

PEOPLE WHO REALLY KNOW WHAT PE-RU-NA IS.

MRS. ALICE J. BORDNER.

Mrs. Emma F. Mumford, No. 1 Olsen's Court, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes:
 "Four months ago I became chilled through and through by getting my feet wet.
 "The next morning I was stiff and sore with a severe cold which had settled all over my body. The blood seemed to rush to my head, causing dizziness and blinding headaches.
 "As soon as Peruna was recommended to me I decided to give it a trial and am pleased to say that it cured me after I had used it only two months.
 "I think you have a splendid medicine and gladly endorse it."
 People preferring solid medicines should call for Peruna tablets. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

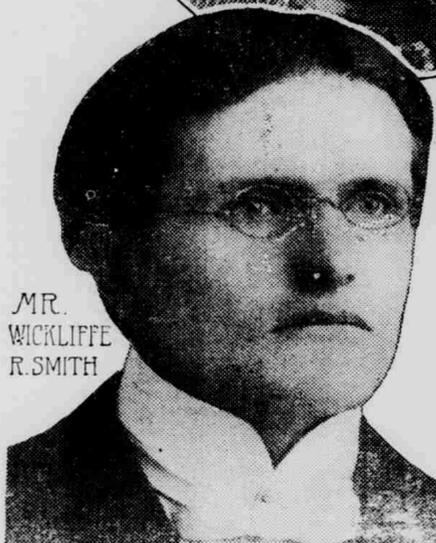

MRS. EMMA F. MUMFORD

Mr. George W. Amory, 837 West 19th St., New York City, New York, writes:
 "Somehow I have always had a prejudice against advertised medicine, but I want to make one decided exception in favor of Peruna.
 "I caught a cold last winter and it settled in throat and head, developing a most persistent catarrh, which seemed to defy all medicines until I tried Peruna. Before I had used two bottles I considered myself cured."

MR. WICKLIFFE R. SMITH

MRS. I. D. HAYES.

PERUNA A REAL MEDICINE
 Those Who Slander Peruna Know Nothing About It.

THE PEOPLE WHO USE IT ARE THE ONLY RELIABLE WITNESSES.

These Testimonials Were Given Out of Pure Gratitude For The Benefit Received From Pe-ru-na.

be so used one trial will be sufficient to disabuse his mind.
 Peruna is a great and useful family medicine. It is used in multitudes of homes. It has become a standard remedy for various petty ailments in the home. It is especially useful for climatic diseases. It is an excellent remedy for colds. It is a well-tried remedy for catarrh in all forms.
 We have a multitude of testimonials recommending it for colds, for bronchitis, for various affections of the respiratory and alimentary organs.
 This is well known to all who know Peruna by actual experience.
"Cures All Catarrhal Diseases."
 Mr. I. W. Kightlinger, Cambridge, Neb., writes: "I don't have any more trouble in my throat, and have not had a headache for four weeks."
 "Peruna is the very medicine for catarrh. There is no medicine like it in the United States, for I have tried a good many before using Peruna."
 "I will keep it in my house to guard against catarrh, as it cures all catarrhal diseases."

Catarrh of Bronchial Tubes.
 Mr. Wickliffe R. Smith, editor of The Plattsmouth Herald, formerly principal of the schools at Cameron, Idaho, writes:
 "For some time I suffered with catarrh of the throat and bronchial tubes. I tried many remedies, but could find nothing that would give me relief. Finally I tried Peruna. Three bottles cured me, sound and well. I believe it will do as much for others as it did for me."

Gained Thirty Pounds.
 Mrs. Alice J. Bordner, 1311 Maple Ave., Harrisburg, Pa., writes:
 "I have found a cure in Peruna. I cannot recommend Peruna enough, and I also thank you for your kind attention to me. I am as well as could be ever since I began taking Peruna, and will recommend it to others. I only weighed 35 pounds before taking Peruna; now I weigh 65."

Throat and Ileac.
 Mrs. I. D. Hayes, 1277 Druid Hill, Baltimore, Md., writes:
 "Peruna is one of the best remedies for gripe, cold in the head, sore throat, nervous headaches, and coughs that has ever been discovered. After the use of one bottle in my family I don't feel safe without Peruna in my house."
 In a later letter Mrs. Hayes says: "I am never without a bottle of Peruna in the house. I find it good for most every complaint. I give the children Peruna if they have a cold and it always relieves them. I don't think I could find a better remedy to give my children."

