DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Saturday Evening's Daily Journal

this morning for a visit with friends for in the city today on business matters. a short time.

C. W. Baylor was a business visitor ha this afternoon going up to see the in Omaha this morning being a passenger on the early train.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and Miss Fay Oldham, of Murray, were visitors in town last evening coming up in the after-

Mrs. D. Hawksworth and daughter, Mrs. E. W. Cook, were passengers this morning for the north traveling on the early train.

Otto Puls, one of the substantial citizens of the county, was in the city this morning transacting business with our merchants.

Geo. W. Snyder came in this morning from his farm but hurried back as he had too much hay in the field to stay away long.

Miss Jessie Robertson was a visitor in the metropolis this morning being a passenger on No. 19. She expects to visit friends for a short time.

Chas. Stocking of Blair, who has been visiting his consin, Mrs. Henry Eikenbary, for several days past, returned to his home this morning.

Mrs. Isabel Richey who has been visiting several days with her mother Mrs. Grimes, at Union, returned to the city last evening on the Missouri Pacific.

Joe Mullin, the veteran democratic soldier of Elmwood, came in on the Missouri Pacific to visit with friends and attend to some important business.

H. P. Kepner, general inspector of the Burlington, was in the city today on one of his regular trips, returning to are spending the day in the metropolis, his headquarters at Lincoln on the fast being passengers on the early train.

Rev. Longhorst, being a passenger those journeying to Omaha this mornfor Omaha this morning to remain over ing to spend the day visiting friends. Sunday, there will be no services at St. Paul's church tomorrow. His wife ac-

Charles Cook came in from his farm south of the city this morning to transact some business matters and see if early train, going up to visit over Sur- are very fine specimens of what Nehe could learn more particulars of the day. injury to his brother John, in Furnas was in the city yesterday getting him a point. new threshing outfit. He has secured an Aultman-Taylor engine and a J. I. Case separator and intends to try and give the people of this vicinity good and prompt service. As he is a hustler he will doubtless succeed.

John P. Sattler, the undertaker, returned from Weeping Water last evening on the Missouri Pacific, he having taken the body of the late H. D. Barr to that point in themorning and finding the weather too warm to ride back

Miss Lillian Bookmeyer came down from Omaha this morning for a visit over Sunday with her mother and sisters. Miss Bookmeyer has but recently returned from an extended tour of eastern points and has again resumed her musical classes in Omaha.

D. W. Hawksworth who has been looking after business matters in Lincoln county for a week past, returned to the city this morning. In common with all other visitors to that section, he reports conditions as most encouraging, their being good prospects for heavy crops.

came in yesterday afternoon for a brief day. stay in the city. He made the Journal a very pleasant call and spent a short time basking in the sunlight of the col- visit the city this morning on business ossal intellect of this paper. Mr. O'Day matters. is making a good paper out of the Register and deserveres the support of his people.

George Prentiss came down from that point. Havelock this morning on No. 4 and returned this afternoon, taking with him little Madeline Green who has been visiting the past month with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boeck. Mr. Prentiss' hand which was badly burned sometime since is almost well now and no furthur trouble with it is anticipated.

W. C. Bartlett of Elmwood, accompanied Joseph Mullin to the city yesterday, and the two journeyed to Omaha on the noon train. Mr. Mullin has his hands full looking after him and when he gets to Omaha he has great fears he cannot keep track of him at all. However, they both claim they will be back in Elmwood not later than Monday.

