

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Wednesday Evening's Daily Journal

A. B. Fornoff of Cullom was a visitor in the city this morning.

Lincoln Creamer of South Bend was a visitor in the city this morning.

Wm. Noxon was a brief business visitor in Pacific Junction this morning.

Frank Rand and wife from South Omaha were visitors in the city this morning, guests of friends.

Ray Chrisweiser is reported as not feeling quite so well today.

R. D. Blunt was looking after some business in the metropolis today.

Prof. Asch, of near Murray, was a visitor in the city last evening, looking after some business matters.

Mrs. Silas Long was a visitor in Omaha this morning, where she will be the guest of friends for the day.

John Jundquist, of Pacific Junction, was a visitor in the city last evening, returning home on a later train.

Mrs. Alva Godwin, was a passenger to Lincoln this morning, where she will visit with friends for the next few days.

Miss Anna Schlapnick was a passenger to Lincoln this morning, where she will visit with relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Oliver Owens departed this morning, after a short visit in the city with friends, to her home at Hastings.

Mrs. Matilda Lousinsky and Julia Barounek were passengers to Lincoln this morning, where they are visiting with friends.

Mrs. A. L. Huffer and daughter, Mrs. John Beeson, were visitors in Omaha this morning, where they will be the guests of friends for the day.

Mrs. A. B. Swartout, after visiting in the city with friends for a few days, departed for her home in Lincoln.

Frank Stanley and wife were visitors in Omaha this afternoon, where they are the guests of friends for the day.

Mrs. William Otterstein was a passenger to Omaha this morning, where she will visit with friends for the day.

Mrs. John S. Hall who has been in Omaha buying goods for their store on Sixth street, returned home this morning.

Mrs. Nels Hawkins was a visitor in the city this morning from Havelock, a guest at the home of her son, G. W. Hawkins.

Mrs. Ann Heart was a visitor in the city for the past few days, returning to her home in Omaha this afternoon on the fast mail.

Chas. Wilkins was a visitor to Lincoln and Havelock this afternoon, where he is looking after business for the Wurl Bros' cigars.

Mrs. Matt Spader and son, William Shields, of Omaha, came in this morning and are visiting with her son, Johnnie Shields, for the day.

H. M. Socmichsen has about gotten his barn moved to his home, which he recently purchased from F. G. Egenberger, and will begin placing a foundation under it tomorrow.

George Trietsch, of Johnson, was a visitor in the city over night, departing this morning for Omaha, where he has some business to look after.

W. A. Fight, of Akron, Colo., came in this morning and is looking after some business matters and visiting with his parents, John Fight and family.

Mrs. Fred Gordier and Mrs. A. Ploetz departed last evening for Watertown, Wis., where they were called by the death of a sister-in-law of Mrs. Gordier.

There will be a social meeting of the Order of Eastern Star, Wednesday evening, January 15 at 7:30, at Masonic hall. The Adah circle will have charge of the entertainment and refreshments.

Miss Pearl O'Neal, who is engaged at the Institute at Glenwood, Ia., was a visitor in the city, at the home of her parents over night, returning to her work this morning on the early Burlington train.

L. Druhehaus of Omaha, a man interested in glove making, was a visitor in the city this morning in company with H. M. Craig, looking over the city with a view of ascertaining what the city might offer for an enterprise of that kind.

Frank Boetel is wearing a smile these days, notwithstanding the fact that the work is not as plentiful as people wish it. A little bright-eyed boy has come to make his home with Frank, and this is the cause of the smile. Well under the circumstances he should smile we think.

J. L. Bates and wife returned from Winchester, Ill., this morning, where they have been visiting for the past week, and report that state covered with snow, it having snowed there all day Saturday and Sunday. On their return they encountered snow until they arrived at Ottumwa, Ia., but this side of that place they found the ground bare.

Henry Burroughs, of Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this morning.

P. J. Keil and wife of Cedar Creek were visitors in the county seat this morning.

Henry Herold was a visitor in metropolis today, where he is looking after some business matters.

