Were Also in the Battle

In our mention in yesterday's paper, we spoke of six persons living in this vicinity who participated in the battle of Pittsburg Landing, we were not aware of the two others who took very active parts in the famous battle. J. H. Smith, who lives on Wintersteen hill, was in both day's engagements, and during the first day, in a charge, while moving very rapidly, he fell, running his gun into the ground, breaking the barrel from the stock. John Renner was also engaged in the fight both days and on the second day, received two wounds, one ball passing through his left arm, while the other was in the abdomen. They remember the incidents very well, and talk of them as if it happened but yesterday.

Was Not at Home

FORTY SIX YEARS AGO TODAY

At Battle of Pittsburg Landing, of Shilo Church, Six Plattsmouth People Fought

In one of the most hotly contested battles, if not the hardest fought, just forty-six years ago this morning, ushered in the battle of Pittsburg Landing, in which there were twenty thousand northern troops killed in the two days fighting, and the majority on the first day, Sunday, April 6, 1862. The battle was all but lost with the closing of the first day's fighting when the Union army consisting mostly of raw recruits, were pitted against the veterans of the south. Prentiss with his regiment held the enemy in play, and was finally compelled to surrender, which allowed Buell, to come up by evening, and turned the battle the following day. Those from here in the battle were J. W. Johnson, George Poisal, Ben Decker, I. F. Bates, Wm. Chalfant and Frank Kendall.

WERE MARRIED LAST EVENING

The Bride and Groom Make This Their Place of Meeting and Here Join Their Lives

The train which with the utmost speed was carrying the gallant, Emmett Pace from Seward, this state, while running like the wind was not making any better time than one from Red Oak, Iowa, which carried the charming Miss Adah Hall, to meet at this place to have the genial good natured judge of the county court join them in the Holy bonds of Matrimony.

They had but a few moments in which to get the ceremony performed and, made good use of the time. They gave their ages as 38 and 32 respectively, the ceremony being witnessed by two of the clerks at the court house.

After receiving the blessing of the judge the happy couple departed for their home at Red Oak, Iowa. At the station the reporter was looking for an item and in an interview they told him, they were only looking around the city on business, seeking to conceal their happiness from the cold world.

Little Hilt Martin Better.

A telephone message this forenoon from the bedside of little Hilt Martin, says that he had passed a more comfortable night and while still very sick, and the case as critical as it well could be, he is slightly improved. There is still very excruciating pains in the region of the appendix, but hope is still retained that he will convalesce.

The little fellow has suffered extremely since he was first taken the forepart of the week, and it is hoped by his many friends that he will be able to undergo the operation which is to relieve him and that he may have a permanent and speedy recovery.

Jesse Blunt, who has been off duty as fireman with an injured leg, caused by getting thrown from an engine at McCook some time since, is still suffering much pain with the injured member. This morning he was feeling somewhat the worse for the wear, and while he has been around for sometime, will be compelled to keep to the house a while yet.

An Old Game

A stranger came to town recently—this we are told—and solicited ads for a card. The Mo. Pac. Ry. time table was to be the center piece, around which were to be business cards at $2.00 per. Owing to the fact that the printers demanded pay in advance, he collected for the ads. Has anybody, seen the man since, or the printed cards? The Republican has been here for 26 years.—Weeping Water Republican.

"Pied" a Form

There are many who wonder what printer's "pi" is. Well, had they stepped into the New office last evening they could have viewed plenty of it. While carry one of the forms of the evening edition of that paper, one of the boys stumbled and in falling he let all holds go, the type fell into one great heap on the floor. Such accident seldom happen, but when they do it causes considerable trouble.

Most people know that if they have been sick they need Scott's Emulsion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy, brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and well, young and old, rich and poor.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.