John Schiappacasse, the reliable soda water man, reports a great increase in the number of sick babies since the hot weather set in. He says every Sunday morning he has many calls for sojourned in the city today. Like most Dovey and Etha Crabill. Each of them ice for sick babies, and he is puzzled to of his neighbors he is begining to worry were hits with the audience, their work know who is responsible. He thinks some over the dry weather. possibly the saloons are to blame as they are not open that day. He is will- contractor, came down this morning on were substituted and the entire proing to accommodate his friends just the No. 4 to see how his men were progress- gram as outlined was finished. Too

Martin Houk of Omaha, came down Geo. Hild, from west of Mynard, is Earl Travis was a passenger for Oma-

> Miss Helen Chapman departed on the fast mail for Omaha where she will vis-ist over Sunday. Victor Anderson departed on the fast mail for Lincoln where he will visit friends over Sunday. John E. Kirkham was an Omaha bound passenger this noon, going up to take in the ball game. visitor in the city this morning having A. J. Beeson and wife. business to transact.

Miss Jeanette Palmer, of Lincoln, is in the city the guest of Mrs. George E.

Henry Hirz, the energetic farmer drove in this morning to transact busi-

Miss Louise Kissling is a visitor in Omaha, having gone there on No. 19 this morning.

N. C. Jurgensen was a visitor from LaPlatte this morning, returning on

E. R. Anderson departed for Hamburg, Ia., on 6 this morning, travelling on business matters. Mrs. Mary Janda, of North Platte, is visiting with the family of Jos. Hiber for sometime to come. Amos McNamee and George Stites of Union are in the city today, they taking the examination for rural carriers. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holley and family

C. P. Richards and wife were among

Geo. Dodge and wife were passengers for Omaha this noon going up to visit

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mason were pas engers for Omaha this morning on the

Mrs. N. B. Schultz departed for South Omaha this noon for a brief vis-Chas. Dasher, living near Oreapolis, it with her son who resides at that

Miss Theresa Hemple was a passenger for Lincoln on the fast mail today FETE CHAMPETRE going up to visit with relatives over

C. A. Allmon came down from La-Platte to do business with the local merchants today, returning on No. 7 Entertainment at C. C. Parmele's Val Burkel and Joe Hadraba were passengers this morning on No. 19 for Omaha, intending to visit in Gibson before they returned.

the repairs for his thresher locally, journeyed to Omaha to secure them going on the fast mail.

Ed. Gensmer, from near Murray, was looking after business matters in the city today, driving in this morning.

Henry Engelkemeier from near Murray, drove in this morning to look after some business matters of importance.

this afternoon to look after some business matters with the local merchants. act comedietta was given had been Mrs. C. G. Stuckland of St. Joe, Mo., came in on No. 7 today for a visit with the lawn was covered with tables and

Adam Schafer found time to leave his prosperous fields long enough to

Mrs. J. V. Newton departed this noon for Ogallalla going by way of Omaha. She will make her future residence at

J. M. Meisinger, came in from his Eight Mile Grove precinct farm this morning to transact business with our

Mrs. W. H. Newell and daughter, Bernice, were passengers on the moon train today for Omaha where they will for the metropolis on the fast mail this noon to visit over Sunday with rela-

Grove precinct's best citizens, drove in was a brilliant success. this morning for a visit with the mer-today, returned to his home on the ham, also did some thriving business. In Schuyler this afternoon.

C. D. Woodworth, the Omaha paving ing on the relaying of Main street.

People are Finding Out

that we do just as we advertise. We advertise our flood sale in the Morgan room as a bargain event. It is. We do not use flamboyant adjectives to tell you about it. The bargains themselves talk for us. Ask your neighbors, they can tell you of its genuineness. We expect to take a big loss on these goods. We have made up our mind to that. Somebody is going to gain what we lose. You can be among the number if you come at once. Everything in the Morgan room must go at some price.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

WHERE QUALITY COUNTS

Chas. Duckworth of Nehawka, was a Ga. are in the city, the guests of Judge out. Everyone who attended can .

in this morning and was a passenger done to achieve a signal triumph. for Glenwood, where she will visit with her sister for a short time.

County Clerk Rosencrans and his brother-in-law G. A. Raker, are taking electric lighting outfit, consisting of being passengers on the fast mail.