J. G. Richey departed this morning for Grand Island, where has some business matters to look after.

John Welsh, of Fairmont, departed for his home after a visit in the city with his cousin, Earl Barley.

Ed Brantner and family departed for Omaha this morning, where they will visit for a while with Martin Houk and wife.

Reno Moore returned this afternoon on the fast mail from Malvern, Iowa, where he was looking after some business over night.

Frank Johnson, and wife returned this afternoon from a visit at Pacific Junction, where they have been visiting for a few days.

John Bauer is installing a new heating plant in his store, taking some of his own medicine, for it is a 20th Century furnace, which is to do the work.

John Ewing, wife and baby, came in yesterday from Stanberry, Missouri, and will visit with relatives and friends in the city for a some time. Mr. Ewing will engage in business if he can obtain an opening, and thinks of going to Lincoln to secure a position.

James Sherman, who has heretofore been with the lunch counter of the Hotel Riley Annex, has changed and can be found at the place of Claus Speck, where he has an up-to-date lunch counter. He makes his Chili con-carne himself.

The layoff, which has been instituted by the Burlington, and has touched nearly every point on the road. At Alliance it caught Ed. Spies. He will return to Plattsmouth with his wife, who will arrive in a few days, where they will remain during the depressed times.

Christian Cook and son, Johnnie, of Boyer, Ia., came in yesterday and visited until this morning with the former's brother-in-law, J. H. Tams, returning home this morning. They were accompanied to this place by T. Grapenrager, of Omaha, another brother-in-law, who visited with Mr. Tams and returned home this morning.

The young man, W. T. Carter, who was struck at Osceola, Ia., yesterday and had his legs broken by the Burlington fast mail, was well known by Oscar Wilson, the barber, who knew him when he was a boy in New Virginia, Ia., His companion, Frank Prime, who was walking with him near the passenger instantly.

Chas. Troop and I. S. White were visitors in South Omaha yesterday, where the latter was looking for cattle to purchase to place on his farm south of the city, but finding the market not to his liking did not purchase. The former had something like five hundred sheep on the market, which brought a good price. During the fall Mr. Troop made a purchase of 684 sheep, and in feeding of which he lost seven, taking all to market with the exception of 180. He realized a good profit on the investment.

George Trietsch, of Johnson, was a visitor in the city over night, departing this morning for Omaha, where he has some business to look after.

W. A. Fight, of Akron, Colo., came in this morning and is looking after some business matters and visiting with his parents, John Fight and family.

Mrs. Fred Gordier and Mrs. A. Ploetz departed last evening for Watertown, Wis., where they were called by the death of a sister-in-law of Mrs. Gordier.

There will be a social meeting of the Order of Eastern Star, Wednesday evening, January 15 at 7:30, at Masonic hall. The Adah circle will have charge of the entertainment and refreshments.

Miss Pearl O'Neal, who is engaged at the Institute at Glenwood, Ia., was a visitor in the city, at the home of her parents over night, returning to her work this morning on the early Burlington train.

L. Druhehaus of Omaha, a man interested in glove making, was a visitor in the city this morning in company with H. M. Craig, looking over the city with a view of ascertaining what the city might offer for an enterprise of that kind.

Frank Boetel is wearing a smile these days, notwithstanding the fact that the work is not as plentiful as people wish it. A little bright-eyed boy has come to make his home with Frank, and this is the cause of the smile. Well under the circumstances he should smile we think.

J. L. Bates and wife returned from Winchester, Ill., this morning, where they have been visiting for the past week, and report that state covered with snow, it having snowed there all day Saturday and Sunday. On their return they encountered snow until they arrived at Ottumwa, Ia., but this side of that place they found the ground bare.

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which enables one to form regular habits daily so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed as the best of remedies, when required, are to assist nature and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts, and right living generally. To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna manufactured by the CALIFORNIA
FIG SYRUP CO. ONLY
SOLD BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS
one size only, regular price 50¢ per bottle

Mathew Gering went Omaha today on legal business.

