verity for the millions side of their natures bound their friends to be as deep in the darkness of uncer- To us, with our limited vision, groping tainty as at first, but when I look into blindly in the dark, the death of such the depth of the love which animates men in the midst of their honorable and your face, which pours forth from your useful labors, seems an unintelligible eyes, I get the reply, 'We shall meet and unmitigated calamity; but may not again; there is a hereafter which is the blows which took them from earth yours and mine." He closed with the have been dealt in mercy and wisdom? admonition that we should continue It is not given to mortals to lift the this noble practice which we have begun veil which shuts out the future and officers, and the invocation by Rev. A. teries of life and death are as unfath-L. Zink in which he recognized the omable now as they were when the hand of the Omnipotent Ruler in the Creator breathed the breath of life into many blessings of life, and asked that the inanimate clay or when sin brought sentiment which has animated the death. Other events may or may not Henry Keil and family, W. H. Seybert utterances of all who have preceded me, occur. Other conditions may or may and family, Julius Hillflicker and family, but I wish to leave with you this one not exist. We may be rich or poor; we Leonard Born and wife, C. F. Reihart thought, that in this age we are living may be learned or ignorant; we may be and wife, Henry Albert, Eddie Kelly, in an era of gross materialism, where happy or wretched; but we all must die. Philip Albert, Wm. Wolf and wife, and man and man's success is reckoned by The verdict has been pronounced by the John McNurlin and family, of Platts- to and procured a bottle, accidentally the amount of this world's goods he has inexorable decree of an omnipotent tri- mouth. accumulated, how many diamonds glit- bunal, without trial or opportunity for ters from his bosom or the rings which defense; with no knowledge of the acencase his fingers, or the magnificent cuser or the nature and cause of the The home of Mrs. Frank Stander on reflection revealed the fact that it was equipage in which he rolls in splendor accusation; without being confronted Gospel hill was the scene of a happy carbolic acid. She is now nursing a past our door, I want to say to you that with the witnesses against us, we have Thanksgiving gathering. It was ar- very painful wound as the result of her the Elks' misson in this world is to re- been summoned to the bar of life and ranged for the assembling of the entire mishap. - Elmwood Leader-Echo. deem the world from this condition, and condemned to death. There is no writ family and strange to say, not one was I see in their growth and good work of error or of review. There is neither missing in the large family of 47 chila long step in that direction. Other exculpation or appeal. All must be re- dren and grand-children. It was perbut only wish by comparison to call at- is no reprieve. The soul helplessly beats Weeping Water.

dens of the heavy-laden, and to those their father, J. J. Lohnes, of Pekin, who brought the most smiles and the Illinois, where they will visit for two fewest tears into this world.

brothers again we cannot tell. We only than twenty years and remember a check, while the Rock Island paid know that we shall see them here on nothing of the place, C. E. Lohnes theire in money, mostly gold, amountearth no more; but a faith that will not being only about two years old when ing to $4,124.30. The Missouri Pacific be uprooted bids us hope, -a faith that his parents moved to this r antedates the Christian's promise and rests upon the ties that binds us to each other. We are not willing to believe that the heart's affection which brighten, adorn and purify our lives, the love of mother, father and child, husband and wife, of kindred and friends, are all to be buried in the grave.

Humanity revolts at the suggestion. But for this faith in a future life would perish from among men.

Invading the realms of mythology, we are told that centuries before the dawn of the Christian era, when the new made king of Argos was about to give up his young life in obedience to the orders of the Gods, she whom he loved so fondly, in the wild frenzy of her grief, pleaded with him to tell her if they should meet again. He answered: I have asked that dreadful question of the hills

That look eternal; of the flowing streams That lucid flow forever; of the stars, friends who were also members of the Miss Lucile Bates, who sang in a rich Amid whose field of azure my raised

While I thus gaze upon thy living face, the great beyond, was opened, the The closing ode was followed by the I feel the love that kindles through its beauty Can never wholly perish. We shall

Whether supported by the Christian faith or taking counsel of the love we bear the dead, we answer as did the

However, the most sorrowful and bitter experience of mankind is at the

The Benevolent and Protective Order You heard the roll call be the secre- of Elks of this city mourns deeply the lived within the lines and sentiment of

and soothed

61st ANNIVERSARY

A Large Number of Neighbors and Friends Assist in the Happy Event.

