Up to this time all had been unconscious of a fact, which Miss Marjorie Agnew, the guest of honor, arose and made known at the conclusion of the repast. She called attention that the hostess, Miss Emma Stanfield Jones, had on that day just completed her majority, and was then passing her eighteenth milestone. The pleasant afternoon which she and those gathered was also marking the eighteenth birthday of the hostess. And then arose from

STRUGGLE OVER THE CONTESTS

w. D. Jones yesterday afternoon was the scene of a crowd of happy young Credentials Committees Reverses the Standing of the Pennsylvania Delegation---Giving a Majority to Bryan.

Denyer, July 9 .- The Democratic national convention went "up in the air" when the order of business was reached of the credentials committee's report. After an all night session of that of," shouted the crowd, and there was when the convention met, and that blocked all further proceedings. But what the committee would report was pretty well known and it roused much anger and excitement. For it unseated

Two seasions of the convention wer: held, the first at noon producing a very brief address, and was followed Bryan demonstration breaking records in duration; the second at 8 p. m. bringing the culmination of the struggle over the credentials of the al lines, and then the committee on Pennsylvania delegation and the su premacy of the Pennsylvania leader, Colonel Guffey, who had been de- laghan. nonnced by Bryan. Outside of the convention the committees proceeded PITH OF THE URUCIAL REPORT with the serious work of preparing the way for convention action. The credentials committee had unseated eight of Colonel Guffey's anti-Bryan Pennsylvania delegates, thus reversing the complexion of the Pennsylvania delegation from anti-Bryan to Bryan, and precipitating the intense controversy which was fought out at the night session of the convention.

The noon meeting of the convention was productive of little practical progress, but it had the effect of the explosion of long pent-up Bryan enthusiasm, which took the signal from Sen- Nigth and Tenth districts of Illinois. ator Gore's eloquent reference to the The Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Nebraska leader, and burst into a Sixth and Seventh districts of the state whirlwind of enthusiastic tribute lasting one hour and nineteen minutes, esthe table and joined in singing "Old tablishing the convention record of an trict of the state of Pennsylvania. NIGHT SESSION IS LIVELY

Report of the Credentials Committee is Presented at Last.

It was long after the hour set before the convention was called to order at night. The credentials committee report was ready at 8:30, but Temporary Chairman Bell was not to be found for several minutes. But he finally appeared in the rostrum and called the convention to order. Then, instead of proceeding to business, Representative Hobson was remitted to address the convention on the necessity of preparing for war with Japan. He was guyed from start to finish, and made little impression on the audience even when he
