

THOMAS MORGAN DIED SATURDAY

Passes Away After a Prolonged Sickness at the Masonic Home.

Thomas Morgan, who has been sick for some time at the Masonic Home in this city, afflicted with gall stones and whose life has been hanging in a balance for some days past, and of whose recovery no hope was entertained, passed away last Saturday at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The remains, accompanied by his aged wife, were taken to Palmyra, his former home, on last night's Missouri Pacific train, where the funeral and interment was held today, under the charge of the Masons of Nebraska City, of which lodge he was a member. Mr. Morgan was born in the Province of Wales, England, 76 years ago, and received his education at Oxford University, England. He came to this country several years ago, and was for a number of years engaged in the newspaper business, having charge of the Palmyra Item until his health became impaired by the disease, which finally claimed him. Mr. Morgan and wife have made their home at the institute here for some years and is known by a number of our people, who regret to learn of his death.

A Joyous Household.

There was and still is joy in the household of Mr. and Mrs. John Swartz, all on account of the arrival of a sweet little girl baby yesterday to make its home with this happy couple. We know the little one is a fine girl, but if she shall surpass her clever sister, a little lass of some four or five summers, she is a good one for it has not been our lot to see many handsomer little ones than the little miss who has made her home with this couple for some time. With this addition it seems they are doubly blessed.

Caught Seining.

R. W. (Rube) Hyers, deputy game warden, who has been here for several days, went to Papillion today to file information against George W. Roberts, of Omaha, whom he caught seining yesterday at the mouth of Pappio creek. Roberts was caught in the very act of defying the law. It is strange that people will do such things, when they know not at what hour a deputy warden may be upon them. Now Mr. Roberts will be hauled over the coals and compelled to contribute to the state a sum far exceeding the price of the amount of fish he endeavored to slyly take from the creek in defiance of the game laws of Nebraska. This will never work well when Rube Hyers is hovering around.

A Former Cass County Citizen.

From the Thurman (Iowa) Times we note that Prof. Owen P. Stewart is a candidate over in Fremont county, Ia., for member of the state legislature on the republican ticket. His opponents for nomination have reported over the county that he has been a republican just a short time, but if some of those who are telling this will come over in this county and inquire around they will find that Prof. Stewart has always been a dyed-in-the-wool republican. The fact is that his loyalty to his party was so noted that he was appointed postmaster at Murdock, and served four years under McKinley's administration, and again under Roosevelt for three years. This should be convincing as to his republicanism.

Very Happy Parents.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Ruffner were made happy on Decoration Day with a visit from three of their sons—Will, of St. Louis, and Sperry and Horace, of Omaha. Will is engaged with the Wabash railroad in St. Louis, while Sperry and Horace are employed in the Nebraska metropolis. This is Will's first visit home for three years, and it is unnecessary to say that both father and mother were as proud of their visit as a young couple would be of their first born. Mr. and Mrs. Ruffner are splendid people, and they have just cause to feel proud of their boys, all of whom were born right here in old Plattsmouth.

Need Nerve Tonic.

As a child learns to regard the fire after having had its fingers burned, Louisville keeps a close watch when they see a threatening cloud. Wednesday morning about two o'clock a heavy rain fell accompanied by a strong wind that blew down a number of shade trees that had escaped the cyclone, and regardless of the hour, Louisville people were awake and some sought safety in cellars. Thursday morning at about the same hour another storm broke, and while not as severe as the one of the previous night, it did a great deal of threatening and was responsible for another sleepless night for Louisville. Truly the elements are doing much toward wrecking the nerves of our people, and unless there is a decided change before long there should be a fund raised to provide a supply of nerve tonic for Louisville.—Louisville Courier.

In Justice Court.

In the case which was tried last Friday before his honor, M. Archer, from near Union, wherein Matt McQuinn was plaintiff, and Mr. and Mrs. John Argo, defendants, in a case of forcible entry and detainer, the case was decided in favor of the defendants. In this case the defendants were living on a place of the plaintiff, and a few days since Mr. McQuinn discharged Mr. Argo and brought suit for possession of the property.

MOST PECULIAR WRECK YESTERDAY

Car Leaves Track in Middle of Train and Runs Half Mile Before Stopping.

