SMALL CHILD IS MISSING

Nothing Heard from Her Since Last Sunday.—Officers Baffled.

A special from Lyons, Neb., dated December 11, says: A mystery which may in the end prove to many to have been a tragedy with sensational features attached, has developed from the disappearance last Sunday of Lillie Olsen, the four-year-old daughter of a farmer living near Rosalie, Thurston county. Since being seen last Sunday the child has utterly disappeared and the entire county is stirred to a high pitch of excitement over the matter. Several large posses have been conducting a search for the child the past two days, but the search was discontinued this evening, although the officers are still at work on the puzzle.

The family lives near the Winnebago Indian reservation, and suspicion at first pointed to the redskins as possible abductors of the baby. The agent at the reservation is positive that none of his charges were outside the reservation Sunday, however, and the Indians are now believed to have had nothing to do with the matter. When last seen the girl was attempting to follow her older brother after the cows. Bloodhounds were brought from Lincoln last night and set on the trail of the child today. Though the scent was two days old, the dogs followed it about the farm, finally tracing it back to the farmhouse. The officers entered the house, but refused to make any statements as to the results of their investigations there. The dogs were sent back to Lincoln. No arrests have been made.

Reception of John A. Hennings.

At the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hennings on last Sunday they gave a reception for the newly married pair, their son Charles and his new wife, formerly Miss Barker. A large and joyous gathering was present, all friends and acquaintances of the young people just married. A dinner fit for the kings was served to the sixty people who were gathered to make merry with those who are just starting out in married life. On departing they all wished the young people all the good things they can enjoy in this life, with as few of the ones that are disagreeable as can well be the portion of the human race. The Journal joins with their many friends in wishing the much joy and prosperity, and may their pathway through life, be one that will be a blessing to themselves and all with whom they mingle.

TAKEN TO LINGOLN

Joseph Worrell, an Inmate of The Masonic Home, Was Taken Today to the State Institute

For a long time the Masonic Home superintendent and matron have been handicapped in the proper administration of the affairs at the home by reason of the almost incessant care which the case of Joseph Worrell has given them. Besides being a large man, which it was almost impossible to care for, unless with two or three attendants, being paralyzed and thus helpless, he has only a partial control of his mental faculties. All of which has made it an extreme burden, and has interfered with the attention to other portions of the home which they desired to give. Not that every need and desire of all the members of the home was anticipated and given, but the special care necessary for this patient was more of a tax on the ones in control of the home than they should be expected to assume. The trained nurse, who had charge of his case found her duties so arduous that she would no longer continue in the position. During the past few days an extra nurse had to be procured for the night that the day attendant could secure some rest.

Arrangements were completed yesterday whereby Mr. Worrell could be accepted at the State institute for the insane at Lincoln, and he was taken there this morning by Sheriff C. D. Quinton and Deputy Sheriff M. E. Munspecker. Mr. T. S. C. Dabb, the Tyler of the lodge here, also accompanied them. There they are prepared to properly care for him, and can do so in a way more acceptable than elsewhere.

John Bauer has just finished furnishing a complete new bath room for the D. W. Foster new house at Union, and also has just finished installing a new heating plant for the home of A. J. Kiser, southwest of Mynard.

Mrs. D. R. Carroll, who had been visiting in the city for some days past with her mother, Mrs. M. Archer, who has been very sick but is now much improved, departed for her home in Omaha this afternoon.

SPENT A DELIGHTFUL EVENING

Social Gathering at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Malter Scott Last Evening.

A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, collected at their hospitable home last evening and had a delightful time and the hours were made to fly, with guessing games, music, and a contest for a prize, which was a beautiful cup. At the end of the contest, Mrs. C. R. Richards and Mrs. J. L. Root were the leaders and had tied, in the drawing of straws for the decision the lot fell to the former, while Mrs. Q. K. Parmele received the consolation prize.

A delicious two course luncheon was served and all declared Mrs. Scott a princess of entertainers. Those present and to add to the joyousness of the occasion were Mesdames Q. K. Parmele, C. P. Richards, F. G. Egenberger, H. Spies, Joe and Guy McKen, J. L. Root, Mat Joy, Zach Brown, Hall, A. J. Beeson, Ptak, Bajack, John Busche, John Hatt, Jr., Alva Godwin, W. Clark and H. Reese.

SOPHOMORES GIVE PROGRAM

Which is Highly Enjoyed By All the Members of the High School.

At the High school this morning the Sophomore class, which demonstrated much merit on the part of all who took part in the exercises. The first number was a piano solo by Miss Anna Janda, which showed her very familiar with her music, and demonstrated she had given much care to the practice she has taken. Following was a reading by Miss Marie Douglass, representing a shop girl, which was so well presented that one almost fancied they were at the shop and was experiencing the trade in operation. Miss Jessie Edwards followed with a vocal solo the "Guadalupe" a river in Spain, and her voice was as clear and flute-like as the ripples of that historic stream. The last of the program was an instrumental duet by Miss Carrie Sherwood, and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Troop, on the mandolin and piano, both of which these young ladies made fairly talk. Mrs. Troop also favored the school with a very beautiful piano selection which was greatly enjoyed by all. Throughout the program was very interesting and highly appreciated.
