

WILL NOW HANDLE THEIR OWN GRAIN

Nehawka Farmers Yesterday Take Steps to Effect Permanent Organization for the Purpose of Handling Their Crops.

The farmers in the vicinity of Nehawka met yesterday at that stirring little city and considered the advisability of taking steps looking towards the marketing of the products of their farms. There were about forty husbandmen present, and in addition a number of representatives for other places, among which were Murray, Avoca and Manley, at which places there are co-operative farmers elevators.

The matter of the establishment of the Farmers' Co-operative Grain Company for Nehawka, was discussed, and all the light possible was furnished by those in a position to know. In the meeting called to effect the organization, Frank Cox was made chairman, while Ernest Young was selected as secretary. They agreed to articles of incorporation similar to those which were adopted by the Cedar Creek and Murray elevator companies. After considerable discussion the capital stock was placed at $6,000, and the shares were placed at the par value of $25.00 each, with an agreement that they should begin business as soon as the amount of stock subscribed should have reached $4,000.

A soliciting committee, six in number, was placed in the field to see what can be subscribed and report at the next meeting, which is called for February 4th, at which meeting the by-laws will be considered and probably adopted. A committee was appointed to make application to the Missouri Pacific railway company for a site and also to receive offers from either of the two elevators at that place now, and owned by H. M. Pollard and A. F. Sturm, should they be disposed to sell or to make a proposition to sell, as it is considered that it is not the desire of the farmers to injure any one, and should either of the elevators now running wish to sell at a reasonable figure, it would be to buy instead of building. In drawing up the articles of incorporation they were made to read for a twenty years term. With the organization of this company will make just an even half dozen such institutions in this county and a chance for all of them to do a fair business.

Wants a Helpmate.

The editor and proprietor of the Sac City (Iowa) Vitette, who is a lady, feels somewhat "ruffled" because she lost the county printing, which she claims she was entitled to. And feeling that she needs a man to do her fighting and swearing, she taken advantage of the leap year, "proposes" through her newspaper as follows:

"A constant fight for what rightfully belongs to her is a wear and tear on the nervous system of a woman, and we have come to the belief that in order to stay in the newspaper work, and maintain our health, we will have to marry some good printer who can do the fighting and swearing for us. This is leap year and may be considered as a proposal by any-one who would be qualified to fill the vacancy so evident in the Vitette office."

G. A. Craig, the bachelor editor of the Lytton Star, believes that a proposal of marriage coming from such a talented woman could not be turned down, has written his acceptance. In the last issue of his paper he says: "We believe we are eligible to fill the vacancy which Sister Sohm feels exists in her print shop. We're a Missouri democrat of forty years standing, considered a good printer; as to our fighting qualities, suffice to say we come from a family that kisses and on the swearing proposition our press feeder says that we'd be there with the goods, as we swear in seven different languages at once when things go wrong on press nights."

"But before we would agree to take up fair Lizzie's burdens she would have to show credentials as to her eligibility to the vacancy which we have known existed for some time at our wigwam. She must know how to make pancakes, fry ham and eggs and make good coffee; she must have the staying qualities to chase a dirty shirt up and down a washboard until it becomes clean, she must know how to darn socks and the gable end of our trousers, etc. If the fair editress feels like filling a vacancy for the vacancy being filled, we might make a swap."

Were Married Today.

Paul R. Grendt, age 37, of Chicago, sauntered into the county judges office this morning, and obtained a license, sought the home of Rev. A. A. Randall, where he was united in marriage to Miss Clara M. Haiby, aged 19, formerly of Omaha. The happy couple departed for Chicago, their future home, this afternoon.

A SURPRISE ON THE YOUNG LADY

Leap Year Experimenting is Indulged in by a Gay Group of Girls

A jolly crowd of young ladies visited at the home of John Hiber last evening and completely surprised Miss Jessie Duffy by a "linen shower," planned by Misses Alice Ofe and Frances Hiber. The evening was very delightfully spent in music, games and social conversation.