Just a few moments after the passage west on the Denver flyer on the Burlington yesterday morning, came the regular fast freight, which passes this place on schedule time at about 2:40 a. m. This is a long, heavy train, and one that has to make good time, is not on the time card for a stop at this place. As is shown by the marks left on the track and roadbed a car in the middle of the train jumped the track, the rear trucks leaving the rail, while the forward ones remained on the track, traversing the entire distance from where they first left the track just south of Happy Hollow to about one hundred feet north of the switch shanty, a distance of a half a mile.

As is required, the train was making good time, and being heavy and the grade pretty stiff, could not easily be checked, and as the train tore down through the yards, the splices which connect the ends of the rails were torn off and two switches demolished, one which is called the shop lead switch and the one at the passenger station, which has the semaphore connected therewith. When arriving at the point where the reverse curve comes, just entering upon the double or passing track, north of the switch shanty, the car which was loaded with machinery overturned and also derailed another car, which stood up.

The machinery which was for Denver, when the car went over listed to one side, and it was not possible to say whether or not it was misloaded or not, originally. The accident, as it occurred, was a most peculiar one and one difficult to understand as at the point where the accident occurred the track was apparently in perfect condition and the trucks of the car as well. It required until four o'clock yesterday to get the wreck cleared up.

Death of Mrs. S. J. Clements.

A special from Elmwood, under date of May 31, says: Mrs. S. J. Clements died at her home in this city last evening, aged sixth-eight years and twenty-three days. A little over a year ago she had a stroke of apoplexy, but partially recovered and was able to get around the house. Friday noon she was taken with convulsions and by evening was unconscious, in which condition she remained until her death.

Sarah Jane Barnett was born in Marcellus, N. Y., May 7, 1840. Was married in Marcellus, N. Y., March 12, 1857, to John Clements. In 1868 they moved to Cass county, Nebraska, where Mr. Clements died in 1899. Deceased was one of the early pioneers of Stone Creek precinct, but a few of which are now living. Mrs. Clements was a devout Christian, being a faithful member of the Methodist church ever since a little girl. For years prior to her illness she was Sunday school teacher of the senior Bible class. She leaves two sons, B. I. county coroner, and J. A., editor of the Elmwood Leader-Echo. Funeral services will be held from the M. E. church at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Injuries Were Severe.

Ed Snodgrass, who removed here from Plattsmouth, Neb., this spring, renting the O. B. Young farm southeast of town, has been compelled to give up farm work for this season on account of the severe injuries he received by a horse kicking him, and will return to Plattsmouth again. The physician attending him thinks that perhaps Ed will have to go to the hospital for an operation before a complete recovery from the effects of the injuries inflicted by the horse can be looked for.—Thurman (Ia.) Times.

To See the Plattsmouth Girl.

Mrs. B. L. Kirkham went to Lead on Tuesday for a brief visit with the family of W. C. Benfer, editor of the Daily Register, and also to attend "The District Leader," the musical comedy in which Miss Ethel Dovey, a Plattsmouth (Neb.) girl, plays the leading part.—Belle Fourche (S. D.) Northwest Post.

Attention, Murray A. O. U. W.

All members of the A. O. U. W. will meet at their hall next Saturday evening as business of importance requires their attendance.

THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR

Money for Members of Co. B. Third Nebraska Regiment.

The Journal is in receipt of a letter from the Assistant Adjutant General, E. H. Phelps, in which he says:

"In the matter of additional pay to members of the Nebraska organizations, Spanish-American war, for the period between date of enrollment and muster in, there is in the hands of the governor a few dollars, which can be paid to each of the members of Co. B. Third regiment, shown on the enclosed list.

"Will you please write opposite the names the present addresses as far as known and return the list to this office? In case of deceased, the name and address of heirs should be given as far as possible.

"In other cases we have been successful in locating the man by having the local newspaper print a statement of the matter with the list of names as a news item, and if you can do this in addition to furnishing addresses as far as you know, it will be a great help. Do what you can as we are anxious to find and pay as many as possible."

