

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Wednesday Evening's Daily Journal

Miss Louise Hesser was a passenger for Omaha this morning on train No. 19.

Mrs. C. D. Clotfelter was a passenger for Omaha this afternoon on the fast mail.

John Fight was in Omaha today looking after business matters, going up on the early train.

Mrs. M. C. Whitehead, sons and daughter, were passenger on the early train for Omaha.

Ed Polin was one of those who journeyed to Omaha yesterday and viewed Ringling's parade.

Mrs. C. Dasher, of LaPlatte, was in the city this morning, going to her home on the noon train.

Fred Bock, of Omaha, spent a few hours in the city today, returning to the city by the fast mail this noon.

Mrs. John Fight and daughter were in Omaha yesterday, taking a day's outing and pleasure trip.

Mrs. E. H. Booth departed this morning for Lincoln where she goes to visit with friends for a few days.

Horatio Taylor is in Omaha today on a pleasure trip, going up on the morning train.

Geo. E. Dovey was looking after business in Omaha today, going up on the early train.

Mrs. John Donelan was a passenger for Omaha this morning, going up to spend the day.

Joe Koukal made one of Plattsmouth contingent spending the day in the metropolis today.

A. N. Sullivan was a passenger to Omaha this morning, looking after legal business in that city.

Mrs. Geo. Porter and Miss Ada Porter were two visitors to Omaha today, being passengers on train No. 19.

Mrs. E. B. Manchester, who has been in the city for several days past, visiting Mrs. Dixon, departed for her home in Omaha this morning.

H. E. Weidman is again in the city, coming down this morning to meet the adjusters and arrive at a settlement of the loss on his stationery stock.

W. J. White was among the Plattsmouth business men transacting business in the metropolis this morning, being a passenger on No. 19.

Henry Goos departed this afternoon for an outing at Sylvan Lake, Wyo., where he expects to enjoy life for several weeks.

Monte Streight came in this morning from his run on the road for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Streight.

Mrs. Carl Green who has been visiting Miss Anna Fry for several days past, departed this afternoon for her home in Lincoln.

Accidents will happen, but the best-regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

A. D. Despain, J. M. Johns and Henry Jess were a trio of Plattsmouth citizens having business to attend to in Omaha today, being passengers on the early train.

Councilman W. A. White whose long illness has occasioned his many friends much anxiety, is reported as slowly improving and it is hoped he can soon be up and around again. Everyone will be glad to have this happen soon.

Mrs. M. A. Bates and daughter Lucile departed this morning for Clearmont, Mo. for a visit with Mrs. Bates' relatives and to attend a family reunion to be held at that place. They expect to be gone about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Worley departed this morning for Omaha for several days visit with L. C. Bulger and family. The young Mr. Worley was left with Grandpa Leonard for safety, that gentleman receiving full instructions as to his care from Mrs. Worley.

P. H. Meisinger returned last evening from Omaha where he had been visiting his daughter Lena, at Immanuel hospital. He found the young lady so far advanced toward recovery that he expects to be able to bring her home next Saturday. Mrs. Chas. Manners was able to leave her bed yesterday for the first time since the operation was performed upon her and it is expected she will soon be able to return home.

Conrad Schlatter who has been feeling unwell for several days, came down this morning from home. He is feeling much better at present and contemplates on taking a trip to Lincoln shortly where he will meet W. J. Bryan. Mr. Schlatter spoke of a curious circumstance in connection with the funeral of the late Fred Stadelmann last Sunday. Mr. Stadelmann was buried in the suit of clothes in which he was married 52 years ago, an extraordinary occurrence.

A. W. Atwood, the hustling and energetic representative of the news service of the Omaha Bee, was in the metropolis this afternoon looking after business.

Fritz Ortman, of Fort Crook, came down this morning to look after some repairs he had been having made to his property here.

Clifford Cecil, son of Isaac Cecil, and his cousin, Hugh Cecil, departed yesterday afternoon for a visit with relatives at Hennepin, Ill.

I. Pearlman who had been attending to business matters in the city for several days, was a passenger to his home in Omaha last evening.

