

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Wednesday Evening's Daily Journal

Philip Thierolf was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

A. Ibsen, roadmaster for the Burlington, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Mrs. J. McDaniels and son, Floyd, were visitors with friends in Omaha today.

J. G. Richey returned home last evening from a short stay at Lincoln of a few days.

Mrs. W. L. Cooper returned last evening from a few days visit with friends at Lincoln.

Mrs. M. Fanger returned home last evening from a few days visit with friends at Omaha.

Chas. White, of Omaha, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business.

Albert Fricke came down from Omaha last evening, and is visiting with his folks for the day.

Matt Gering returned this morning from Lincoln, where he has been looking after some legal matters.

J. D. Gravitt departed for Hamburg, Iowa, this morning, where he will visit for some time with relatives.

E. H. Booth and wife returned home last evening from Lincoln, where they have been visiting with friends for the past few days.

Mrs. Thomas Smith and son, Will and daughter, Mrs. John Marquette, departed for their future home at Lincoln, Illinois, last evening.

Wm. Budig and wife returned last evening from Denver, where they have been visiting for the past week with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Kate Oliver returned home last evening from a visit since Saturday with her daughters at South Omaha and her sister at Fort Crook.

Miss E. Wigginton departed for her home last evening at Ashland, after having visited in the city for some time, a guest of her friend, Miss Dora Fricke.

S. H. Atwood and W. H. Newell departed last evening for St. Joseph, where they are looking after some business matters relative to the stone business.

Joseph Lorenz came in last evening from St. Joseph, and visited with his brothers at this place over night, departing for his home at Tobias this morning.

C. D. Edmonds departed this afternoon for Blair, where he will visit for a few days with an old comrade Wm. Taylor with whom he spent many days in the army.

The county commissioners were out with the bridge contractor, Glen Smith looking over what work is needed, yesterday. They are out again today on the same mission.

T. E. Parmele and wife went to Louisville last evening on the Schuyler train, and returned with automobile, making the trip in less than two hours for both ways.

Guy Smith and family departed for their home in Havelock this morning, after having visited in Nehawka for the past week with Mr. Smith's parents, J. C. Smith and wife.

T. P. Salmon, of Thurman, Iowa, was a visitor in the city last evening, a guest of friends and looking after some business in the city, and departed for home on the late Burlington train.

H. T. Batton returned last evening from Denver, where he has been for the past week visiting with relatives and friends, a guest at the home of his brother, Leonard Batton and family.

James Chalfant and wife and John Hendricks and wife were visitors at Omaha this morning, where Mrs. Chalfant is having her eyes treated, and where they will visit with friends for the day.

Mrs. Frank Johnson and Benton Kinkaid returned last evening from a few days visit in the capitol city with friends and relatives, guests of Miss Laura Kinkaid, who is teaching in the Lincoln public schools.

Alexander Hamilton departed for his home at Red Oak, last evening, after having been in the city for some time past, a guest at the home of his son, W. C. Hamilton, the cigar maker and fine chicken breeder.

H. K. Dunbar, who was a visitor in the city with his son, F. H. Dunbar, of the Riley Hotel, departed for Ashland yesterday afternoon, where he will visit for a short time with his daughter, Mrs. Wigginton, until this evening, when he will return to his home in Fremont.

Henry Gering returned last evening from Omaha, where he was a delegate to the grand lodge of the Royal Arcanum, and at which session he was elected Grand Vice Regent of the Grand lodge, and is a life member of the grand lodge.

A. W. Dawson and wife were visitors with friends at Omaha this afternoon.

G. G. Mcisinger, of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city this afternoon.

Peter Keil, from near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in the county seat this morning.

W. F. Gillespie, the good natured grain dealer at Mynard was a business visitor in the city this afternoon.

V. D. Conn, of Greenwood, was a visitor in the city this morning, having some business at the county clerk's office.

E. C. W. Murray, of near Murray, was a visitor in the city this afternoon, transacting business with our merchants.

Frank Smith departed last evening for Lincoln, where he will visit with friends for a short time.

Harvey Rice of Omaha was a visitor in the city this morning.