Following is the list of members which was enclosed in the above letter, and the Journal requests any information from its readers who know the whereabouts of any of the below named, whether dead or alive, and the parents, brothers or sisters or any of the relatives of the above, if they are dead. Send same to this office, and we will forward same to the Adjutant General: Woodruff, Elmer G. Covell, Herbert E. Spencer, Chas. L. Hawkins, Harry Palmer, James H. Bowers, Leslie L. Bradford, Geo. H. Brant, Emory Clancy Thomas, Custer, Eliaha Fisher, Richard T. Fraher, Michael J. Francisco, John H. Gasser, Joseph Greenlee, William Hobbs, William Hobbick, George W. Kearns, James M. Lindner, Otto E. Mannors, Chas. M. Metts, Edmund M. Munroan, Peter McGrew, Frank Kinley, Wm. A. McMillan, Daniel W. O'Shea, Howard Peterson, Paul H. Place, John F. Ray, Evert P. Rickrburg, Gust Roop, Scott D. Sawyer, Ernest F. Smith, Arthur L. Swanson, Arthur M. Torrence, LeRoy E. Ward, Wm. R. Whalen, Edward F. Thompson, Samuel C.

Will Visit In Europe

Herr Leonhard Klutfinger, German Imperial Consul to Belogna, Italy, a brother of Mrs. Paul Gering, accompanied by his nephew, Herr Max Mayer, also of Belogna, Italy, arrived last Saturday, and are visiting with the Geringers. They will only make a short visit, their object being to return with Mrs. Gering, who will shortly depart for Italy for an extended visit.

Royal Neighbors, Attention.

There will be a meeting of the new Royal Neighbors which was recently organized, on next Wednesday evening, June 3, at 7:30; when the officers will be elected and all candidates who are to come into the order are requested to be present. At this meeting, with the election of the regular officers of the camp, the charter will close.

Social.

WHAT? Box social and entertainment. WHEN? Thursday, May 21, 1908. WHERE? Horning school. BY WHOM? Teacher and pupils. FOR WHOM? You and your friends. FOR WHAT? To secure funds for a school library. Come, be on time. If a box you wish to win, be on hand at eight fifteen. For you know we will not wait, because that's not our trait. Kindly let all your friends know. So they will come to our show.

Miss Etta Kinkaid, who has been attending an art school at Chicago during the past year, and where she will complete her course of two more years, came in yesterday morning, having finished her first year one month sooner than the regulation time, and will visit at home for the summer.

W. J. Lorenz has accepted a position with the Julius Dreiffuff Meat and Grocery establishment, of 20th and Farnham street, Omaha, one of the best supply houses of the kind in the city. Mr. Lorenz was a visitor in this city over Sunday, and returned to his work this morning.

Mrs. F. M. Kempsey, Superior Chief of Honor of the Degree of Honor, of Spokane, Wash., who is on her way to the east, stopped off in this city Saturday for a few days' visit with Miss Teresa Hempel, and departed this afternoon for Omaha, from where she will continue her journey eastward.

Mrs. A. W. Kelly and son, Albert, formerly of Lincoln, have moved to Milton, Wisconsin, and stopped on their way to their new home, and visited with her cousin, Mrs. M. A. Street, over Sunday, and on departing this afternoon was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mrs. Street. Mrs. Kelly has just lost her father, who was a brother to the father of Mrs. Street, who died a few months since.

PERSONAL POINTS

D. A. Young of near Murray was a visitor in the city this morning.

Mrs. Antone Janda and children were visitors in Omaha this morning.

Miss Francis Hiber was a visitor in the metropolis with friends this morning.

Mrs. S. M. Chapman and Mrs. M. Morrissey were visitors in Omaha this morning.

Mrs. John Hall was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon, looking after business relative to the store at this place.

Miss Alice Kerr returned to her work at Glenwood this morning, after having visited in the city over Sunday with her mother.

William Highblood of Beatrice, after having visited in the city for some time with friends, departed for his home this morning.

Miss Nellie Julian, after having visited in the city for the past few days, departed this afternoon for her home in Omaha.

Mrs. Ray Barrett returned to her home in Lincoln this afternoon, after having visited in the city with friends over Sunday.

Frank Herold was an over Sunday visitor in the city, a guest of relatives and friends, and returning to his home in Lincoln today.

Mrs. W. L. Reynolds departed for her home at Havelock this afternoon, after having visited in the city, a guest of Mrs. Leo. Alex.

Mark Kennedy, of Marysville, Mo., was a visitor in the city Saturday, a guest of his sister, Miss Eva Kennedy, of the Evening News.

Miss Marie Gaebler, of Omaha, returned to her home, after visiting in the city over Sunday, a guest at the home of Richard Hale and wife.