It is so easy to criticize things about which the critic knows nothing.
 Take, for instance, Peruna. There are plenty of people who are willing to say Peruna is this and that, who never have tasted Peruna, and have never known anything about its effects upon the human system.
 There are people who say, and probably believe, that Peruna is used as a beverage by some people. It would be the easiest thing in the world to show the falsity of such a belief.
 Let any one who reads this go to the drug store and purchase a bottle of Peruna. If, after attempting to use it as a beverage or to take it in doses sufficient to produce anything like intoxication, if after putting it to this test such a person is still of the opinion that Peruna is a disguised alcoholic drink, he will be warranted in making such a statement. Practically, Peruna cannot be so used. Any one who knows anything about Peruna by personal use knows that Peruna is a medicine. The very label on the bottle, giving the principal active ingredients, furnishes indisputable proof that Peruna is a medicinal compound. We will be willing to guarantee that no normal person can or will use Peruna as a beverage. If any one thinks this remedy can

THE Taft idea: "Get the nomination, and get it quick."

IS HE a Cannoneer or an electioneer in his gunning for delegates.

REPUBLICAN papers are insisting that business in every line will boom this spring. How about the bread line?

THE Taft boom may be defined as "that thing ethereal which surrounds the state of Indiana." And what is the state of Indiana? "Frozen solid for Fairbanks."

WITH prohibition bills passing daily and the announcement that steamship companies have cut their rates it will soon be very easy for us to take to the water.

THE democrats of Cass should not only organize in every precinct, but each school district should have a separate Bryan club. Remember that in thorough organization half the victory is already won.

THE Denver Rocky Mountain News says: "John D. got half that big fine in a single dividend the other day. And still the price of oil is rising." But why be so unkind? We've been trying to forget that "rise" they take out of John D. every time he does anything.

THE Toledo Blade takes a shot at Colorado: "Out in Colorado they have discovered a woman by the name of Dinah Might. Of course they handle her with care." And the Richmond Times-Dispatch proceeds to explode with: "The Denver Post reported a lady named Dinah Might in Colorado the other day, but very likely she has gone off now." Next!

EVERY delegate selected last Saturday to the state and congressional conventions, which meet in Omaha on Thursday, March 5, should be sure to attend. Remember it is a duty you owe to the democrats of Cass county, who elected you as their representatives. Mr. Bryan will be there, and will deliver a speech which alone will be worth going many miles to hear.

SECRETARY BONAPARTE is sure that the only way to reach the trusts is to fine them. Most other people think that cutting off their tariff protection would make them more miserable and moreover help those who consume trust products.

IT is hard to tell who would have carried Omaha at the republican primary last Tuesday, had a full vote turned out. On account of the storm which raged constantly during the entire day but a few voters turned out. And of course the Taft supporters were urged to take advantage of the situation—which they did.

AT the regular meeting of the city council Monday night a resolution favoring the lowering of Main and Sixth streets, as a protection against any future floods, was adopted. Also one adopted instructing Mayor Gering to employ an experienced civil engineer to ascertain the probable cost of the work. This should be done as soon as possible, and the work proper began as early as conditions will permit. There should be no unnecessary delay in the matter.

"THIS is as true: The man who desires to stop boozing can accomplish the purpose if he will. If he won't that settles it. You might as well try to move a brick house by talking to it as to influence a man to sober up who is determined to keep on drinking.—Lincoln Journal. Perhaps Bixby knows from experience. A man has to possess sufficient will-power to quit the drink habit—that is the only and true sequel to it.

THE outlook for democratic success in both state and nation is enough to inspire not only every democrat, but also every opponent of the republican protection-trust party. And from the turnout at the democratic convention here last Saturday one would naturally come to the conclusion that the inspiration had already reached the remotest corners of Cass county.

CANDIDATES for public office and their enthusiastic friends sometimes lose sight of the fact that the party and the principles it stands for are of more importance than any one man or set of men. Whenever a man gets to the point that he is greater than his party, then the party is committing a grievous error to stand by the man. The principles of the grand old democratic party will sooner or later prevail, and the sooner they do win the better it is for the people.

THE Kansas City Post is one of the most reliable democratic papers in the west. Incessant in its support of W. J. Bryan, and most remarkably well edited. Ever since the old Kansas City Times fell into the hands of the Star gang, an effort has been made to establish an up-to-date democratic daily in that city, but they have all failed until the present publishers secured the Post. It is bright and newsy and its editorial page teems with well written articles upon the leading issues of the day, and they are right to the point. It is just such a publication as the Journal can conscientiously commend to every democrat in the land.

SENATOR LAFOLLETTE recently telegraphed a statement to a paper in his home state. Hear what he had to say by way of introduction: "There can be no agricultural, industrial or commercial freedom without government control of transportation. Railways are inherent monopolies. So long as their stocks and bonds are subjects of gambling speculation there can be no sound basis for things transported and no reliable rules for the conduct of trade or industry. The strengthening of the interstate commerce law, the basis of rate making on the true value of railway property, the control of service as well as rates, are all necessary to preserve this government for the people. We should make the law effective now." Isn't that awful? And from a republican, too!

