DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Wednesday Evening's Daily Journal

Miss Gertrude Morgan was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Wm. Barclay was a business visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

J. L. Brown, from west of town, was a business visitor in Omaha this after-

Justice Lilly and wife were visitors in the city this morning from south of Murray.

Rev. J. H. Salsbury returned this afternoon from a visit at Breckenridge, Missouri.

T. E. Parmele departed for Louisville this afternoon, where he is looking after some business matters.

S. S. Carey, of Meadows, departed for his home last evening, having visited in the city.

A. E. Garrison, of the capitol city, came in last evening and was visiting with friends.

C. O. Brewer, of Lincoln, was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after some business.

Mrs. Henry Kingery, of Omaha, was a visitor in the city last evening and today, visiting with friends.

Miss Pearl Kuhney came in last evening from Corning, Iowa, where she has been visiting for some time

Calvin P. Atwood came in last evening from Lincoln, and was in attendance at the wedding of his cousin, Miss Sally Agnew.

W. J. Spencer, wife and sister, Mrs. Kate Spencer, of Cullom, were visitors in Plattsmouth last evening, returning home on the late train.

Dean Burton, of Omaha, was an over night visitor in the city, a guest at the home of his parents, returning to his work at Omaha this morning.

C. R. Jordan returned home last tending the sitting of the board of at this place for the present.

County commissioners yesterday. H. N. Dovey was a passenger to Cedar Creek last evening, where he was looking after some business mat-and returning home this morning. Mrs. George E. Dovey returned last evening from a few days stay at Lincoln with her sister, Mrs. F. D. Palmer, who has been very sick. Paul Groetschel, of Omaha, was a visitor in the city last evening, looking after some business and visiting with friends, with the accent on the latter. was a visitor in the city over night, and County commissioner, L. D. Switzer returned to his home at Weeping Water last evening, after having at-

Mrs. J. G. Richey returned last even- parted for South Omaha this morning, from Lincoln, where she has been dur- where they will do some work on their ing the past six months with her son, property at that place. Livingston, who has been attending the state university.

Mrs. Minnie Ramsel and son, Willie, of Seward, came in last evening and with Henry M. Soennichsen. transacted business in the city, and today on the noon train.

Mrs. Fannie King, sister of Mrs. A W. Attwood and daughter, Miss Jean King, were visitors with friends and relatives in Omaha this afternoon.

James Smith of Glenwood was a visitor in the city this morning, looking morning. after some business matters relative to the paving which is under way here at

Will Rice and wife departed for Omaha this morning, from where Mrs. Rice lington train. will go to Rock Island, Ill., where she with her sister, Mrs. Henry Dieroff. Mrs. I. N. Woodford and Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson, of Weeping Water, having pital at that place. visited with the family of Judge H. D. Travis for some days past, departed for their homes last evening on the Schuyler train.

Frank E. White, Grand Secretary of for his home this morning. the Masons of this state, came in last the lodge at Plattsmouth.

Mrs. A. H. Graves, of Murray, who has been visiting in Hillsdale, Iowa, ment company of Council Bluffs, came for the past few days, returned home in this morning and is unloading and last evening, coming to Plattsmouth on setting up a Russell traction engine for the Burlington, and departing for Mur- S. O. Cole and Earl V. Cole for their ray on the Missouri Pacific.

Max Peterson, of Lincoln, was a business visitor in the city this morning. It will be remembered that Mr. Peterson atives at his former home, Pacific Junc-bottle sent free by mail, also a book tell-bottle sent free by mail, also a bo was here some time since with a moving tion, for some time past, came over ing more about Swamp-Root, and how to picture show, being the first one to last evening and visited in this city over picture show, being the first one to last evening and visited in this city over ble. When writing mention reading this show here continuously.

Messrs E. B. and R. R. Critchfield, west this morning. departing for their home in Ohio.

米米米米米米米米米米米米米米米米米米米 Mrs. E. H. Busch was a visitor in Lincoln this morning.

in the city this morning.

with friends in Omaha this morning. Mrs. W. H. Venner and daughter were visitors in Omaha this afternoon. Earl Dunn was looking after some business matters in Omaha this morn-

Perry Marsh was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

this morning.

Mrs. Phillip Roucka was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

L. Jarrand was a visitor with friends in Omaha this afternoon, George Rhoden and son, Glen, were visitors in Omaha this morning from near Murray. Will Jean of near Mynard was looking after some business matters in the metropolis today. The Misses Martha and Anna Steppet were visitors with friends in Omaka this morning. G. S. F. Burton was an over night to his work this morning. A. R. Chriswisser, of near Weeping fast mail.

matters in the city this morning. John Gilson and wife departed this af-visit for some time. J. H. Brown of Murray was a visitor in the city this morning, looking after

J. E. Tuey departed this morning for Tabor, la., where he is looking after some business matters.

some business matters.

