

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Friday Evening's Daily Journal

C. D. Woodworth is in the city looking after his paving business.

R. E. Mayfield is looking after business matters in Omaha this afternoon.

Geo. Falter was transacting business in Omaha today, going up on the fast mail.

Hear Ralph Hammond a good baritone singer at the Majestic theater tonight.

G. Knapp and Geo. Dovey, jr., were passengers this morning on No. 19 for Wahoo.

Chas. E. Clapp was in the city this morning from Elmwood to attend to legal business.

Peter Roucka and wife were passengers this noon for the metropolis to enjoy a day's visit.

Ed. Polin was looking after business matters in Omaha this afternoon, being a passenger on the fast mail.

Ralph Allen returned this noon from Pacific Junction, where he has been visiting with his uncle, Epperson, for a few days.

Frank Richardson, of South Omaha, passed his bachelor hours Sunday with relatives at Mynard. Mrs. Richardson is still absent in the east.

Miss Mary E. Foster, Cass county's excellent superintendent of schools, spent Sunday with her parents at Union, returning to her duties here last evening.

James K. Pollock, auditor of the Omaha Independent Telephone Company, spent Sunday in the city, visiting with relatives. He returned to Omaha Sunday night on the Missouri Pacific.

J. C. Kimler, of Platteville, Wis., who has been visiting in this vicinity for several days past, the guest of O. D. Marks and Will Oliver and their families, returned to his home Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. M. Freeman and family, who have been visiting in Union, the guests of Geo. Saxson and family, arrived in the city this morning, en route to Clarinda, Ia., for which point they took the Burlington's morning train.

Wm. Ely and wife, of Omaha, were in the city over Sunday, the guests of T. E. Parmele and family, returning home this morning. Mr. Ely is an old-time ball player of considerable note, his hands bearing evidence to this effect.

C. Bengen was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha, from which point he will go to Oberlin, Kas., for a visit with his daughter who lives there. Mrs. Bengen brought him in from his home at Mynard, she returning after his departure.

Rev. M. O. McLaughlin, pastor of the First United Brethren church, of Omaha, returned to his home in this city this morning after having occupied the pulpit for Rev. Brink south of this city. Miss Mabel Adams accompanied him for a visit with his family.

John McNurlin came in this morning from a brief visit to Cullom, Cedar Creek and Louisville. He was accompanied by Mrs. C. M. Seibert and children from Mt. Pleasant precinct, who will visit with his family for a few days, Mrs. McNurlin being a sister of Mrs. Seibert.

Miss Edna Hanks, a niece of J. G. Hanks, who has been in the city several days, visiting with Mr. Hanks' family, departed for her home at Canon City, Colo., today. Mrs. J. C. Hanks and daughter, Mabel, accompanied her as far as Omaha. Miss Mabel Hanks returned last Saturday from a visit at Canon City with her relatives.

Lake Manawa had for guests a bevy of Plattsmouth's pretty girls, the party being Misses Madge Churchill, Matilda and Christine Soennichsen and Lucille Weber. The young ladies were passengers on the early train and will put in a whole day in enjoying themselves by the cool waters of the lake and indulge in boating and bathing and the other kindred attractions of the resort. They will return on the evening train today.

Mrs. Frank Higley and son departed for Omaha today after a visit in the city, the guest of Mrs. J. B. Higley. Mrs. Lown, of Kansas, who has also been visiting with Mrs. Higley, departed for her home also today. Mrs. Lown has been suffering from the effects of an accident at Council Bluffs, Ia., a few weeks ago when a carriage in which she was riding was struck by an automobile and demolished. Mrs. Lown's arm was broken and she was otherwise injured, but she is now in a fair way to recover completely in a few days.

Mrs. Emil Walters, son Edgar, and daughter, Mrs. Roy Tarrant were passengers this morning for Omaha from which point Mrs. Tarrant will leave Gillette, Wyo., her home. Mrs. Walters and son will visit in the metropolis during the day.

Bert VanHorn came in this morning from Cedar Creek on the Schuyler.

C. L. Carlson was among those journeying to Omaha today to take up his regular work.

Miss Jo Clifford is spending the day in Omaha, having been a passenger on No. 19 this morning.

Don C. York returned to his duties in Omaha this morning after a Sunday with his parents in this city.

D. T. Thacker, from the vicinity of Union, was in the city today to talk over matters with the county commissioners.

Mrs. Allen Trostler and family departed this morning for McPaul, Ia., where they will visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Melinda McCoy was a passenger for McPaul, Ia., this morning, where she will visit with friends for a few days.

Mrs. Christine Doring is spending the day in Omaha, having been a passenger on the early morning train for that city.

Mrs. Grace Hosford, who is visiting in LaPlatte, came in this morning to attend to some business, returning to LaPlatte on the noon train.

