

THE CITY PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Monday's Daily: Miss Eva Sayles, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning, a guest at the home of her brother, George Sayles, jr.

With A. Oliver and son, Will, were the visitors in the city this morning.

Mrs. Martin Hoop was a visitor in the city today, and will make a short visit here.

Mr. A. Davis and wife, of Murray, were visitors in the city this morning, and will visit in the city this morning.

Mr. W. H. Travis was a visitor in the city this morning, and will visit in the city this morning.

Mr. C. W. Husher, from Plattsmouth, was a visitor in the city this morning, and will visit in the city this morning.

Mr. W. E. Nixey and G. H. Gilmore, from Murray, were visitors in the city this morning, where they were looking after some business matters.

Mrs. Theodore Amick departed for her home in Murray yesterday, after having visited with her parents, John S. Hall and wife, for the past few days.

Claude Everett and wife, of Union, are visiting in the city today, where they will remain until after the holidays, the guests of J. G. Richey and wife.

F. W. Kloepping, of Murray, was a visitor in the city today morning, bringing his wife to the train, who departed for Goldridge, where she will visit for some time with her sister, Mrs. Jessie Lowthers.

B. B. Dancher of near Murray came in this afternoon as has been his custom and renewed his subscription to the Journal, saying that he could not get along without it.

From Tuesday's Daily: C. E. Heebner of Nehawka was a visitor in the city today and made this office a pleasant call.

John Hobscheidt departed this morning for Burlington, Iowa, where he will visit with his cousin, Frank Winniger, for a few days.

Fred Nutzman, of near Nehawka, was a visitor in the city this morning for a short time changing trains, taking one for Omaha from here.

Walter T. Valley, the only "simon pure" lightning-rod man in the county, was a visitor in the city last evening, looking after business and shaking hands with his many acquaintances.

F. E. White and wife were guests at the Masonic Home yesterday for dinner.

Miss Fred Spangler and wife from near Murray were visitors in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Frank T. Madril and John Chappo of Nehawka were visitors in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

A marriage license was issued today to James L. Reynolds and Miss Mable Reynolds, of near Murray.

H. E. Starnes, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Miss Lesley of Greenwood, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

Miss Alice of Plattsmouth, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

Miss Helen Nord, who is making her home at Omaha was an over-Christmas visitor at the home of her parents, P. M. Nord and wife north of the city.

T. J. Todd, wife and little son, of Wahoo, were over-Christmas visitors in the city taking dinner at the home of Mr. Todd's parents west of the city.

Miss Maud Stanley, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

H. J. Taylor, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in the city this morning, and will visit in the city this morning.

Miss Maud Stanley, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

mother, Mrs. A. J. Graves.

Albert Wettencamp departed for Antelope county today on business.

George W. Raymond, who is employed as a cigar maker in the city, departed for Chicago, Ill., yesterday morning, where he is spending the Christmas season with his wife, and her father, J. H. Cook. Mr. Cook is an invalid and Mrs. Raymond is caring for him.

Visiting the Dodge and Butler families from Omaha, were Mrs. Roy Dodge, Sperry Ruffner and Horace Ruffner; E. A. Kirkpatrick and wife, of Nehawka; Robert Black, Miss Harriet Kearney of Plattsmouth.

At the home of Mrs. A. Oliver yesterday Christmas dinner and a reunion of the family, A. W. Hall, wife, and sons, Charles, Ed, wife, son and daughter, and Dr. C. Morgan, who arrived in the city from Missouri, were present. The guests were from Omaha and Plattsmouth.

George and his wife were visitors in the city this morning, and will visit in the city this morning.

John S. Hall and wife, of Union, were visitors in the city this morning, and will visit in the city this morning.

Hugh Ramsey, who is visiting in the city, is the son of the late Hugh Ramsey, of Plattsmouth.

Peter A. Walsh and family, of Omaha, were Christmas visitors at the home of Mrs. Walsh's parents, August, Peter, sr., and wife.

B. Christweiser and the B. Christweiser were passengers to Omaha this afternoon, where they will visit the boys at the hospital.

C. W. Baylor, after spending Christmas with the home folks, departed this morning for Omaha, where he takes up his work again.

Joseph Gray, of Havelock, was a visitor with John Carmack and wife over Christmas, and was renewing acquaintances in the city.

