DELIGHTFUL REUNION

Of The Lewis H. Young Family At Wayne, Nebraska.

On September 13th, 1908, near the beautiful little city of Wayne, Wayne county, Nebraska, a reunion of an honored family took place, at which a number of former Cass county people participated.

This reunion took place especially in honor of one of Cass county's earliest pioneer women, Mrs. Lewis H. Young, born February 22, 1825, and now in her 84th year.

Here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rosa B. Phipps, and her husband, this loved and venerable pioneer lady, looked backward over two generations—her children and grandchildren; and but for sickness, another generation would have been present—her great grandchildren.

This family reunion was represented as follows: Mrs. Lewis H. Young of Carroll, Wayne county, Neb. Her sons, Jasper W. Young of Plattsmouth and his wife, Mrs. Mattie E. Young; Byron E. Young of Carroll, Neb.; Eddie Young and wife, Mrs. Emma Young, of Carroll, Neb., and their five boys, Jodie, Bennie, Bernard, Ernest and Edgar—Jodie and Bennie being twins, fifteen years old.

The daughters present were Mrs. Rosa B. Phipps and her husband, Edward E. Phipps of Wayne, Neb., and their children—Harry, Gertrude, Herbert, Eva and Lessie. Mrs. Luella A. Olmstead, and her husband, William R. Olmstead, of Carroll, Neb.

All the children were present except one daughter—Mrs. Joanna Johnson, who died a number of years ago, leaving two children, a son, Harvey Johnson, residing at Murray, Neb., and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Manners, residing at Plattsmouth, Neb.

Mrs. Manners' two children—Josephine and Harold are the only great-grandchildren living, but were unable to be present at the reunion, and, likewise were Mrs. Manners and Harvey Johnson unable to attend.

At this beautiful farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Phipps, were assembled representatives of three generations, the venerable mother, grandmother and children and grandchildren.

Around the festal board, loaded with the choicest viands, loved, honored and venerable age with joyous, hopeful youth gathered to enjoy sociability and to partake of a bounteous dinner which Mrs. Phipps knows so well how to prepare.

A somewhat unusual variation from the ordinary of a family reunion was a feature of the happy occasion. From early childhood, the son, Eddie Young, had shown a marked talent for instrumental music and early in young manhood became an expert violinist. As years advanced he became a leader and teacher in instrumental music. Of Eddie's five sons, three—Jodie, Bennie and Bernard—are likewise musicians, and on this occasion, Eddie and his sons with band instruments and violin, delighted the participants with a number of choice selections.

Mrs. Young, the honorary guest and her husband, the late Lewis H. Young, were among the earliest pioneer settlers of Cass county, having located on a farm near old Three Groves in 1855, where all their children were born with the exception of Jasper and Byron, who were born in Mills county, Ia.

Altogether this reunion of the Lewis H. Young family was a most enjoyable affair to all concerned, and one that will long be remembered by the participants.

Sedentary Work.

Mr. Jos. Kozem, Slovenic correspondent, Chicago, Ill., wrote us the following: "I am working all day at my writing machine and was suffering for lack of exercise, from loss of appetite and indigestion. After trying many kinds of powders and pills my attention was called to Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. In a few days my appetite began to appear and now I can eat anything. It is certainly my duty to recommend it to all who have a poor appetite." People of sedentary habits are often troubled with indigestion, constipation and other difficulties. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the only remedy for them. It stimulates the digestive organs to an increased activity and keeps them strong and healthy. Use it in all maladies of the stomach and the bowels. At drugstore, Jos. Triner, 616 to 622 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

All sorts of excuses are being offered by the republican national committee to explain the success of the guaranty law in Oklahoma. The real reason is best explained by the man at Alvo who sent his deposit to the Chickasha bank where it drew good interest and was guaranteed by the law. That is what counts. Look about in your neighborhood and see if there isn't someone else who has sent his funds where they would be safe.

SEVEN RESCUERS CUT OFF BY FIRE

WHITE MAN AND SIX INDIANS THOUGHT TO BE DEAD.

DANGER IS NOT YET OVER

Naval Militia Officers Say Lutsen, Near Grand Marais, Probably Will Be Destroyed by Flames.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 16.—Grand Marais is girdled by roaring mountains of fire and smoke and it is believed that a man named Monker and six Indians, cut off from town by fire in their efforts to save homesteaders at Nester, have perished in the flames. This was the news brought in at noon Tuesday by Adj. Gen. Wood and officers of the Minnesota naval militia, who arrived on the Gopher from the north shore. The Gopher came in for coal and provisions and returned to Grand Marais at night.

Lutsen in Greatest Danger. The officers say the danger is not yet over by any means. Lutsen, a small settlement near Grand Marais, is in the greatest danger, say the naval militiamen. It is surrounded by fire and everything there seems doomed to destruction, although it is not thought that any loss of life will occur. For the fate of Monker and the six Indians who went Monday night to Nester, a homesteader's settlement not far from Grand Marais, there are very grave fears.

"The men started out from the town in an attempt to save some of the party located on the Nester road, and the fire swept in behind them and the village, and it is thought that they have perished," said Gen. Wood of the Gopher. "Unless they were able to escape in the other direction, they are lost. Their chances of escaping the other way are very slim because a big fire was coming toward them from farther inland.

"At Colville, six miles from Grand Marais, everything went," said Gen. Wood. "Among those burned out there were Mrs. H. Shepard, Iver Johnson and Eli Mizenia."

Men Left to Fight Flames. The situation looked very bad at Chicago Bay," said Commander Eaton, "and some people wanted us to declare martial law there but we did not deem it necessary. However we left ten men from the ship there. Forty men from the boat were left to fight the fire at Lutsen and 20 were left at Grand Marais. As soon as we secure coal and provisions here we will start back on the Gopher and will be there in the morning."

The officers of the Gopher declare the gravity of the situation on the north shore has not been exaggerated in the least and that the Gopher was of great service to the people.