Perry Marsh was a business visitor in South Omaha this afternoon.

Peter Campbell was a visitor in the city this morning from Kenosha.

W. D. Wheeler, of near Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Wills' Murray, jr. and sr., of Mynard, were visitors in the county seat this morning.

Frank, C. Benfer was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon, where he is transacting some business.

Mrs. J. W. Newell came in from Omaha this morning, and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Atwood for a few days.

David M. Lloyd of below Murray was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters in the city, and also at the court house.

John L. Mayfield again resumed his labors at the Burlington station, this time as an operator, while the man whose place he assumes, Mr. H. H. Howarter goes to Gibson.

Louis Jarand and A. F. Knofeljek returned this morning from a trip to North Dakota, where they have been to look at some land, with a view of purchasing and probably of taking a homestead.

Mrs. J. C. York, who has been sick and kept to her bed for some time with the rheumatism, is reported much improved and with hopes of being entirely well in the near future.

The county commissioners departed this afternoon for Greenwood, where they will look after some bridge work, and were accompanied by Glen Smith, the bridge contractor.

R. L. Propst presented Col. H. C. McMaken with a Colt revolver which an uncle of Mr. Propst carried in the rebellion as a rebel soldier. This Mr. McMaken has added to his collection of curios.

Joseph Fitzgerald has his house moved to the lots which he purchased from Mrs. J. W. Crabill, and the workman are placing the foundation under it and will be ready for the carpenters in a short time.

Mrs. Martin Petersen, of Cullom, was a visitor in the city yesterday with Mr. Petersen's parents, returning home last evening.

Jacob Reihart, of Louisville, was a visitor in the city yesterday on business at the court house, returning home last evening.

Chas. Piper is making some repairs at his residence in the south part of the city, putting a new roof on the kitchen and otherwise improving the place.

Mrs. F. L. Bickford and Mrs. Ben Brooks (sisters) departed for Maywood, Neb., yesterday afternoon, called there by the very serious illness of their mother, Mrs. John Conent.

Miss Mary E. Foster returned last evening from a trip to the southwest part of the county, where she visited with the schools at and south of Eagle.

L. Grant, of Minneapolis, was a visitor in the city last evening and this morning, departing for Omaha on the early Burlington train. His mission was the looking for a suitable location for the installing of a moving picture show.

The Callihan Bros. and Katz's steam shovel, which has been in store at this place over winter, and is now undergoing repairs will, as soon as it is finished be taken to Miles City, Montana, to work in a gravel pit, and will be taken by F. R. King, who is awaiting for it at present.

Bert Clements of the Elmwood Leader-Echo, was a brief visitor in the city last night, coming down from Omaha on the Burlington, and departing for home on the midnight Missouri Pacific. Those who saw Bert say is greatly improving from his recent serious illness. We are glad to hear it.

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Thursday Evening's Daily Journal

J. G. Richey was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

John Hall was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

Claude Shumaker and F. H. Dunbar were visitors in Omaha this morning.

Adolph Giese was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

W. W. Coates and little Neleigh, were visitors in Omaha this afternoon.

Judge P. S. Barnes, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city this morning.

John Groop and J. O. Ward of Louisville were visitors in the city this morning.

Herman Kleitsh, of Weeping Water, was transacting business in the county seat today.

Chas. Warner, wife and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Wang, were visitors in Omaha today.

Thomas Murty, the Weeping Water banker, was a visitor in the county seat this morning.

The Missouri Pacific is doing some work at the Platte river, having a pile driver there at work.

Waverly T. Allen, of Weeping Water was a visitor in the city today, having a case in the county court.

P. M. Harrison of Kansas City was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Mr. R. D. McNurlin, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city this morning, having business at the county court.

Mrs. P. E. Ruffner returned home last evening from Omaha, where she has been visiting for the past few days.

Ed. Becker, of west of town, was a Plattsmouth visitor early this morning, coming in during the morning shower.

Sixty-two years ago Thomas Fry was born and today he is all smiles from the fact that the opportunity to celebrate the event has occurred so often.

C. E. Edmonds, returned home last evening to Glenwood, after visiting in the city for a few days past, the guest of his uncle and aunt and other friends.