Omaha this morning, expecting to ac- board and necessary instruments, water company his wife and other relatives to cooling tank, all complete and mounted Bellevue today to attend the 'chautau- on one base requiring only floor space

Frank McNurlin, wife and daughter and Mrs. Will Klopping, today drove usually done by a gasoline engine, be- Neb. and Mrs. I. D. Fluke of Rivershopping and look after business mat- will light lamps, run motors, electric Chas. Ayres this week. father Ham Norris, she living at Hold- pratus. This plant is it daily operation rege, this state. Mr. McNurlin paid the in Plattsmouth, and is practically new Journal a very pleasant call.

The insanity commissioners today are holding an investigation of a complaint filed by Wm. Shea against Mrs. Laura Mason, the wife of Enoch Mason, re- for the small outfit so will sell it at a Ingwerson who is staying at the home siding in South Park. There was quite an array of witnesses testifying as to the alleged insane acts of the woman and the hearing was still on as the Journal goes to press.

John Rutherford dropped into The ence necessary. their son Roy and family over Snnday. Journal office this morning and left | For price or terms write or call and with the force a fine basket of plums, see E. C. Wescott, Plattsmouth, Neb. for which he has our thanks. They braska can produce of this fruit and compare favorably with any the local markets can boast. He has 150 bushels of this luscious fruit, which brings him $1.50 a bushel.

A GREAT SUCCESS

Draws a Big Crowd--Great Talent Displayed

Despite an unfortunate breakdown Henry Thierolf being unable to get of the lights, the fete champetre given at the home of Chas. C. Parmele last night was a pronounced and brilliant success. The attendance was very large, and the proceeds netted the Presbyterians a very neat sum.

The magnificent residence and lawn of Mr. Parmele had been handsomely decorated for the occasion, a particularly fine feature being the erection of a large square of lights which made the Coon Vallery came in from his farm lawn as bright almost as noonday. The porch, on which the bright little twotastefully prepared as a stage, while Bro. O'Day of the Nehawka Register her son G. A. Stuckland for several chairs, upon which refreshments were ing part in the discussion. He argued

> In addition to the comedietta, which men formed the center piece of the fete, there were numerous other attractions, such as fortune tellers, hypnotists and the like, all of which were liberally patronized by those attending.

the audience in laughter throughout the possibility of war. Roosevelt characevening, was in more than capable terized the navy as the cheapest form hands the parts being taken by Misses of safety insurance policy the nation Cummins and Josephine Hall. All the young ladies were letter perfect and acquitted themselves with much credit. ships to be laid down in the near Miss Cummins was exceptionally good future are decided upon as the Irish cook and got much applause. Miss Mary Nemetz was a passenger The two Misses Douglas were also at their best and the audience greatly ad- he was here upon the naval island. He mired their work. Josephine Hall as inquired as to the manner of training usual was capital, her acting being of Conrad Meisinger one of Eight Mile high grade of cleverness. All in all it tronized, the seeress harvesting much in terms of high praise of the quick R. L. Stack of Murdock, who was money for the fund while the hypnotist progress made in training green men. transacting some business in the city whom many thought to be Ben Windaddition two very excellent solos were and oatswain Shicker, B who drilled William Gillespie, mayor of Mynard, rendered by Misses Ella Margaret being unusually fine.

much praise cannot be given those

Mrs. Hammond, of Omaha, with her having the fete in charge for the mascousin Miss Gotheimer of Lexington, terly manner in which it was carried away thoroughly satisfied that nothing Mrs. A. H. Graves of Murray came more could have been done than was

For Sale.

I have a bargain to offer in a complete in the sights of Omaha this afternoon one three horse power gasoline engine, one electric dynamo of thirty sixteen Thursday returning Friday. A. W. Atwood made a journey to candle power light capacity, switchof six by three feet.