Sunday evening being the 61st birthday of John Peter Keil, of Cullom, a were added to program of the evening.

Andrew F. Seybert and wife, Wm.

Family Reunion.

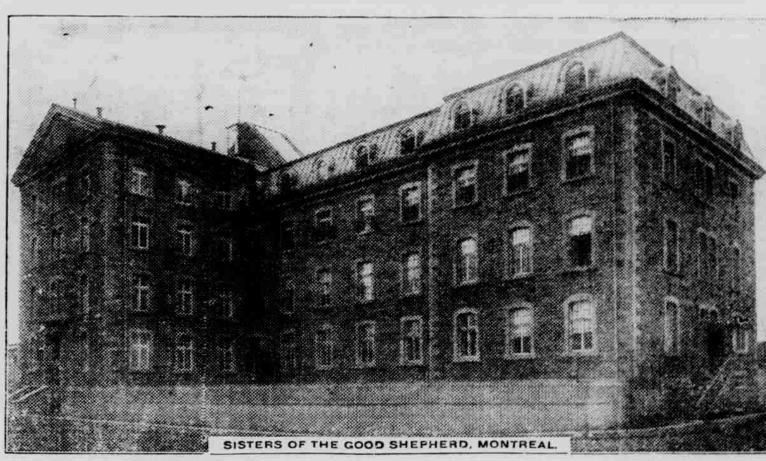

Will Visit in Illinois.

weeks or more. They were both born

PROMINENT HOSPITALS SAY

PE=RU=NA IS EFFICIENT

IN RELIEVING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES.

EOSFITALS ALL OVER THE CONTINENT FIND PE-RU-NA VALUABLE IN TREATING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES

CATARRH of the respiratory organs is a common ailment in Canada for at least two-thirds of the year. This condition is no doubt caused by the long, severe winters experienced in this part of the continent.

Therefore, when Peruna was discove. t by Canadian people to be a reliable ease to cradicate. remedy for these catarrhal diseases, it at once became a popular medicine, not every internal organ of the body-is an only among individuals and in families, absolute necessity. but in the great hospitals, where it was hundreds of cases.

give their endorsement of the remedy opportunity to perform her part of the which has been so helpful in the treatment of their poor and sick. the Sisters of Good Shepherd, who gave obstinate cases of catarrh is the Hospital the following endorsement:

The Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, August 20, 1903.

Montreal. After a continued use of the remedy, change its good opinion of the remedy as a tonic. and expresses its satisfaction in the fol- "Before the treatment I could not relieve the ailment after it had been allowing terms:

Has a Finely Appointed Office.

by Miss Lillian Bookmeyer, with an in- conceivable. To exist is exultation. splendid variety, quantity and delicious- general business, one a study room, and pretty good when they got back. strumental number on the piano and Mrs. To live forever is our sublimest hope. ness, that it is reported it would be one a private consultation room, all Mae Morgan came next with a solo, Annihilation, extinction and eternal hard to beat. On departing all wished heated by furnace on the same floor. To know, to love, to achieve, to triumph, happy event. Those present and to add set of offices as can be found in the home last evening from Carroll, Neb., Then came the principal speaker of to confer happiness, to alleviate misery, to the pleasure of the event which state. Mr. Dwyer is to be csngratula- where they were the guests of L. H. the evening, Robert W. Patrick, who is rapture. The greatest crime and marked the passing of another mile- ted upon having a place so well appoint- Young, a brother of J. M. Young, of Will Visit National Live Stock Show. ed in all respects.