Mrs. Robert Sampson and infant daughter came over yesterday afternoon from Hillsdale, Iowa, for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Val Burkell.

Mrs. T. J. Hennessey was a passenger on the fast mail this noon for her home at Missouri Valley, Ia., having been the guest of Mrs. N. B. Schultz for several days past.

J. W. Ballard, deputy grand master workman of the A. O. U. W., is in the city in the interests of that order, expecting to remain for several days.

Mrs. M. M. Beal and children departed this afternoon for a visit of several weeks duration at Belle Fourche, S. D., with her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Kirkham.

W. D. Wheeler, democratic wheel horse and prosperous farmer, came into the city from his farm this morning to transact business and mingle with the good people.

Mrs. George Shoeman returned to her home at Louisville this afternoon after a brief visit in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Clark came in last night from their several weeks sojourn in South Dakota and Colorado.

Miss Helen Foster departed this noon for Denver, Col., where she will visit with her mother, Mrs. A. E. Todd, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Lowe have returned to the city after their several days visit in Omaha and Council Bluffs with friends.

Wm. Barclay drove out to Cedar Creek this afternoon to be absent several days attending to business matters at that point.

Monte Streight, who came in this morning for a brief visit with his parents, departed this evening for Chicago, called there by the postal authorities to take a run.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Croak of Pacific Junction, were in the city today looking after some business matters. Mr. Croak is agent at the Junction for the Adams Express Company.

Judge H. D. Travis and Court Reporter Earl Travis came up from Nebraska City Tuesday night, the Judge having completed his work at that point and adjourning court that day.

"Suffered day and night the torment of itching piles. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Ointment. It cured me permanently."—Hon. John R. Garrett, mayor, Girard, Alabama.

The brass foundry at the shops was closed down all day yesterday for lack of material. The employees in this department enjoyed their enforced vacation in various ways, hoping that they would be able to go to work again today.

L. L. Raymond of Scott's Bluff is in the city, looking after some legal matters. Mr. Raymond is a brother-in-law of W. H. Johnson, who filed the contest against the probating of the will of his brother, Samuel S. Johnson, in county court a few days ago.

Frank Roberts, whose litigation with his wife over the possession of their children was decided in his favor by Judge Beeson last week, desires the public to know that he has secured the service of Mrs. O'Brien as housekeeper assuring the fact that his children will be well taken care of.

T. J. Fryer, general storekeeper of the Burlington, and Thos. Fay, assistant storekeeper of that system, both of Chicago, are in the city today, checking up and inspecting the stock in the local storehouse. This inspection is made every little while by the head of the department and is supposed to have no significance.

Miss Alice York who won the prize for the person coming the longest distance to the celebration here, has favored her uncle, J. C. York, with a copy of the Idaho Falls Times containing a write-up of the celebration at that point. Curiously enough the celebration at that place was almost identical with the one here, the merchants forming a parade with floats very similar to the one here. The comments on the celebration were strikingly like those heard here.

Misses Mildred and Amy Cook, daughters of W. P. Cook, returned home this morning on No. 19. Miss Mildred has been taking music at the University of Iowa at Iowa City, Ia., for the past year, and Miss Amy visited her for a few days last week, the two making a brief visit with relatives at Mt. Pleasant and Salem, Ia., before their return home. Miss Mildred Cook is quite proficient with the violin, her studies of that instrument having covered a space of several years.

J. W. Lyons, mention of whose unfortunate delusion that he was General Disturbance himself was made in yesterday's Journal, has so far recovered that it was possible for him to appear before Judge Archer today and receive his sentence. The unfortunate man was suffering keenly from the effects of his spree, being very nervous. Judge Archer took into consideration his condition and gave him the minimum fine of one dollar, suspending the costs pending good behavior. The man looked not unlike the late Napoleon after Moscow as he paid the fine, his retreat from the field being made in deep gloom. He really deserved much sympathy for his dismal plight and Judge Archer is to be commended for his consideration.

Nehawka

(From the Register.)
Robert Viall lost a valuable horse last Friday evening. It was an animal that cost $200 in the spring. A veterinarian was called but could not save it.

