

Louisville

From the Courier.

E. G. Metzger and family have moved back to town from the Ball farm in Sarpy county.

Tom Parmele has been up from Plattsmouth most all week looking after business interests in Louisville.

County Clerk W. E. Rosencrans paid the Courier a short call Tuesday evening. He was on his way to Elmwood to assist the K. of P. boys in some degree work.

Ed. Pribble planted a bed each of lettuce and radishes Tuesday. Ed. says if there is anything in this early bird business he is going to try and land his.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Schafer for the coming marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. Edward Pankonin, at their home at Manley on Wednesday, March 18.

A citizens ticket was placed in nomination Thursday evening for village trustees. The nominees were, J. W. Waldron, M. L. Williams and Chas. Pankonin. The temperance ticket has not yet nominated.

Many Louisville friends of Mrs. Louis W. Driskell, of Springfield, will be sorry to learn of her death on Sunday morning at the home of her daughter at Kearney, Neb., where she went for a short visit. The remains were brought back to Springfield, where interment was made on Tuesday. The Courier extend sympathy to the bereaved husband and children in their sorrow.

Good for everybody

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Building San Francisco says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorder in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c. at F. G. Fricke & Co., drug store.

Itch cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Never fails Sold by Gering & Co., Druggists.

Union

From the Ledger.

L. C. Todd returned from Omaha Monday morning. He reported that his son L. G. was doing nicely after being operated on for appendicitis Saturday morning.

Dan Chalfant departed Monday for the ranch near Rawhide Butte, Wyoming, after spending several weeks with his parents and other relatives and friends in the vicinity.

Mrs. James Gruber arrived home Sunday from McCook, where she had been called by the serious illness of her father. Her sister, Miss Florence Ruby came with her to make her home here.

Syl Hathaway arrived home on Tuesday from his land seeking trip to Colorado. He has nothing of a serious nature to say against Colorado land, but it is significant that he didn't invest his money there.

J. F. Whitlow, former Missouri Pacific agent at Nebraska City, has been sent to join the company's office force here. His family came Wednesday evening, and they are now "at home" in the Luce residence in the north part of town.

John Clarence, who has farmed near Panama, Neb., the past few years, arrived Monday night with his car of goods and has located on the John Klaurens farm northeast of town. Mrs. Clarence and the children came Tuesday.

A. J. Mc Natt of near Kenosha was in town Monday, meeting a number of his friends. "Jack" reports everything lovely in his domain, and says the race for mayor of Kenosha will be a close one between himself and Legrand B. Brown.

Elmer, Fimple, who had his foot and ankle badly injured by falling off a hand car four weeks ago, is at home again, but has to wear a pair of crutches to help him along. He left the Omaha hospital Tuesday night to come home, but neglected to unload when the train got here and he landed in Auburn, and came in from there next morning.

Best Healer in the World

Rev. F. Jtarbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c. at F. G. Fricke & Co., drug store.

Nehawka

(From the Register.)

Peter Opp, who has been in poor health for the past nine months left on Thursday evening for Excelsior Spring, Mo., where he will take a course of treatment and baths in hopes of securing relief.

Julius Ruhman who has been officiating as guard at the penitentiary, has resigned his job and will devote his talent to farming this summer. It does not take long to get enough of that job.

Frank Massie contributes his mite to our nature stories column. He has a Leghorn hen that presented him with eight little chicks on the 13th day of February. The strange part of the story is that it was done by a leghorn hen—and then it's true.

Born, Wednesday, March 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessel, a daughter. And now if Henry looks a trifle too happy or goes to ordering dolls by the dozen it will be pardonable for this is the first girl and there will be nothing too good for her.

R. A. Young was in our office Saturday and he is enthusiastic over the fruit prospect at this present time, but says it will not be out of danger until the last of April. With no worse weather than we are having now we will have a bumper crop.

Glen Boedecker the new cashier of the Murray State bank was in Nehawka Friday on business matters connected with the bank. He can look down on most of the common people—being a few inches short of seven feet, and enjoys the distinction of being the longest Boedecker in existence.

Monday morning while helping unload dises from a car for H. F. Kropp Forest Cunningham slipped and wedged his foot between the sharp edges and a gash three inches long and extending into the ankle bone was the result. It required five stitches to close the wound and he is laying up and giving it a chance to heal.

A. Park Chriswiser went to Lincoln last Friday and when he returned he brought a new incubator with him—and here's hoping he has better success with it than the editor did with the one he owned. Our experience briefly accounted in this: several dozen eggs "cooked" and about twenty-four chicks hatched, and after the hatching process the whole shooting match burned up together with the tool house in which we kept them.

Notice to Our Customers

We are pleased to announce that Folley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National pure food and drug law as it contains no opiates nor other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller Tuesday, March 10th.

While scuffling the first of the week Andy Hottrick fell and fractured the small bone of his left leg.