This being leap year, all were interested in the practice of "proposals" and each lady gave her opinion as to how one should be made, and it may not seem strange to note the effect of some of those proposals. At a late hour a delicious luncheon was served by Misses Ofe and Hiber. Much laughter was indulged in when Miss Duffy discovered a cunning little "Teddy Bear," and a doll of soap and wash-cloths among the things showered down upon her.

The invited guests were Mesdames Will Smith, John Hatt, jr.; Misses Leona Brady, Edna Peterson, Mary Sharp, Rebecca Haines, May Larson, Julia Herman, Josephine Yelinek, Agnes Ward, Lettie Smith, Lucile Randall, Mary Wehrbein, Anna Frye, Katie McHugh, Mildred Balsler of Farnham, Nebraska.

THE Kearney Democrat says: "When the votes are counted in Denver Bryan will have them all, but when the votes are counted in Chicago the air will be filled with big and little sticks similar to those now being used by the Chicago police on the heads of the crowds of hungry people now crying for bread and work."

THE Journal office has been afflicted with its share of bad colds so prevalent in this community. The editor, local reporter, composers and devil have had a turn at it, and two or three have been compelled lay to off at once. With this condition of affairs, our readers will pardon us if the present and last few issues have not been entirely up to date.

IT is easily to discern editor post-masters throughout the country. They all carry a double-column picture of Willie Taft at the head of their editorial pages. He is the administration candidate, you know, and it is an easy matter whip those fellow into line. A federal office is a public snap, and they want to hold the snap as long as possible.

MANY republicans who do not indorse Grover Cleveland are nevertheless vociferous these days in proclaiming his doctrine against the pernicious activity of federal officeholders. Under Mr. Cleveland no postmaster or other federal officeholder was allowed to take an active part in politics. Why not the same under the Roosevelt administration? A federal officeholder now is not only compelled to take a prominent part in politics, but he is called upon to subscribe liberally to the republican campaign fund.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of troubles as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes.

NOT TO BE SWAYED BY THE FEW

Mr. Bryan Doubts the Existence of Reputed Committee to Ask Him Not to Enter the Race--Denver Convention.

A special from Washington under date of January 28, says that Mr. Bryan authorized for publication tonight the statement that if there was a committee in Washington or elsewhere, the purpose of which is to wait upon him and induce him to withdraw as a possible democratic candidate for the presidency, the committee has not materialized. Mr. Bryan doubts its existence. His position as to his candidacy has not changed. He is not seeking the nomination, but will accept it if the rank and file of the party decide that he is the best man to make the race. He said further that his judgment on the matter will not be swayed by the council of a few men or a few papers whose loyalty to the party is of a doubtful character, but will be determined by the millions of men who have stood by the party since long before 1893.

This statement was given to the press by a confidential friend of Mr. Bryan, who has always been chosen to make announcements in behalf of the democratic leader when a direct statement from him in quotations did not seem politically advisable. The statement if carefully edited could have been put in five words, "Mr. Bryan wants the nomination."

Mr. Bryan feels that he is certain to be elected against any man the republicans can name, and under these circumstances the nomination has become altogether too valuable to him to permit it to be bribed from his grasp. The thought of a voluntary relinquishment of the prize is absolutely impossible.

The Bryan Opposition Fled.

Mr. Bryan has been in Washington two days. He came preceded by the apparently well founded report that if there developed among the "real democrats" any substantial opposition to his renomination he would withdraw. This announcement was interpreted mistakenly to mean that if such opposition were really felt by those democrats who had fought for him in his previous campaign and they should tell him about it now he would quit. But it develops that a "real democrat," according to the Bryan definition, is one who is always for the nomination of Bryan under any and all circumstances. That mistaken interpretation led several influential democrats to say privately that they were against another campaign with Bryan as flag bearer and to express their intention of informing him of their position at this opportunity.

