

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Ben Dill was a visitor in the city today from near Murray.

Peter Spader was a visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Robert Fitch, from near Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Mrs. C. Bengler, from southwest of Mynard, was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

W. F. Tracy, the Union banker, was a business visitor in the county seat yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bein, from near Mynard, was a visitor in the metropolis this morning.

J. B. Seabolt, of near Murray, was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon, where he is having his eye treated.

H. E. Wallenseik, of Avoca, was a business visitor in the city yesterday, looking after some legal matters in the county court.

The Christmas holidays at the city schools will continue from December 20th until January 6th, being two weeks and two days.

A. M. Holmes, of Murray, who has been visiting at the home of his daughter for the past four days, departed for home yesterday.

G. P. Meisinger was in the city last evening from near Cedar Creek and purchased a fine new carriage which he took home with him last night.

The Mulriff estate, parties mostly being from near Union, was being settled in county court yesterday as was also the estate of Andre Weber of Avoca.

Glen Rawles, who has been working in the wholesale house of Paxton, Gallagher & Co., has resigned his position to accept a position in the store of F. S. White.

Mrs. L. H. Critchfield, of Weeping Water, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Porter for the past week, departed this morning for home.

Miss Marie Kaufman, of Cedar Creek, and Mrs. Andrew Fudge, of Covington, Virginia, came in this morning from Cedar Creek and visited during the morning, going to Omaha on the fast mail.

John Gilchrist, in company with Mayor Gering, a prominent democrat of Omaha and the manager of the congressional campaign when Judge J. H. Broady was the democratic candidate, was in the city yesterday and made this office a pleasant call. We are always pleased to meet such democrats.

From Saturday's Daily.

A. C. Carry of near Union was a visitor in the city this morning.

John Campbell of near Kanosha was a visitor in the county seat this morning.

Hamilton Norris of near Louisville was a visitor in the city this morning, transacting business.

Phillip Horn from near Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business.

George Smith and family, from near Rock Bluffs were looking after some business in the city this morning and visiting with friends.

Mrs. W. H. Barker and daughter, Miss Pearl, were passengers to Omaha this morning, and were accompanied by Mrs. S. L. Barker, where they all will visit with friends for the day.

S. W. Copenhaver of near Murray was in the city this morning, accompanied by his family, guests at the home of George M. Porter, of whom they are relatives, and looking after some business in the city.

James Carphens and wife, of Valisca, Ia., who have been visiting at Union with Lee Applegate and family and other friends, came up this morning on the Missouri Pacific and departed this morning for their home in the east.

From Monday's Daily.

L. M. McVey was a visitor in Omaha today from Murray.

O. G. Virgin, from near Murray, was a visitor in Omaha this morning.

D. J. Pitman was a visitor in the city this morning from Murray, having business at the court house.

S. W. Orton, of Weeping Water, was a caller in the county seat today looking after some business in the court house.

J. E. Gruber and brother, F. R. Gruber, of near Union, came in this morning and departed for Omaha where they will visit during the day.

Mrs. Ed. Beins was a visitor in the metropolis this morning, where she will be a guest of friends and will look after some business matters as well.

W. Stander was a visitor in the metropolis this morning from Louisville, looking after some business matters.

Judge Paul Jessen was a visitor in the city this morning, where he will convene court, for the last term of his incumbency of office.

James Marozcek and wife, of Murray, passed through the city this morning, en route for home, having been at Cedar Creek, where they were visiting with the parents of Mrs. Marozcek, who reside at that place.

Mrs. Bennett Christweiser, and Mrs. Wm. Morrow, who, some days since, departed for Modale and Missouri Valley, Iowa, where they have since been visiting with friends and relatives, returned home last Saturday evening.

From Tuesday's Daily

Mrs. S. E. McElwain and Mrs. Henry Boeck were visitors in Omaha this morning.