A valuable work horse, belonging to Dick Beck, took sick and died here in town Wednesday. This is quite a heavy loss for Dick.

At the citizens caucuses held Tuesday evening, of which Wm. Deles was chairman and W. C. Bartlett secretary, the following were placed in nomination for village trustees: For the two year term, L. F. Langhorst, A. N. McCrory and D. Smith; one year term, Herb Swartz.

Willie Dickinson is hauling the material for the erection of a new house and barn on the farm he is working, three miles east of Elmwood. The house will be 16x28 with a wing 14x16, one and a half stories high. The barn will be 36x60. The farm is owned by Mr. Teegarden of Weeping Water. Mr. Matthews, of that city, will do the carpenter work.

Louis Hermann and Miss Lorilla Kear, chaperoned by Fred Kear, hied themselves away to Lincoln Wednesday morning, where they called on County Judge Cosgrave and persuaded that gentleman to say the happy words that made them one. Mr. and Mrs. Hermann will be at home to their friends on the A. B. Dickinson farm, a few miles southwest of Elmwood. The Leader-Echo joins with the many friends of these worthy young people in extending congratulations.

A GENTLE REMINDER OF SPRING

Bring Many Thoughts of New Spring Millinery for the Ladies.

To the ladies of Plattsmouth and vicinity M. Fanger wishes to announce his annual showing of new spring creation in Millinery, Saturday, March 21.

The hats this spring are great. Any one can make hats, but few are made like those that are to be shown in Millinery department of M. Fanger's store next Saturday.

There is something to making a hat besides grabbing up a bolt of ribbon, some foliage and a bunch of flowers and dabbing them on a shape. First the shape must be a becoming one to a certain form of face. Then the foliage and flowers must be selected to harmonize as a whole. Then just the right trimming must be placed here; this rose and bow right there.

Looks simple, doesn't it? But little do you know the hours designers spend in getting just the right rose and just the right bow in just the right spot. That's why we ask you to buy Fanger's hats.

APPEALS TO A HIGHER COURT

The Missouri Pacific Takes the Manley Elevator Case to U. S. Supreme Court

In speaking of the celebrated Manley elevator case, the Lincoln Journal says: "The Missouri Pacific railroad yesterday took the steps necessary to appeal the Manley elevator case from the supreme court of Nebraska to the supreme court of the United States. It will be carried to the higher court on a writ of error. The suit started in the district court of Cass county. The Manley cooperative grain association sued to recover the statutory penalty of $500 because the railroad company refused to build a transfer switch to the plaintiff's elevator. The suit was brought in the name of the state and the district court imposed the fine provided for in the statute of 1905. The supreme court recently affirmed this judgment. In the meantime the elevator company had applied to the railway commission for an order compelling the road to build a switch. This application is still pending before the commission."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, DESTROYER

The Banks are Fearful of Disaster, and So are the Railroads.

May we not by observation see that Theodore Roosevelt is a destroyer by nature; a destroyer, and not an up-builder. It is not true that in the history of his life, in his writings, acts and utterances, the very sentiment and spirit of destruction, is the dominant element of character; the destruction of animal life, of human life, the destruction of men's character and men's liberty and property? Are not today the master Toilers and Upbuilders, who have made this nation great and its people rich in material things, the very target upon which is concentrated the mighty engines of this great nation under his control? And for what? To ruin and destroy them—and with their destruction the destruction of the vast enterprises upon which our national greatness is builded, and with which our people are fed and furnished with material comforts and luxuries.

If the present crusade is to correct minor evils which have crept in under a new condition of things, we hear nothing of it. The dominant thought is destruction, vengeance, ruin and spoliation.

"Tis true, in all humanity, there is the element of the wolf."

"Tis one of the baser passions; it is the passion that brought the populace of Rome, Patrician and Plebeian, and "all of the assembled maids and matrons and the holy virgins they call vestals," to the arena to see the gladiatorial combat, to see human beings torn to shreds by wild animals, to see the blood flow, the crunching of human bones, and the blotting out of human life.

There is in the unthinking multitude today a great admiration for the destroyer, provided it is not their property, or life, or happiness that is being destroyed. But in this contest it is everyone who will be hurt, from the greatest to the humblest, as the campaign of destruction goes on.

Already the great industries of the country are curtailing. The banks are fearful of disaster and tightening up money. No one will extend business with this menace hanging over him. If it continues, mills and factories must either cease or limit their operations. Railroads, as a result, have less traffic, and every business man feels the effect of the unrest. The ominous conditions will naturally be following, indeed, already are followed by throwing thousands out of employment. Those who have applauded loudest at the assault on industries now feel its direct result.

The merchant will face bankruptcy, the workman without work will face hunger, the applause at the assaults of the destroyer will cease, and the great industries which form the foundation of all our wealth, luxury and prosperity will be dormant. But when this comes once more will be written on the pages of history the triumph of the Spoiler over the Toiler.—Jay Howard Russell, in the American Business Man.

