Better be a bank-account man than a no-account man. The way to prosperity and happiness is paved with good intentions put into execution. Returns From Mexico.

Charles Boedecker, of Murray, returned this morning on No. 19 from a trip to Las Vegas, N. M., near which city he purchased some land. Mr. Boedecker departed for that point last Tuesday week, and after arriving there made a very careful examination of the property in that vicinity, finally making his purchase. His land lies sixteen miles east of Las Vegas and near the Santa Fe Hot Springs. Mr. Boedecker is greatly pleased with the magnificent climate of that country and the promising outlook before it. He found that almost all known crops could be raised, the land being fertile and rich with an abundance of rainfall. During the time he was there it rained every day but one, but the rainfall was of the right kind. There was no violent down-pour, but a steady fall which soaked into the ground, doing it much good. He made the trip over the Santa Fe road from Kansas City, returning to this city by the K. C. and Burlington roads.

A Fishing Party Have Nice Time— Surprise to Louis Ranard.

KING HILL, NEB., Aug. 24, 1908.

A few days ago George Smith (our worthy king snipe) and family concluded they would spend a day on the river fishing and having a good time. They loaded their buggy with good things to eat and went to Fred Patterson's, where preparations had also been made for a good time. The first thing was something to eat, after which the seine was loaded on the boat and both families went fishing and wading in the warm water. The river bottom is very uneven and Mr. Smith got out to lift the boat over a shallow place, when he took one step too many and under he went, all but his hat. After clawing off about one hundred feet of the seine, he kicked loose and got hold of the side of the boat and got in (he said he got wet) and said he did not find bottom. After the first catch, with Mr. Smith in the seine, the fish were small, but nice.

Thursday evening, August 20, 1908.— Mr. Louis Ranard came in from a hard day's work, and was getting ready to spend a quiet evening with his family, when he was surprised to see his friends come in, and two at a time, until someone asked him how old he was. Then he remembered it was his birthday. The evening was spent with games, plays and pleasant conversation. A fine lunch was served and all stayed until a late hour. Those present were: Mr. Wesley Bennett and wife, Isaac Cummings and wife, Fred Patterson and family, Ora and Winnie Hutchison, Leona Lambert, Ernest and Roy Hutchison, Eddie and Ralph Ranard and Mr. Ranard and wife.

An Important Decision.

It has been brought to the notice of the well known manufacturer of Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine that in some parts of the country a special tax is required for the sale of this remedy. He at once notified the government and received the decision that Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and Triner's Angelic Bitter Tonic are both recognized as medicines and can be sold without a special tax. Our people have known this for years, because in maladies of the digestive organs these remedies always give the best satisfaction. The factory of Mr. Jos. Triner is a model of cleanliness, and the herbs and wine used in the manufacture of his specialties are of the best possible quality. Use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine in all cases of loss of appetite and of bodily strength. All drug stores. Jos. Triner, 616-622 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

HEAVY TRADING CAUSES FAILURE

A. O. BROWN & CO., BIG BROKER-AGE FIRM, GOES TO WALL.

LIABILITIES VERY LARGE

May Be Over $1,000,000—Stock Market Made Nervous by Result of Last Saturday's Spectacular Session.

New York, Aug. 26.—The failure of the big brokerage firm of A. O. Brown & Co., for a sum popularly estimated as running well above $1,000,000, sent a nervous thrill through the stock market Tuesday. Coming as a climax to the bewildering trading in last Saturday's market, the suspension created an extraordinary degree of public interest, but was looked upon by high stock exchange interests as offering an early solution of the tangle growing out of the most remarkable two hours' session the New York stock exchange has known in many years.

While there was no question in Wall street that the situation created by the failure could easily be taken care of, there was distinctly a feeling of apprehension lest other firms might unwittingly be drawn into the affair as a result of the extensive orders scattered through commission houses during Saturday's spectacular proceedings.

Enormous Trades Not Settled.

The transactions of A. O. Brown & Co., covered nearly 75 per cent. of the trading in the sensational week-end session of the stock market and it was stated officially by a member of the firm that delivery had been made on only 277,000 of the more than 700,000 shares handled. How many of the outstanding shares represent the dealings of customers and how many were carried on the firm's account it was impossible to learn.

The afternoon was filled with rumors as to various outside sources that may have been responsible for the course of the firm in Saturday's market, when the total sales recorded on the floor of the exchange for the two hours of trading amounted to more than 1,100,000 shares, as against one-third of a million during the full five-hour session of Monday, but most of these were dissipated. Mr. Buchanan, a member of the firm, announced positively that the firm had had no relations whatever with Thomas W. Lawson.

Was a Very Large Firm.

A. O. Brown & Co. were members of the New York stock exchange, New York cotton exchange, Chicago stock exchange, Chicago board of trade and the Cleveland stock exchange. They had branch houses in Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, Erie, Pa., and Toronto. In this city they maintained expensive branch offices in four of the fashionable hotels and at two uptown addresses. Their principal office was at 30 Broad street, but a few doors from the stock exchange building. Within the past few months the firm had spent $75,000 in refurbishing its Broad street home.

The membership of the firm included Albert O. Brown, Lewis Ginter Young, G. Lee Stout, Edward F. Buchanan, Samuel C. Brown and W. Rhea Whitman. Private wires were maintained to all principal cities. The extensive trading of the firm, it is believed, was confined largely to New York, despite the fact that the house had made a specialty of western business. Although organized only in the latter part of 1902, the firm had come to take a prominent part in trading on the stock exchange floor. John W. Rhoads, cashier of the firm, was named as assignee, with D. W. Noel as counsel.

Creditors Force Failure.

When the failure was announced a member of the firm said that its affairs were in a badly tangled condition as the result of Saturday's trading and that it was thought best to make an assignment at once. It is understood that brokerage firms who were awaiting the delivery of stock from A. O. Brown & Co., became impatient along toward noon and sent word that they would allow but a few more hours of grace. All attempts to secure further delay were futile and the suspension followed.

It was also said that the banks which carried the accounts of the house declined Tuesday, because of the unsettled condition in the affairs of the firm following Saturday's spectacular business, to further certify any of its checks.

SCORES CHURCH; KILLS SELF.

Former Presbyterian Pastor Commits Suicide in New York.

New York, Aug. 26.—Ill, half blind, criticizing the church on the score of untruthfulness and insincerity and declaring that he could not worship "America's trinity—success, pleasure and gold," Rev. Albert H. Trick shot and killed himself in a room in Mills hotel Tuesday. He was once pastor of a Presbyterian church in Chicago, and later had a charge at Saratoga, N. Y., but had no regular pastorate for several years, obtaining an insecure livelihood as an insurance agent.

In a remarkable letter, which he left to Charles N. Dowd of this city, who had befriended him, the former pastor declared that he was lonely even in the church when he attempted to "square his soul by the teachings of Jesus," and asserted that the modern church more nearly follows the example of Robert Ingersoll than those of Jesus.

PRESIDENT TAKES A TRIP.

Goes to Jordanville, N. Y., for Dedication of a Library.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 26.—The president, Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt left Oyster Bay on the yacht Sylph at 5:30 p. m., Tuesday, for Jordanville, N. Y., where the president will attend the dedication of a public library erected in honor of the mother of Douglas Robinson, the president's brother-in-law. Gov. Magoon of Cuba accompanied the president to New York city.

Cuban Elections Nov. 14.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 26.—That the presidential and congressional elections in Cuba would be held on November 14 next, and that the inauguration of the newly-elected president would take place on January 28, 1909, was the announcement made by Charles E. Magoon, governor of Cuba, following his conference with President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill Tuesday.