Attorney C. E. Tefft, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in the city today, coming last evening to look after some business matters in the county court.

Hard Times. Do not waste your cigar money in experiments. Costs only 5 cents to smoke Buds. Has more quality than an ordinary 5-cent cigar. All dealers.

Henry O'Brian of Weeping Water was a visitor in the city this morning, coming as a witness in the case of Allen vs. Anderson in the county court.

Mrs. George Bruhl departed for her home in Lincoln this morning, after having visited in the city for some days past with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Goos.

Rolly Noyes, of Louisville, made a trip to the county seat this morning in his automobile, having some business matters to transact at the county court house.

Paul Roesner and wife departed this morning for Lincoln, where they will visit for a short time and will probably make their home.

J. R. Sanders and Edward Mason, members of the firm of Mason & Sanders contractors, were business visitors in Omaha this morning.

Pearl Vaneventer, of Mound City, Mo., came in this morning and will work for the Plattsmouth Telephone company.

Perry Gass was down town last evening for the first time since his recent sickness. Rev. Salsbury took Uncle Perry in his buggy and gave him a ride in the afternoon air.

Louis Anderson, of Weeping Water, came in last evening to attend a suit which is being brought in the county court by W. T. Allen for damages, and which comes off today.

Misses Myrtle Isner and Ella Anderson departed for Beatrice this morning, where they go to accept positions as attendants in the Institute for the Feeble Minded at that place.

L. M. Curtiss and two sons, Edward and Westley, of near Bartlett, Iowa, were in the city this morning, making some purchases, of horse millinery at the store of Wm. Schmidtman.

W. T. Allen, wife, son, Forest, and daughter, Corintha, are in the city attending the trial. The latter is the thirteenth, child, and a very beautiful little girl of some four months of age. They are stopping at the Hotel Perkins.

Monte Streight was a visitor at his father's home this morning, for a few hours, and returning to his work this afternoon. In conversation with him at the station this morning he said that in passing through Iowa he saw very heavy frosts at many points.

Mrs. A. B. Hass, of Oregopolis, was a visitor in the city this morning.

Mrs. T. E. Parmele was a visitor with friends in Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah Black was a visitor at Ashland with friends this afternoon.

Riley Rictor of Weeping Water was a visitor in the county court this morning.

John Fight and wife, and Mrs. Fred Wehrbein were visitors in Omaha this morning.

Mrs. J. H. Becker and daughter, Miss Carrie, were visitors in Omaha this morning.

A. B. Taylor is reports as being very low today, with not perceptible change in his condition.

Mrs. Harry Reece and daughter, Mrs. C. W. Baylor, were passengers to Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. Al. Totten of Murray was a visitor with friends in the city this morning.

Justice Lilly from southeast of Murray was a business visitor in the county seat this morning.

Mrs. W. H. Venner and daughter, Miss Ella, were visitors with friends in Omaha this afternoon.

Misses Mary Swellburn and Marie Vajebodia, were visitors with friends in Omaha this morning.

Hon. Chas. Noyes was looking after business matters in the county seat this morning from Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tucker, of near Nehawka, were in the city today, and while here Mr. Tucker called and renewed his faith in the Journal another year.

John and Andrew Sutton of Kenosha were visitors in the city this morning, transacting business with our merchants.

A. E. Stephenson of Glenwood was a visitor in the city this afternoon with relatives and friends, a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Henry Martin.

W. H. Newell returned this afternoon from a trip to St. Joseph, Mo., where he was looking after some business matters connected with the stone quarries at Amaxonia, Mo.

A number of people were in the city this morning from Manley in consultation with Attorney C. A. Rawls in regard to the Manley elevator case, which has found its way to the United States court.

R. R. Nickels was a visitor in Omaha this morning, where he goes to visit his wife, who underwent an operation for some trouble at the Presbyterian hospital a few days since, and who is reported as getting along nicely.

Mrs. A. Neimeyer and two daughters Misses Dora and Louise, departed for their home at Williamsport, Pa., after having visited at the home of their relatives Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Fricke, for the past week.