The engine will perform any work in from Weeping Water to do some sides operating the dynamo, the dynamo side, Cal. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. ters. Mrs. Klopping is visiting her fans and operate other electrical aphaving been used but thirty days. I am installing a nine horse power plant to take the place of the three horse outfit and as soon as I get the large outfit in operation, I will have no further use is visiting her daughter, Miss Mellie very low figure. This outfit is made of her uncle, Mr. Chas Ingwerson. especially for use in private residence or store, is suitable for farm use as Lincoln Tuesday to visit friends and well as town and is so simple that any- relatives. one can operate it without any experi-

President Roosevelt Makes a Characteristic Speech to the Naval Officers.

GIVES HIS VIEWS OF A NAVY

Sees a Drill of the Apprentice Seamen

at Newport.

Also Makes a Few Remarks to Them -- Has a Strenuous Night En

Route, Running Down a Schooner.

Newport, R. I., July 23 .- Pleading for popular support for a "first-class fighting navy," a navy capable of seeking out the enemy and "hammering him into the quits," President Roosevelt was the central figure here in the most notable conference of United States naval officers ever called together to consult and discuss in a States battleships. The president spoke publicly for more than half an hour, and then the conference went into executive session for one hour. During this session the president took a leadserved during the progress of the pro- as a layman, be explained, and did not attempt to give advice to professional

Navy a Peace Guarantee. He impressed upon the officers, however, that it was given to them to keep the United States navy abreast of the times, and to make it the hard-hitting. efficient fighting force which he be-The sparking little play which kept lieves to be a guarantee against the Marie and Vesta Douglass, Mildred can obtain. The president has sailed for Oyster Bay, but the battleship conference will continue here and in Washington until definite plans for the Reviews Apprentice Seamen. The president spent the entire time the apprentice seamen and a few minutes later, when the battalion passed in review before him and the more advanced men gave a "setting up" and The fortune telling tent was well pa- semaphore drill, he expressed himself Pleased with What He Sees. To Admiral Merrell, Captain Fullam to say how pleased I am with the bearing, the whole tone and look of evident character of this battalion. It is a fine thing, and Captain Fullam, I per" Hutchinson, be provided with After the lights had failed, candles am particularly pleased to see it han transportation to the office of his a hospital severely injured. The fire died as it was by a warrant officer. Before Santiago in the army there we always used to say that if ever a com-

Alvo * Department

DALE S. BOYLES, Manager

Mary Ryan left for her home in Denver, Colo. Saturday.

Mrs. Minnie Gullion and Miss Stella Sheesley took the train for Omaha

Mrs. Olive Curyea took the train for Lincoln Friday returning Saturday. Little Miss Ruth Froley is visiting friends in Lincoln this week. Mrs. J. S. Grove of Cedar Rapids, Miss Minerva Tool of Murdock is visiting Mrs. Lula Stone this week.

Mrs. Mabel Johnson and Miss Fern Foreman of Lincoln visited Mrs. Inez Sutton Sunday,

Mrs. Frank Ingwerson of Raymond,

Mrs. M. L. Keefer took the train for

Miss Nellie Dreamer of Lincoln spent

Mrs. Clyde Boyles of Lincoln visited Miss Sylvia Imogene Finlay. friends and relatives in this vicinity over Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Davis of Syracuse is visitaccompanied her.

blut's of Lincoln.

visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Friend. returning to his home. Miss Estella Griffin returned from a visit with friends at Martell, Snnday. Mrs. Eva Hamel returned to her home in Nora, Neb., Thursday.

Thomas Stout this week.

Mrs. H. Clapp and Mrs. J. Woodard, of Elmwood, visited Mrs. S. C. Boyles, The Epworth League will give an ice

Miss Blanche Connor, of Plattsville, Wis. and Miss Grievish, of Lincoln are broad, general way the future United | are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Casey.

her home in Ashland and will take up Billings, Mont.

her work in Dreamer and Cashner's.

Mrs. R. A. Stone and children left Saturday morning for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. McDowell, of Cairo.

Miss Pearl Keefer has accepted a position in R. A. Stone's store.