John Kupke, of South Bend, returned this afternoon from Tyler, Mo., where he has been visiting for some time with relatives and friends.

G. R. Olson of the Olson Photograph company, departed for Lincoln and other western points today, where he will look after business for the company.

Mrs. J. H. Reasner and son, Byrl, departed this afternoon for their home at Strawn, Iowa, after having visited in the city with the former's sisters, the Misses Hobson.

Harvey Shipley and wife and Bert Hainer departed for their home near Bellevue today, after having visited in the city, guests at the home of Jesse Hainer and family.

James Laughrigh and David Amick were visitors in the city this afternoon. From here Mr. Laughrigh departed for Omaha, where he had some business matters to look after.

Mrs. R. O. Wagner of Havelock returned to her home this afternoon after having visited in the city for some time, a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ballance.

Mrs. R. G. Miller departed for her home at Havelock this afternoon, having visited in the city the past few days, a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Oliver Hudson and family.

Dr. Roy Dodge and wife departed last evening for Omaha, after having visited in the city, guests at the homes of their parents, Mr. George N. Dodge and wife and P. E. Ruffner and wife.

Mrs. J. D. McBride, of South Omaha, came down Friday evening, visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. S. Johnson, and other neighbors and friends until Sunday evening, when she returned home.

Mrs. Gussie Gronsha of Omaha returned to her home this afternoon, having been in the city for some time, a visitor with friends, and a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsey.

Mrs. Frank Hayward of Omaha departed for her home this afternoon, having visited in the city with relatives and attended the Decoration Day services, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Q. K. Parme.

E. A. Wurl was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon, where he is looking after some business, and accompanied his mother-in-law, Mrs. Phillip Andres, as far as Omaha on her return to her home in Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Andrew McKinney is very sick at present and her children have been called home on this account, as there is little hope of her recovery entertained. Mrs. McKinney is some 75 years of age and is effected with heart and stomach trouble.

J. F. Stephens returned this morning from Guss, Ia., where he visited with a brother over Decoration Day and Sunday. On his return this morning, while waiting for a train, he sketched or outlined four horses at Villisca, having a little time there.

A. L. Anderson returned this morning from Omaha, where he was present Sunday at a meeting of the Woodmen of the World, which composed Omaha, Council Bluffs and a number of surrounding towns, in which they were 1305 initiated into the order.

J. S. Collins, of Ashland, the telephone electrician for the Burlington, was looking after some business matters in the city this morning. The Burlington, in installing telephones along their lines, selected Oreadopolis as a place for a switch board which they have installed there.

Miss Teresa Hempel was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

J. H. Johnson departed this morning for Glenwood, his home, where he has some work to look after.

Mrs. George Freer, of Omaha, came down and spent Decoration day with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Utterback.

S. O. Cole and son, Earl V. Cole were visitors in Omaha this morning where they have some business matters to attend to.

Frank McNurlin and wife of west of Mynard were visitors in the city for the Decoration day services, and visiting friends.

Chas. Collins was a visitor in city and at Mynard over Sunday with relatives, returning to his home at Lincoln this morning.

Rev. J. E. Swanson returned home this morning, after having preached at the Swedish Mission church at this place yesterday.

Mrs. Jennie Whalen and daughter, Miss Nellie, were visitors in Omaha this morning with friends, going on the early Burlington train.

Fred Gorder of Weeping Water came in last Saturday evening and visited with relatives over Sunday and returned home this morning.

Mrs. A. Rouse of Bethany is a visitor in the city, having attended the Decoration day services and visiting with her numerous friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kroehler and children were down from Havelock to spend Decoration Day with Grandma Weidman and family, returned home Sunday.

George Murray departed for Pond Creek, Oklahoma, this morning, where he will visit for some time and accept a position, which has been tendered him there.

"Where are you going the Fourth?" said one young man to another. "To Omaha?" he answered. "Nothing doing there," said the first, "Omaha is coming to Plattsmouth."

Glen Boedeker, cashier of the Murray State Bank, accompanied by Sam Pitman and Ed Nickels, were here on Decoration Day and made the Journal office a pleasant call.

Fourth of July comes but once a year, Plattsmouth is going to celebrate. Everybody is taking great interest to make it one of the biggest celebrations ever held this side of the river.