Glen Phoebus was a visitor in the metropolis this morning.

Chas. Lovell and wife were visitors in the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. Paul Gering was a visitor in the metropolis with friends this afternoon.

Fred Conant departed this morning for Pratt, Kansas, to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Victor Sherwood departed this morning for Glenwood where she will visit with friends.

Geo. M. Porter was a passenger to Lincoln this morning to look after business for the Omaha Bee.

Mrs. Joseph Hiber was a visitor in Havelock this afternoon, where she will be the guest of relatives.

J. W. Hartwich, departed this morning for Glenwood and other Iowa points in the interest of his candy factory.

J. J. Swobody and James Rehal were passengers to Omaha this morning where they were called on business.

Riley Frady was a visitor in Omaha this morning where he is visiting with relatives and looking after some business.

A. S. Will is looking after some business at the South Omaha stock yards, having gone on the early morning train today.

Dally S. Gibson was a visitor in Omaha this morning, looking after business interests in connection with the music store.

Otto H. Stubin of Omaha was in the city last evening, looking after the welfare of the Western Bees, returning to Omaha today.

Mrs. A. M. Dubois of Western, this state, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. L. Stanley, and family, in this city, and will remain some time.

Lost—A string of gold beads, having a small gold locket attached. Finder will please leave at this office, or with Miss Gretchen Donnelly. A reasonable reward will be given for return.

Mrs. Fred Buterick of Creston, Iowa, departed for her home this morning after a two weeks' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Miner Allen in the city.

D. G. Bockee and wife of Louisville, Kentucky, are making an extended visit in the city, guests of A. L. Anderson and wife, the latter being a sister of Mrs. Bockee.

George Stohlman, Henry Stander, Claude Turner, Wm. Kraft and W. E. Stander and wife, were visitors in the city this morning, called here to attend the preliminary examination of N. Clarke, charged with breaking into the house of W. E. Stander last week.

Carl Ulig is visiting in Havelock today.

Dr. W. B. Elster is reported on the sick list.

C. A. Rawls went to Lincoln today on business.

Martin Steppet went to Omaha today on business.

Mrs. Jesse L. Root was a visitor in Omaha today.

Mrs. W. L. Pickett was a visitor with friends in Omaha today.

Fred Obermolte, of Wabash, was a visitor in the city today.

A. W. White was a visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Henry Goos was transacting business in Omaha this afternoon.

James Talkington, of Union, was a visitor in the county seat today.

C. F. Reihart of Cullom was a brief business visitor in the city this morning.

Frank Janda departed this afternoon, where he will visit with friends for the day.

Chas. Hennings and wife, of Louisville, were business visitors in the city this morning.

Mrs. F. J. Koontz went to Lincoln today to visit with her mother, Mrs. Edmonds.

Mrs. J. L. Bickford returned to Lincoln today, after a visit with her son, Fred Bickford.

Henry Hirz was a business visitor in the metropolis this morning going on the early train.

G. R. Olsen went to David City this afternoon in the interest of the picture taking business.

Mrs. D. R. Corley of Omaha was a brief visitor today with her mother, Mrs. M. Archer.

M. Fanger went to Omaha today on business connected with his department store at this place.

Emmons Richey departed on the fast mail for Omaha, where he is looking after some business.

James Stander of Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning looking after some business matters.

Mrs. H. J. Helms was a visitor in the metropolis this afternoon, where she will visit with friends for the day.

Peter Perveyance of Lincoln, who has been a visitor in the city for the past few days, returned home today.

A. H. Bethon of Omaha was a visitor in the city this morning, having some business to transact with L. A. Moore.

Clarence Trail and wife of Kansas City, after a few days' visit at the home of J. D. McBride, journeyed on to Denver and Delta, Colorado, today.

Mrs. Louis Mittlemeyer went to Omaha today, to visit her little son, Fred, who is in the hospital. It is hoped he will be able to return home in a few days.