A. A. Sieckman of Palmyra shipped a car load of hogs to Omaha over the Rock Island Monday night.

Mrs. Manda Snavely is reported on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schwin of Murdock spent Sunday with friends here. G. O. Vincent and J. M. Campbell went to Plattsmouth on business Mon-

Mrs. Cornelia Foreman visited her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Bobbitt, of University Place this week. Pearl Morgan of Eagle is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Belle Bennett, this week. Miss Belle Curyea of Greenwood is visiting her brothers, George and Wm. Curyea this week.

Misses Minnie McLaughlin and Mae spent Sunday with her brother Fred Miller of Elmwood spent last Wednesday with Miss Marie Stroemer and Mrs. Mary Skinner left for a visit in Illinois Tuesday.

Mr. C. C. Bucknell, a pioneer mering her mother, Mrs. Manda Linch. chant of Alvo, has just returned from Mrs. Davis' two little granddaughters Spokane, Wash., and has purchased the property on the corner of Russell and Dale Boyles went to Lincoln Tuesday First streets, formerly owned by Mr. to catch a game of ball for the Yung- Frolich. Mr. Rasp, the late owner, sold to Mr. Bucknell for the consider-Mr. James Alley of Des Moines is ation of $3,500.

Last Saturday night, July 18, the Mr. Alley will visit in Lincoln before Royal Neighbors entertained their husbands and families at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Appleman in honor of the return of the host and hostoss from an extended visit in the east, and in honor of Mr. Roy Campbell, nephew of the host. The fea-Miss Garnet Lee, of Greenwood, is ture of this most pleasant and beautiful visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. evening was the presentation of a new Schumann piano by Mrs. Flora B. Keefer to her daughter, Pauline. Delightful vocal and instrumental music was rendered by Misses Pearl and Pauline Keefer, Grace Foreman and Flora Boyles, Miss Pearl Keefer rendering cream social on the church lawn Friday "La Danse des Demons" in a most pleasing manner. Games were played and fortunes told in a most interesting manner by Miss Pauline Keefer. Several little Misses served a dainty and refreshing luncheon. Mr. Campbell, Miss Vyra Wolfe has returned from the guest of honor, is an abstractor at missioned officer were killed the sergeants would take the army into Santiago. I believe in the enlisted men of dent of the United States the dazed the American navy with all my heart: I believe that we now have the enlisted men brought to such a point that if | dent's words of regret over the mis-In battle on a given ship the commis- hap, and his provision for their joursloned officers were to be killed, the enlisted men would be capable of bringing the fight to a victorious conelusion, and doing it all, fire control and everything."

NOT DOWN ON THE BILL

President's Yacht Runs Down

Schooner in a Fog

When the Mayflower steamed into the harbor here nearly two hours bethe bow, she brought the story of an adventurous night's run in the blackest fog of the summer, and of a colli er Menaa was cut practically in two by the president's yacht. The schooner's crew was taken on board, and when the Mayflower arrived here the presi dent, who knew nothing of the accident and the danger of the collision that they be given sufficient money to take them to their homes in Maine and that the master of the schooner "Skip-agents in New York. Having been picked suddenly out of the family were asleep.

the blackness of a nasty night and set down on board the yacht of the presimen who had lost their boat did not know just how to respond to the presiney home. Commander Snowden, who summoned the men to his cabin and in which he took their statements for use in an investigation which he immediately requested the navy department at Washington to undertake.

There was no excitement of any sort on the yacht at the time of the collision. The yacht's lifeboat crew got away their craft in fine style. The men on the schooner had launched a boat immediately after the Mayflower had struck them, and were rowing away from the wreck when the Mayflower's boat hailed them.

Louisiana Parish Goes Dry.

New Orleans, July 23 .- In a local option election Vermillion parish voted for prohibition by a small majority. Nearly 30,000 people live in the par-

Two Children Burned to Death. Clevelad, July 24 .- In a fire which destroyed the dwelling of James Jarasky, south of the city limits, two children were burned to death, Jarasky and a four-year-old daughter are at broke out while all the members of