Father Nimmick, the priest having charge of the parish of the Catholic church at Fairfield, this state, departed for his home this morning, after having visited in the city for the past few days, the guest of Father Hancek.

W. H. Lopp and son, Carl, and daughter, Abbie, of Nehawka, drove up this morning and took the Burlington early train for Omaha, where they visited with friends for the day and looked after some business matters in the metropolis.

Sheriff Quinton returned last evening from a trip to Louisville and vicinity, where he was to serve some papers for the quieting of title in a case entitled "The National Stone company vs. Noyes," which was filed in the district court a few days since.

L. P. Kordel and wife, after having visited in the city for some days past, guests at the home of Chas. Gradoville, departed for their home in Spencer, this state, and were accompanied on their return by Miss Mary Gradoville, who will visit for sometime at Spencer.

Jack Crawford returned from the west last Saturday evening, walking on one crutch and a cane, having had a runaway with a team at Thermopolis, Wyoming, on the 4th of November last. In the accident he had his leg broken about midway between the knee and hip. The wound has been a long time in healing and leaves him still lame.

Henry Boeck received a letter today from J. P. Ruby a former resident of this place, but for a number of years living at Smith Center, Kansas, asking about what was going on in Plattsmouth, having heard nothing for over a year. Mr. Boeck wrote him a letter and told him that the best way to get the news would be to subscribe for a paper which would come to him twice a week.

S. O. Cole of Mynard was a visitor in the county seat this morning.

Hiram Sheldon of near Rock Bluffs was a visitor in the city this morning.

B. B. Danaher was a visitor in the city this afternoon, from near Murray.

Jesse Brown from near Cedar Creek was a business visitor in the city this morning.

T. W. Vallery, the only simon pure lightning rod man, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

C. F. Vallery of west of town, was a visitor in the city this morning, having business to look after in the county seat.

G. R. Olson returned this morning from Wahoo, where he started two view-takers at work for the Olson Photograph Company.

J. N. Dodson of Kansas City, of the J. N. Dodson Land company, came in last evening and is looking after some business matters today.

Miss Bertha Richey departed last evening for Louisville, where she will visit for a few days with the family of her brother, C. A. Richey.

Mrs. R. E. Long, of Omaha, departed for her home this afternoon, after having visited with her parents, G. W. Osborn and wife, in the city.

John Jonquist agent for the Burlington at Pacific Junction, was a business visitor in the city last evening, and returned home on a late train.

Elmer T. Younker of Glenwood came in last evening and visited at the home of G. J. Jones, coming to see his father-in-law on account of his illness.

W. D. Foster came in this morning from Omaha and will visit in the city until the departure of the Missouri Pacific train for the south this evening.

L. H. Sanders, O. M. Coon and C. M. Andrus, from Manley, were in the city today, consulting with County Attorney Rawls relative to some legal matters.

Mrs. W. W. Tunison came in last evening from Malvern and visited with the family of her daughter, Mrs. Reno Moore, and her brother, Jesse Heiner.

Mrs. Sam Hackenberg of Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city last evening, looking after business and returning home on the late Burlington train.

Mrs. Will Hoover of Louisville, who has been visiting in the city for some time, the guest at the home of her parents' departed for her home yesterday afternoon on the Schuyler train.

Mrs. Asa Snyder came in last evening from Red Oak, where she has been visiting with Mrs. Snyder's parents and will visit for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sullivan.

Mrs. C. E. Duke was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where she goes to visit with her mother for the afternoon and will return with her daughter, Gladys, who has been visiting in the metropolis for some time past.

Mrs. A. L. Anderson departed for Omaha this afternoon, where she will visit for some time with her mother, she was accompanied by Mr. Anderson, who will go on to Ashland, where he will look after some business matters.

William Gentry was in the city this morning, coming this way on his return from taking a load of goods for John Griffin, who is moving from the Thomas Akeson farm near Louisville to the Silas Long farm near Mynard. Mr. Gentry returned to his home in Louisville this afternoon.

Miss Minnie Jochim and her brother, Eddie, were visitors in the city today, and while here Miss Minnie called and renewed the subscription of her father, Mr. Stephen Jochim, to the Journal. They live near Manley, and drove down a distance of twenty miles. Miss Jochim is one of Cass county beautiful specimens of young womanhood.

