Uncle "Bob" Nickels Hurt.

Our excellent and most highly respected old friend, R. R. Nickels, perhaps better known as "Uncle Bob," met with quite a serious accident while returning home from Plattsmouth last Saturday evening. He was passing along the road immediately south of the county seat, near the residence of Chas. Cook, when the team became frightened and ran the wheels of the vehicle off one side of the culvert, throwing the old gentleman to the ground a distance of about fifteen feet, placing him in an almost unconscious condition, and receiving a number of very severe bruises. Timely assistance from some nearby friends saved him from any exposure to the weather and was taken to their home, where he remained over night. At present the old gentleman is resting very comfortably, considering the severe bruises, and it is hoped that no serious injuries will result.

Modern Woodmen of America Election

At the regular meeting of the Cass Camp, No. 332, last night at their hall, they elected the following officers for the coming year: George Loucinsky, consul; Oliver Hudson, advisor; Wm. Hassler, banker; W. A. White, clerk; Chas. Birtwell, watchman; James Andrews, sentry; John Carmack, escort; D. B. Smith, W. J. Streight and C. E. Crabill, board of managers; E. D. Cummins and J. S. Livingston, physicians.

It was decided to have a social dance on Christmas eve, and J. L. Root, Matt Joy and J. R. Sanders were appointed as a committee to make the necessary arrangements.

The Board Broke.

While working on an automatic device for regulating the heat at the Ray school house, (district No. 37,) and while John Bauer was setting on a board boring a hole in the floor, the board broke precipitating John in the bottom of the basement in the cellar, in falling he struck his knee in such a way as to wrench it and strain the muscles and ligaments, in such a way as to make it almost impossible for him to get around.
