W. G. BOEDEKER, Cashier.

Murray Sate Bank
CAPITAL $10,000.00

We do a general banking business and ask a share of your patronage at least.

Our every effort is to please our patrons at all times.

We want your business, and will treat you right.

Murray State Bank
Murray, Nebraska.

The Murray Library meets Friday afternoon at the church.

H. C. Long and grandson, Chester Shrader, were in Murray Wednesday.

Mrs. Nutzman of Avoca, is visiting with her sister Mrs. Klaurens this week.

D. C. West and J. M. Palmer of Nehawka, were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

W. S. Smith is out to Ong this week, looking after his father's estate that is being probated in the courts. He departed Sunday evening.

Glen Boedecker was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday evening, returning from Omaha, where he had went the night before with some stock.

Will Porter, the boss well man from Nehawka, has been in Murray for the past few days sinking wells for those who need them. One was bored for Uncle Sam Latta, and one for John Porter.

H. C. Long is making some improvements on his fine farm residence west of Murray. An extension is being placed on the porch, new screens and other improvements needed for spring repairs.

We understand that a new addition will be made to Murray, and will be made by Uncle Sam Latta. The survey will soon be made and another block be added to the Latta addition, and will be cut up for building lots, in the very near future.

Miss Truda Long went to Auburn Wednesday morning to attend the wedding of Miss Amy Reese, her cousin, who was married Thursday to Mr. Edward Earnst, which occurred at noon. Mr. Earnst is one of the popular and well to do young men of Auburn.

Troy Holmes writes to home folks that he has secured a new position in Chicago as chaffeur. For some time past he has been employed by the great McCormick binder man, but has just changed to accept a better salaried position with Mr. Ryerson, the great steel king of that city. There were many other applicants for this position, most of whom had driven the big autos for a much longer period than Troy, but he succeeded in landing the position, and without any great amount of effort on his part either.

The committee appointed by the Murray Farmer's Elevator Co., are of the opinion that they were treated very coldly Wednesday morning by the locating engineer of the M. P. The committee were at the train to meet the gentleman, and all parties being strangers, he alighted from the train, asked the agent if any of the committee were present, who also did not know the parties and being thusly told, he returned to the train and passed on down the road. The committee are now looking for the gentleman to return, and consult with them in regard the sight for the new elevator.

Vance Todd was in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

W. H. Puls was a Plattsmouth visitor last Saturday.

Mrs. Klimm has been numbered with the sick this week.

J. L. Young shipped two loads of cattle to South Omaha Monday evening, also G. H. Minford one, and Charles Chrisweiser two.

The Murray Library room will be open Friday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. The people in general are invited to be present.

Miss Nora Batten, of Plattsmouth, spent last Saturday and Sunday with Miss Bessie Brendel.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Hill are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a new baby girl at their home last Saturday. Mother and little one are doing nicely.

Mrs. W. S. Smith and A. M. Holmes were attending the centennial services at the Presbyterian church in Plattsmouth last Friday, Mr. Holmes remaining several days.

The old Murray Creamery company held a meeting Tuesday, and it was unanimously decided that the property of the said company be sold at auction, and James Holmes, as treasurer and secretary, was ordered to sell the same, as will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere in this issue of the Journal.

The reading circle met Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore. Among the leading topics that came up for discussion was the Labor Question, and "Who is the American?" The meeting was well attended, and was very interesting.

Through an oversight on the part of the Journal man we failed to mention John Porter, Blair Porter and C. F. Harris driving over to Sidney, Iowa, last week to attend the funeral of Samuel Harris, who died on the 29th of April, and was buried at the late home on May 1st. Mr. Harris was a relative of the Porter and Harris families.

The familiar and smiling face of Chas. S. Stone is seen in Murray a few days this week, just returning from a few weeks sojourn in Oklahoma, where he visited with his brother, Lester, also Leslie Hall, who is cashier of the Lambert Bank. Chas. looks hale and hearty, and has every appearance of having a genuine good time. He is well pleased with Oklahoma, but has not fully made up his mind to make it his home.

Mrs. Dora Kostel was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Alvina Robinson was in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Bennett Chriswiser was a Murray visitor Wednesday.