Switchman L. E. Owsley came in this

Rev. B. F. Eichelberger and wife departed this morning for Tabor, Iowa, where they will visit with friends for Contractor C. D. Woodworth came in this morning from Omaha, and is looking after some business matters in reference to the paving.

M. Fanger is moving from the rooms over the department store to the Walker residence, on north Fourth street. Henry Sweeney of Pacific Junction departed for his home this morning. Robert Windham, jr., of Greenwood, was a business visitor in the city last tend the meeting of the board yester- evening, returning home this morning. W. C. Haffke and son, William, de-

> Charles White of Omaha was a business visitor in the city this morning,

Miss Minnie Jochum, accompanied by visited friends over night, returning her sister, Mrs. August Stohlman, of schools of this county today, the by the name. near Louisville, were in the city today, looking after some business matters and gave this office a pleasant call. Mrs. Henry Donat and son, Frank, were passengers to Omaha this morning, where they will join Mr. Donat, who will arrive there from the west this

C. J. Balser of Farnham, this state, who has been a visitor in the city for DO YOU GET UP the past few days, departed for his home this morning on the early Bur-

Mrs. William Otterstein departed for will visit for about a month, a guest Lincoln this morning, accompanied by the children, where they go to visit with her daughter. Helen, who is in a hos-

> Frank Stricklin of Red Oak, Ia., on his return from a visit of some time in Kansas City, dropped off here for a short time with friends, and departed

Mrs. R. E. Parker of Trinidad, Col. evening from Omaha, and was in at- who is visiting at this place, and Mrs. tendance at the celebration of the Charles Parker of Murray, were visitfiftieth anniversary of the founding of ors with friends in Omaha today, going on the early Burlington train.

I. E. Hathaway of the Clark Implenew threshing outfit and corn sheller.

J. V. DeLashmutt of Burwell, Neb., night, and departed for his home in the generous offer in this paper and send your nephews of Mrs. George M. Porter, who have been visiting with their aunt, from Shreeve. Ohio, departed for Stoughton, with friends in the city and may in the city and Shreeve, Ohio, departed for Stoughton, with friends in the city, and was joined dollar size bottles are Bone of Sme Wisconsin this afternoon, where they will visit with their aunt, Mrs. Stephen Buzzell and family, for a while before Buzzell and family, for a while before departing for their home in Chio.

Wisconsin this afternoon, where they by Mr. Darrow, who came in this afternoon on the bridge special which has been making a tour of the southern been making a tour of the southern and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on the store she went with glee, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on the store she went with glee, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on the store she went with glee, and the address are sold by all good druggists. Don't make sold portion of the state.

L. A. Moore was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. D. A. Miller, of Weeping Water, returned this afternoon from a visit at Shenandoah and Malvern, Iowa.

Mrs. Robert Snyder was a visitor in paniel by her daughter Mrs. M. C. Sprague.

Mrs. Joel Messersmith came in this morning from Havelock and is visiting morning at about three o'clock at his with her sister, Mrs. William McCauley late home in the third ward, after a G. F. Frinkenhaur of New York, representing the Alvin Manufacturing company, was a business visitor in the city H. L. Birge of Omaha was a visitor this marning.

George Mapes and family were visit-Mrs. Soren Anderson was a visitor ors in Omahathis afternoon, where they are looking after some business matters and visiting with friends.

> Chas Boedeker of near Murray was a business visitor in the city today, having some business to look after at the from that city. Here he remained office of the county judge.

Moines, Iowa, this morning, where she and for two years worked on farms, will visit for some time with her neice, when he purchased a farm west of this Robert Mauzy was a visitor in Omaha | Mrs. Phillips and husband.

H. Dearmont, representing the ner. Mr. Taylor in 1861 was united in World-Herald, after having been in the marriage with Miss Adeline Murcity looking after some business, returning to Omaha last evening.

Milton Randall, of Mound City, Mo., the blind man who has been playing on our streets for the past few days, departed for Iowa points this morning.

Uncle Joseph Davis, the stonemason of Louisville, came in this morning and is looking after some business regarding the pointing up of some work for T. E.

business visitor in the city this morning time which he has been confined to his visitor at home last evening, returning looking after some business matters for bed has wasted him away until he had the Burnington, returning home on the became very much emaciated. During

Water, was looking after some business of Lincoln are visiting with friends and was elected sheriff of this county which looking after some business matters in office he filled for four years. During intend that any other man shall suc- partners, publicity of the sources ternoon for Lincoln, where they will the city, having come in on the early the early days, and even later, he was Burlington train this morning.