J. H. Snell, the Ashland miller was a visitor in the city this afternoon looking after some business.

L. C. W. Murray was a visitor in the city this afternoon from Mynard.

W. C. Bartlett was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon, where he is looking after some business matters.

Henry C. Long, one of the prosperous farmers west of Murray, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

John Lish of South Bend was a Plattsburgh visitor this morning looking after some business matters in the city.

Perry Marsh, of Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business at the county seat.

Isaac Bachelor, of Glenwood, who has been visiting in the city for some days, departed this morning for his home.

Mrs. Chris Metzger, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the county seat this morning, having business at the court house.

Wm. Leesley of Greenwood was a visitor in the county seat this morning, having some legal business to look after.

Uncle Andy Taylor is reported as being very sick at his home in the city not having been able to get out for some time.

John Worga, from near Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this morning, where he had some legal business to look after.

Frank Rouse, of Greenwood, was a visitor in the city this morning, having some business matters to look after at the court house.

A. D. Zaar, of South Bend, was a visitor in the county seat this morning, having some matters to look after in the court house.

James Hoover of Louisville was a visitor in the county seat this morning, looking after some legal matters at the court house.

Miss Josephine Johnson who has been visiting in the city for some time past with her grandparents departed for her home in Lincoln today.

L. F. Jones of south west of the city was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

G. S. Upton, of Union, accompanied by his wife drove into the city this morning and were looking after some business at the court house.

W. H. Stokes and wife of Mynard were passengers to Omaha this morning where they will visit and look after some business matters today.

Arthur Hunter, of Cedar Creek, came in this morning and is visiting with friends in the city and looking after some business matters as well.

Robert Fitch of near Rock Bluffs was a visitor in the city this morning looking after some business at the court house with the county commissioners.

A. P. Christweiser and family were visitors in Omaha this morning, coming from near Nehawka. They will look after business and visit with friends for the day.

J. P. Shroeder of Louisville was a business visitor in the city today, coming on the early train this morning and having business to look after at the county seat.

L. D. Switzer and F. E. Marshall, of Weeping Water, the county commissioners of that place, came in this morning and with M. L. Frederick are holding a session of the board.

Attorney D. K. Barr of Greenwood, who has been in the city for the past few days, looking after some business matters at the court house, departed for his home this morning.

Mrs. John H. Johnson, of Glenwood, who has been in the city visiting with her husband, who is working here, departed for home this morning and was accompanied by her little daughter.

George Vogel, of South Bend, was a business visitor in the city this morning, having some matters to take up at the court house, and being a guest with Treasurer-elect Frank E. Schlater.

W. M. Richards, of South Bend, was a visitor in the city this morning, transacting some business, and departing for Omaha, where he has business to attend to there before returning home.

From Wednesday's daily

W. H. Seybert of Cullom was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Razors, the Gillette, Royal, Gem, and ordinary at Gering & Co's.

George LaRue of Union was in the city today.

John Campbell of near Murray was in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Miller has been visiting several days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. John Murray.

Joseph Anderson of near Rock Bluffs was looking after some business matters in the city this morning.

Leather Goods at Gering & Co's.

F. M. Young from near Murray was a visitor in Plattsburgh this morning looking after some business affairs.

Theodore Starkjohn of northwest of the city was a business visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Brownie Camera and complete outfit for $4 at Gering & Co.

Our old friend R. D. McNurlin came in last evening from Weeping Water and is visiting with relatives south of the city.

George Kaffenberger from west of the city was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where he will visit with friends for the day and look after some business matters as well.

Mrs. Wm. Schneider and Mrs. Chas. Ault of Cedar Creek, came in this morning and are visiting in the city, the guests of Mrs. Geo. Sayles, jr., where they will visit for the day.

J. D. Bramblet, of Union, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters in the county seat.

Jacob Meisinger, from near Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after business at the county seat.

At the recent sitting of the county commissioners, the appointment of D. C. Morgan as deputy county clerk at a salary of $1,000 was approved, as was also his bond for the place.