W. J. Philpot returned from a visit out in Custer county Saturday evening.

Schaffer brothers shipped a car of fat steers to South Omaha Tuesday evening.

Eldorado Castor Machine Oil at 35c per gallon. Get your supply now. JAMES LOUGHRIDGE.

Miss May Vallery went to South Omaha Tuesday evening for a visit with her uncle, Frank Richardson and family.

Remember the dance in the Jenkins hall next Saturday evening. A grand, good time is assured. Don't fail to attend.

Mrs. Margery Walker went to Omaha Wednesday evening for a visit with friends, and to attend a theatre party at the Burwood.

Glen Boedecker has purchased a lot in the Latta addition to Murray, from Uncle Sam. This looks as though Glen might be going to build a new house.

Robt. Richter and wife of Plattsmouth, were Murray visitors Wednesday, spending the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Hill. Mrs. Hill is a sister of Mr. Richter.

Chas. Wilkins, of the Wurl Bros. Cigar Factory, of Plattsmouth, passed through Murray Wednesday, on his regular trip through the county, in the interests of their popular brand of cigars.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and daughter, Opha, departed Tuesday evening for Lebanon, Indiana, where they will spend a few weeks visiting with Mrs. Baker's mother and other friends and relatives.

Chas. Chriswiser was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday morning, returning home from Omaha, where he had been with some stock, shipped from Murray Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, met with Mrs. Nellie Long last Friday afternoon. Several new members were taken into the society, and after the devotional exercises the members were most royally entertained by Mrs. Long. At the close all were unanimous in pronouncing it one of the most successful meetings.

Mrs. Josephine S. Alley, of Butte, Montana, is in Murray this week visiting with her brother, J. W. Berger and family. Mrs. Alley has a daughter living in Omaha, where she has been visiting for the past few weeks. She is the oldest sister of Mr. Berger and the visit is a very pleasant one to all the family.

A meeting of the Murray Bank directors was held here Tuesday, with Chas. Parmele, president and Fred Nutzman, Vice president, present. It is unnecessary for us to comment on the excellent condition of the strong banking house, as it is too well known to the many patrons of this locality. All that is needed is that it is fully up to its usual high standard, under the management of the cashier, Mr. Boedecker.

The cement walk habit is still in vogue in Murray, and all our citizens hope that it has come to stay. Drs. Brendel & Brendel have just finished a new one in front of their barn, and preparations are being made for a new one in front of the Presbyterian church, and will soon be extended through to the school house. This is certainly a grand improvement. Joseph Burton, the boss concrete man, is doing the work.

Looks Good.
The Journal has one of the best blacksmithing and machine shops in Cass county for sale at a genuine bargain. The business is now clearing $2,000.00 per year, but the owner has other business to look after and wishes to sell. If you have some money and want a good paying business of this sort, call at this office for particulars.

WERE MARRIED AT HIGH NOON

Celebrate the Happy Event at the Court House Today.

While others were regaling the inner man, by partaking of the mid-day meal, there was a happy little company celebrating a merry event—the most happy one in their lives—at the court house Gus Splitt, jr., aged 27, and Miss Agnes Grauf, aged 18, appeared before his honor, Judge A. J. Beeson and had the final words said which were to bind their lives, their loves and their fortunes forever. The young people are well and favorably known and are residents of near Rock Bluffs, where the groom is a young farmer, and where they will make their home. The Journal joins with their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for the consummation of the fondest desires of their lives.

THE PLAY A GRAND SUCCESS

The Murray Home Talent Play Very Cordially Greeted in Union.

As per previous announcement, the Murray Home Talent Dramatic company went to Union last Saturday evening to reproduce for the amusement loving people of that flourishing little city that most successful comedy "Diamonds and Heart." They were greeted with a large and most appreciating audience, and all were pleased with the efforts of the players. The proceeds of the house was $37.75, the greater portion of which will be turned into the church building fund. The entire company are very thankful to the people of Union for their kindness, and all are unable to say enough for the good people of that city for the most royal welcome given them, also the liberal patronage at the entertainment, which was even more than they expected.