J. C. Coleman and wife were passengers this noon on the fast mail for Lincoln, where they will visit until tomorrow, when they expect to return.

Mrs. Anna Askwith of Omaha, is the guest of Supt. Askwith and wife at the Masonic Home. The lady expects to make quite an extend visit in this city.

Mrs. Ollie Skinner, who has been visiting in the city for several days, the guest of Mrs. Mike Lutz, departed this morning for Lincoln and Palmer, Neb.

Oliver Hudson, wife and three children, who have been visiting in South Dakota for some time past, returned to their home in this city Saturday evening.

Geo. Duerr, of Louisville, came in this morning on the Schuyler and journeyed to Omaha on the fast mail to look after some business matters prior to his return home.

Miss Ruth Patterson, who has been in the city for some past, making an extended visit as the guest of C. W. Baylor and family, departed for her home in Omaha Saturday.

John Lloyd departed this morning for Boone, Ia., where he expects to enter the service of the C. & N. W. railway. He expects to be sent shortly to Escanaba, Mich., by that company.

James Archer and Miss Parsons of Omaha who were in the city over Sunday, visiting relatives of Mr. Archer returned to the metropolis this morning.

J. E. Tuey has commenced the construction of the concrete walk along his property on Sixth street, the cinders for the walk being unloaded and put in place today.

Mrs. Walter Speck, who has been in the city for some time visiting with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. George Poisal and family, departed this morning for Omaha, where she will make her home in the future.

Rev. J. H. Salsbury departed this morning for Breckenridge, Mo., going by way of Lincoln. Mr. Salsbury expects to be absent for the remainder of this week, having important business engagements which he must fill.

Miss M. Margaret Mauzy departed last evening for Chicago, Ill., where she goes to take a position with a millinery house as a trimmer. Miss Mauzy learned her trade in this city and is considered a finished trimmer. A large number of her friends were at the depot to witness her departure.

Wm. Shera, the genial Rock Bluffs farmer and fruit raiser, is in the city today, and while here joined The Journal's large list of subscribers. Will has a magnificent crop of peaches this year and is in a position to fill the wants of his neighbors in this line. He reports things as quite dry in the Rock Bluffs section, and is hoping for a good rain.

The only business today in the district clerk's office was the filing of the transcript and the docketing of the case of Minnie Osborn vs Albert Pope. This is the bastardy case from Greenwood which had its examination before the late Justice Barr shortly prior to his death. The case will come up at the September term.

John W. Vallery and wife came in yesterday morning from Denver for a brief visit with Mr. Vallery's relatives. Mr. Vallery is general agent for the Burlington at Denver and his mission east was to secure a special car in which to make an extensive tour of the territory under his jurisdiction. He departed for Omaha on the early train this morning, Mrs. Vallery following him later, from which point they will take the special car for the west.

Edwin Jeary, the Elmwood banker, was in the city today on legal business.

Mrs. D. O. Dwyer was in Union over Sunday, the guest of Miss Jessie Todd.

T. M. Patterson is looking after business matters in Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. John Cory and daughters, Florence and Frances, are visiting in Omaha this afternoon.

Eph. Sherwood made a visit to Omaha last night, going up on the M. P. and returning this morning.

Harry Kearney of Council Bluffs, Ia., spent Sunday in the city, the guest of Mrs. P. E. Ruffner, his cousin.

J. H. Waterman, storekeeper for the Burlington at Lincoln, was in the city today looking after company business.

C. H. Meisinger, of Benson, came down Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his father, J. B. Meisinger, sr.

Wm. Gillespie, grain merchant and general citizen of Mynard, was in the city a few hours Saturday afternoon.

Henry Kingery, wife and children were passengers this morning on No. 19 for Omaha, where they will spend the day.

Miss Lily Hamilton, who is the guest of Miss Gertrude Beeson, is spending the day in Council Bluffs, Ia., visiting her mother.

Miss Mae Murphy was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha, where she will spend the time between trains shopping.

Miss Lillian Bookmeyer after visiting her mother and sister in the city over Sunday, departed for her duties in Omaha this noon.

Writing tablets of all kinds and sizes such as note and letter heads can be had at the Journal office at prices reasonable and fair.

Wm. Deles Dernier, the Elmwood attorney, came in from that place this morning, having business to attend to here during the day.

Ralph Sherwood was in the city over Sunday, the guest of his family and to visit his brother George, returning to Nebraska City last night.

Mrs. O. Guthmann is in the city from her home at Rock Springs, Wyo., coming in to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Gus Olson, for a short while.

Chas. Duke, who is now employed at Omaha, spent Sunday with his family in this city, returning to Omaha on the Missouri Pacific in the evening.