Fancy stationery, Gering & Co.

Harry Todd of Union was a business visitor in the city today.

She would like a nice bottle of perfume for Xmas. Gering & Co.

J. L. Shrader, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, was in the city, having business to attend to.

J. B. Seabolt, of Murray, was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon, going on the fast mail.

O. G. Virgin, of Murray, was a visitor in the city this afternoon, looking after business.

Remember that a fancy rocking chair makes the popular and useful Christmas present. We have a fine line to select from. M. Hild, the furniture man.

What do you think about a nice rocker for a Christmas present. We have the largest line of rocking chairs to be found in Cass county. Call and see them. Michael Hild.

Mrs. Matt Spader, of South Omaha, was in the city this morning looking after some business matters in the court house, and returning home on the fast mail this afternoon.

Levi Rusterholtz and wife, from west of Murray, were visitors in the city this morning, where they were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. L. A. Schermerhorn, who is a sister of Mrs. Rusterholtz.

Frank H. Boardman, wife and daughter, Miss Minnie, of Murray were passengers to Omaha from here this morning, where they are visiting with friends and looking after some business matters in the metropolis for the day.

For mother or father. A pair of gold spectacles. Gering & Co. sell them.

Ross Little, who has been working at Missouri Valley, Ia., for some time, making that his home, came in last evening for a short visit with former friends.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulents (25c per box) correct the liver, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

See the Kangaroos, Saturday Night.

Saturday night there will be a basket ball game between the Omaha Y.M.C.A. "Kangaroo" basket-ball team and Plattsburgh High School, when the home boys will appear in their new suits. The admission will be 25 cents and the game called at Coates Hall at 8 o'clock.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

WHAT SHALL I GET

FOR XMAS?

This question is for some or most every one a hard one to decide. There are hundreds of things which can be gotten, but the trouble is that a person tries to think of too many at one time, the result being that you can't fix your mind in any certain line. So to help you out, we are going to offer a few suggestions:

Silk Scarfs Hand Bags Kid Gloves Silk Waist Patters Furs Fancy Hose Fancy Hose Supporters Fascinators Shawls Belts	Laundry Bags Collar and Cuff Boxes Fancy Work Bags Toilet Sets Picture Frames Scrap Baskets Pictures Mirrors Jewelry	Post Card Albums Table Linen Sets Fancy Dishes Cut Glass Fancy Collars Fancy Turnovers Belt Buckles Hair Brushes Fancy Ribbons
---	--	--

IN OUR CARPET DEPARTMENT!

We are showing the newest and latest patterns in Rugs, Moquettes, Velvets and Brussels, which are not only beautiful Xmas gifts, but useful as well. Just received a few days ago,

9X12 RUGS 9X12

Special Price for Christmas!

Bokanya Rugs, something new	$11.50
9 Wire Brussels, absolutely seamless	18.00
Moquettes, beautiful oriental design	23.00

These Must Be Seen to Be Appreciated

E. G. DOVEY & SON

The Christmas Times are Here!

And the question that troubles the minds of most people is what to buy for this and a few timely suggestions might aid many in the purchase of more profitable and useful gifts. Our store is filled to overflowing with all lines of seasonable goods, Cloaks, Skirts, Furs and all kinds of Winter Wraps for the Ladies and Children, any of which would make a most highly acceptable present, especially at this season.

Merry Season's Gifts

In Our Millinery Department

we have a large assortment of Winter Hats, that we are going to close out at your own price.

The Wooltex Garment!

make the most useful presents and we have the largest line we have ever carried and in our opinion this is the most suggestive gift to be found in our store, and especially during the present financial stringency.

Our Clothing and Furnishing Department also affords many bargains for Christmas. A handsome Necktie, a New Dress Shirt or even a Suit or Overcoat are strictly in line. We will also have a nice line of Toys that will suit the little folks.

FANGER'S

DEPARTMENT STORE