THE FARMERS' ELEVATOR AT MURRAY

The Stockholders to Meet Next Tuesday to Receive the Work.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Elevator Company at Murray next Tuesday, Sept. 29th, to formally take over the new elevator which they have recently had constructed on the M. P. at that point. The elevator is a corrugated iron building with a capacity of twenty thousand bushels and is a modern up-to-date building. The advent of this new company in the field means much to the farmers of the vicinity of Murray and a great deal to the merchants and business men of that live town. It will put a competing element into the market for grain there and result in better prices for the product to the grower while it establishes a new industry in the town and by pushing up the price in the market for grain will bring increased trade to this little city which is already one of the best in the county. The meeting will be largely attended, the company having a total of one hundred and five stock holders everyone of whom it is hoped will turn out and pass upon the acceptance of the plant personally. The elevator will be under the management of Chas. Spangler a competent and worthy man. The company owning and operating the plant is capitalized at $10,000 and the officers of the company are as follows: President, W. D. Weeeler; Vice President, C. D. Spangler; Secretary, W. H. Puls; Treasurer, Lloyd Gopen. Directors, W. D. Wheeler, C. D. Spangler, W. H. Puls, L. H. Young, Lloyd Gopen, John Spangler, and Glen Perry. It will be noted that the company is composed of the strongest and best men in the county and that it will be an unqualified success cannot be doubted for a moment.

We still have plenty of fruit jars, fruit jar caps and rings.

HOLMES & SMITH

Grant Mann of Moorehead, Ia., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. D. A. Young, the past few days. This is his first visit in twelve years to this place.

Albert Young is carrying a bad hand, caused from a scratch from a nail. While working on a barn for Robert Good, he slipped and fell from a scaffold, and in falling struck the hand against a nail, and not thinking it of much consequence, let it go for several hours, when the wound began to look very angry, and a physician was called into requisition. Albert is now off duty for a few days at least.

Leap Year Party a Great Success.

The leap year party was a great success in every way, and reflects great credit upon the young ladies who had it in charge. They certainly proved themselves royal entertainers in every particular.

The dance opened promptly at 8:30 with the grand march and lasted until after midnight. The girls received many compliments upon the excellent music, consisting of Hay's violin and cornet, and was so much appreciated by the young men of the party that they have secured this same music for their return dance. The boys have issued their invitations for the leap year return dance.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

There are, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney purifier, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles.

Write for a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

An Ideal Home.

Recently James M. Holmes, of the firm of Holmes & Smith, purchased the residence property owned by Monte Robb, and until the death of his wife, occupied by Col. J. B. Seybolt. The residence proper contains seven comfortable rooms with several closets and a "special den" for Jim. The building is modern with water in the house, furnace and bath room. Mr. Holmes is now engaged in having the same repapered throughout, and having the floor and wood work in general finished in hard pine and the flooring painted to match. While a reporter of the Journal was in Murray this week he had an opportunity of inspecting the repairs being done, and can say that Mr. and Mrs. Holmes can soon boast of being domiciled in a home that is "a beauty and should be a joy forever."

And may Mr. and Mrs. Holmes both live long to enjoy their comfortable home, as it is, in truth, an ideal one.

A. L. Baker attended the horse sale in Weeping Water Saturday.

Miss Lavina Sams spent Monday in Nebraska City.

W. B. Banning of Union was a Murray visitor Monday.

W. A. Boedecker and sister, Miss Ida, were Plattsmouth visitors Tuesday.

The Farmer's elevator is fast nearing completion and will soon be ready for use.

Thomas Nix is again back to his duties on the mail route, after a ten days vacation.

Miss Margaret Jameson was a brief visitor with home folks in Weeping Water Saturday.

Fred Schuster, one of the carpenters employed on the farmer's elevator, departed for Beatrice Tuesday, where he will commence the construction of another elevator.

Glenwood Granite Works.

The Journal calls the especial attention of its readers to the advertisement of the Glenwood Granite Works in another part of this issue. These works are among the largest of their character in the west, and every monument they have erected in Cass county, speak in tones louder than we can proclaim of their master workmanship. The Journal people have known C. P. Hale, the president of the establishment, for many years, and his record for honesty and integrity is above reproach. All work put out by the Glenwood people is warranted to be just as represented, and if it is not so, it will be made so. If any of our readers desire a stone to be placed over their dead relatives, we have no hesitancy in recommending them to the Glenwood Granite Works, at Glenwood, Iowa.