Jimmie Banning returned from his trip to Pleasanton, where he had been visiting his brother, Chas, who is very bad and there are few hopes of his getting well.

It will only be a short time until Nehawka will have a street that is worth talking about. The big roller was put to work on Tuesday and when the finishing touches are put on it will be fine.

The river is cutting badly on the farm of Miss Jessie Todd that is occupied by Riley Eaton and will only be a matter of a few days until the barn will have to be moved in order to keep it out of the Big Muddy.

James M. Palmer, sr., of Tuscola, Michigan, the father of our "Nasby" is here on a visit, having arrived last Thursday. This is his second trip to Nehawka, and while he does not like quite so much moisture he thinks Nebraska is a nice place in which to live.

Harry Cook and wife were passengers for Auburn last Saturday. Harry informs us that the Missouri river has removed his old home and carried it down south distributing it between here and Yazoo, Miss. He had reference to the town of Barney, which the last high water completely wiped out.

Mr. Wallace Munn who has been spending the last three months on the Pacific coast returned home Monday evening in company with his daughter, Mrs. Carl Giles, who came with him from Calispel, Montana. Mr. Munn's health was such that he would be better off at his old home so he came. An injured toe on one foot has been giving him considerable trouble, making it difficult for him to travel alone, hence Mrs. Giles made the trip with him.

Mrs. Paul Kirkpatrick left for her home in Texas Friday evening via St. Joseph, where she will spend a day or so with Guy Kirkpatrick and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tucker and Miss Lillian returned last Thursday morning from their trip to Oklahoma. We are sorry to report that Mrs. Tucker is not as well as when she went away. Mr. Tucker brings back the sad news that Dick, the son of D. C. Tucker, who has been afflicted with spinal disease for some time past had lost his mind and had been taken to the asylum at Fort Supply for treatment. Mr. Tucker reports an average crop and that the people are generally very hopeful.

Just Exactly Right

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for several years, and find them just exactly right," says Mr. A. A. Felton, of Harrisville, N. Y. New Life Pills relieve without the least discomfort. Best remedy for constipation, biliousness and malaria. 25c. at F. C. Fricke & Co. drug store.

WHEN THE KETTLE SINGS

It's a sign of coal satisfaction. Want to hear the music in your kitchen? Easy—order coal from this office and yard. The output of the Trenton mine—the fuel we handle—has no superior anywhere, its equal in few places.

J. V. EGENBERGER,

'PHONE—Plattsmouth No. 22.
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.
Bell No. 351.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Thursday Evening's Daily Journal

Miss Pearl Becker and Mrs. George Kaffenberger were passengers for the metropolis this morning, going up to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Adamson departed this morning for St. Joe, Mo., going by way of Omaha. They expect to visit friends in the former city.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Long with their daughter Fern, journeyed to Omaha this morning on the early train for a day's business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. W. F. Gillespie and Mrs. J. H. Adams came in this morning from their homes at Mynard, and were visitors in Omaha for the day, going up on No. 19 this morning.

Mrs. Geo. E. Dickerson was a passenger for Omaha this morning on No. 19, going up to visit her husband who is employed by the telephone company at that point, prior to going to Belaire, Kan., for a visit.

Dr. C. A. Frank and wife who have been in the city several days representing the German Sure Cure Co. of Berlin, Germany, were passengers for Omaha on the fast mail today, expecting to return tomorrow.

Gus Roman was a passenger on the fast mail this noon for Lead, S. D., where he goes to visit friends for a short time.

Mrs. Dr. J. T. Baird and daughter, Estella, were passengers on the fast mail today, leaving for a vacation at Salida, Col., to be absent several weeks.

George Frederick was among the Omaha visitors today, going up on the early train.

Emmons Richey was among the Plattsmouth business men spending yesterday in Omaha on business.

Jack Karvanek is visiting in South Omaha today, having departed for that point this morning on the early train.

Miss Ida Johnson was a passenger for Omaha this morning, going up to visit with the family of Dr. Nystrom for a week.

Mrs. J. J. Lohnes accompanied her father, F. F. Guenther, on a brief visit to Omaha this morning, being passengers on train No. 19.