Fred W. Lehnhoff visited over Sunday in the city with his mother and sister, returning to Omaha on the Missouri Pacific yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. H. D. Travis and daughter, Helen, who have been spending several weeks at Denver, Col., and vicinity arrived home last Saturday night.

John Fitz Roberts of South Omaha was in the city Sunday visiting with his brother Joseph and family, returning to his home on the evening train.

T. M. Campbell and son from near Murray were passengers this noon on the fast mail for Omaha, where Mr. Campbell will look after business matters.

W. H. Pitzer, the prominent attorney of Nebraska City, was in the city today on legal business. He was accompanied by L. E. Carstens of Greenwood, Ia.

Gabe Austin, one of Union's popular and genial citizens, came up Saturday evening for a few hours' shopping in the city and to visit old friends, returning on the midnight train.

Fred Hesse, the meat market man of Union, came up from that point yesterday afternoon to negotiate with the local ice baron for a car of ice for his market and the old settlers' picnic.

Chas. Caldwell, a prominent insurance man of Lincoln, is in the city today looking after business. Although he is a republican, Mr. Caldwell states that his travels over the state, indicate Bryan will carry Nebraska, though he himself is a strong Taft man.

A. W. White was visiting friends in Nebraska City yesterday, returning on the evening train. He was much encouraged over the prospects for a good corn crop between the two cities, finding the reported damage from drouth much exaggerated. However, there has been much more rain south of Union than in this vicinity.

Lige Brown, who has been absent some two weeks visiting relatives and enjoying a vacation at Onawa and other northwest Iowa points, came home Saturday evening. He is looking and feeling fine, and reporting himself as having an excellent time. He enjoyed some fine fishing during his absence. He drove down to his home at Kenosha on Saturday evening.

Yesterday was one of the most delightful days of the year and a party of Plattsmouth people took advantage of it, to gather at Swallow Hill and enjoy a pleasant outing of a day's duration. Most of the time was put in bathing altho the pleasant shade proved alluring. The party had provided themselves with a lunch which was served upon the grass. The party comprised the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Austin, Mrs. Jos. McMaken and family, Guy McMaken and family, Walter Scott and family and C. W. Baylor and family. The party made up two large carry-all loads.

Delightful Party.

Yesterday afternoon, at the handsome residence of Mrs. A. E. Gass on Vine street, was held one of those delightful informal bridge-whist parties for which that lady is noted.

The hostess had prepared some most elegant refreshments for her guests, and they were entertained charmingly. The refreshments were served by the hostess' two accomplished daughters, Lucile and Helen. Immediately following the refreshments, Misses Edith Martin and Mathilde Vallery entertained the guests with choice solos given as only these talented ladies can give them—splendidly. They both received much applause.

The afternoon could not have been more pleasantly spent. Those present included Mesdames Carl Fricke, W. L. Pickett, T. P. Livingston, A. L. Britt, Kate Minor, Wm. Streight, Wm. Clement, and Misses Dora Fricke, Mathilde Vallery, Barbara Gering, Mia Gering, Claire Dovey, Florence Dovey, Campbell, Foster, Edith Martin, Verna Leonard, Lena Fricke, and Miss Florence Waugh of Lincoln.

The Stork Visits in Greenwood.

Hon. R. B. Windham is going about the streets today with a regular "Sunny Jim" smile—one of the kind that won't come off. He also is shaking hands with everyone he meets and manifesting such symptoms of good feeling that his conduct excites comment. Ye reporter, anxious to trace down the cause of this exuberance, has discovered that the reason for this unusual manifestation is the arrival of the stork at the home of Rbt. Windham, jr., at Greenwood. It brought with it a bouncing baby girl, weighing eight pounds. Under all these circumstances it is no wonder Grandpa Windham feels fine. Both mother and child are doing well.

Rumors of Marriage

Announcement reaches this city of the approaching marriage of a former Plattsmouth boy. Fred Hawksworth now the representative of the Standard Oil Company at Norfolk, Neb., is reputed to be the lucky fellow. It is said that he is to be married on Sept. 2 to Miss Drew Brush of Ashland.

His many friends in this city are congratulating him upon the happy occasion. Miss Brush is quite well known in this city among the younger generation all of whom speak of her in the highest terms. She is the daughter of a prominent druggist of Ashland and the family is one of the most prominent in the state. Mr. Hawksworth is one of the most popular young men of this city, and one who is worthy of this most excellent lady.

The Glenwood Chautauqua

Ed. Schulof came over from Glenwood Sunday to spend the day in the city visiting with his folks. Mr. Schulof has been interesting himself in an effort to secure a stub train from Pacific Junction to this city the night of the Innes band concert at Glenwood and expected to be able to definitely say today whether this would be done or not. If the train is obtained, it will be possible for lovers of music to go over on the morning train and hear two concerts by this world-famed organization, returning at night after the close of the concert. He also will try to have No. 2 stopped there that day.