Mrs. J. B. Higley and children departed this morning for Humboldt, where they will visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson, Mrs. Johnson being a daughter of Mr. Higley.

Francis (Mickey) Shields came down from South Omaha and spent Decoration with his former young associates. Francis holds a pretty fair position in one of the packing houses, and is well pleased with it.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wunderlich, of Nehawka, while in the city Decoration Day, gave the Journal a pleasant visit. John is an old friend of the Journal, but this is the first time we have met his estimable better-half.

Dr. Redburn and wife (formerly Miss Florence White) of Auburn, were visitors in the city over Decoration day and yesterday with the latter's parents, returning home on the late Missouri Pacific train last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ellis, and a sister of the latter were down from Omaha to spend Sunday with Mrs. Perry Utterback, a sister of Mr. Ellis. C. W. Ellis, another brother of Mrs. Utterback, accompanied the party.

Frank Standeven, Oscar Irwin and Guire Yates, of Omaha, were visitors in the city over Decoration day, the guests of Ray Travis and Glen Smith, who also spent the holidays here, they all returning to Omaha last evening.

Louisville—"Hello Plattsmouth, are you going to have any speakers the Fourth?" Well I guess yes, the best we can get. "Any sports?" "Everything new—nothing old." "Any fireworks?" "Sure, the best Plattsmouth ever had." "All right, that's enough. Louisville is coming."

J. B. Meisinger, jr., of Lincoln, was in the city Decoration Day, and made the Journal a brief visit. Mr. Meisinger is in the lumber business in the state capitol, and came down Friday evening to visit his father, J. B. Meisinger, sr., who has not been in the best of health for several months. He reports his father as feeling pretty well, under the present circumstances.

Miss Catherine Tunison, of Malvern, Iowa, who has been teaching at the school house just east of the Missouri river, and whose school closed last Friday was a visitor in the city with her sister, Mrs. Reno Moore and family over Decoration day and Sunday, departing for the home today.

Frank Scheille and wife, of South Omaha, were visitors with friends and relatives in the city over Decoration day and Sunday, guests at the home of Wm. Weber and Theobald Rhin, and families. Mr. Scheille returned home last evening, while Mrs. Scheille, who was Miss Clara Weber, will remain and visit in the city for some two weeks with relatives. The baby will also visit with its numerous relatives in the city as well.

GOING TO TAKE A TRIP?

Your best credentials among strangers are good clothes and prosperous looking baggage. A cheap grip, suit case or trunk puts you at a disadvantage—besides cheap traveling goods are expensive—you may lose all they contain. Our goods will hold together and you can be proud of them.

C. E. Wescott's Sons.

WHERE QUALITY COUNTS

G. A. B. Hicks, of Cullom, was a visitor in the city this morning.

H. E. Rand, of Louisville, was a visitor in the city this morning.

C. L. Pitman, of Nehawka, was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday and Sunday.

George Totus, of Thurman, Iowa, was a visitor in the city this morning, a guest of P. D. Bates and family.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Louis W. Lorenz, and Miss Ada A. Meisinger, both of this place.

David Mason, of Ashland, a brother of Jacob Mason, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

W. J. Krofts, of Union, was a business visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business matters at the county clerk's office.

Sam Record and Frank Anderson, the horse dealers of Pacific Junction, were visitors in the city this morning, looking after some business matters.

Miss Mable Burch departed this morning for her home at Hopkins, Missouri, where she will visit with her parents during the vacation.

Miss Mary E. Foster returned this morning from a visit over Decoration Day and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Foster, of Union.

Harry Newman and wife of Omaha were visitors with friends in the city over Decoration Day and Sunday, the guests of A. Priestrup and George Kroehler and families.

J. C. Rauth and wife, of Manley, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cook, south of the city, Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday Mr. Rauth made this office a pleasant visit, and while here renewed for the Journal another year. Mr. and Mrs. Rauth and Mr. and Mrs. Cook are old friends and the visit was a most enjoyable one.

Louisville Cyclone Views.
Entire collection—18 views on post cards $1.00. For sale by local dealers in Louisville and Weeping Water or send direct to us.
OLSON PHOTOGRAPH CO.

Good Pasture With Water.
I have pasturage room for a number of horses and cattle at my place, west of the city. See me at residence, or call Plattsmouth 'phone 126.
JOHN GORDER.