Up to the time of his arrival these men were as valiant as an army with banners. But Bryan came here fresh from a little investigation of his own, conducted down next to the soil, and the yells that had greeted him throughout it were still ringing in his ears. The valor of his opponents fled tumultuously. In these two days not one of them has ventured to suggest to him an intimation of a limit that there could be any possibility of a shadow of objection to his being the democratic candidate not only this year, but as often as he likes, and he is young enough to make six more races before he reaches the age at which "Uncle Joe" Cannon is now a candidate.

No Opposition, Bryan Believes.

Mr. Bryan scouts the idea of any opposition to his nomination in Denver. He said several times today that he was ready and eager to meet the "guardians of the party," but that none of them had appeared. It was not for that purpose, however, that he came to Washington. It was to talk over with senators and representatives certain projects of legislation, which are of interest to the democrats and out of which they can make campaign material.

LITTLE CHILD IS BADLY BURNED

Falls Backward Into a Pot of Boiling Water and is Badly Scalded

Yesterday afternoon, while Mrs. Leonard Murray, was about her work, and had just poured the boiling water off of a pot of beans which she was cooking, and stepped out of the room, their little daughter Florence, four years old, in her play, stepped backwards and stumbling, fell into the vessel containing the water, wedging herself so she could not get out. The screams of the burning child attracted her mother who rushed to her assistance, and pulling her out was horrified to find the child badly scalded. Dr. Hall who lives but a short distance away, was called and dressed the burns, which in some manner relieved the suffering of the little one, though she suffers much yet. It was fortunate a physician was so close and the steps were taken so soon to give relief to the little ones sufferings, or the case would have been much the worse.

THEY HAVE BEEN MARRIED SIX YEARS

And With Friends in Omaha are Celebrating Event in Proper Style Today

This being the sixth anniversary of the marriage of our genial townsman, John Nemetz, he and his good wife went to Omaha where they will celebrate the event with eclat and a general good time. They departed this morning for the metropolis, and John, with wise forethought took some presents along that he might be sure and have a plenty on hand when the time came for their distribution.

Threatened With Pneumonia.

A. Zitka, living on Wintersteen Hill has been confined to his bed for about a week, very sick, and having a hard tussle with a threatened attack of pneumonia. The physicians who have been attending upon him have hoped that they might avert the disease, and have labored to that end, with what at present appears with somewhat of success. Mr. Zitka is feeling somewhat improved and hopes are now entertained for his being able to avert the threatened attack.

MEMBER GIVEN A RECEPTION

The Knights and Ladies of Security Give Farewell to Their Departing Member

Last evening at the pleasant home of R. B. Windham occurred an affair of much gaiety, the occasion being a reception in honor of Mrs. P. F. Brown, who is to depart tomorrow for her future home in San Bernardino, California. A delightful program was presented, being made after the assembling of the guests, and consisted of musical numbers by Mrs. W. C. Tippins and Mrs. George L. Farley, while Bennie Windham gave a reading or two which were par excellence in character and the manner delivered. Johnnie Falter also gave a reading in negro dialect which was well received and showed much merit, having the effect of bringing down the house.

After the program was concluded, some hypnotism was practiced which was wonderfully mirth inspiring. Judge Beeson of the probate court was turned into a rooster, and crowded loud and long. Judge Douglass readily assumed the characteristics of a sheep, while others were made to represent various other animals. A splendid lunch was served and all were well pleased with the evening's entertainment. In departing all wished Mrs. Brown a safe journey to her home in he west and a prosperous life therein.

Probably Only a Rumor.

The report was current this morning that word had been received here telling of the death of C. S. Polk formerly of this place. Since going to Idaho, has been in very poor health. It has been known for some time by his friends at this place that he has been in a very bad condition with a complication of rheumatism and Bright's disease. Letters from his bedside only a few days since tell of his condition as being very bad. Some time since he was taken to Hot Lake, Oregon, which is a health resort for the treatment of rheumatism. After having remained there for some time he was brought back to Boise, Idaho, where he has been making his home, and it is from there that letters telling of his bad state of health are received.