John Hockstraugesser came in this morning from Omaha, and is looking after some business matters relative to the property which he recently pur here when the times were strenuous by the democratic national committee, the Taft fund and violate no law. chased of George Mapes and the place and still until the times which we see morning from Sioux City, and will work of Nehawka were in the city last night later years of his life. attending the fiftieth anniversary of The funeral will be conducted from ber election. Mark that. the establishment of the Masonic lodge the the late residence or Friday afterin this place, Mr. O'Day returning on noon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. T. Baird the late train last evening and Mr. officiating, and will be assisted by Rev. Kirkpatrick remaining over until this Salsbury, should he return home in

Thinks It Saved his Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter:"I have used Dr. I would be without food." For nearly skinned if he'd taken the other. Sold under guarantee at F. G. Fricke per cent, besides benzine in the oil. & Co., crug store. 50c. and $1.00. don't know how much. Trial bottle free.

School Apportionment.

The county treasurer received the state apportionment which goes to the and year. That's how to reckon it. Go amount being $6,322.96, to which is added the saloon licence at Cedar Creek, which is $600, and the fines which have been collected over the county, amounting to $101 making in all, $7023.96. Of this amount Plattsmouth schools will get $1,427.30.

WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have every bottle.

address to Dr. Kilmer

ANOTHER OLD SETTLER GONE

Omaha this afternoon, and was accom- He Passes Away After a Long Seige of Sickness.

Andrew B. Taylor passed away this lingering illness of many months, extending up almost to a year. Andrew B. Taylor was born at Red Sulphur Springs, Monroe county, West Virginia, May 10th, 1829, and at the time of his death was past 79 years of age. During his chilahood he lived on the farm of his parents, and worked upon Shallenberger as one of the orators for farms of the neighbors, and after be- the Fourth of July. coming of age, he moved to Iowa, settling at Walnut Grove, a small town near Davenport, and about fifteen miles working for various farmers until the Mrs. B. S. Ramsey departed for Des year 1857, when he came to this county city, the one now owned by C. H. Warray, at Rock Bluffs, and moved upon the farm west of this place. Of this union three children were born-two ocratic national committee would sink boys, John and William, the former making his home in Washington, and the latter in Oklahoma. William has been with his father for the past three weeks. For the past three months Mr. Taylor has been very low all the time and for a long time he was not expected to live but for a short time. He | ing lived here the most of his life, every-C. Hollenberg, of Ashland, was a very adverse conditions, and the long the whole time he has been a very one of the moving spirits which helped make the country we have today. With his passing goes one of the history makers of this country, having lived today. Through good and bad report of the country he has stuck to Platts-time. The interment will be made at

Mr. J. Reible, Plattsmouth Neb.,

Oak Hill cemetery.

DEAR SIR:-Mr. King's New Discovery many years, for of a cotton-mill at Union, S. C., -he lected some more favorable spot for his coughs and colds, and I think it saved don't want to see his name in printmy life. I have found it a reliable rem- had two offers of 500 gallons of paint: edy for throat and lung complaint, and $1.30 and $1.25. Took the $1.25 and got would no more be without a bottle than skinned. He'd have got three-quarters forty years New Discovery has stood at | The $1.30 was full gallon; the $1.25 the head of throat and lung remedies. was 18 per cent short. The full-measure As a preventive of pneumonia, and paint was adulterated 40 per cent; the healer of weak lungs it has na equal. short-measure paint was adulterated 45

the town then.

It don't pay to monkey with paint. Devoe costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house New York, Chicago and Kansas City.

our paint, Brings Daughter Home Today.

P. S. H. L. Asemissen & Son sells

This afternoon Rev. A. Allen Randall bring his daughter, Miss Ina, home from the hospital, where she has been for some time past. Miss Ina has been making very satisfactory progress since the operation, which was performed improved as to be able to return to her home. This will be received with much pleasure by her many friends.

A Vicious Squirrel

Mrs. Gottlieb Neumeister lives southeast of Weeping Water, and we learn of a little scrap she had with a squirrel. The animal attacted her, bitting her on the arms, body and face, until her cries brought her granddaughter. The squirrel attacked the girl and then the dog was called and the squirrel attacked it. If our pets get too friskey under protection, it will be neccessary to go armed in self defence. -Weeping Water Republican.

Fine Bouquet.