They Returned the Carpet.

Some ten days since, a carpet belonging to H. D. Barr disappeared and at the time Mr. Barr saw some one place the goods in a wagon, to which was hitched a sorrel and a white horse and drive away before he could see who it was. Yesterday the carpet was returned, and the same sorrel and white horses were for a short time seen in town. Who returned the carpet is not for a certainty known, but it was thought to have been at a certain place, and later developments are to the effect that the suspicions were well founded.

For sale—A number of registered Shorthorn bulls. H. G. Todd, Murray.

MRS. MARY MEYER, Thomson Avenue, near Shell Road, Winfield, L. L., N. Y., writes:

"I have been annoyed with a cough for years. Often it was so bad that I could not sleep half the night. Many people thought I had consumption. A woman recommended Peruna to me two years ago. I began to take Peruna, and now I am perfectly free from a cough. I am glad to say that Peruna cured me entirely. I take Peruna occasionally, when I do not feel well, and I also give it to my children."

"Peruna is the best medicine for coughs and colds. I have told many people how much Peruna has helped me."

Mrs. Hettie Green, R. R. No. 6, Iuka, Ill., writes as follows of the efficacy of Peruna:

"Last November I had catarrh and felt so miserable I thought that I would go into consumption."

"I tried so many doctors and medicines, but nothing did me any good, only Peruna."

"After I began the use of Peruna I began to improve in every way. My head did not hurt so much, my stomach is all right, my bowels are regular, my appetite good, my complexion clear, my eyes are bright and am gaining in flesh and strength."

"I think Peruna has no equal as a catarrh remedy."

Peruna tends to lessen the cough, decreases the expectoration, strengthens the patient, increases the appetite and in many cases procures sound, refreshing sleep.

MISS BEULAH B. BROOME, 409 12th St., N. E., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I have suffered from weak lungs and catarrhal troubles for four years, brought on by many neglected colds, but on the recommendation of a friend I gave Peruna an honest trial and I am pleased to state that it restored me to perfect health. There is not the slightest trace of catarrh in my system and my lungs are perfectly sound."

"I unhesitatingly give this testimonial."

Mrs. William Hohmann, 509 N. Paulina St., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I suffered with catarrh of the bronchial tubes and had a terrible cough ever since a child. After a while it got so bad I had to cough both winter and summer. Finally, I burst a blood vessel in my throat from the strain of coughing, next a blood vessel in my stomach, so I kept getting worse and doctoring, and even then could get no relief, I thought, and everybody else, that I had consumption."

"Reading the papers about Peruna I decided to try it, without the least bit of hope that it would do me any good. But after taking three bottles I noticed a change. My appetite got better, so I kept on, never got discouraged."

"Finally I seemed not to cough so much, and the pains in my chest got better. I am well now. I cannot tell you how grateful I am, and I cannot thank Peruna enough. It has cured where doctors have failed. People who think they have consumption better give it a trial."

Peruna tends to lessen the cough, decreases the expectoration, strengthens the patient, increases the appetite and in many cases procures sound, refreshing sleep.

Will Move to New Mexico

John Thompson returned Thursday from Clayton, New Mexico, where he has been for the past week and where he filed on a quarter section of government land as a homestead. John is well pleased with the country and thinks he has a fine piece of land. His place is located eight miles north and three miles east of Clayton, and only a few miles from the Texas line. There is a school house one mile from his claim and a store to be opened soon a mile in another direction, which makes it very convenient for both school and trading.

A branch of the Colorado Southern is to be built northeast, and a station will be located six miles from Mr. Thompson's claim. John thinks he will be nicely situated and is well pleased with his trip.

Departs For Canada

Sherman Soper was at the Burlington station this afternoon, at the time of the departure of the fast mail, and having two gripes packed purchased a ticket for Omaha, and upon being interrogated as to where he was going vouched the information that he was going away, which was evident from his actions. From other sources we ascertained he was going to Canada, to buy land or take pictures, we did not learn.

GRANDMA OLIVER SIXTY-NINETUESDAY

With Her Many Friends She Celebrates With Ecstasy the Day in Appropriate Manner.

On each recurrence of St. Patrick's day, Grandma Oliver celebrates her birthday, of which this is the sixty-ninth. The day was spent at the Oliver home in a manner befitting the respect which is being shown to the lady of honor who has seen many years of joy, some commingled with sorrow, has witnessed many scenes and made many friends, who on this occasion seek to do her honor.

The delicious dinner, the beautiful decorations, the jolly time with the many friends of her youth, middle life and riper years, will long be remembered by those who gathered around the festive board on this occasion.

Those from out of the city besides her numerous friends at this place, who celebrated the occasion with her today were: Mrs. W. A. Hallan and son Oliver of Lincoln; Mrs. Anna Mills of Ft. Crook; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eads and two daughters, Misses Fay and Fern of Omaha, and Dr. Ward of Omaha.