R. M. Lewis, wife and little son, Robert, departed this morning for Lincoln, Ill., where they left some two weeks since, coming to this place, where they had rented a room for the purpose of conducting a billiard and pool hall, renting same from a real estate agent, but when he arrived the room was under negotiations for sale, which was consummated. Not finding another to his liking he went to Omaha, where he looked for a suitable place and finding none concluded to return to his former home at Lincoln, Ill.

JEAN REID IS ENGAGED

Her Prospective Husband an Honorable Who is Brother to an Earl.

NO CHANCE TO BE A COUNTESS

Too Large a Family Comes in Ahead of Her Fiance.

Latter, Hon. John Hubert Ward, However, Is Well Fixed Financially and a Favorite of the King.

London, April 30.—The engagement of Miss Jean Reid, daughter of William Reid, the United States ambassador, to the Hon. John Hubert Ward, brother of the Earl of Dudley, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Reid. The announcement does not come as a surprise to London society, where the attachment of the young people has been well known for some time to a large number of their friends.

King Edward's Equerry-in-Waiting.

Ward is a favorite with King Edward, to whom he is an equerry-in-waiting. He is popular at court and in the exclusive social set, and is well known as a racing man and enthusiastic sportsman. Ward is six feet tall and attends the king and the queen at all state and social affairs. He has no chance of succeeding to the title, inasmuch as the Earl of Dudley has a large family. He received a legacy of $200,000 when he became of age and has had other legacies since then.

Assiduous in His Attentions.

For a long time Ward has attended all the entertainments at Dorchester House, the Reid residence, and he has dined and lunched there almost every day since Miss Reid's recent return from the United States. He met Miss Reid at the railroad station on her return from a trip to Paris this month. The wedding will take place sometime in the summer, but the date has not been fixed.

Has a Military Record.

Miss Jean Reid is the only daughter of Ambassador and Mrs. William Reid and a granddaughter of H. C. Mills. The Hon. John Hubert Ward was born in 1870, and educated at Eton. He served in South Africa in 1900 with the Imperial Yeomanry as press censor at headquarters and deputy assistant adjutant general with local rank of captain. He was mentioned in dispatches and was given a medal. He was appointed assistant private secretary to the financial secretary of the war office in 1901, and he has been an equerry-in-waiting to the king since 1902. He is a chevalier of Isabella la Catholica. He is a member of the Royal Victorian Order, fourth class, and belongs to the Turf and Marlborough clubs.

Suicide Causes a Suspension.

New York, April 30.—Following the suicide of Charles Coster, a prominent broker and society man, the stock exchange firm of Coster, Knapp & Co., of which Coster was a member, has announced its suspension on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange. The firm was prominent and had done an extensive business. No estimates of the assets or liabilities was given.

American Line Subscribes $2,500.

London, April 30.—The American line has subscribed $2,500 to the relief fund for the families of the men of the cruiser Gladiator who lost their lives in the collision with the steamer St. Paul Saturday. The official survey of the St. Paul reveals that she sustained much greater damage in the collision than was believed at first.

He Pulled the First Train.

Minneapolis, April 30.—Simon E. Hedding, one of the oldest locomotive engineers on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, is dead at his home here. Hedding pulled the first train out of Minneapolis on the Milwaukee road on Christmas Day, 1874. He was born at Chazy, N. Y., in 1844.

Just One Dispute to Settle.

Charleston, W. Va., April 30.—The one remaining matter in controversy between the miners and operators of the Kanawha district, in session here, has been referred back to the scale committee. Both sides are hopeful that a settlement will be reached and that a strike will be averted.

THE BEST IN ALL THE WORLD!

Go With Us to the Great Panhandle of Texas on Tuesday, May 5.

A special car will be run from Omaha to Kansas City over the Missouri Pacific, and from there to Frisco, Texas, over the Santa Fee. Special half-fare rate for the round trip. Come and go with us and see the greatest country on earth, and we know you will buy. We will trade for anything you have. Call on

FRANK STANLEY, Plattsmouth, Neb.