Is Compelled to Lay Off

C. A. Welch, the well known Burlington bridge man, was down on the street today for the first time in five days, he having been laid up with water on his knee cap. Some three weeks ago Mr. Welch had an attack of this complaint and was compelled to lay off until about a week ago when he returned to work. He found, however, that he had started too early, not having fully recovered from the attack of several weeks previous and after working for a day and a half, he was compelled to give up and return home. He is much better today and thinks that it is only a question of a few days until he will have fully recovered.

A Pleasant Gathering

"Riverview," the charming home of Miss Tillie Ploeger, was the scene last Thursday night of an entertainment in honor of Miss Elsa Streitweiser, who will depart soon for an extended trip over the western states. The evening was spent with games, music and recitations. Jennings Seivers and Glen Mullis favored the gathering with a duet entitled "The Land of Bohemia," which was well received, while Miss Ploeger entertained her guests with the recitation of "Osler Joe," which served to delight all who heard her.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and lemonade wound up a most delightful evening. Those present were Misses Elsa Streitweiser, Mary Sanders, Kate and Louisa Hesse, Freda Wohlfarth, Ethel Jones, Anna Deutsch, Josie and Agnes Swartz, Kate Reinhackel, Minnie Ploeger, Alta and Muri Barthold, Jessie Ledgway, Dora Sanders and Tillie Sanders, and Messrs. Henry Hesse, George Gobelman, Harold Williams, Frank Barkus, Harry Rice, Jennings Seivers, Glen Mullis, Wm. Ofe, Jas. and Wm. Andrews, Jos. Grebe, Casper Pape. The party closed by all singing "Red Wing" and "My Old Kentucky Home."

THE THRIVING LITTLE CITY OF GREENWOOD

Where Push and Enterprise Seems to Predominate With the Leading Business Men.

Last Friday and Saturday The Journal roustabout spent in Greenwood and vicinity in the interest of this great and prosperous paper. Friday afternoon, in company with our good friend, B. F. Laughlin, we took a spin several miles to the northeast of Greenwood and found many of the farmers threshing, there being three machines in the immediate vicinity threshing the golden grain, averaging from 15 to 30 bushels per acre.

While out in this beautiful section of Cass county we called on several farmers, among whom were George B. Zeigler, J. K. Browning, H. W. Meisner and John Kirker, the only ones we could find in our drive who were not already readers of The Journal. They, of course, desired the best paper ever published in Cass county and enrolled their names as patrons. In this same territory we called on Jos. Halmas, a son of our old German friend, Nick Halmas, who lives west of this city. We found Joe busy with his threshing and did not tarry long. Mr. Halmas has a most excellent farm and recently had erected a fine, large residence, which is one among the most beautiful and imposing farm houses in that section.

The farmers in the vicinity of Greenwood have been blessed with several showers of rain in the past two weeks, and consequently the corn, generally speaking, looks quite healthy. We spent the night

In Greenwood.

And the next morning started out to visit a number of our friends and to make as many new ones as possible. The town boasts of several general stores, a hardware store, one of the finest meat markets in the county, two elevators, one saloon, one bank, one hotel, and many of the handsomest and most comfortable homes to be found in the county. There are several business houses that deserve more than simply a passing notice, chief among which is

The Stone Mercantile Co.

One of the finest general stores it has ever been our pleasure to enter. Mr. Stone, the general manager, came to Greenwood several years ago and has built up a business of which anyone should be proud. His store is very neatly arranged, and on entering, one can see at a glance that Mr. Stone is an up-to-date merchant. Even his show windows are arranged in such a manner as to impress one with the idea that the manager is alive to the needs of his many patrons. As a window dresser, as well as a merchant; Mr. Stone is right up with other merchants of towns twenty times the size of Greenwood. Mr. Stone is an all-round business man, is very popular with the people, always endeavors to carry goods that his patrons want, which adds materially to the immense business done. He employs several clerks, among whom are two of Greenwood's most charming

In District Court.

H. H. Carroll has this day filed an appeal undertaking from Justice Archer's court, in the case in which he sues the village of Elmwood and six of its citizens, to the district court. Mr. Carroll seems confident of a reversal in the district court.

Peaches! Peaches!

For this week only the undersigned will have many bushels of peaches to dispose of at 60c per bushel in the orchard. The peaches are of fine grade. Call at my place in Rock Bluffs.

W. S. SHERA.

Increase the Pleasure of Your Vacation by taking a

KODAK

There is nothing so pleasant as to have a record of the good times and the interesting places.

We Will Teach You

if you are a beginner, and will guarantee that you can make satisfactory pictures

WITHIN A WEEK

GERING & CO.,

SOLE AGENTS