While Looking for Ink Bottle.

Supposing that the object of her search | Carroll. was on the clock shelf, she went thereliquid was of a pale cast and a short pain in any part.

Deserves the Box of Candies.

Little Anna Penterman, sister of the orders it is true are doing something in | linquished. Beauty and deformity, good | haps the largest family reunion held in | Penterman Bros., general merchants, the same line, though most of them and evil, virtue and vice, share the the county. There are thirteen in the came very nearly being run over by the have a smattering of that same mater- same relentless fate. The tender moth- family, four daughters and nine sons, 4:32 east bound passenger Sunday afterialism from which we are seeking to di- er cries passionately for mercy for her namely, George, of Plattsmouth; James, noon while playing at the crossing vest ourselves, the insurance portion of child, but there is no clemency. The Henry, Helen, Peter C., William E., in East Elmwood, in company with the orders. I do not have anything to craven felon sullenly prays for a mo- Lester C., Olive, Ralph and Alice of some other small children. She was say in disparagement of their efforts, ment in which to be annulled, but there Louisville; Elizabeth, Louis, Ralph of rescued from death's clutches only by the timely arrival of her next oldest tention to the effective manner in which its wings against the bars, shudders The Stander family are pioneer resi- sister, Lottie, who pulled her from the dents of Louisville and enjoy the friend- rails just in time to avert the inevitable. fessions are well and good, but the ef- | Certainly, the pearly gates of the ship and esteem of the people in The story as circulated is very startling and should be a warning to all little children to never play near the railroad tracks. The engineer promises a box

Two Roads Pay Taxes.

The Burlington railway paid their Whether we shall meet our departed there, but haven't been there for more personal taxes today, $20,414.08, giving

Montreal, Nov. 7, 1903. We found Peruna a relief in several

We can say it is a good tonic and we are very thankful. Sisters of the Good Shepherd.

When catarrh once fastens itself upon the system it becomes an obstinate dis-

A systemic remedy—one that reaches

Peruna is just such a remedy. It used as a preventative and relief in searches out the cause of the disease, These institutions do not hesitate to membranes, and thus giving Nature an a teaspoonful every half hour." restorative process.

One of the many hospitals which have Among these institutions is that of found Peruna of value in treating old and St. John, who write, as follows:

Peruna has given us satisfaction. Three affliction, for which I am truly thank-Having used Peruna for the past few patients have tried it, one 68 years old, ful. I think Peruna the best medicine months, for our sick and poor, we are Renoui Dupuis, afflicted with catarrh, is for catarrh. I never felt better in my happy to say that it has given us great much relieved, more than he has been life than I do at present."

"A young girl, 15 years old, had an obstinate cough, which half a bottle of catarrhal diseases in the chronic stage. Peruna caused to disappear.

"As to myself, two bottles have conthis institution has found no reason to vinced me that Peruna is magnificent will be necessary to cure a slight attack walk for a quarter of an hour without lowed to become chronic.

Returned From Oklahoma.

Four Generations Eat Turkey

this city. They spent Thanksgiving there and at the dinner were repre sented four generations, present being portion of the city departed last even-Miss Belle Hulfish met with a serious | Chas. Manners and wife, of this place, | ing for Chicago, where he will attend accident at her home Wednesday of last L. H. Young and wife, Edward Young the National Live Stock show, where week while looking for her ink bottle and wife and E. E. Phipps and wife of he will see the fine stock on exhibit, spilling the contents on her right hand. throat as Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. cattle, of which they are making a re-She wasn't long in discovering that the Cures it in a few hours. Relieves any putation, extending over more than one experiencing much fatigue. Now I can walk a mile easily.

"Through these three cases we desire to make known to the public the efficiency of your remedy."