A. Peistrop and wife were visitors in Council Bluffs with friends and relatives at Christmas dinner, returning home last evening.

Chas. Sullivan and wife of St. Joseph, Missouri, came in yesterday morning and are spending the Christmas season with Mr. Sullivan's parents.

Ed. Schulloff and Frans Ballance, of the Glenwood Institute, were visitors in the city over Christmas, returning to their work this morning.

George R. Ellige and wife, departed this afternoon for Missouri Valley, their home, after a visit with their parents, J. B. Higley and wife over Christmas.

Joseph Carrigan, who with his wife and little son, have been visiting with friends in the city, departed this afternoon for their home in Edgemont, S. D.

H. R. Neitzel and family of Murdock were over-Christmas visitors in the city the guests of the parents of Mrs. Neitzel, F. R. Guthman and wife.

A. C. Buckley and wife of Omaha were visitors in the city yesterday with the latter's parents, John Rotter and wife in the south part of the city.

Mrs. Dr. Jensen, of Newman Grove, visited over Christmas, and will spend some two weeks with her parents, H. T. Patton and wife and friends in the city.

Mrs. E. A. Russell and daughter, Miss Nellie, have been visiting in the city for the past few days with Mrs. J. Q. Lawhead, returned home this morning to Pacific Junction.

Henry Tartsch and wife of McCook came in yesterday morning and visited with the families of their parents, Wm. Ballance and wife and A. C. Tartsch and wife over Christmas.

George Smith, General Foreman for the Burlington, at McCook, came in yesterday and visited with his parents, and family, who had come in a few days before over the Christmas holidays.

Chas. Rathford, of Omaha, who is the alcoholic engineer, came in yesterday morning and visited with the family of his brother, John, and other friends in the city, returning home this morning.

Wm. K. Kelly and wife returned this morning from Council Bluffs, Iowa, where they have been spending Christmas with Mrs. Kelly's parents. Jacob Rathson returned with them and will visit here for awhile.

George A. Spangler and wife, of Lincoln, were visitors yesterday at the home of Mrs. Henry Spangler, the mother of George, spending Christmas with her and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, returning home this morning.

Guy Reese, of Omaha, was a visitor in the city yesterday, with his mother, Mrs. Harry Reese, and sister, Mrs. C. W. Baylor, returning to his work at Omaha, where he is employed, at the Omaha Pacific.

Harry Northcutt and wife of Omaha were visitors in the home of Mrs. Northcutt's mother-in-law, Mrs. Harry Northcutt, who is spending Christmas here, while Mrs. Northcutt will remain in the city.

From Monday's Daily: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Petersen departed yesterday for Weeping Water, where they will visit over the holidays with their friends and relatives.

Mrs. I. W. Nelson, of south of the city, was a passenger to Omaha this morning, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Bertha, whom they will visit for the holidays.

Adam Kreager was in today, from west of Myrand, driving the runaway team, which ran away with him and his brother, George, breaking up the team, and throwing them out two weeks ago.

A. R. Young, of Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Henry Franzen and Geo. Trovick of Avoca, were visitors in the city this morning.

Olga, of Cedar Creek, came in this morning and is visiting with friends.

Mrs. J. M. Miller and wife departed this morning for Madison, Wis., where they will visit for some time with friends.

C. W. Husher, from Plattsmouth, was a business visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, returning home this afternoon.

W. E. Nixey and G. H. Gilmore, from Murray, were visitors in the city this morning, where they were looking after some business matters.

Mrs. Theodore Amick departed for her home in Murray yesterday, after having visited with her parents, John S. Hall and wife, for the past few days.

Claude Everett and wife, of Union, are visiting in the city today, where they will remain until after the holidays, the guests of J. G. Richey and wife.

F. W. Kloepping, of Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning, bringing his wife to the train, who departed for Goldridge, where she will visit for some time with her sister, Mrs. Jessie Lowthers.

B. B. Dancher of near Murray came in this afternoon as has been his custom and renewed his subscription to the Journal, saying that he could not get along without it.

From Tuesday's Daily: C. E. Heebner of Nehawka was a visitor in the city today and made this office a pleasant call.

John Hobscheidt departed this morning for Burlington, Iowa, where he will visit with his cousin, Frank Winniger, for a few days.