Mrs. John S. Hall made her regular weekly trip to Omaha to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables for their many customers, going on the early morning train.

A. E. Holmberg and wife departed this morning on No. 19 for Knox county where they expect to visit friends and relatives in the country for about a week.

Carl Kunsmann was a passenger for South Omaha this morning, going up to purchase some live cattle and blooded beef for the firm's high grade customers.

R. B. Windham departed this morning on No. 6 for points in southeast Kansas and Oklahoma, being called there by some real estate deals which he has pending.

Rev. Dr. Baird was among those having business in Omaha today, going up to participate in a meeting of the board of trustees of Bellevue college, of which he is a member.

Mrs. P. Carlson was a passenger for Havelock on the noon train today accompanied by her grandson. She goes up to spend a few days with her sons at that point.

J. H. Joy who has been in the city for several days, the guest of Robert Troup, was a passenger this noon for Omaha, from which point he will proceed to Chicago, Ill.

Miss Amelia and Henrietta Martens were passengers on the fast mail this noon, enroute to Stanton, Neb., where they go to spend a few weeks vacation with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Fred Dixon and son, Blair, who have been visiting T. M. Carter and family for several days departed for their home on the fast mail today, being accompanied as far as Omaha by Mr. Carter.

Mrs. Joseph Hadroba and daughters, Blanche and Helen, departed this noon for a trip to Sidney and Chappel, Neb., where they expect to visit her sister and brother-in-law and Peter Akeson for several weeks.

J. B. Meisinger, who has been taking treatment at Lincoln for rheumatism for some time past, returned to his home in Eight Mile Grove precinct, last Saturday much improved. He made a trip to the city today and his appearance was received with much joy by his many friends. He made the Journal a pleasant call, and one much appreciated. It is to be hoped that his ailment continues to disappear and that he will soon be himself again.

Levi Rusterholtz and daughter from Murray were visitors in the city today. Lige Brown of Kenosha was in the city today attending to business matters.

A. W. White was a passenger this noon on the fast mail, transacting business in the metropolis.

John U. Pope of Greenwood, was a visitor in the city today having business of importance to transact.

H. D. DeLong and wife are spending the afternoon in Omaha having boarded No. 7 for that point this noon.

Mrs. Tom Lindsey and children returned to their home in this city last night after a short visit in Murray.

Geo. Bruhl and wife were passengers on the fast mail today for Cody, Wyo., where they will visit with relatives.

Herman Smith from near Nehawka, was a visitor to Omaha today to purchase a gasoline engine for his use.

Henry Horn of near Louisville was a visitor in the county seat today, having matters of business to look after.

Miss Bessie Wilson was a traveler to Omaha on the noon train today, going up to visit with her brother at that point for a short time.

Hans' physics react, weaken the bowels, cause chronic constipation. Doan's Regulets operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation. 25c. Ask your druggist for them.

Andy Thompson one of Cedar Creek's influential citizens came in this morning and continued on into Omaha on the fast mail having business at that point to look after.

Henry Hoffert, the prominent German farmer formerly of this vicinity, but now of Plainview, Neb., came in on train No. 14 last night for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Will Rummell, and friends for about a week.

Mrs. W. B. Porter and daughter, Miss Eva, departed this morning for a month's visit at Albany, New York. They expect to find the climate in that portion of the country more enjoyable during the summer than it is here.

Mrs. Laura M. Atkinson and Miss Minnie Brecken, of Central City, who have been in the city for several days past, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Petersen, departed for Lincoln this morning for a brief visit, after which they expect to return to their homes in Central City.

W. J. Brownell, the handsome and urbane financial agent of the Plattsmouth Telephone company, was a passenger for Ashland this morning on No. 19, where he will look after some financial affairs for the company.

Chas. Manners departed for Omaha this morning with the intention of bringing his wife home on the train this afternoon, she having so far recovered from the effects of the operation recently performed upon her at Immanuel hospital as to permit her being moved.

Plattsmouth's population received another increase today, when the stork got in his work and delivered a fine baby girl to the family of John Riley, residing south of the shops in South Park. At this writing mother and child are reported as doing well.