TAFT STARTS ON CAMPAIGN TOUR

DELIVERS THREE ADDRESSES IN LAST DAY AT CINCINNATI.

GIVES OPINION OF BRYAN

Speaks to National League of Republican Clubs — Bryan Rebukes President for Believing Charge Against Haskell.

Cincinnati, Sept. 23.—The real activities of the campaign have begun for William H. Taft, the Republican presidential candidate. Three political addresses were the demands upon him Tuesday, his last day in the city that was to have been the scene of his entire pre-election work. Early Wednesday he began his journey of speech-making through the west.

Not since the candidate was notified officially of his nomination has the city of Cincinnati been so thoroughly awake politically as Tuesday night, when marching clubs from Indianapolis, Columbus, Hamilton and other places in the Buckeye state lent the blaze of torch and the blare of trumpet as an escort to the candidate who was the principal feature of the rally of the National League of Republican clubs at Music Hall.

Makes a Talk to Negro Baptists.

At noon Mr. Taft addressed the delegates to the national convention of negro Baptists who had come here from Lexington, Ky., for the purpose. Previous to this he looked in upon the work of the convention of the National League of Republican clubs and at once was introduced for a speech. In these two efforts the candidate was brief. His expression of sympathy for the struggles of the negro race elicited warm applause from the Baptist ministers, who met the candidate at the Sinton hotel, and his words to the convention were warmly received.

Pays His Respects to Bryan.

It was at night, however, that Mr. Taft made his strongest effort. After reviewing before an audience, which from the first showed a decided liking for him, the record of the Republican party as one of action and future reliability, he depicted his idea of the Democratic policy of "promise," and then devoted himself to an analysis of Mr. Bryan. This was the first time Mr. Taft had paid his respects to his opponent in any extended manner, and what he said was listened to with great interest and considerable show of enthusiasm.

Proceeding the night meeting the parade was witnessed by crowds which thronged the streets. Those who spoke, besides Mr. Taft, were President John Hays Hammond of the League, Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, pastor of Metropolitan Temple, New York, and Job Hedges, an attorney of New York.

Hammond Re-Elected President.

Mr. Hammond was re-elected by acclamation as president of the Republican National League in the afternoon. A change in the constitution was adopted providing for four vice-presidents in order to recognize all sections, and the following were chosen: Harry H. Myers of Little Rock, Ark.; W. W. Hoffmeyer of Minneapolis, Minn.; Winston Churchill of New Hampshire; John Albus of St. Joseph, Mo. For treasurer, Chauncey Dewey of Chicago, the retiring secretary, was elected, the secretaryship being taken by G. Snell Smith of New York city, national organizer, who will hereafter combine the two offices.

An invitation for the next convention was received from Atlanta, Ga.

Bryan Rebukes Roosevelt.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 23.—The remarkable spectacle of a presidential candidate rebuking the chief executive of the nation for making statements deemed to be unjustified, was witnessed Tuesday when William J. Bryan in a letter to President Roosevelt defended Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, against the charge that he had unlawful connections with the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Bryan serves notice on the president that as the candidate of the Democratic party "I shall not permit any responsible member of the Republican organization to misrepresent the Democratic party in the present campaign."

The letter concludes with the statement that the Democratic party is making "an honest and honorable" fight in defense of its principles and policies, and expects and will demand honorable treatment from those who are in charge of the Republican campaign.

Democrats Looking for Money.

New York, Sept. 23.—Members of the eastern campaign committee and prominent Democrats in the east held an extended meeting at Democratic headquarters late Tuesday to talk over ways and means of securing funds to conduct the presidential fight east of the Allegheny mountains. After much discussion it was decided that the national committee in the several states should engage in the work of raising funds on their own initiative. The situation in the various states was also talked over, as well as the progress of the campaign.

Live Stock Company to Quit.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 23.—The Co-Operative Live Stock Commission Company, which opened a Kansas City office at the stockyards in September, 1906, has given up the fight here and in St. Joseph. The Kansas City and St. Joseph offices will quit business October 1.