Judge H. D. Travis and son, Earl, came in this morning from Lincoln, where they were in attendance at the democratic banquet.

Mrs. James Hutchinson, came in this morning from the western portion of the state, and is visiting with friends in the city for a few days.

For Sale.

A 102 acre well improved farm 4 1/2 miles northeast of Murray and seven miles south of Plattsmouth. For particulars call or write

GEORGE J. HALMES,
Plattsmouth, Neb.

English Spavin Liniment remove Hard, Soft or Calloused Eumps and Blemishes from horses; also Blood Spavins, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring Bone, Shifles, Sprains, Swollen Throats, Coughs etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. A wonderful Blemish Cure. Sold by Gering & Co., druggists.

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Tuesday Evening's Daily Journal

Horace Rand of Cedar Creek was in the city today.

Ben Beckman from near Murray was in the city today.

Mrs. W. T. Scotten was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Miss Alma Larson was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon.

R. H. Sampson was an Omaha visitor today.

Judge Travis was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Max Shearer and wife went to Lincoln today for a visit.

J. L. Chronicle of South Bend was a visitor in the city today.

W. H. Stokes of Mynard was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Mrs. Bennett Chriswiser was a visitor in Omaha this morning.

Ed. Maurer was a visitor in the metropolis this morning.

J. Smith of Nehawka, was a visitor in the city Monday afternoon.

John A. Doty was a visitor in the city Monday afternoon, from Nehawka.

Stephen Wiles was a passenger to Omaha this morning on business.

T. W. Valley of near Murray, was a visitor in the city Monday afternoon.

Robert Troop is recovering slowly from his sickness of the past ten days. J. R. Valley was looking after business in the city Monday afternoon, from near Murray.

W. H. Newell departed this morning for Wymore, where he is looking after the business for S. H. Atwood & Co.

County Attorney Rawls is looking after some business matters at Corning, Kansas.

C. A. Richey, the Louisville lumberman, was a business visitor in the city today.

Lee Mayfield of the Louisville Courier was a visitor here today and went on to Omaha.

John Wooster and son, little Johnnie, were visitors with friends in Lincoln this afternoon.

L. D. Switzer of Weeping Water came in last evening and is sitting with the board today.

Chas. Jordan came in yesterday from Alvo and is attending the meeting of the county board.

Col. W. Bessey of Lincoln, was a visitor in the city this morning, returning home on the fast mail.

H. D. Neilson and wife of Lincoln, who have been visiting with friends in this city returned home today.

Misses Jessie and Blanche Robertson who have been visiting a few days in Omaha, returned home this morning.

George Weidman is somewhat better of his rheumatism, but it is with the greatest difficulty that he gets around.

Mrs. Wm. McKee was a visitor in the city this morning from Sterling, Colorado, and went on to Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. John Gilson departed this morning for Lincoln, where she will visit with friends and relatives for about a week.

Bernard Wurl and Frank Richey were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they are looking after some business matters.

Chas. Patterson departed this morning for his home at Arapahoe, this state, after a short visit with friends and relatives in the city.

Julius Pepperberg was a passenger to Glenwood, Iowa, this morning, where he is looking after the interest of the output of his cigar factory.

Miles Standish was a visitor in the city this morning from Murray, and was looking after some business in the county seat.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson was a visitor in Lincoln this afternoon, where she will be the guest of her son, Edward and family for some time.

E. A. Smith, of Omaha, an attorney, came in this morning and is looking after the matter of William Albin, for whom a guardian has been asked. Mr. Smith appearing for Mr. Albin.

Ben Horning departed this morning for Lincoln where he is a delegate to the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co., which convenes there today.

Mrs. J. S. Hall was a visitor in Omaha this morning, where she is looking after some business matters connected with their grocery store here.

Miss Stella Gooding returned this morning from an extended visit to Iowa points, in which she visited with relatives and friends at Des Moines, Boone and Carlisle.

Miss Lena Hirz and Miss Minnie Stohlman were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they go to visit the former's mother, Mrs. John Hirz, who is in the hospital at that place.