Fred Nutzman, of near Nehawka, was a visitor in the city this morning for a short time changing trains, taking one for Omaha from here.

Walter T. Valley, the only "simon pure" lightning-rod man in the county, was a visitor in the city last evening, looking after business and shaking hands with his many acquaintances.

F. E. White and wife were guests at the Masonic Home yesterday for dinner.

Miss Fred Spangler and wife from near Murray were visitors in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Frank T. Madril and John Chappo of Nehawka were visitors in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

A marriage license was issued today to James L. Reynolds and Miss Mable Reynolds, of near Murray.

H. E. Starnes, of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Miss Lesley of Greenwood, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

Miss Alice of Plattsmouth, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

Miss Helen Nord, who is making her home at Omaha was an over-Christmas visitor at the home of her parents, P. M. Nord and wife north of the city.

T. J. Todd, wife and little son, of Wahoo, were over-Christmas visitors in the city taking dinner at the home of Mr. Todd's parents west of the city.

Miss Maud Stanley, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

H. J. Taylor, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in the city this morning, and will visit in the city this morning.

Miss Maud Stanley, who has been visiting in the city after some business matters, departed for her home (last night) this morning.

A Sure 10 Per Cent INVESTMENT!

No Taxes to Pay on Telephone Stock

THE PLATTSMOUTH TELEPHONE COMPANY is a limited amount of stock on the market. The money derived from the sale of this stock to be used in building new Long Distance Toll Lines, including the South Omaha franchise and dependent Telephone lines in the State of Nebraska.

PLATTSMOUTH TELEPHONE STOCK has paid ten per cent annual cash dividends for the past seven years and the company is one of the very strongest financial institutions in Nebraska.

As any one who has had experience in the investment of money in the telephone business will find that the stock of this company is one of the very strongest investments in the United States.

Times Greater than that of any other stock of Europe.

Telephone Stock is Not Taxable!

THE PLATTSMOUTH TELEPHONE COMPANY owns and operates 500 telephone lines in the city of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, and is now building new Long Distance Toll Lines, including the South Omaha franchise and dependent Telephone lines in the State of Nebraska.

THE PLATTSMOUTH TELEPHONE COMPANY is one of the very strongest financial institutions in Nebraska.

As any one who has had experience in the investment of money in the telephone business will find that the stock of this company is one of the very strongest investments in the United States.

Times Greater than that of any other stock of Europe.

Telephone Stock is Not Taxable!

T. H. POLLOCK, General Manager and Treasurer, Telephone Building, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Mrs. Asa Snyder and Mrs. Ralph Towle were passengers to Omaha this afternoon on the fast mail, while Mr. Towle and Mr. Snyder went home this morning on the early train, having all been at Grandpa and Grandma Sullivan's for Christmas, and were accompanied to Omaha by Chas. Sullivan and wife.

Miss Maud Stanley went to Lincoln today to visit the rest of the week.

Will Renner and wife were visitors in the city over Christmas, departing this morning, Mrs. Renner going to Lincoln, where they make their home, while Will goes to O'Neil, where he has a run out of there as engineer.

E. S. Tutt was a visitor to Omaha this afternoon, where he will spend a portion of the holidays.

Councilman J. P. Sattler was a passenger to Fremont this morning on business.

A. R. Stokes and wife were passengers to Lincoln today where they will visit for a few days, and accompanied Mrs. Jesse Blunt that far as she was going to McCook, where they will make their home.

Special Blanket Sale

AT

Coates Dry Goods Co.

200 Pairs of Manufacturer's Blanket Samples

on sale at wholesale cost and less. We have just received from one of the largest wholesale dealers their complete line of Blanket Samples from the lowest priced cotton to the highest priced all-wool from 50c a pair to $1.00 a pair. We place them on sale without reservation at from 33 1/3 to 50 per cent discount from the regular retail price. If you are interested in Blankets to guard against the cold winter nights to come this is your opportunity. Also two dozen of the materials—only $1.98. Made in Plattsmouth by the ladies of the Methodist and Christian churches. Best grade Silkoline, full size, filled with nice, clean cotton—well made if you don't believe it, ask the Ladies.

Home-Made Silkoline Comforts at Less than Cost

Coates Dry Goods Co.