THE money market is "tight" and strangely enough they do say it is to be blamed onto "water," too.

THE current crop of spring poets seems to be backward. But then, we have hope they will thaw out shortly.

REGARDLESS of the fact that death and disease lurk in old currency, lots of us would take a chance on a bundle of the filthy stuff.

THE Central City Record, an independent paper, says: "It is reported on the authority of the Omaha Bee that Gov. Sheldon made a statement the other day to the effect that any candidate the Republicans may nominate for president will be a better man than the Democrats can put up. We sincerely trust, for the Governor's sake, he did not make any such statement. If he did, he is to be severely condemned. It would show a narrowness of mind and hide-bound partisanship not met within these days in men of intelligence. It represents the feeling that in past years has put men of acknowledged unfitness in office simply because they were on the regular ticket—a feeling that the country has slowly been struggling away from but here lately. It shows forth the old-time "yellow dog" party spirit, that branded as a traitor every one that dared to "scratch his ticket," no matter how notorious a reprobate a candidate might be. Worst of all the statement is not true, and everybody knows it. To say that an untried man like Taft will make a better president than Bryan, Folk, or others that might be mentioned, is certainly open to argument. To broadly assert, however, that any man the republicans may put up, even such a man as Foraker, would make a better president than either of the two Democrats mentioned, is certainly a most foolish and unwarranted assertion. The Record has always had a good deal of respect for Gov. Sheldon, deeming him a man above the average office holder in honesty and a desire to do the right thing. If it should transpire that he has been correctly reported, we must confess our respect would receive a hard jolt.

AS AN aid to the propagation of spring fever the baseball "dope" in the sporting departments of the current dailies ought to help some.

IF THE republican papers are sincere in saying "that Bryan cannot be elected," why are they opposed to his nomination? There's the rub.

THE Kansas City Times says: "The Nebraska supreme court has ruled that a woman is justified in getting off a street car backwards—thereby bringing the law and the facts into harmony."

AND now St. Joseph has become so morally esthetic that the police arrest men for winking at the women. The man with twitching eyelids must traverse the back alleys in that city or run the risk of being arrested for winking at the women. Here is one place where "a wink is good as a nod," won't work.

DEYOUNG and "Billy" Ramsey were on the campus Saturday. It is suspected that they are hatching up a political deal. This new coalition ought to carry anything.—Daily (Lincoln) Nebraskan. Among some of Billy's friends around Plattsmouth, it is suspected that the political deal was in the interest of Hon. A. C. Shallenberger for governor.

THERE seems to be a few of those old disgruntled gold-bug democrats, or rather side issues of the republican party, who are attempting to have their say in the selection of delegates-at-large to the Denver convention. It will be well to spot those fellows at the state convention in Omaha next week, and spot them early in the organization of that body, too.

THE State Journal and Omaha Bee are making a desperate effort to raise "a muss" among the democrats of the state. They see that the only chance the republicans will have to carry Nebraska this year is to get the leading democrats into a racket. But, bless their dear souls, they cannot come it this year of Bryan's election to the presidency. Those papers have been too long in that kind of business.

SENATOR STONE the other day set forth his views in a letter to the New York World thus: "You ask me, 'What is the best principle and what the best policy to give the democratic party new life?' I think the best thing those who claim to be democrats can do is to quit raising hell by abusing democrats and the democratic organization, and get into line and fight for and not against the party." To which all loyal democrats will heartily subscribe.

Mrs. T. Fitzgerald Dies
 This morning Ed. Fitzgerald received a message from his brother, Thomas for Peshtigo, Wisconsin, telling of the sudden death of his wife at that place this morning. The news came as a shock to the relatives at this place, as it was not known that Mrs. Fitzgerald was sick, or in any way out of her usual health.
 Mrs. Ed Fitzgerald and Joseph and James Fitzgerald departed for Peshtigo on the evening train.

Little Things.
 It is said that the success of Napoleon I was due to his strict attention to details, and his fall to neglect of them. If you will study the lives of successful men and women you will always find the same. Are you not willing to follow them? You know how many lives were lost on account of neglecting the first slight symptoms of sickness. An indisposition, loss of appetite and tiredness escape often our attention; we think they will pass just as quickly as they can. If they do not, we call for help, but too late. How many lives could be saved by using at the first appearance of such symptoms, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It goes to the root of the sickness, to the digestive organs. These organs quickly respond to it and call for food. This good being thoroughly digested makes pure blood, strong nerves, perfect health. This shows that Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine should be used in all cases of indigestion and tired feeling, combined with loss of appetite. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 616-522 South Ashland ave., Chicago, Illinois.