Hospital St. John, of St. Johns, Province of Quebec, A later letter received from the same institution reads as follows: "Three weeks ago I wrote to tell you how satisfactory we found Peruna. We recommend it highly for colds, coughs, catarrh and neuralgia. "I have used it myself as a tonic with healing and strengthening the mucous the best results, taken as directed, half

Mrs. Etta Booker, Dundurn, Sask.

N. W. T., Canada, writes: "I suffered with pelvic catarrh until I wrote to Dr. Hartman, and after taking treatment as he advised, I can say "We are happy to tell you that your I am now cured of this most trying

> Peruna not only promptly relieves but is equally prompt and efficient for Of course, it is only reasonable to suppose that a great deal less medicine of catarrh than would be required to

To Measure Corn and Hay.

During the past three weeks Attorney Sunday evening Jacob Tritsch and As the Journal has heard so much of D. O. Dwyer has had the carpenter, the wife, who have been visiting in Okla- late regarding systems of measuring painter, paper-hanger and a number of homa for several weeks, returned and the different products of the farm, we number of his neighbors and friends other people at work on the Dwyer report having had a very pleasant trip. give the following from a Texas man as gathered to appropriately celebrate the building, formerly known as the Martin They at first visited at the home of his rule for measuring corn in the crib, event. A good time was had, and good block, and during the time, they, like a Peter and Nick Volk, near Renfrow, hay in the mow or stack, etc. The rule none can tell what that future may fellowship and good stories flowed very set of real fairies, have transformed where they had a fine time, and where for measuring corn applies to any kind Here followed the responses of the have in store for him. The great mys- freely. Reminiscences of old times the place into a modern set of offices, they found the Cass county people all of a crib: Two cubic feet of sound, dry played a good portion in the evening's which will compare with any set of offi- well, happy, and prosperous. They corn, on the ear will make a bushel social games, and music interspersed ces in any city. The library, which is then visited at Thomas, which is about shelled. To find amount of shelled corn with a good story and refreshments lighted from above, is an especially in- 75 miles southwest of Enid, with Philip in crib, multiply the inside measureviting room, giving the light from the Volk, for some four days. Mr. Tritsch ments of the crib, length, breadth and Many beautiful and substantial presents skylight window, getting the best possi- says they have a good country down height and divide by two. This amount The right to live is, in human estima- were given as tokens of the good feel- ble light for reading, and diffusing it in there-not better than what we have will be the number of bushels in the Mrs. Edna M. Eaton sang a soprano tion, the most inviolable, the most in- ings cherished for one of the best of such a way as to be most restful on the here. Taking the trip all in all, they crib. To find the number of apples or solo, "Ave Marie," Miss Kittie Cum- alienable. The joy of living in such a neighbors. A supper was served, brought eyes. Besides this room Mr. Dwyer found a good country and had a very potatoes in a bin, multiply length, mins, presiding at the piano, followed splendid and luminous day as this is in- by the relatives and friends, and was of has three more, one of which is for pleasant time but Plattsmouth looked breadth and height together and this product by eight and then point off one figure in the product for decimals. To find the amount of hay in mow, allow "Thy Will Be Done," each number be- doath are the forebodings of despair. Uncle Peter the return of many such a This makes as fine and as convenient a Chas. Manners and wife returned 512 cubic feet for a ton and it will be nearly correct.

Luke L. Wiles, from the southwest and probably buy some. Mr. Wiles and his father, Captain Isaac Wiles are the There's nothing so good for a sore owners of a valuabe herd of Red Polied Rapid changes of temperature are hard on the toughest constitution.

$$$$$$$$$$$$$

The conductor passing from the heated inside of a trolley car to the icy temperature of the platform-the canvasser spending an hour or so in a heated building and then walking against a biting wind-know the difficulty of avoiding cold.

Scott's Emulsion strengthens the body so that it can better withstand the danger of cold from changes of temperature.

It will help you to avoid taking cold.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Ă&&&&&&&&&&&&&