Adam Schanz departed on the noon train today for Sterling, Col., where he goes to enter the employ of Ed. Spies. There was quite a number of friends at the depot to see him away and bid him good luck on his journey.

W. C. Benfer, the well known editor of the Black Hills Register at Lead, S. D., was secretary of the state socialist convention held there a few days ago. Chris Christensen, also a former Plattsmouthite, was a member of the convention.

Some twenty-five charming members of the St. Agnes society of the Bohemian Catholic church made up a picnic party this afternoon, going down to the bridge where they spread a delicious luncheon and had a fine time generally. They created a great sensation on Main street with their baskets and bundles and were the objects of much envy from those compelled to swelter in town.

McMaken and Son today began the work of concreting the cellar of the Fricke block at Main and Sixth streets. This hustling firm is also working on the retaining wall back of the Westcott block at Main and Fifth streets, and when they have completed the work they believe the building will be so amply protected that no further damage from water will result to it. Another large job which the McMakens have undertaken is the erection of a retaining wall along the front of Silas Long's property on Main street, between Seventh and Eighth streets. This will be an expensive piece of work and will add greatly to the value of the property.

Union

From the Leader.
C. H. Taylor departed Monday for Missouri Valley, Iowa, where he takes a line work for an insurance company during his vacation from law school.
Dr. B. F. Brendel and wife of Murray, and Dr. J. F. Brendel and wife of Zionsville, Ind., came yesterday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mark.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fitch came down from Rock Bluffs precinct last Saturday to spend several days visiting their daughters, Mrs. R. H. Frans and Mrs. Chas Frans, returning home Wednesday.

Mrs. Lee Applegate came home Thursday night of last week from Burlington Junction, Mo., where she had been taking treatment at the mineral springs, and her friends are pleased to learn that her health is very much improved.

Dr. Lynn arrived home from a trip of several weeks visiting relatives in South Dakota and taking in the scenery in Wyoming and Colorado. He says he had a grand good time and feels the benefit from his outing.

Conductor H. A. Dugay, who is running a train between Atchison and St. Joseph, passed through here yesterday, going to Omaha on railroad business. A number of his Union friends were pleased to give him the "glad mitt."

Dick Conrad took two car loads of his fat hogs to the South Omaha market Monday evening. It was a fine bunch of swine, and Dick was so proud of them that he wanted to ride in the cars with them, but the conductor wouldn't consent.

There was quite a change in the Union dray line this week, the old dray changing hands and a new one going into business. Reese Delaney sold his outfit to James and H. Gruber, and the new dray was put on the line by Chas. Diddy, so we have ample service in that branch of business.

Was in Poor Health for Years
Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes.

Elmwood
From the Leader-Echo.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lau Monday, July 6.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Corbett Monday July 6th.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rhoden Friday, July 3.

Lightning struck J. D. Fentiman's cattle shed Sunday night, killing a high grade two-year-old bull. The shed was slightly damaged and no fire resulted. The animal was insured.

M. H. Tyson severely burned one of his hands by the explosion of a roman candle while assisting with the fireworks at the park Saturday evening. Dr. Si Mairs and cactus oil relieved the injury.

Floyd L. Woolcott, cashier of the First National bank left Tuesday for Denver to attend the democratic national convention. From there he will go to Ft. Collins, Col., to spend his vacation with his mother.

Some time Saturday during the absence of the family at the park, a sneak thief entered the home of Wm. Dees-Dernier, taking therefrom a gold watch belonging to his daughter, Bessie. Nothing else was missed from the home.

Carl Schneider severely shot his left hand with a toy pistol early Saturday morning. The wound from the cartridge was driven so far into the hand that it had to be cut out. A doctor dressed the wound, and it is doing nicely.

Louis Bushkirk and family arrived Thursday last week from Grinnell, Iowa, and are visiting at the home of his brother. They are driving overland and expect to remain here a couple of weeks when they will drive to South Dakota, where they expect to locate.

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only genuine hair-food you can buy. It gives new life to the hair-bulbs. You save what hair you have, and get more, too. And it keeps the scalp clean and healthy.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufactured by SAKSAPARILLA, P.I.L.S.
CHERRY PECTORAL.

Ayer's