The Journal desires to return its most sincere thanks to Mrs. J. W. Johnson for a most fragrant and beautiful bouquet which grace our sanctum. As flowers can speak as friendship can, this gift denotes the friendship which she conveys in this bouquet. May this most estimable lady live long to enjoy the fruits of this life and her shadow never

For Hollisters's Rocky Mountain Tea.

**•

A New Orleans woman was thin. Because she did not extract sufficient nourishment from her food.

She took Scott's Emulsion. Result:

She gained a pound a day in weight.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00

committee is unable to get Hon. A. C.

"How will members of the present ongress explain their cowardice?"asks the St. Louis Star. They won't explain. They'll try the same old bluff and "point

If there was any way of knowing the amount of republican boodle sent into Nebraska in 1004, the sum would be so large that the $15,000 sent by the deminto insignificance.

GOVERNOR SHELDON has promised to come to Plattsmouth and orate for us on the Forth of July. The governor being a product of Cass county and havhas stuck to life even in the face of body will be glad to see him on that date. They all know George.

More complete returns from the Iowa the "practical men" who are to guide primaries indicate that Senator Allison the footsteps of the republican party in Jacob Klamm and son, W. H. Klamm patient sufferer. In 1864 Mr. Taylor has been nominated for re-election. The the coming presidential race. Owing to old man is 80 years of age, and does not the perversity of Mr. Taft's wicked ceed him in the United States Senate as whence comes the money which helps long as he is able to waddle.

THAT $15,000 sent to Nebraska in 1904 contribute as freely as they please to seems to be worrying some of our republican contemporaries. But it is not of the session." Of course it has-for E. A. Kirkpatrick and T. J. O'Day mouth, and had a competancy, for the worrying them half as much as the bil- the present at least. The congress has lion dollar congress will before the Nov- dodged every issue that promised to > believe that a presidential candidate constituents has been rigidly suppressed, shows bad taste when he stands on the phere of unanimity among members of steps of a dead president's tomb and the majority. president alleged failings, he should have se-

THE man who would defame the character of as great a soldier as General Grant, and who for two terms was elected president of the United States, as a tribute to his heroism, should never receive a vote from the old veterans. Taft is guilty of this charge at the Grant Devoe lead-and-zink wasn't sold in monument on Decoration Day in New

Great Record of the Bosses.

Among the doings of the Sixtieth Congress to which republican organs are pointing with pride, there is no emphatic mention of the more than $1,000, 000,000 of the people's money, measur ing by weight ninety-two carloads in gold which congress has voted away in departed for Omaha, where he went to a season of financial depression—a season of hard times and of suffering for many thousands of honest and industrious American workers.

While the congress is felicitated upon some time since, and while still very far the appointment of two commissions to from complete recovery, she is so far study out a plan of tariff tinkering during the recess, there is no loud boasting over the circumstances that the woodpulp tariff tax on intelligence in Ameri-

THE Journal regrets to learn that the can schools and homes as hedged about with impregnable barriers up to and beyond the day of adjournment.

There is a hurrah for the Inland Waterways commission and another for the currency commission, but the fact is not dwelt upon that of the $1,-000,000,000 appropriated not a dollar goes to the great inland waterway to which western commerce looks for relief from freight congestion and heavy freight

There is profound silence when publicity of contributions to campaign funds is mentioned. No condolences are even offered to Secretary Taft upon the fact that his recommendations for such publicity, heartily seconded by Bryan, have been saddled with an impossible rider and sent galloping over the recess until after the election. The fortitude with which Secretary Taft and President Roosevelt hear this disappointment is deserving of profound sympathy. But this is denied them by the party to elect presidents goes over for four years. The "interests" may

"On the whole the republican party has reason to be pleased with the work make trouble for the party. Every republican member who threatened to THERE are a few republicans left who talk indiscreetly in the interests of his and the session closes in a happy atmos-

calls him a drunkard. If Mr. Taft | It is a glorious record—for the bosses wanted to discuss Ulysses S. Grant's and the ma hine men But the voters who live in a hot climate, are al ways exercising their ingenuity in devising cool and unique floor coverings, which the whole world takes advantage of. We have in stock very handsome "Jappy" mattings, and also floor coverings of all kinds, from the best looms in the world, that we are selling at low prices.

Plattsmouth,

CYCLONES

Don't wait until tomorrow, but protect your property today in one of the best companies; only 15 cents per one hundred dollars. . . You cannot afford to take any chances in loosing your property at this rate. . . . A combination policy for fire, lightning, tornado and windstorm written on your farm property for twenty-five cents per year. . . .

See or write