County Superintendent Miss Mary E. Foster was a visitor in Omaha today.

Charles Boedaker was a visitor in the city this morning from west of Murray.

W. R. Carey, from near Union, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Alfred Nickels, of southeast of Murray was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Walker was a passenger to Omaha today where she will visit with friends for the next few days.

John Sutton, from near Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this afternoon, having some business to transact in the county seat.

Fred Lowe, of Weeping Water, was transacting business in the city this afternoon, and departed for home on the Schyler.

J. P. Thacker and wife, from near Union, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

J. R. Rummerfeld and family departed this morning for an extensive visit with relatives and friends at Hamburg, Iowa, and Watson and Tarkio, Mo. They expect to be absent about a week.

Asa Snyder, of Omaha, was a business visitor in the city this morning, where he was looking after some business matters for the Morton-Greggson packing company, of Nebraska City.

Col. H. C. McMaken was a passenger to Lincoln this morning, where he is visiting the pioneers' meeting and will visit the historical society of Nebraska, which is in session at that place today.

D. of H. lodge will hold public installation of officers at Coates' hall, Thursday evening, January 16th. Everybody invited. Admission free. Dance tickets after installation 25 cents.

Mrs. F. L. Boyd who has been visiting in the city for sometime past, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kunzman, and other friends, departed for her home at Des Moines, Iowa, this afternoon.

Mrs. A. N. Sullivan returned home today from Omaha and South Omaha, where she has been visiting her daughters. Mrs. Asa Snyder accompanied her and went over to Red Oak, Iowa, with her husband for a visit with his parents.

Victor Anderson departed today for Royal and Plainview to visit two or three weeks. While away he will visit at the home of August Johnson, with whom he boarded when the Johnsons lived in Plattsmouth. He will also visit at Plainview with Fred Ehinger and others from this vicinity.

In yesterday's report of the meeting of the Frauen Verein, which met with Mrs. Wm. Schmidtman, we called it the Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul's Evangelical church. Now comes word, saying we were wrong in our statement, saying that the society was non-sectarian, and were not attached to any church.

ALL KNIT BOOTS
FELT BOOTS
SOCKS
Rubber Shoes to go over them, and
RUBBER BOOTS AND ARCTICS
outlast any other brand.
Absolute protection to the feet from cold and wet; comfort and durability in every pair.

NOT MADE OR CONTROLLED BY A TRUST.
Be sure the trade mark, "Ball Brand" is on every pair, and take no others said to be "as good as," etc.

BLIZZARDS are COMING! So prepare for them and get next to our FELT FOOTWEAR

Sox and High-Lace Jackets	... $3 25
" " " " " " " " " "	... 3 50
Felt Boot and Rubbers	... 2 75
Hair-Lined Shoes, Men's	... 2 75
Wool-Lined Shoes, Men's	... 1 75
Warm Lined Shoes, Women's	... 1 75
Overshoes $1.45 to	... 2 50

Everything That's Warm!
Sherwood & Son

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS

NOTICE.

Herman Leist, defendant, will take notice that on the 8th day of January, 1908, Nannie Leist, plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, against said defendant, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony from the said defendant, for the reason that defendant is an habitual drunkard, and has failed and refused to support plaintiff, and has been willfully absent from plaintiff for more than two years last past, without just cause. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 15th day of February, A. D. 1908. Nannie Leist, Plaintiff.
By M. Archer, her Attorney.

ORINO

Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take
The new laxative. Does not gripe or nauseate.
Cures stomach and liver troubles and chronic constipation by restoring the natural action of the stomach, liver and bowels.
Refuse substitutes. Price 50c.
FOR SALE BY F. G. FRICKE

SIGHT

IS PEERLESS

What you need is Spectacles, ones that fit you correctly. We guarantee a fit or no sale, that is you can try them a week and if not satisfactory return them.

GERING & CO.,

The People Who Fit Spectacles Right or No Sale!